McCormick's Collector Car Auction

COMES TO THE PALM SPRINGS CONVENTION CENTER ON NOV. 18-20

Back in 1981, Keith McCormick had already become a successful entrepreneur in his native United Kingdom, but he longed to realize a dream to move to Palm Springs, California, and devote his time entirely to his family...and his cars. In 1985, Keith hosted his very first exotic car auction; a modest affair, by today's standards, but one that would start a tradition. Fast forward 30 years, Keith's relentless dedication to excellence and integrity has produced one of the most prestigious, respected, and successful car auctions in America. Among the 580 cars crossing the block at this November 18-20's auction is a pristine 1961 Chevrolet Corvette Roadster expected to sell in the $80,000 range. Other offerings include an extremely rare 1961 Amphicar built to go on land and water, a variety of hotrods, European classics, vintage pickup trucks, late model Ferraris, and more. The event takes place at The Palm Springs Convention Center and is open to the general public and dealers are also welcome. Prices range from just $2,000 to over $250,000. For more information visit www.classic-carauction.com.

THE MAGIC OF Peter Winch And Miss Direction

When it comes to magical experiences and mind-blowing illusions, there is no show quite like that of the Magic of Peter Winch and Miss Direction. They are absolutely the perfect form of entertainment for your upcoming holiday event.

Local Southern California Magicians Peter Winch & Miss Direction have been performing their Illusion Shows throughout the country in many venues, ranging from pet adoption events, conventions, fairs, and festivals, to clubs, theaters, and private corporate events. For over 20 years, they have provided a wide variety of effects and customized shows to fit their customer's needs. In recent years, they have been seen at movie studios such as CBS and Warner Brothers, and have been featured acts in variety shows in multiple cities from San Francisco to Las Vegas.

Both Peter Winch & Miss Direction are members of The Magic Castle, an exclusive club for magicians in Hollywood, California. What makes their act unique is not merely the vaudevillian comedy and magic sketches, or the beautiful stories told with absolutely no words, just music and magic, it's the fact that they are not a team comprised of magician and assistant. They are both full-fledged Magicians! This is an equal opportunistic team that supports each other completely. They each earned their Magician Membership to The Magic Castle separately but enjoy working together.

Themed events are never a problem for this magic duo. During the holiday season you can catch them providing shows as different festive characters. Halloween may bring out the bride of Frankenstein or werewolves, whereas Christmas shows may feature illusions set to beloved Christmas stories. There is never a dull moment and the magic experience is one you are sure never to forget.

Whether you have an intimate occasion or a major event, they are sure to have an act that would fit any need. They feature a full range of grand illusions, which can be arranged for private events, or full evening theatrical shows. With their ability to perform in just about any venue, they are skilled magicians who are not only subject to performing grand illusions; their close-up magic with cards and coins is sure to leave you just as baffled and wanting more.

With magic on the rise in casinos, commercials, and even television shows, they would be a great addition to your upcoming holiday event. Catch them before their availability disappears.

Visit them on the web at www.peterwinchandmissdirectionmagic.com or you can email Peter at peterw@peterwinchandmissdirectionmagic.com for more information. IER

TREAT YOURSELF TO THIS UNIQUE MOUNTAIN ZOO

California has some of the most diverse wildlife in North America. But you don’t have to camp out in the wilderness just to catch a glimpse of some of our state’s amazing animals. The Big Bear Alpine Zoo, founded in 1959, is the only alpine zoo of its kind in the United States. Situated at almost 7,000 feet above sea level, the Big Bear Alpine Zoo serves as a rehabilitation facility for both mountain and nearby communities.

With a nearly 80% success rate, animals are nursed back to health or weaned onto solid foods and then released back into the wild. If an animal is too injured or if it has lost its fear of humans, it cannot be released and has a home for life at Big Bear Alpine Zoo.

If you are planning a trip to Big Bear, get your wild on! A visit to the zoo is the best way to see representatives of our mountain ecosystem. Located on 2.5 acres, Big Bear Alpine Zoo brings the wild to you, housing over 100 animals, mostly native species.

The zoo is located at 43285 Goldmine Drive in Big Bear Lake, right across the street from Bear Mountain Ski and Board Resort. If you want to know more about the facility and the animals in their care, as well as schedules and special events, check out the website at www.bigbearzoo.org or like them on their facebook page. IER

THE LION IN WINTER

Riverside Community Players continues its 92nd season with The Lion in Winter by James Goldman directed by Michael Eastman.

The Lion in Winter opened on Broadway in 1966 starring Robert Preston and Rosemary Harris, who won a Tony Award for her portrayal of Eleanor of Aquitaine. The play is set during Christmas 1183 at Henry II of England's castle in Chinon, France. It opens with the arrival of Henry's wife Eleanor, whom he has had imprisoned since 1173. Henry has released her to attend a family gathering with their three sons, Richard, Geoffrey, and John to discuss who will be the successor to his throne. Eleanor and Henry are at odds as to who would be the next king. Sibling rivalry runs rampant as the brothers compete to inherit the kingdom. Adding to the royal's revelry is a little adultery and their Christmas guest, the King of France.

Show dates and times are: November 11, 12, 17, 18, 19, 25, 26, 2016 at 8pm and November 13, 20, 26, 27, 2016 at 2pm.

A CHRISTMAS CAROL

It's the most wonderful time of the year as Riverside Community Players presents the Charles Dickens' classic A Christmas Carol directed by Emerald Gonzalez.

After walking home on a cold and foggy night Ebenezer Scrooge enters his large but empty home. He is soon visited by the ghost of his business partner Jacob Marley, who has been dead for seven years. Marley warns Scrooge that he will be visited by three ghosts – the ghost of Christmas past, the ghost of Christmas present and the ghost of Christmas yet to come. What is revealed to the miserly Scrooge is his own miserable existence, his wasted opportunities, his current cruelties and perhaps his own dismal fate. Only Scrooge can choose what legacy he will leave behind.

A Christmas Carol runs from December 9, 10, 16, 17, 2016 at 7pm and December 10, 11, 17, 18, 2016 at 2pm. IER

Joseph And The Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat was written by Andrew Lloyd Webber and Tim Rice in 1967, long before their future iconic musicals were even conceived. The Biblical saga of Joseph, the boy blessed with prophetic dreams and his coat of many colors, comes to vibrant life in this delightful musical parable. Set to an engaging cornucopia of musical styles, from countrywestern and calypso to pop and rock 'n' roll, this Old Testament tale emerges as a timeless musical the whole family will enjoy. There are many special effects and surprises along with great music. Even Elvis makes an appearance!

CATS veterans featured in the production include Michael McConnell as Joseph, Carolyn Freeman Champ as The Narrator, Serena Sanders as Mrs. Potiphar and The Narrator for select nights, Adam McDonald as Pharaoh & Elvis, Steve Mangles as Jacob, with Brad Sandstrom, John Hendricks, Amber Parle, Samuel Rodriguez, Suzy Carpenter, Troy Obernolte, Timmy Brasher, Matt Moran, Cheyanna Parde, Michael Robinson, Bob Perry, George Radovich and many favorite CATS performers rounding out the large cast.

CHRISTMAS CONCERTS IN CALIMESA WILL FEATURE RECORDING ARTIST STEVE GREEN

ON DEC. 16 AND 17

Steve Green

Award-winning Christian recording artist Steve Green will be featured in two seasonal sacred concerts at Calimesa on Dec. 16 and 17. Tickets for the performances, latest in a 31-year tradition of sponsorship by Calimesa Community Concerts, will be available online and by phone beginning Nov. 1, according to concert series founder-director Dr. Bob Soderblom.

Appearing with Green and the choir in the local concerts will be pianist and musical director Dick Tunney, the recipient of numerous Dove and Emmy awards for his own Christian song-writing and recordings through the years.

Steve Green's music career was launched with his first Sparrow Records release in 1984, following two years with the group TRUTH and five years with the Gaither music organizations.

Soon he and his wife Marijean – now married for 37 years – began responding to invitations from churches all over America. Through the years with Steve Green Ministries, his music has been honored with four Grammy nominations, 18 number-one song ratings, and seven Dove awards, widely seen as Christian music's highest honor. With 35 recordings to his credit, including children's projects and Spanish-language releases, Green has sold over three million albums worldwide.

Reserved-seat tickets for the two Calimesa concerts, at 6pm on Dec.16 and 4pm on Dec. 17, are priced at $20, $15, and $10. They can be ordered online from iTickets.com or by phone at (800) 965-9324; popular credit cards are accepted. No tickets will be sold at the door.

Both concerts are at the Calimesa Seventh-day Adventist Church, 391 Myrtlewood Dr. (4th and Myrtlewood) in Calimesa. The church is chosen to host the community concerts each Christmas season partly because of its long tradition of beautiful lighting and decoration to honor the religious holiday, Dr. Soderblom said.

"Earliest ticket orders have the best choice of seating for both concerts," he advised. A dedicated telephone line also provides free recorded information and directions for the concerts at (909) 795-4960. IER

NOV. 11-27

Christmas, 1183, and Elanor of Aquitaine is arriving at a castle in Chinon, France, her husband's castle, King Henry II of England. Henry has released her from prison to attend a family gathering with their three sons, Richard, Geoffrey, and John. The main topic of discussion - who will be Henry's successor to the throne. The stakes are high, the choice hotly contested and gamesmanship abounds, even to include the King of France.

The 32nd Annual DESERT ART FESTIVAL

Featuring 100 artists displaying their original work

On November 25-27, one hundred artists will return to Downtown Palm Springs for the 32nd annual Desert Art Festival, to be held at Frances Stevens Park.

The Desert Art Festival will feature artists displaying their own original work in two and three-dimensional fine art, including paintings in acrylic, oils and watercolor, photography, etching, mixed media, sculpture in clay, glass, metal, stone and wood. Each artist will be present to meet with the public to discuss their work. All work is available for purchase.

This year's featured artist is Hans Kegler, a plein air painter. Kegler says, "My work and passion is to strive for capturing subtle colors and the region's glowing light." Much of Kegler's paintings depict scenes of southern California.

"Since the 1890's accomplished early California artists, along with the painters of today, have been inspired by these mountains and its diverse wildlife as subjects for their work. This area contains vast distinct communities ranging from fresh water aquatic habitats and coastal lagoons to oak woodlands and savannas, and from dry deserts to snowcapped peaks," he said.

Kegler's work can be found in vast collections of corporations and private individuals.

In addition to fine art, fine crafts will also be presented. Festival patrons will find blown glass, turned wood, semi-precious jewelry, pottery, stained glass, and an array of high-quality crafts.

Frances Stevens Park is located at 538 N. Palm Canyon Drive in Palm Springs, at the corner of Palm Canyon and Alejo. The hours of the event are from 10am to 4pm on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Admission and parking are free. The event is handicap accessible.

The Desert Art Festival is presented by West Coast Artists and benefits the Desert Art Center, a local non-profit organization, offering classes in fine art. For additional information visit their website at www.westcoastartists.com or call (818) 813-4478. IER

The Indio International Tamale Festival

The Indio International Tamale Festival is celebrating its 25th Anniversary this year and has established itself as one of the top food festivals in the country! Taking place December 3 & 4 in Downtown Indio, the “City of Festivals”, this long running community event offers something for the whole family. Featuring over 300 vendors, five stages of live entertainment, beer gardens, the new Art and Buzz Box Lounge, a Farmer’s Market, full carnival, parade, Kids Zone, car show, and much more!

This year’s festival kicks off Saturday with the annual City of Indio/Tamale Festival Parade. Latin pop singer and songwriter Kevin Ortiz has been named as the parade’s Grand Marshall for 2016 and will lead the parade procession along with local community leaders. The parade will also feature local high school and middle school bands, color guard, and flag teams. Dance groups, football teams, and other organized community groups are also expected to participate.

Admission into the two-day Festival is free to the public and caters to festival goers young and old. In addition to two full days of live entertainment, vendors selling everything from tamales to t-shirts, arts and crafts, and carnival rides, the festival also hosts several contests throughout the weekend that are not to be missed. The Annual Best Tamale Contest, where tamale vendors face-off for the honor of winning one of several “Best Tamale Awards”.

The public is encouraged to show their love of tamales in the Tamale Eating Contest and car show participants hope to take home one of several trophies.

New this year are the Pachuco Dress Up Contest and Soul Train Dance Contest, both open to the public.

For more information on these and other events visit their website at www.tamalefestival.net.
