EVERY WEDNESDAY IS BADGE DAY

2-FOR-1 TICKETS AT BIG BEAR SNOW PLAY

Badge-carrying personnel get two-for-one lift tickets Wednesdays (non-holiday) while enjoying inner tubing in the Southland at Big Bear Snow Play.

Active law enforcement, fire, and military personnel buy one lift pass and get another free every Wednesday at Big Bear Snow Play. Just show proper ID each Wednesday and get a free lift ticket with the purchase of a pass. It's a $30 value.

"It's our way of giving back to those who serve," said Scott Voigt of Big Bear Snow Play. Badge Days are available year-round when Big Bear Speedway opens in April (weather permitting) for timed kart racing on a Grand Prix-style track.

Big Bear Snow Play, once a ski area known as Rebel Ridge, offers world-class inner tubing on the longest runs in Southern California. As the guns continue to blast jet streams of snow, Big Bear Snow Play builds special features like whoop-di-dos and berms in addition to its traditional downhill runs.

For after dark thrills Big Bear Snow Play last season debuted Glow Tubing night sessions, as the runs are illuminated by changing strobe lights that turn red, blue, yellow, and even black lights. Night Glow Tubing is available on Fridays, Saturdays, and holiday periods from 5-9pm.

Getting to the top of all the snow is easy thanks to Magic Carpet uphill lifts that families merely step on and off of. No uphill climb to tire parents and kids out means they save all their energy for downhill fun and get in all the runs they want.

Snow gets groomed nightly at Big Bear Snow Play to ensure the best possible conditions for guests, who enjoy evenly-spread corduroy for their downhill adventures. When it's time for a winter warm-up, head inside the heated base lodge for family-priced snack bar and video games and there's plenty of paved parking.

Big Bear Snow Play is open daily for inner tubing from 10am-4pm. All-day passes include tube rental and Magic Carpet lift for $30. After dark Glow Tubing sessions Fridays, Saturdays, and holidays from 5-9pm are priced at $25 as guests slide on fluorescent tubes under alternative color lights.

Big Bear Snow Play is in Big Bear on Big Bear Blvd. next to Motel 6. Call (909) 585-0075 or visit www.bigbearsnowplay.com for more information.

Summer Just Got Cooler

The concert series will return the first Tuesday in June.

ALL EVENTS ARE WEATHER PERMITTING

It's Ramona Season!

Springtime in Hemet is also Ramona Season. When the hills are filled with wild flowers and the gentle breezes fill the Ramona Bowl Amphitheatre, it is time to see the Ramona Pageant, the retelling of Helen Hunt Jackson's tale of the struggle of the Native Americans as California changed hands from Mexico to the United States. The play has been presented in Hemet since 1923, filled with pageantry and poignancy. Because the Ramona Bowl is an outdoor amphitheatre, the cast of over 400 volunteers include cowboys on real horses, Spanish dancers and Native Americans recreating an authentic elder blessing.

The story of "Ramona" is what drove California's tourist industry in the 20's and 30's, people wanting to see where the story full of romance and turmoil took place. Throughout southern California schools, towns and streets are named for characters from Jackson's book. Jackson took the true story of what was happening to the Native Americans and wove it into a novel that would "move the minds and hearts of America." She did for the Native Americans what Harriet Beecher Stowe did with Uncle Tom's Cabin.

People who are attending the Ramona Pageant should arrive early so that they can take advantage of everything available at the Bowl including pre-show activities and entertainment in the courtyard and on stage. See Folklorico dancers, Native American dancers, cowboy poets, and singers. While visiting the museum one can see Ramona history dating back to 1923 and the only fresco ever created by renowned artist Milford Zornes. Stop by the gift shop and treat yourself to one of a kind Ramona memorabilia. Relax and enjoy an array of food choices from the concessions and multiple food vendors including a delicious BBQ chicken lunch served by Hemet Valley Kiwanis or dine on the courtyard terrace with beautiful views of the Valley.

This year the play is once again the newly updated version of the script, starting with the surrender of California to America by Mexico. It still includes the iconic love story, the struggle and beautiful pageantry where Ramona and Alessandro still enchant and inspire.

RAMONA SPRING FESTIVAL

Something new for this year is the Ramona Spring Festival which will kick off the Ramona Season on April 1st in downtown Hemet. Bringing to life the experience of celebration in the late 1800's there will be entertainment for all ages, with demonstrations of quilting, carving, painting and crafts, sheep shearing demonstrations, wool spinning, a petting zoo and many more fun things to do from the era. There will be also be a Foodtruck Festival at Fingerprints Museum plus fine dining, music, and dancing.

TREAT YOURSELF TO THIS UNIQUE MOUNTAIN ZOO

California has some of the most diverse wildlife in North America. But you don't have to camp out in the wilderness just to catch a glimpse of some of our state's amazing animals.

The Big Bear Alpine Zoo, founded in 1959, is the only alpine zoo of its kind in the United States. Situated at almost 7,000 feet above sea level, the Big Bear Alpine Zoo serves as a rehabilitation facility for both mountain and nearby communities.

With a nearly 80% success rate, animals are nursed back to health or weaned onto solid foods and then released back into the wild. If an animal is too injured or if it has lost its fear of humans, it cannot be released and has a home for life at Big Bear Alpine Zoo.

If you are planning a trip to Big Bear, get your wild on! A visit to the zoo is the best way to see representatives of our mountain ecosystem. Located on 2.5 acres, Big Bear Alpine Zoo brings the wild to you, housing over 100 animals, mostly native species.

The zoo is located at 43285 Goldmine Drive in Big Bear Lake, right across the street from Bear Mountain Ski and Board Resort. If you want to know more about the facility and the animals in their care, as well as schedules and special events, check out the website at www.bigbearzoo.org or like them on their facebook page.

CULTIVATING AGRICULTURAL ACTIVITIES ACROSS THE INLAND EMPIRE WITH GROWRIVERSIDE

The City of Riverside's GrowRIVERSIDE initiative to cultivate food and agricultural activities across the Inland Southern California region is back this year with the 4th Annual GrowRIVERSIDE Conference slated for March 29 – 31 at the beautiful Tom & Vi Zapara School of Business on the campus of La Sierra University.

Since 2014, Riverside has led the region in creating opportunities for food systems stakeholders (e.g. farmers, local businesses, health care professionals, educators and students, policy makers, consumers, advocacy organizations, etc.) to learn, share, and network.

GROWRIVERSIDE CONFERENCE

The 2017 GrowRIVERSIDE Conference aims to equip attendees with the tools and knowledge to create a strong marketplace for local food systems development through education and engagement. Attendees of this year's conference can expect four tracks (16 sessions). The topics will range from Farming How-Tos to Food & Ag Business Development and will even include a student-centered track focused on learning about the diverse career opportunities in food and agricultural industries. There is surely something for everyone.

Furthermore, the City of Riverside is excited to announce Will Allen, the nation's preeminent urban farmer and founder of Growing Power, a not-for-profit center for urban agriculture, as the conference keynote speaker. Allen is recognized as the nation's distinguished urban farmer and advocate for food security. In 2008 the MacArthur Foundation awarded Will Allen the "Genius Grant" for his work on urban farming and sustainable food production at Growing Power.

The City of Riverside expects the conference to sell out this year due to the tremendous momentum the initiative has built up since its inception. Riverside City Council Member Chris Mac Arthur raved, "Riverside has always been an innovative and independent City. From water independence through its own Public Utility to creating a vibrant food system, Riverside looks to further develop a locally grown and sustainable food supply through the GrowRIVERSIDE movement."

Several community events will bookend the main conference. These will include local farm tours, a regional agri-tourism summit, and a farm-to-fork dinner.

CSUSB Theatre Presents 'Mother Courage And Her Children'

A DARK, ROCKING JOURNEY INTO AN AMERICA DESCENDED INTO CHAOS.

On March 10, CSUSB's Department of Theatre Arts will unleash a new vision of the classic Mother Courage and Her Children, by German dramatist and poet Bertolt Brecht, with a masterful translation by David Hare.

Throughout the world, a permanent state of urban warfare has decimated civil order as opposing nationalists vie for control. Traveling merchant Mother Courage (Myranda Agueros) and her three children (Celia Worster, Garrett Vaughn, and Daniel Delgado), roam the decimated cityscape in a makeshift wagon that acts as both a general store and their home. Courage's efforts to support her family in the face of relentless and pointless war highlights the collateral damage of non-combatants in a story as old as Herakles and as new as tomorrow's front page.

Directed by professor Tom Provenzano, with original folk-rock score by CSUSB alumni Erik Hjortnaes, Mother Courage and Her Children collides with the Barnes Theatre stage March 10, 11, 16, 17, and 18 at 8pm, March 12 and 19 at 2pm.

Mother Courage and Her Children has been made possible in part by a major grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities: Celebrating 50 Years of Excellence

Individual and season tickets can be purchased from the CSUSB Theatre Arts Box Office, or online at theatre.csusb.edu. Tickets are $6 for students and children under 17; $12 for faculty, staff, senior citizens and military;

$15 for adults.

Performances take place in the Ronald E. Barnes Theatre on the CSUSB campus. Parking at CSUSB is $6 Monday-Friday and $3 on the weekend. TER

BROADWAY AT THE GARDENS PRESENTS

INTO THE WOODS

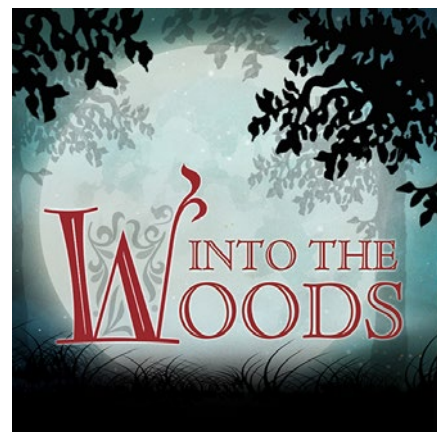

Book by James Lapine
Music and Lyrics by Stephen Sondheim

An ambivalent Cinderella? A blood-thirsty Little Red Ridinghood? A Prince Charming with a roving eye? A Witch... who raps? They're all among the cockeyed characters in James Lapine and Stephen Sondheim's fractured fairy tale.

When a baker and his wife learn they've been cursed with childlessness by the witch next door, they embark on a quest for objects required to reverse the spell. Everyone's wish is granted, but the consequences of their actions return to haunt them later with disastrous results. What begins as a lively irreverent fantasy, becomes a moving lesson about community responsibility and the stories we tell our children.

Performance dates run March 10 – 19, with performances on Fridays and Saturdays (March 11, 17, 18) at 7:30pm and Sundays (March 12, 19) at 2pm at the Lewis Family Playhouse, 12505 Cultural Center Drive, in Rancho Cucamonga. Tickets are priced at $30 for General and $28 for Senior/Youth. APPOINTMENT WITH DEATH

MARCH 31 - APRIL 16

An assorted group of travelers is staying at a Jerusalem hotel. Included are a young English doctor and her French colleague, a debonair American and a pugnacious Lancashireman. Also among them is Mrs. Boynton, who is a domineering American invalid with four stepchildren; each of them with a facade of devotion that masks enough hatred to willingly murder her. Her stepchildren are not the only ones, however.

EVENT: MARCH 26 - APRIL 2

The 21st Waring International Piano Competition

March 26 through April 2

Enjoy music? Enjoy young people? Then you will LOVE the 21st Waring International Piano Competition (formerly the Joanna Hodges and Virginia Waring) taking place in Palm Desert from March 26 through April 2. This is not your traditional piano competition, where young people get up and play one 5 or 10 minute piece for friends, teachers and fellow students. Oh no, this is a classical piano event worthy of anything you'd experience in New York, London, Paris, Berlin, or Tokyo. As a matter of fact several previous winners have performed in major concert halls in all those world capitals. Google Jan Lisiecki, Jon Nakamatsu, Anton Nel, and John Novacek to name only a few.

Most events are free, only the Solo Finals and Concerto Finals at the McCallum Theatre require a ticket.

Waring contestants and winners return to the Valley to perform at local schools (all three school districts and at all levels: elementary, middle and high school), community centers and venues such as the McCallum and for other organizations such as the Coachella Valley Symphony, the Rancho Mirage Public Library, St. Margaret's and Sacred Heart.

Music feeds the soul and there is nothing like great music to inspire and reflect the highest capability of the human spirit. This world needs both. Young people not exposed to great music will never know what might be accomplished, especially by their peers. When young people at a school see one of the winners, especially near their age or a little bit older, they can say to themselves, "If they can do it, I can do it," and that's the first step to awareness of the wide wonderful world of possibilities out there.

This musical happening occurs every other year and this is the year for young virtuoso pianists between the ages of 18 and 30 from 8 countries ready to launch careers. They compete for performance opportunities and cash prizes.

There are three rounds for the Solo portion: First round – each pianist plays 30 minutes of diverse classical works; Semi-Finals: 45 minutes for 12 contestants; and the Finals, only three pianists 45 minutes each.

The Concerto portion has two rounds: First round – everyone for 20 minutes accompanied by a 2nd pianist; and the Finals, three pianists will play with full orchestra.

The musicians are all professional members of the Musicians' Union and many of them are regular members of the Pacific Symphony out of Orange County.

Because the exact concertos to be played are not known until the end of Friday, March 31, and the concert is on Sunday, April 2, they must use professional musicians who are used to sight reading these complicated music scores and most of them will have played these concertos many times in their professional lives.

The Concerto Finals takes place at the McCallum Theatre on April 2 at 2pm, and it is a stunner. For a full schedule, visit www.vwipc.org or call (760) 773-2575. To buy tickets to the McCallum Concerto Finals, visit www.McCallumTheatre.com or call (760) 340-2787. IER
