Reptiles Rule At 'Reptile Super Show'

Did you know that reptiles and amphibians are some of the easiest animals to keep and care for in captivity? Experiencing and enjoying nature is a key component to the development of an environmentally conscientious and aware young adult. Being exposed to and interacting with animals can really help kids realize their own responsibility to the environment and gives them a sense of value and appreciation for nature and bringing nature into your home can be gratifying and very rewarding.

On Jan. 5-6, The Reptile Super Show is coming to the Pomona Fairplex-Los Angeles County Fairgrounds. This looks to be the largest Reptile Super Show to date. With over 500 tables packed with reptiles, amphibians and all related supplies it truly is your one stop shop. Vendors and attendees come from all over the world to experience the more than 50,000 square feet of everything needed to see, interact with and learn about reptiles and amphibians directly from reputable breeders and retailers (some from as far away as Japan).

If you are looking to get a quality captive bred pet for the family, the Reptile Super Show is a fun and exciting event. It's the perfect place to pick out your new acquisition and makes for a memorable and gratifying experience for the whole family.

Go online to www.ReptileSuperShow.com or check out their Facebook page at www.facebook.com/ReptileSuperShow for the latest info and pictures about what is happening at this year's shows.

Future Reptile Super Shows include:

- July 6-7, 2013: Concourse/Civic Center - San Diego
- August 10-11, 2013: Pomona Fairplex - Los Angeles
- November 2-3, 2013: Concourse/Civic Center - San Diego LIER

The Riverside Festival of Lights brightens downtown Riverside again as it marks 20 years of celebrating the holiday season. To celebrate its platinum anniversary, the 2012 Festival of Lights will feature more pomp and circumstance than usual.

The 20th Annual Riverside Festival of Lights brightens downtown Riverside with more than three and a half million twinkling lights. The Festival continues through Jan. 5. As the largest holiday celebration in the region, the Festival has become a tradition for families, visitors and groups. Enjoy the lights adorning buildings along Main Street, stand under a 32-foot tree and sing along to nightly live entertainment. In addition, you can take to the ice on the outdoor ice skating rink on Main Street between University and Mission Inn Avenues.

While strolling around downtown, festival-goers can grab a cup of hot cocoa and warm sugared donuts, purchase a one-of-a-kind present or dine at a unique restaurant. Added to the line-up this year will be the Artisans Collective, an innovative arts market offering original art from local vendors, performance art and free public arts workshops on Main Street every Thursday through Sunday.

Cable Air Show Takes Flight In Upland In January

The Cable Air Show is in its final planning stages for a great show in January. For the second year, 18-year-old Sam Mason will be one of the aerobatic pilots flying a 450hp Stearman biplane in the morning show and a snappy Pitts biplane in the afternoon show.

Sam soloed a glider at the age of 14, and received his glider pilots license at age 16 (the youngest age possible). He soloed 10 powered airplanes on his 16th birthday (the youngest age possible for powered planes) and on his 17th birthday, took his private pilot airplane check ride in the Stearman he will be flying in the Cable Air Show. Sam was still 17 when he performed at the Cable Air Show last year.

Jacque Warda (Jacque B) will join the show for the first time. Jacque quit her white collar profession and became the first female pilot to enter this business at the age of 50. With over 2,500 flight hours and more than 100 coast-to-coast air show performances, she broke even more stringent cultural boundaries when she became the first female solo pilot to perform at the 2010 Al Ain Aerobatic Show in the United Arab Emirates.

The 38th Annual Cable Air Show and Car Show opens its gates at 8am on January 12 and 13. Parking is free. Tickets are $7 for adults, $5 for kids 5-12, with children under 5 free.

For more information, go online to www.cableairport.com/airfair/

DragonMarsh Helps You Survive The Holidays

This unique downtown store gives seasonal gifts a creative twist

DragonMarsh opened in downtown Riverside in January of 1991. They have survived over 20 Holiday Seasons! Open everyday from 11am to 9pm this family owned business works hard to stay jolly, providing classes and help for harried shoppers throughout December.

Through the years they have found many hints and tricks for making it though the season, the best being they are closed the first week of January to sleep.

Every year DragonMarsh works to make the world a better place through donations to charities through prizes, selling special items or raffles. This year they are raffling two large stuffed riding animals, a Dragon and Unicorn, for $1 per ticket to benefit the Mary S. Roberts Pet Adoption Center. As always, there will be fresh holly and mistletoe for sale for charity as well.

DragonMarsh features historical and natural products including herbs, spices, aromatherapy oils and more than 50 teas. They also supply historical groups with costumes, feastwear, and giftware. If you like pirates, dragons, teas or just a nice scented candle, this is the place to be!

DragonMarsh is located at 3643 University Ave. in Riverside. For more information, go online to www.dragonmarsh.com.

Top 10 ways DragonMarshies Survive The Holidays:

1. Use check lists so you don't forget anything. Search for one on the web or make your own with a spare notebook. Try <http://printables.yourway.net/holiday-printables/>
2. Don't go it alone! Allocate or outsource many projects - Children can help send emails/cards. Make food ahead of time and freeze. Cheat with pre-made food-buy a pumpkin cake and make the glaze yourself! Hire a teen or maid service to clean. Remember, everyone remembers YOU, not the toilet.
3. Grandma says "clean before you decorate." No use putting pretty lights up in cobwebs! It also makes spring cleaning easier.
4. Start decorating early in small doses. One corner decorated and finished will keep your spirits up while you work.
5. Find help with the big chores and decorating. Make a party of it - Tree Trimming or Light Decorating! Serve Pumpkin Chai Tea and Color Changing Cocoa (and order Pizzal!)
6. Break larger projects into small 15 min. projects so you won't be afraid to start them. Instead of cleaning the whole kitchen, clean the sink and counters. If you feel up to more, clean the floor!
7. Find Holiday Music YOU like! Tired of "jingle bells" already? There are MANY holiday albums now, from blues to jazz, to heavy metal and country. Even silly parodies or instrumentals. Trade CD's with your friends or take the CD's you hate and turn them into tree decorations!
8. Make shopping easier by using personal shoppers at family owned local businesses (like DragonMarsh!) Take advantage of custom gift baskets and gift wrapping. Gift Certificates are always the right color and size!
9. Stre-e-etch your gift giving budget by learning to make your gifts! Relax and get your hands dirty dipping chocolates or making scented lotion/soap at the Make-It-Take-It classes every weekend at DragonMarsh. $10.00 a class or 3/$25.00 Schedule: www.classesatdragonmarsh.com/instoreclasses
10. Take time for yourself! Grab a handful of Peppermint Twist Bathing Crystals and soak in the tub! Remember to schedule some time in January for just relaxing (make someone else take down the tree)!

Dickens Festival: Journey To Another Era

Sign Ups for Vendors and Entertainers Still Available

The annual Riverside Dickens Festival returns this February, with the main days on Feb. 2 and 3, at the Riverside Municipal Auditorium and other downtown Riverside venues. Now in its 20th year, the literary festival emphasizes the 19th century works of authors of England and America, with Charles Dickens being the central figure. Through drama, art, music, dance and cultural events, the festival portrays the life and times of another era. The featured book of the year is Charles Dickens's "Hard Times."

As of this printing, the program was still in the works, but already scheduled are vendors in the "London Marketplace," Mr. Fezziwig's Ball, Queen's Tea, Crummles Theater, Oliver's Alley (children activities), street entertainers, costumed characters and period food.

Organizations, vendors, entertainers and volunteers may inquire and sign up for participation in the February festival on the web site at www.dickensfest.com.

In 1992, Carolyn Grant, Joan Patton and The Friends of the Library Board of Directors began to explore the creation of a festival for Riverside. A five-person steering committee was formed and the Riverside Dickens Festival was born in September 1993.

Their objective was to enhance a sense of community among citizens of Riverside County, the Inland Empire, and Southern California by creating a series of literary events that bring people together from all segments of society, and to provide family-oriented entertainment such as drama, musical performances, living history workshops, lectures, classroom study, museum and library exhibits and street fair.

Over the years, The Riverside Dickens Festival has grown and was voted Press Enterprise's Readers' Choice Best Festival for 2011 and 2012.

The Riverside Dickens Festival continues its original mission of education through entertainment at an affordable cost, most events being free. IER

Fox Performing Arts Center Begins 2013 Season With Tower Of Power

The Fox Performing Arts Center stages its first show of 2013 with the 40th anniversary concert tour of the kings of funk, Tower Of Power on Saturday, Jan. 5, 2013 at 8pm.

With 43 years of recording and touring experience behind them, Tower of Power has a 40th anniversary cd/dvd box set and a new album, The Great American Soulbook, which features covers of soul classics with guest singers Joss Stone, Sir Tom Jones, Huey Lewis and Sam Moore.

The group still garners rave reviews, and leaves audiences dancing in their seats in the arenas, theatres, and outdoor venues they play year round. Melding soul, jazz, funk, and rock in a way no group ever has, the ten-piece outfit is, according to the Hollywood Reporter, "tighter than a clenched fist."

The late great James Brown was quoted in Heeb Magazine about Tower of Power as saying,

"There's no black group that plays my stuff as good as them."

Well known in the '70s for tunes such as "What is Hip?" and "You're Still a Young Man," Tower of Power toured with Santana, Sly Stone and Credence Clearwater Revival, eventually creating traffic jams when they headlined their own shows. They performed on records with Elton John, Smokey Robinson, Rod Stewart, Aerosmith, and Dionne Warwick, influencing a generation of musicians (including Sting, who has told Emilio Castillo, founder of the group, that he once had a "Tower of Power clone band" before he formed The Police). In the 1980s, they backed Huey Lewis and the News, Heart, Eurythmics, and Little Feat, just to name a few.

Tower of Power, after 40 years, is experiencing more popularity than ever before as they tour year round packing venues in the United States, the Pacific Rim, and all over Europe. IER

Oh Come All Ye Faithful...

A joyous Christmas celebration concert by the King's Brass

The traditional spectacular annual Christmas Candlelight Festival of Music and Lights will again be held this year at the Calimesa SDA Church, at 4th and Myrtlewood, in Calimesa. There will be three concerts again this year by popular demand!

Concerts will be Friday, Dec. 21 at 6pm and Saturday, Dec. 22 at 4pm and 6pm (a change in times from previous years).

This year the Christmas concerts will feature the amazing Tim Zimmerman and the King's Brass plus guest artist Miclei LaiPang, a 17-year-old violin virtuoso. All concerts are ticketed and tickets must be purchased in advance, on sale now.

The King's Brass formed over two decades ago and is comprised of outstanding professional musicians from around the country whose passion is to play the instruments they love to praise and exalt God. The brass consists of three trumpets, three trombones, a tuba, percussion and keyboards. Each player is a soloist in their own right.

They are currently featured on twelve recordings. Their latest CD is on the Summit Record Label and is entitled Classic Hymns, featuring the brass and organist Diane Bish, Rebecca Kleintop Owens and Samuel Metzger with the Ruffatti pipe organ of the Coral Ridge Presbyterian Church of Fort Lauderdale, FL.

Music critics applaud their concerts as "superb in every way," "truly, an unforgettable experience!" At the present time they perform over 100 concerts each season.

They are uniquely known to use all corners of the concert hall to lift hearts and spirits in praise.

This year, prior to their three performances in Calimesa, they will have done Christmas celebration concerts in Branson, MO in a 2500 plus seat auditorium, at Mount Herman Christian Conference Center, plus churches in Los Gatos, Redwood City, Chico, Roseville, and multiple cities in Florida.

All concerts will begin with the triumphant, glorious, loved David Wilcox's arrangement of "Oh Come All Ye Faithful" for organ and brass and is itself a reason to attend a concert. They continue with a variety of traditional and contemporary music of the Christmas season.

Attendees for the concerts are invited to a time of fellowship and refreshments in the church's fellowship hall as part of the celebration of Christmas. It will occur after each concert.

Tickets are $15 for front reserved seating (main floor), $12 for open seating (main floor) and $10 for open balcony seating. Ticket venues include Loma Linda ABC Christian Book Store and Redlands Berean Christian Book Store. Tickets can also be obtained by sending your specific concert request, remittance and stamped self-addressed envelope to Christmas Concerts, PO BOX 647, Calimesa, CA 92320. The concerts are presented by Calimesa Community Concert Series, now in its 28th season.

A Hilarious Radio Twist to 'A Christmas Carol' By Performance Riverside

Performance Riverside will get in the holiday spirit this year with the West Coast Premiere of A Christmas Carol: On the Air. The show runs the last weekend before Christmas, Dec. 21-23, at the Landis Performing Arts Center on the campus of Riverside City College.

Charles Dickens' beloved holiday classic is hilariously retold in the style of a classic 1940s radio show, complete with live sound effects, backstage antics, and a team of lovely, close harmony singing "Carollettes." This delightful show is fresh, surprising, and priced low to give families the opportunity to come together.

"We wanted to do something special this year and complete the near impossible feat of presenting a familiar favorite in a new and charming way. This adaptation of the classic gives you the plot and characters that have stood the test of time, and introduces you to a modern day cast of radio actors that entertain in their own way. Its unique, it's moving and it's a lot of fun," says Producing Artistic Director Matt Neves.

The production will be directed by Casey Garritano, who has both acted and choreographed at Performance Riverside.

Following an entertaining production of The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee, A Christmas Carol: On the Air performs Dec. 21st through Dec. 23rd, Friday and Saturday nights at 8pm and Saturday and Sunday afternoons at 2pm. It is part of the

Chaffey Holiday Concert Covers Many Times And Faiths

On Saturday, December 8th, the choirs of Chaffey College will give their winter concert, Faith, Hope, & Love. Fifty-voiced Concert Choir, along with thirteen-voiced Concert Ensemble Singers, will sing selections by many noted composers under the direction of Melanie Hagen-Ching.

Throughout the semester, choristers from all walks of life have come together three days a week to learn more about music, singing, and to prepare for this concert. Baritone Samuel Jacobo Jr. calls his experience singing at Chaffey "an opportunity to come together and sing as one heart." He goes on to say, "Having a distinct part and that being a part of something larger is a beautiful thing."

Pieces on the concert were chosen for the various skills they require of the singers. They represent diverse musical styles, spanning almost 600 years, and will be sung in English, Swahili, Latin, German, and Hebrew. The theme Faith, Hope, & Love was chosen in order to help illustrate the universality of music. Even though the pieces come from many parts of the world and very different times in history, they share common ideas, and those messages are as relevant as they have ever been.

Also Janet Trenier describes the program by saying, "Our songs are inspiring and spiritually introspective, no matter what your faith is."

Jacobo names "Gaude Virgo, Mater Christi" by Franco-Flemish composer Josquin des Prez (c. 1450-1521) as his favorite piece on the concert. "I love how all the parts blend into each other. The complexity of the piece makes it unique and the overall sound is beautiful," he explains. Trenier's preference, "Hear My Prayer" by the late American composer Moses Hogan (1957-2003), is about five centuries more recent.

With works by Dowland, Praetorius, Telemann, Parker,

Ticheli, and several others on the program, audience members may discover their own favorite piece.

The concert will be held at 7:30pm in the Chaffey College Theatre on the Rancho Cucamonga campus. General admission tickets are $10. Reach the box office at (909) 652-6067.

Celtic Woman

Celebrates A Christmas Celebration at Fantasy Springs

Bringing with them a special Christmas celebration, Celtic Woman returns to the stage in time for the holiday season. The enchanting Irish music sensation will perform their beloved Christmas songs at Fantasy Springs Resort Casino on Saturday, Dec. 15.

Parting from their critically-acclaimed, majestic tour productions, A Christmas Celebration – The Symphony Tour will organically showcase the pure angelic voices of Celtic Woman in a reverent yet dynamic live music experience accompanied by the stirring instrumentals of a full symphony orchestra.

Celtic Woman's hit PBS TV special and companion multi-platinum-selling (over 1 million and climbing) CD and DVD A Christmas Celebration continues to be a family favorite to celebrate the holidays and a must-have gift item. With this special tour during the holiday season, fans have another stocking-stuffer to consider, tickets to the dazzling live concert experience of Celtic Woman.

Since Celtic Woman's March 2005 debut, this unique all-female ensemble continues to have mainstream success without the aid of traditional sales drivers such as radio or video airplay. No other group of this particular adult contemporary genre can claim over 6 million CDs/DVDs sold worldwide, two Top 10 album debuts on the Billboard Top 200, 3 Gold and Platinum albums, 4 Top 5 releases on the Billboard Top Video chart and over 1.5 million concert tickets sold. They have succeeded by connecting directly to fans via their Public Television specials, their frequent touring and then having those fans share the experience with friends and loved ones.

Tickets for the 8pm Celtic Woman performance are $89, $69, $49 at the Fantasy Springs Box Office, via telephone (800) 827-2946 or online at www.FantasySpringsResort.com. IER

The Sweet Sounds Of Motown Will Be Heard At Fantasy Springs Resort Casino

Two iconic bands that have stood the test of time will display their talents on stage at the Fantasy Springs Special Events Center. On Saturday, Jan. 19 the Temptations and the Four Tops will prove why they have become cultural heroes to their millions of fans.

For more than forty years, The Temptations have prospered, propelling popular music with a series of smash hits and sold-out performances throughout the world.

The history of The Temptations is the history of contemporary American pop. An essential component of the original Motown machine, that amazing engine invented by Berry Gordy, The Temps began their musical life in Detroit in the early sixties. It wasn't until 1964 however that the Smokey Robinson written-and-produced "The Way You Do the things You Do" turned the guys into stars.

An avalanche of hits followed, many of which... "My Girl," for instance... attained immortality. "It's Growing," "Since I Lost My Baby," "Get Ready," "Ain't Too Proud to Beg,"

"Beauty Is only Skin Deep," "I Wish It Would Rain"...the hits kept coming.

The classic lineup was Otis Williams, Melvin Franklin, Paul Williams, Eddie Kendricks and David Ruffin. Beyond the fabulous singing, The Temps became known for smooth stepping and flawless presentations. The Temptations Walk became a staple of American style. Flair, flash and class.

Another group that helped define the Motown sound of the 1960's was the quartet known as the Four Tops. They have been labeled as "The Immortals" by Rolling Stone Magazine. The Four Tops are the story of four powerful voices and four powerful friendships. The founding members of the Four Tops, Levi Stubbs, Abdul "Duke" Fakir, Renaldo "Obie" Benson and Lawrence Payton, performed together for more than four decades, building their harmonies, chart-topping songs and success on the foundation of a friendship that began as teenagers.

It was in 1954, at a high school party in Detroit, when the group was urged by partygoers to provide some impromptu entertainment. The synergy was obvious, immediate and strong. The quartet decided to start performing and called themselves The Four Aims (Aiming for the Top). Their popularity grew as they performed at small clubs all over Detroit honing their act while singing jazz and standards. Gaining popularity for their pure harmonies and polished performances.

Over the years their repertoire has included doo-wop, jazz, soul music, R&B, disco, adult contemporary, hard rock and show tunes. They turned out dozens of chart topping hits including, "Baby I Need Your Loving," "I Can't Help Myself (Sugar Pie Honey Bunch)," "It's the Same Old Song" and "Ain't No Woman Like the One I Got."

Tickets for the 8pm Temptations and Four Tops performance are $59, $49, $29 at the Fantasy Springs Box Office, via telephone (800) 827-2946 or online at www.FantasySpringsResort.com. IER
