Hot Rod Magazine Celebrates 65 Years With A Once-In-A-Lifetime Homecoming Show

EVENT: MARCH 23-24

Since 1948, Hot Rod Magazine, founded by the legendary Robert Petersen, has elevated the fastest, coolest, most heart-racing performance vehicles to star status on its cover and in feature stories on inside pages. On Saturday and Sunday, March 23 and 24, at the Fairplex in Pomona, Hot Rod will celebrate its 65th anniversary by bringing those historic pages to life at Hot Rod Homecoming Car Show presented by Chevrolet Performance.

This once-in-a-lifetime gathering of cars featured on the cover and inside the magazine over the years is open to the public and promises to be a car show unlike any other. In addition, there will be acres of space at the show devoted to a performance marketplace and an outdoor area reserved for enthusiasts who will bring their customized, restored, and modified performance vehicles to share in this spectacular weekend.

Hundreds of historically significant performance machines including cars, trucks, and even boats and bikes will be on display inside several buildings at the Fairplex. These vehicles will bring to life a stunning visual chronicle of the 65 years that Hot Rod has covered the fastest machines of their era along with one-off modifieds, nostalgic customs, and the most beautifully restored cars the world has to offer.

David Freiburger, Editor-in-Chief of Hot Rod, said: "The Hot Rod Homecoming is all about bringing those 65 years of feature cars together for one big party. The historic site is the location of the very first NRHA drag race and the home of the NHRA Winternationals. It's also the current location of the Wally Parks NHRA Motorsports Museum, The LA Roadsters' show, and the Grand National Roadster Show. Road races were held there, in the '50's and '60's, and the parking lots around the fairgrounds

The Pomona Quilt, Craft and Sewing Festival at the Fairplex

Over 140 quality booths will make this the biggest and best Quilt, Craft and Sewing Festival to ever happen in Pomona. The show will feature more vendors, classes and great make and take workshops for everyone's creative inspirations.

The Pomona Quilt, Craft and Sewing Festival will occur March 7 - 9 at the Fairplex located at Fairplex Dr. exit off of the I-10 freeway. Parking is in Gate 17, with plenty of easy and close to the building parking and trams running to shuttle attendees back and forth. Admission is free.

The Festival features a wide variety of supplies, notions, patterns and techniques in the areas of quilting, sewing, needle-arts, stenciling, embossing, crystals, fabric crafts and more. Many booths will feature new cutting edge products that are brand new to the market.

Every morning at 9:45am, prior to the doors opening, $500 cash is given away.

Also given away at the show will be a Floriani complete collection embroidery suite valued at $2,200. Enter your ticket stub to win free door prize drawings that occur every hour. The Grand prize Accuquilt winner will be announced at 3pm on Saturday of the show. Show co-sponsor Moore's Sewing will also give away a free sewing machine, making this a very exciting show for those with a creative flair.

The Quilt, Craft and Sewing Festival also offers a selection of "make-it served as the location for the photo shoots of many Hot Rod magazines of the same era.”

Jeff Dahlin, Publisher of Hot Rod, continued: “A gathering of history’s greatest performance cars, as pictured in Hot Rod Magazine, has never happened before and may not again for quite a while. This once-in-a-generation extravaganza is truly going to be a sight to behold, and we’re extremely excited about it.”

All of the top celebrity car builders, customizers, and fabricators who have had their machines featured over the years in Hot Rod are being invited, and many will be available for autographs. Other featured areas at the Hot Rod Homecoming will be a Show Car Alley, a Performance Midway and a Hot Rod Pin-up Contest.

Register your custom car to be a part of Hot Rod Magazine’s anniversary event. Pre-registration is available at www.HotRodHomecoming.com for $50 through Friday, March 15. Registration includes weekend admission for the vehicle, driver, one passenger and any children 15 and under riding in your vehicle. Register on-site at Fairplex for $75 Friday, March 22 from 9am to 6pm.

Advance discount tickets are available online at www.HotRodHomecoming.com. Tickets may also be purchased the day of show at the Fairplex in Pomona. Advance adult tickets are $18, at the gate $20, and children’s tickets (6-12 years) are $5. IBR

City of Fontana's Easter Celebrations

The City of Fontana Community Services Department will host THREE Easter events throughout the City. The festivities will take place on Saturday, March 30, and will be hosted by the Don Day Neighborhood Center (Southridge Park), Cypress Neighborhood Center (Seville Park), and Jessie Turner Health & Fitness Community Center (Fontana Park).

The Spring Time Eggs-travaganza held at Don Day Neighborhood Center, 14501 Live Oak Avenue, will begin with a free Pancake Breakfast, hosted by The Great Commission Baptist Church, from 8am to 9:30am. After a scrumptious breakfast, families will be able to enjoy games, arts and crafts, face painting, balloon sculptures, jumpers, pictures with the Easter Bunny and fill their Easter baskets with eggs outside at Southridge Park from 10am to 1pm.

A Mother Goose Easter Eggsperience hosted by Cypress Neighborhood Center with City Link will take place from 10am to 12pm at Seville Park located at 16601 Seville Avenue. The event will be a fun filled day with Mother Goose characters, entertainment, arts and crafts, face painting, scavenger hunt maze, pictures with the Easter Bunny and an Easter Egg Hunt.

The Jessie Turner Health & Fitness Community Center with Water of Life Summit Church will host an Easter event full of Egg-Citement and an Open House at Fontana Park, 15556 Summit Avenue, from 10am to 1pm. The event will kick off at 10am with Easter Egg Hunts for ages three to five, six to eight and nine to twelve years old including a special Easter Egg with a prize ticket to be redeemed for a goody basket of treats. After the egg hunt families will enjoy carnival themed games along with jump houses, arts and crafts, face painting, balloon animals, raffles, and a visit from the Easter Bunny with the option to have their picture taken by Smiles Are Contagious for a nominal fee. In addition to all the Easter Egg-Citement, the Jessie Turner Health & Fitness Community Center will host an open house event presenting programming opportunities offered at the center along with the class instructors and demonstrations. IER

More Than 100 Performers At The Irish Fair and Celtic Music Festival

ig on down to The 11th Annual Los Angeles County Irish Fair and Celtic Music Festival at Fairplex on the Pomona Fairgrounds, 1101 West McKinley Ave., in Pomona, on Saturday and Sunday, March 9 and 10, from 10am to 6 pm each day. Heidi Hamilton and Frank Kramer, the popular morning show hosts of The Heidi & Frank Show on 95.5 KLOS-FM will make a special appearance, along with their Cool Patrol at the fair from Noon to 2pm on Saturday, March 9. Besides greeting their legions of fans, the famous radio duo is expected to participate in a variety of activities as part of their official duties.

William Lomas, President of Pageantry Productions and Producer of the event, said: "This year's event will feature nine musical stages of Irish entertainment and special attractions of 60 shows daily, including over 100 performers, among them: Grammy Award-nominated violinist Lisa Haley, an Ancient Irish Village, Shamrock Children's Amusement Rides, Sheepherding Demonstrations, Irish Fountains, Face Painting and Balloons, an Irish Beer Micro Brewery Taste Testing and Rusty O'Flattery, The World's Tallest Leprechaun. And, of course, there will be plenty of Irish Food and Fine Dining at the Irish Fair and Celtic Music Festival, along with Irish Import Shops, an Irish Tavern and a Market Place. Finbar Hill, the Honorary Consul General of Ireland in Los Angeles, will attend the fair on March 9."

Other performers at the fair include: The Mulligans, Wrath of McGrath, Ken O'Malley & The Twilight Lords, Cripple Creek Cloggers, 42nd Highlanders Regiment Pipes & Drums, Storyteller Tru Thomas, Cleary's School of Irish Dance, Brick Top Beggars, Kris Colt & the Black Rose Band, Royal Scottish Dancers, Christopher Yates, Emerald Society Pipe Band, The Knockabouts, The Lacemakers,

Theater & The Arts

CATS Presents Robin Field In 'Mark Twain And The Shakespeare Mystery'

Who really wrote Shakespeare's plays and poems? That's the mystery! CATS, The Community Arts Theater Society of Big Bear Valley, will present the world premiere production of Mark Twain And The Shakespeare Mystery, written by and starring Robin Field, for a limited run at The CATS Warehouse Theater, April 5-14.

Field, who has portrayed Twain on stage before, has adapted Twain's 1909 book Is Shakespeare Dead? into an original one-man, one act show asking the question that Twain posed: Who really wrote Shakespeare's plays and poems? Mark Twain was one of the first celebrities to doubt that it was the Stratford actor. Over a hundred years later, evidence is mounting that Twain was right.

Mark Twain And The Shakespeare Mystery opens at the CATS Warehouse Theater, and will play seven performances on April 5, 6, 10, 12, 13 at 7:30pm and on April 7 and 14 at 2:30pm.

A SHAKESPEARE MYSTERY Robin Field as Mark Twain in "Mark Twain and the Shakespeare Mystery."

Open seating is limited and advance ticket purchase is suggested. General Admission is $15. For ticket information call (909) 585-4757 or check the CATS website at www.bigbeartheater.org or the CATS Facebook page. The CATS Warehouse Theater is located at 1117 W. Big Bear Blvd. in Big Bear City, one block East of Division, next to The Broadway Cafe.

Field, who has recorded many of Twain's classic works as audio books, says: "Playing Twain on stage is a joy, especially when he gets on such an angry, funny rant, as he does in this work. Writing his autobiography near the end of his life, Twain devoted several chapters to this issue. Then he decided to publish them as a separate book. This information has never been presented on stage before. The other 'celebrities' who have shared Twain's doubts include Charles Dickens, Walt Whitman, Ralph Waldo Emerson, Henry James, psychologist Sigmund Freud, actors Charlie Chaplin, Orson Welles, John Gielgud and Derek Jacobi."

But, as Field says, "Twain knew none of this new evidence. So my script presents only what Twain wrote in 1909."

The one-act play, suitable for the whole family, runs about ninety minutes, and is guaranteed to make you laugh and leave you wondering: Was Twain right? You decide. IBR

Fox Performing Arts Center Presents Two Additions To Its Spring Season Of Shows

Quarterflash and Creedence Clearwater Revisited will perform

NEW SHOWS AT THE FOX Quarterflash is a new addition to the Fox Performing Arts Center Spring Season.

The Fox Performing Arts Center in Riverside announced two new shows to its exciting Spring season of events ... Creedence Clearwater Revisited on Friday, April 26 at 8pm (doors open at 7pm) and Quarterflash (who will be opening for the Pat Benatar and Neil Giraldo show) on March 7.

CREEDENCE CLEARWATER REVISITED

Stu Cook and Doug "Cosmo" may not have intended it, but their band Creedence Clearwater Revisited has taken on a startling life of its own. The Rock and Roll Hall of Fame rhythm section (bass and drums respectively) from the legendary group Creedence Clearwater Revival launched the Creedence Clearwater Revisited project in 1995 to once again perform live Creedence Clearwater Revival hits touchstones of a generation. Though the pair initially only planned to play private parties, Creedence Clearwater Revisited now performs up to 100 shows a year and released the album Recollection.

"We never really had any intention of playing for the public," says Stu. "But a friend wanted to promote a couple of concerts. We got talked into it, but didn't know how it would go over."

Since then, the reaction to Creedence Clearwater Revisited's concerts has been astounding, and driven in part by a generation of kids who, as Cosmo says, "Weren't even born when the music came out." Likewise, the release of a doublelive CD on Universal's Hip-O Records label, which features passionate, authoritative versions of 22 classic hits was the result of public demand.

"It was generated by requests of the people who came to the shows," Stu acknowledges. "Over and over they would ask, 'do you guys have a CD?'"

Creedence Clearwater Revisited's Recollection has proven so popular that in 2008 the RIAA certified it Platinum.

Having now toured North America, South America, Central America, New Zealand, Australia, Europe and Asia, knocking out audiences with astounding concerts jam packed with songs that are still a staple of radio and movie soundtracks, Creedence Clearwater Revisited has come a long way.

As fans who have experienced a Creedence Clearwater Revisited concert can attest, Stu and Cosmo found the right players. Lead singer/rhythm guitar player John Tristao, a powerful tenor with the energy to power songs, initially rose to prominence as lead singer for the band People when their hit "I Love You" bulleted into the top ten. The newest touring member of Creedence Clearwater Revisited is lead guitarist Kurt Griffey. As a guitarist, song writer, producer and performer, Griffey has recorded and toured with musicians including members of the Eagles, Foreigner, the Moody Blues, Wings, Lynyrd Skynyrd, Santana, and Journey. Talented multi instrumentalist Steve Gunner rounds out the group.

QUARTERFLASH

Quarterflash will perform with Pat Benatar and Neil Giraldo on March 8 at the Fox Performing Arts Center. Quarterflash formed in 1980 in Portland, Oregon. They signed to Geffen Records and released their self-titled debut album Quarterflash in 1981. It reached #8 on Billboard's Top LPs & Tapes list, and sold over a million copies, earning RIAA gold certification on February 5, 1982, and platinum status on June 29, 1982. The album contained the new version of "Harden My Heart," which became their biggest single, reaching #3 on the Billboard Hot 100 (and the Top 20 in France). Their follow-up single off the album, "Find Another Fool," reached #16. A one-hour Portland television special, Quarterflash In Concert, was broadcast on KOIN on October 22, 1981, and simulcast on KGON. This concert was taped at the Paramount Theatre on October 15, 1981.

Quarterflash released their second album, Take Another Picture, in 1983. It reached #34 in Billboard, and scored the single "Take Me to Heart," which reached #14. The group released their final album, Back Into Blue, in 1985. LER

MainStreet Theatre Company Ends Season With Musical Version Of 'The Phantom Tollbooth'

Running March 30 through April 14, The Phantom Tollbooth run concludes with the Spring Benefit Event

MainStreet Theatre Company will end its 7th season with an adaptation of Norton Juster's beloved children's classic, The Phantom Tollbooth. MainStreet has gathered a multi-talented team of Los Angeles artists, led by director Jessica Kubzansky, to bring this riveting story deliciously to life.

The Phantom Tollbooth opens March 30 and runs through April 14 with performances Saturdays at 1pm and 4pm and Sundays at 1pm (no performance March 31). Tickets are priced at $16 for General Admission, $14 for Seniors over 65 and Youth up to age 12. The matinee on April 7 will be interpreted in American Sign Language. The Playhouse also runs special weekday matinees for school children, and study guides for teachers and parents are accessible on the Lewis Family Playhouse website.

Often compared to Alice In Wonderland because of its wonderful wordplay and sense of playfulness, the novel has been a children's favorite since 1962. This musical version captures all the fantasy and delight of the original and brings it vividly to life! When a tollbooth mysteriously appears in Milo's room, he follows the directions and drives through, only because he's bored and has nothing better to do. But on the other side, things are very different! He gets stuck in the Doldrums, befriends a ticking watchdog named Tock, meets the feuding kings of Dictionopolis and Digitopolis, and goes on a quest to rescue the princesses Rhyme and Reason in order to restore harmony to the land. Along the way, Milo defeats his demons, and discovers that everything we learn has a purpose and whatever we do affects everything and everyone. When he returns home, he realizes there is never a reason to be bored in a world full of so many things to discover.

The adaptation's book is by novelist Norton and Broadway veteran Sheldon Harnick, with lyrics by Mr. Harnick, and music by Arnold Black. In addition to Ms. Kubzansky, Main-

Street's creative team includes Scenic Designer Francois-Pierre Couture, Lighting Designer Jaymi Lee Smith, Costume Designer Tina Haatainen-Jones, and Sound Design by John Zalewski. Recent British transplant Sarah Gorman will provide choreography fit for Lethargians and Word Sellers alike, and the show's three-piece band will be led by Musical Director Janice Rodgers Wainwright.

Young Milo is played by MainStreet newcomer Doug Harvey, a graduate of NYU's Tisch School, and a relative new arrival to Los Angeles. His alarm-clock-dog best friend, Tock, will be portrayed by MainStreet favorite Amanda Pajer, who was last seen in their Ovation nominated production of A Wrinkle in Time. The rest of the seven-member cast will play a multitude of roles to bring the various "Lands beyond" to vivid life. NY and LA stage veterans Gregory North (Center Theatre Group, Reprise, Hollywood Bowl, Broadway and National Tours) and Tim Cummings (Broadway, Off Broadway, South Coast Rep, Theatre @Boston Court) will play the warring kings of Digitopolis and Dictionopolis. Jane Noseworthy (last seen at MainStreet in Anne of Green Gables) and Sammi Smith (a company member of L.A.'s Coeurage Theatre Company) will play the princesses Rhyme and Reason, and Amir Levi will be the "Whether Man," among others.

Members of the MainStreet Club will have the opportunity to participate in special activities before and during the show's run. The MainStreet Club is a membership club for kids and their families who want to have more interaction and "behind the scenes" experiences with MainStreet. Members of the club ($20 a year for one adult and one child) receive a button and membership card, have access to special events related to each show, and learn the "secret handshake." Club memberships are for sale at the Box Office, and kids and families can join at any time.

Members of the audience at the official press opening (March 30) may purchase tickets to the exclusive opening night party ($20 for ticket and party) to meet the cast and creative team in a more intimate setting, which includes refreshments. Tickets to the party and the performances are available at the Lewis Family Playhouse Box Office or on-line at www.lewisfamilyplayhouse.com.

SPRING BENEFIT

The final weekend of the run will also include MainStreet's Spring benefit – an evening of stories and songs performed by MainStreet artists and surprise special guests on The Phantom Tollbooth set. MainStreet's exciting 13/14 season will be announced the night of the benefit. Tickets to the April 13 event are $35 and include a post-show champagne and dessert reception. All proceeds go directly to support MainStreet Theatre Company productions.

An intimate, 536-seat venue, the Lewis Family Playhouse is the crown jewel of the three-acre, 89,000-square foot Victoria Gardens Cultural Center. The complex is located off the I-15 at Foothill Boulevard, as a major anchor of Victoria Gardens. The Box Office is open Monday through Friday from noon to 6pm and Saturdays from 10am to 6pm, with free parking available.

Agatha Christie's Go Back for Murder at Riverside Community Players

Carla has just learned that her father was murdered and her mother convicted of the crime when she was five-years-old. Carla was told her parents died in an accident and she was shipped off to relatives in the United States. Her mother, dying in prison, sent her a letter, to be given to Carla when she turned 21, in which her mother proclaimed her innocence. Now Carla has returned to England, determined to prove her mother's innocence. With the help of Justin, her young lawyer, she manages to persuade all those involved to return to the scene of the crime to reenact the last day of her father's life. Everyone else believes her mother to be guilty, so is Carla on a fool's errand or will she vindicate her mother?

This is the story which unfolds in Agatha Christie's Go Back for Murder, currently in rehearsal at the Riverside Community Players. The Mistress of Suspense is in top form in this play, set in the years 1963 and 1947. The play is also an interesting challenge for the actors, many of whom play the same characters in two different periods of their lives. The play is being directed by Phil Holmer, who has previously directed several of Christie's plays at RCP.

Go Back for Murder opens on Friday, March 22 and plays through Sunday, April 7 at the RCP Playhouse on 14th Street in Riverside, located directly behind Riverside Community Hospital. Evening performances are at 8pm and matinees at 2pm. Sunday performances are matinees only and an additional matinee will be performed on Saturday, April 6.

Tickets are $15 and may be reserved by calling the RCP Box Office at (951) 686-4030. A savings of $8 is available for anyone wishing to purchase tickets for all three remaining plays of this season. Following Go Back for Murder will be The Psychic, a murder mystery in May and the romantic musical Triumph of Love in July. Use code 407 when purchasing tickets for all three shows. IER

International Superstar André Rieu Announces Ontario Concert

Violin master André Rieu, one of the best-selling live acts in the world, is returning to the US and Canada with a brand new show. Rieu will hit 12 cities in Florida, the west coast and Vancouver and will perform at Ontario's Citizens Business Bank Arena on March 13, 2013. His Ontario concert will be part of Rieu's international "And The Waltz Goes On Tour," named after his successful album for which he collaborated with Sir Anthony Hopkins.

Ode to the waltz

Billboard ranked his 2011 tour as the 9th highest grossing tour of the year, just behind Lady Gaga. He has broken all classical concert records, packing stadiums and arenas with more than 700,000 adoring fans each year. Rieu has sold over 32 million albums globally and received 330 platinum awards for his albums. With his natural charisma, Rieu conducts his 60-piece Johann Strauss Orchestra and plays his 1732 Stradivarius violin to create a celebratory atmosphere.

"Every night when I play around the whole world, I see with my own eyes what the waltz does with the audience. People get out of their seats and waltz in the aisles spontaneously. They sing, they smile and for a moment they forget all their worries and are happy. That is why this tour is an ode to the waltz," André Rieu said.

More than waltzes

Sure, the maestro and his orchestra will perform beautiful waltzes on this tour, but the concerts are much more than that. From famous Viennese operettas to film scores, spirituals to musicals, and from folk songs to marches, Rieu's concerts are a perfect mix of thrilling, romantic, festive and emotional melodies combined with surprises, balloons, beautiful soloists and of course Rieu's great sense of humor.

2012 was a record breaking year

2012 was a very successful year for the violinist. Rieu gave a record breaking series of 30 sold-out concerts in Sao Paulo, Brazil. He won a Classic BRIT award for his album And The Waltz Goes On and is nominated for a prestigious Mexican Luna award. With his first tour in Brazil Rieu reached the #1 position in Pollstar's Box Office Chart of highest grossing tours in July, leaving behind artists like Lady Gaga, Bruce Springsteen, Radiohead, Coldplay, Celine Dion, The Black Keys and Pearl Jam.

Festival of Opera and Art Brings The Best of Opera to Palm Desert

EVENT: APRIL 14

The 4th Annual Festival of Opera & Art comes to the Palm Desert Civic Center Park and Amphitheater on Sunday, April 14, 12:30-4:30pm. Exciting opera artists accompanied by a 33-piece orchestra will present some of the finest selections from the opera world, along with orchestral overtures and violin virtuosity.

Maestro Gualtiero Negrini returns to conduct this world class orchestra, and Music Director Victoria Kirsch once again brings to the audience the best in voice and operatic selection.

Gale Enger will play selections of classical, opera and Broadway from 1-2pm. The main Opera show will begin at 2pm.

Karen Riley, from SCRAP Gallery, along with Bill Schinsky, President of the Coachella Valley Arts Alliance, will curate the artists who will involve children and adults alike in interactive art, and who will have their different forms of art work on display. School children from throughout the Coachella Valley will be transported to the event.

The Café at Shields Date Garden, E & E Pels, Desserts by Elise & Jackie, and Big Mama's will be present with food for sale, and non-alcoholic beverages.

This Festival is free to the public. It is suggested that people bring blankets, chairs and umbrellas to the park. A shuttle will be provided. There will be an easily accessible section for handicapped, and others who need easy access.

Free 'Peep Show' During Downtown Riverside Egg-Stravaganza

Free to the public Peep Show, starring bunnies and chicks with special appearances by black cats, snowmen, hearts and company, will take place during the Downtown Riverside Egg-stravaganza at Main St. and University Ave. on the pedestrian walking mall at noon on March 30.

The fifth production of the DragonMarsh Peep Show will include games such as peep races, peep pong and "stack a peep." Children of all ages are invited to sing along with the peeps, and enter the peep calling contest. All are invited to enter the "Best Dressed Peep" contest and coloring contest. Children will be able to take pictures as a bunny or chick peep.

By popular demand the peep abuse display will return including melted peeps, peep jousting, and peep autopsy. Quiz yourself on peep fun facts and receive peep recipes for use at home.

The "Peep Museum" showcases Marshmallow Peeps in all their glory. Many people do not realize that Peeps come in different holidays, from Halloween to Easter to Independence Day. Peep memorabilia such as stuffed animals, toys, books, and even a peep making machine will be featured.

The event was started when the owner of DragonMarsh, Mora Blackmarsh, realized she had amassed a large peep collection. Some of her collection was over 8 years old. While talking to customers she realized that everyone had a strong opinion about the peeps. They hated or loved them. Some liked them fresh, some stale. Some liked the pink ones best. Some hated them all and liked to torture the marshmallow treat. Through countless hours of research (and many calories) the Peep Show was born ... er, hatched.

Rev. Misty Johnson thinks the Egg-stravaganza is the perfect time for the show. "What a fun idea. I can see Peep sculptures being art this time of year...but I like them best melted in cocoa."

DragonMarsh opened in downtown Riverside in 1991. They feature historical and natural products featuring herbs, spices, teas and oils. DragonMarsh respects all life-affirming faiths, and carries supplies relevant to most major religions. They also supply historical groups with costumes, feast-wear, and giftware.

AWAKENING

The curtains laced the morning on the window and hastened its light through the dust in the room, weaving the smell of sleepy breath, warm and human, recalling the joys of last night's passion. The traffic outside became the atonal rhythmless song of an awakening city. You shuffled closer to nestle your head on my shoulder. My own awakening images floated over you as they opened to the morning light, the curtains and dust.

JOHN LEGEND TOUR INCLUDES FANTASY SPRINGS RESORT CASINO

Recording artist, concert performer and philanthropist John Legend has won nine Grammy awards and was named one of Time magazine's 100 most influential people. He will once again bring his talents to the stage at Fantasy Springs Resort Casino on Saturday, April 6.

Legend launched his career as a session player and vocalist, contributing to best-selling recordings by Lauryn Hill, Alicia Keys, Jay-Z and Kanye West before recording his own unbroken chain of Top 10 albums – Get Lifted (2004), Once Again (2006), and Evolver (2008) – each of them reaching #1 on the Billboard R&B/Hip Hop charts.

His debut album, Get Lifted, earned eight Grammy nominations, won Best New Artist, Best R&B album and Best Male R&B Vocal Performance for “Ordinary People” while selling more than three million copies worldwide. His follow-up album, Once Again, earned an RIAA platinum certification and a Grammy award for “Heaven,” which also won Best Male R&B Vocal Performance. In 2008, he released Evolver, his third Top 10 album and embarked on an extensive world tour with his ten-piece band.

In 2010, Legend and the band The Roots released Wake Up!, a compilation of music from the 60's and 70's all with an underlying theme of awareness, engagement and social consciousness which won two Grammy Awards for Best R&B Album and Best Traditional R&B Vocal Performance.

Throughout his career, he has worked to make a difference in the lives of others. In 2007, he launched the Show Me Campaign (ShowMeCampaign.org), an initiative that uses education to break the cycle of poverty.

Legend was awarded the 2010 BET Humanitarian of the Year award, the 2009 CARE Humanitarian Award for Global Change, the 2009 Bishop John T. Walker Distinguished Humanitarian Service Award from Africare, and the 2012 Harvard Foundation Artist of the Year Award.

In early 2012, Legend released one of the hottest singles of his career, the chart-topping hit “Tonight (Best You've Ever Had)” featuring Ludacris, which sat atop the Urban AC radio chart for six consecutive weeks. Legend is currently in the studio working on his new album Love in the Future, which is being produced by Kanye West.

Tickets for the 8pm John Legend performance are $89, $69, $49 and available at the Fantasy Springs Box Office, via telephone (800) 827-2946 or online at www.FantasySpringsResort.com.

Legendary Singer, Songwriter Paul Anka Returns To The Stage At Fantasy Springs Resort Casino

Paul Anka skyrocketed to fame in the late 1950s and 1960s with hit songs like “Diana,” “Lonely Boy,” and “Put Your Head on My Shoulder.” He went on to write such well-known music as the theme for The Tonight Show Starring Johnny Carson, one of Tom Jones’ biggest hits, “She’s a Lady,” and the English lyrics for Frank Sinatra’s signature song, “My Way.” On Saturday, March 16, the legendary performer will take the stage once again at Fantasy Springs and further solidify his status as a music icon.

Anka first achieved success in the 1950s as a teenage singing star who also wrote many of his own songs. Although he appeared in several films, his main interest was music and he concentrated his efforts into composing and making nightclub appearances in Las Vegas. Songwriting and performing “are what gave me the confidence to keep going,” he says. Becoming a junior associate of Sinatra and the Rat Pack also had its privileges. By the ‘70s, the success of “My Way” and a string of hits like “(You’re) Having My Baby” confirmed his iconic status. Since the inception of his career, Mr. Anka’s songs (BMI Statics) have been performed well over 90 million times.

His later achievements as a recording artist included “Hold Me ‘Til the Morning Comes,” a hit duet with Peter Cetera in 1983, the Spanish-language album Amigos in 1996, and Body of Work, a 1998 duets album that featured Frank Sinatra, Celine Dion, Patti LaBelle, Tom Jones and daughter Anthea Anka. If this wasn’t enough, it was revealed upon its release in 2009, that Anka co-wrote Michael Jackson’s posthumous #1 worldwide hit, “This Is It,” which has further cemented his place upon the most prolific and versatile songwriters of any generation. He has written for the motion picture, The Longest Day, for Darrell Zanuck, as well as Buddy Holly, and Barbra Streisand and recently received the prestigious Johnny Mercer Award at the Songwriters Hall of Fame.

Not one to rest on his laurels, Anka’s two most recent albums – Rock Swings and now Classic Songs, My Way – ingeniously featured songs originally created by some of the biggest rock performers of the day – as well as other established artists across several genres.

The twist: Paul Anka did the songs “his way.” His goal: “Taking great songs and rework them so they’re natural for me.” With the help of his five daughters, Anka spent months researching music from the ‘80s and ‘90s, trying to find the songs that would work in the radical new context he proposed. The songs that made the cut included Bon Jovi’s “It’s My Life,” Lionel Richie’s “Hello” and Eric Clapton’s “Tears in Heaven.” Even more dramatic were his transformations of “Wonderwall” by Oasis, “Black Hole Sun” by Soundgarden and Nirvana’s “Smells Like Teen Spirit.”

Rock Swings went Top 10 in the UK, and was certified gold in the UK, France, and Canada, hit No. 2 on Billboard’s Top Jazz Albums chart and went on to sell half a million units worldwide.

Tickets for the 8pm Paul Anka performance are $79, $59, $39 at the Fantasy Springs Box Office, via telephone (800) 827-2946 or online at www.FantasySpringsResort.com. IER

Drawings will be held every Friday, 5pm - 9pm, and Sunday, 2pm - 6pm. Everyone will get free entries just for swiping their cards, and bonus entries will be given for every 100 points earned on each drawing day. Every hour, they'll draw four lucky winners who will get to come up to the game stage and spin the prize wheel for free slot play, plus Fantasy Springs will give you a free t-shirt and two tickets to see the live game show on March 22 and 23. IER

Fantasy Springs Resort Casino Announces Matchbox Twenty

On Saturday, March 30, Rob Thomas will make his return to the Special Events Center stage at Fantasy Springs Resort Casino. This is the same stage where he performed solo in front of a sold-out crowd just two years ago. This time, however, Thomas will return with his band mates from his four-time Grammy-nominated band, Matchbox Twenty.

After being together on and off for more than fifteen years, Matchbox Twenty has four commercially successful pop-rock albums to their name. The band's most recent album,

North, was released in September of 2012 and debuted at Number One on the Billboard 200 list. Their newest album has spawned instant buzz among critics with radio hit singles "She's So Mean" and "Overjoyed."

North comes ten years after the group's last studio album, the smash hit, More Than You Think You Are. This album tied up radio airwaves for more than a year with singles including Grammy-nominated hit "Unwell," "Bright Lights," and "Disease" which was co-written with Rolling Stones legend Mick Jagger.

Powered by Thomas' distinct voice and songwriting ability, the band has been a hit machine, churning out a number of Top 40 hits such as "Push," "Real World," "Back 2 Good," "Mad Season," "Disease," and "How Far We've Come." The band has also produced four # 1 singles, including "3 a.m.," "Bent," "If You're Gone," and "Unwell."

Tickets for the 8pm Matchbox Twenty performance are $109, $89, $69, $49 at the Fantasy Springs Box Office, via telephone (800) 827-2946 or online at www.FantasySpringsResort.com. IER

Legends Of Riverside Racing Film Festival And Gala Honors Racing Great Bob Bondurant

The Riverside International Automotive Museum will have its annual Legends of Riverside Racing Film Festival and Gala, March 23, plus a "Meet and Greet" on Friday evening, March 22 for all ticket holders. The honoree for Legends V is Bob Bondurant.

Bob Bondurant at the Daytona Speedway in 1965.

Bob started in his teen years racing motorcycles and in 1956 he switched to sports car racing with a Corvette and won the West Coast "B" Production Championship winning 18 of 20 races.

During a battle between Cal Club and SCCA, Bob was banned from racing for 6 months. He used this time to learn to fly helicopters and got to be a good pilot. Bondurant then went to work where they rebuilt wrecked helicopters. He never went to school, but learned to follow the cars around the racetrack. He went to the driving school at Sears Point and flew the helicopter every day where he would chase the students around the track.

In 1961 Bob was hired by Santa Barbara Chevrolet dealer Shelly Washburn to drive his #614 1959 Corvette. He drove Washburn's new 1963 Corvette Z06 Stingray in the Times Grand Prix at Riverside Raceway. Bondurant won 30 out of 32 races in Washburn's Corvettes.

In 1963 he became a member of the Carroll Shelby Cobra team, winning his first race. Bob raced Cobras in the states at Colorado's Continental Divide Raceway, Riverside, and Sebring, and then went to Europe racing at the Targa Florio, Spa and Nurburgring. He also raced Le Mans.

Bob served as a technical consultant for the film Grand Prix and trained actor James Garner to drive Formula cars. In addition to Garner, Bondurant was a driving instructor to actors Paul Newman, Clint Eastwood, Robert Wagner, Tim Allen, Tom Cruise and Nicolas Cage.

While recuperating from a 1967 Can Am series race accident, Bob had an idea for a high performance driving school, which opened in early 1968 at Orange County Raceway, then moved to Ontario, Sears Point and in 1989 to Phoenix, Arizona.

Bob is not only the honoree at Legends V in 2013, but his school turns 45-years-old and Bob himself turns 80 years young.

Bob will be joined by close to 50 veteran drivers.

The event will include special awards presented to those who contributed so much to racing heritage, a silent auction of assorted racing memorabilia, an autograph signing by drivers and VIP's (for ticket holders only), cocktail party, dinner, a live auction and interview by Ed Justice Jr. with Bob Bondurant.

Only 150 tickets are available to the public and proceeds will go to The Boys Republic.

Legends of Riverside is held at the Riverside International Automotive Museum, 815 Marlborough Avenue #200, in Riverside. Tickets for the 2 day event are $149 each. For more information, call (951) 369-6966.
