HISTORIC AIRCRAFT TAKE TO THE SKY AT THE PLANES OF FAME AIRSHOW

May 3-4

Once again historic aircraft roar to life in Chino as Mooney International Corporation presents the Planes of Fame Airshow, May 3 & 4, "A Salute to the Mighty Eighth."

This year's airshow will feature over 40 historic aircraft, performing for your enjoyment, as well as a salute to the 8th Air Force in WWII. Performers include the U.S.A.F. F-22 Raptor Demo Team and Heritage Flight, Sean D. Tucker-Team Oracle Aerobatics, Bremont Horsemen P-51 Mustang aerobatics, Sea Fury Aerobatics by Sanders Aeronautics, Rob Harrison and the Tumbling Bear, and over 40 WWII aircraft including B-17, P-47s, and P-51s.

In addition to many other fantastic airplanes performing, there will be a panel discussion with our honored veterans.

A terrific selection of merchandise will be on sale in the Vendor Marketplace as well as delicious food and beverages.

RAMONA

91 Years Of The Outdoor Play That Touched The Heart Of The Country

In the late 1800's a very prolific author named Helen Hunt Jackson was so distraught with the Federal Government's treatment of Native American Tribes throughout the country that she wrote a book entitled "Century of Dishonor" and delivered a copy to every member of Congress. This failed to move the government to right the grave injustices against Native Americans; however they did hire Mrs. Jackson to do a report of the California Mission Indians throughout our region.

When this report failed to move them to action, Mrs. Jackson thought of her peers who through their fictional literary work had brought great attention to their subjects in Hiawatha and Uncle Tom's Cabin. So, she decided to write a book that would move the hearts and minds of a nation.

In 1884 Helen Hunt Jackson finished her novel Ramona. Although it was a work of fiction, it included many true experiences that she had recorded in her travels in Southern California while doing her report for the Federal Government. Sadly, Ms. Jackson died the following year of cancer and complications from a bad fall and was not able to fully appreciate the impact of her book. Ramona turned out to be a very popular book not only then but to this day has never gone out of print.

In 1921 the communities of Hemet and San Jacinto came together to hire Garnet Holme to write a play based on Ramona. He found a location with perfect acoustical properties and the first performance of Ramona the play was in April of 1923 in what is now the Ramona Bowl Amphitheatre located in the southern hillsides of Hemet on 160 acres.

The Amphitheatre is in a beautiful setting that seats 5,400. Over 600 volunteer cast members and support staff donate their time and talent each year to entertain and educate audiences with one of the most enduring stories of early California history.

With each passing year, Helen Hunt Jackson's powerful message has come alive to remind audiences of this tragic chapter in our history. Powerful and commanding, Ramona has been seen by millions of people. Time has not diminished her impact. Each year as they bring to life this epic tale of survival and determination, we are reminded of the tenacity of the human spirit.

The Del McCoury Band took home its second Grammy Award this year for best bluegrass album with Streets of Baltimore, a tribute to the city where McCoury got his start working for a stint with the father of bluegrass, Bill Monroe.

Vincent, dubbed the "New Queen of Bluegrass" by the Wall Street Journal, recently released Only Me, a two-disc combo of both bluegrass and country. Known for her progressive chord structures and multi-range vocals, she has worked closely with many in the industry, including Dolly Parton and Alison Krause.

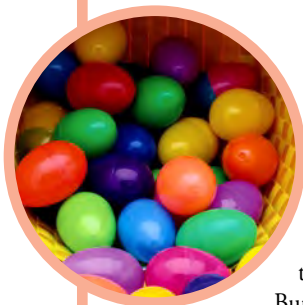

Junior Sisk & Ramblers Choice, awarded "Best Bluegrass Band" by the Society for the Preservation of Bluegrass Music in America (SPBGMA), is touted as one of the nation's most authentic bluegrass groups.

The Boxcars were nominees for "Best Bluegrass Album" at this year's Grammy Awards. They won the IBMA 2013 Instrumental Group of the Year for a third year in a row in 2013, and member Adam Steffey won IMBA Mandolin Player of the Year that same year.

Chris Jones and the Night Drivers blends an impressive measure of musicianship and songwriting, featuring the distinctive vocals of Chris Jones, host of SiriusXM's Bluegrass Junction. Jones, whose career has included performances with some of the industry's legendary talents, earned both Song of the Year and Album of the Year awards from the IBMA in 2007 – the first time that both music and industry awards have gone to a single person.

The Huck Finn Jubilee is presented by the Greater Ontario Convention and Visitors Bureau. For more information, visit www.discoverontariocalifornia.org.

Farm Store at Cal Poly Pomona to Host Tractor and Car Show & Strawberry Festival

Enjoy live music and a variety of foods from vendors at the Cal Poly Pomona Farm Store's seventh annual Tractor/Car Show & Strawberry Festival on Saturday, May 10. To celebrate the peak of strawberry season, guests will have the opportunity to pick sun-ripened berries, purchase baskets of pre-picked strawberries and sip on a strawberry snow cone. Strawberry picking starts at 11am and goes until they are all gone.

The festival, which runs from 10am to 4pm, will also include a petting farm, bug exhibit, face painting, horse rides, tractor rides and more.

The tractor and car show will feature custom, antique, classic, muscle, street rod, special interest cars, motorcycles and tractors. Trophies will be awarded at 3pm. Registration is due by April 27 and a form can be downloaded at www.cppfarmstore.com.

Admission is free. Parking costs $3. For more information about the event, visit www.cppfarmstore.com or contact Brenda Orozco at brorocz@csupomona.edu.

Family Fun And The Western Life During NORCO HORSEWEEK

Join in an annual tradition that celebrates all things Western and rural in Norco as the 44th Annual Horsecweek gallops into the Inland Empire for two fun-filled weekends, April 18-20 and April 25-27.

Norco Horsecweek is an all volunteer non-profit organization dedicated to bringing the community together by celebrating and maintaining the rural western lifestyle that Norco cherishes. Annually for the past 43 years Horsecweek has produced ten full days of family oriented events which kicks off with a three-day Rodeo and Bull riding event.

All profits are donated to local youth groups, FFA and 4H, local senior centers, the animal shelter, scholarship funds and more.

The events are incredibly entertaining and the Ranch Rodeo has sold out the last two years. This year they announced the addition of Western Family Fun days Carnival and food truck festival.

Norco Horsecweek, the rodeo and Western Family Fun Days offer action packed entertainment anyone can enjoy.

Norco Horsecweek

Visit their website for all event times and information at www.norcohorsecweek.com.

Events take place at George Ingalls Equestrian Center in Norco at 3737 Crestview Ave.

31st Annual California Strawberry Festival

A Traditional Tasty Tribute In The Golden State

The delicious heart-shaped fruit is the main ingredient of celebration with the 2014 California Strawberry Festival getting underway the weekend of May 17 and 18 at Strawberry Meadows of College Park in Oxnard (3250 S. Rose Avenue). Ranking among the top Festivals in the entire nation, the fruitful fete boasts strawberries every way imaginable, featuring all day fun for the entire family with concert performances, more than 200 fine arts and crafts booths, the Strawberry Promenade with celebrity cooking demonstrations, Strawberryland For Kids featuring rides and attractions, gooey contests, special appearances, and more, on 15 scenic acres of parkland.

An estimated 1.5 million strawberries are consumed over the weekend with delicacies like strawberry kabobs, strawberry nachos, strawberry pizza and even strawberry beer – strawberries with funnel cake, chocolate dipped, glazed and powdered, are all for the feasting from 50 food and beverage booths. The “build your own” strawberry shortcake tent offers a blissful pile on of goodness.

All proceeds from the non-profit food vendors benefit more than 20 Southland charities. Over the past decades, more than $4 million dollars has gone to worthy causes while paying tribute to the region’s agricultural heritage.

Oxnard is located just 60 miles north of Los Angeles and 30 miles south of Santa Barbara.

The free Park & Ride “Strawberry Express” shuttles from six convenient locations off the 101 Fwy. make getting to the Festival a breeze. Amtrak California is offering a special Kids Ride Free promotion festival weekend (shuttles meet the trains). Parking is also available on site for $10.

TICKETS AND INFORMATION

General admission is $12, seniors 62+ are $8 and children ages 5-12 are $5. Kids 4 and under are free. Active military and dependents with ID are $8. Hours are 10am to 6:30pm. Tickets can be purchased in advance at www.strawberry-fest.org. The California Strawberry Festival information line is (888) 288-9242.

DESTINATION STYLE

SPRING FASHION SHOW TAKES PLACE ON THURSDAY, MAY 1ST

The Destination STYLE Spring Fashion Show will take place on Thursday, May 1st at 6pm on Main Street between University Avenue and Mission Inn Avenue in downtown Riverside. The Spring Fashion Show will showcase unique fashions and accessories that are available from retailers in downtown Riverside. The show is coordinated by RJ Rodriguez and Brian Hopper of The Vanity Haus, A Fashion Collective, and presented by the Riverside Downtown Partnership.

Before and after the show, shoppers can visit downtown retailers along Main and the downtown core to purchase the latest spring and summer styles and accessories. Signage and a Fashion Show Line Up will be provided so that attendees can easily identify outfits and retailers. Fashionistas can also take advantage of the red carpet photo opportunity at Mezcal Cantina Y Cocina, downtown's newest restaurant. Afterwards, participating hospitality establishments will offer special Destination STYLE cocktails.

While Aurea Vista has closed, two new shops have opened to house many of its former retailers. The Vanity Haus has taken over 3653 Main Street to open a fashion collective that includes Trizzio, West of Tucson, Downtown Dancewear, All That Glitters, Iamme, Sew Cute, and Let it Burn from Aurea Vista. The store is set up similar to a retail department store so that customers can experience a variety of fashion vendors in one location.

Peggy Roa and David St. Pierre have opened Shop on Lemon at 3850 Lemon Street between Ninth Street and University. Joining Delights & Invites and Formal Image from Aurea Vista are Division 9 Gallery & Framing, The Clever Cook, Raincross Yarns, Lingonberries, Black Raven Bakery, Juniper Jammery, and Leslie by Hand. The Riverside Downtown Partnership is pleased that downtown retained so many of the Aurea Vista retailers as a number of them have been regular participants in the Destination STYLE fashion shows.

With its core of fashion retailers, stores that sell fashion accessories, and salons and spas, downtown Riverside is becoming Destination STYLE, the fashion district in the Inland Empire. So when you're looking for that unique must-have outfit or accessory, downtown Riverside and its fashion district has to be your destination of choice. IER

17th Annual Koroneburg Old World Renaissance Festival

The Koroneburg Old World Renaissance Festival is gearing up for its 17th season at its permanent location at the Crossroads Riverview Park in Corona. The festival is different than any other Renaissance Festival or Faire because it is not an English Festival, it's an Old World European Festival. It is a lively, fully interactive experience that's fun for all ages, from the first moment you walk through the gates and enter the daily life of the fictitious estate of Baron Von Lauffer.

The Baron starts each morning at the gates welcoming all of his guests to his festival which is home to over 500 villagers, visiting royals and many different armies on any given day.

As soon as you enter the village you see the hardworking blacksmiths of the Antares Guild who are working from sun up to sun down fixing weapons, making camp tools and much more. They are just one of 13 guilds that have taken to calling Koroneburg home. Others include Archers of Ravenwood where you can try your hand at archery, Science and Arts where you can meet with persons of knowledge from the 1500's and the McDara clan of crafts people. They spend every day spinning wool, carving stones, leather working, candle making and much more. And that's just the beginning.

There are also many shopkeepers with many varied things for sale: costuming, weapons, pottery, jewelry, incense, and all very willing to talk to and tell you all about their wares.

Inside the festival there is an Arena and five stages that feature full contact joust, sword fights, live music, jugglers, pirates, “Washing Well Wenches” and, did I mention, Magicians?

There is much more entertainment throughout the day as well, parades, military battle and

Calico Blends The New With The Old At Wild West Fest

The true old west welcomes Victorian-era, sci-fi entertainers

The Mojave Desert's own historical Calico Ghost Town brings back an intriguing two-day Wild West Fest, April 12-13. This event will see innovation meet history as the world of Steampunk comeslingles with the authentic old west town. Steampunk has been defined as "a unique blend of science fiction, historical fiction and crazy creativity" and may be remembered as a backdrop of the movies Wild, Wild West (1999) and Sherlock Holmes (2009).

The festivities will begin at 6am with hot air balloon rides over the picturesque mountains of Calico. Rides are $150 per person for an approximately two-hour ride. Tethered rides will be available at $10 per person. (All balloon flights are subject to wind and weather conditions and FAA regulations.)

A full day of events unique to this annual festival is scheduled, in addition to the year-round Calico specialties. With fourteen theme-specific vendors in all, guests will have a lot to see including genre specific jewelry, fashions, art and photography.

Headlining the musical entertainment is the widely popular band Steam Powered Giraffe, as steampunk and futurism mesh together with mime and music to create a breathtakingly imaginative act.

As their hydraulics hiss and motors hum, the three human-robots begin to snap into mechanical movement and three-part harmony. The often malfunctioning, joke-spewing metal men play a collection of original vaudeville-inspired tunes fused with modern flare and executed in a sleek, one-of-a-kind performance. Catch their Saturday night show free with event admission!

Patrons will enjoy performances from Dyno Staats, Scientific Demonstrations of Magical Proportions; Poplock Holmes, the King of Chap Hop (Victorian flavored hip hop), and other musical and storytelling acts.

As a special contribution to this event, patrons can witness shootouts and take their picture with many of the old west gunfighters at Calico over the weekend. Children's crafts will be offered and event guests can also experience shopping and activities unique to Calico's many specialty shops and attractions.

Tickets will be sold at the gate on the day of the event only. Admission is $20 adults; $10 children 6-15 and free for children under five. Calico Ghost Town, located off I-15 at Ghost Town Road. RV, tent, and OHV camping available. For more info, see their ad in this edition on page 25, visit their website at www.calicotown.com or call (800) TO-CALICO. IER

Use Your Feet to Defeat Breast Cancer!

One in eight women will be diagnosed with breast cancer in their lifetime. Who will you walk for? Join The Pink Ribbon Place on May 17 for its 3rd Annual Pink on Parade Breast Cancer Awareness Walk at Fairmount Park.

The walk will raise money for The Pink Ribbon Place, Riverside's first and only breast cancer resource center. The center helps over 1,000 families a year who are impacted by breast cancer through its free counseling programs, support groups, health and wellness classes, wig and prosthesis bank and more.

The route for Pink on Parade circles the lakes in Riverside's beautiful and historic Fairmount Park and, at just over one mile, is accessible to just about all ages and fitness levels. The walk will kick off with a Survivor Breakfast and family activities, information booths, entertainment, and shopping booths will remain open until 12pm.

Registration opens at 8am, the walk begins 9am. Registration is $25 for adults, $10 for youth (11-16), and free to children 10 and under. For more information, go online to www.thepinkribbonplace.org.

Fallbrook Reflections Of Nature Features 'Wild' Art

Nestled in the picturesque village of Fallbrook (40 miles north of San Diego), the Reflections of Nature wildlife art show celebrates its 21st year over the weekend of May 3 and 4.

"The first weekend in May is marked on many calendars as a 'don't miss' event. The Fallbrook Art Center is pleased to welcome 21 nationally recognized artists from across the US and UK who bring their art and stories of their global travel in pursuit of the wildlife they portray in their work," says Mary Perhacs, Executive Director. This year they welcome nine new artists to the show including Clare Shaughnessy from the United Kingdom with wonderful acrylic paintings, Ron Young of Escondido, a sculptor bringing a unique interpretation of Mayan art and wildlife, Akoko Okeyo of Newport Beach, a native of Kenya who etches wildlife and nature images on crystal, and Christopher Newell of Florida with photo-realistic paintings.

Founded by award-winning Fallbrook artist and nature conservationist Gamini Ratnavira, the Reflections of Nature art event showcases the wonderful world of the wild and reminds us of the importance of preserving its beauty.

"Now more than ever, people are becoming aware of the need to preserve nature, and the show offers a unique opportunity to interact with people who have dedicated their lives to telling nature's story through their art," says Mary Perhacs, Executive Director of the Fallbrook Art Center. All artists will be present at the show to talk with visitors. Most of these artists travel the world seeking inspiration for their work and have many stories to share. This is one of the elements of the show that make it such a wonderful event.

Nature's diversity is evident in the art presented by artists working in a broad range of mediums and disciplines including plein air to portray the world's wildlife and the landscapes that sustain them.

After the show, you can visit the Center's Café des Artistes for lunch, an espresso, or glass of wine then stroll through the quaint Village stores.

General admission is $6. The Fallbrook Art Center is located at 103 S. Main St. in historic Downtown Fallbrook. For more information, go online to www.fallbrookartcenter.org.

» Riverside Community Players Presents 'Around the World In 80 Days' and 'Spider's Web'

Riverside Community Players continues with its impressive 89th season of quality and affordable live theatre with Around The World In 80 Days and Spider's Web.

Tickets can be reserved by calling (951) 686-4030. For more information go online to riversidecommunityplayers.org.

Spider's Web

Spider's Web by Agatha Christie, the next main season production at Riverside Community Players, will not disappoint audiences who enjoy the mystery genre. The play, directed by Lynne Ennis, brings many of the plot devices for which Ms. Christie's plays are famous. Of course, there is a murder. Of course, we're not sure who the murderer is...at least not until the very end. "That is, if we do it right," says the director, with a wink. "I am a fan of the genre, but this is the first Christie

I have directed."

Ms. Ennis states, "I am incredibly pleased with the cast of Spider's Web, who bring the appropriate amount of humor, suspense and entertainment to their respective performances."

Each of the characters in Spider's Web presents the audience with a plausible speculation of who could be the murderer, creating the suspense of solving the puzzle and revealing the secret that Christie creates. Starring Catherine Sadlier as Clarissa Hailsham-Brown, she is joined by her former guardian, Sir Roland Delahaye, played by Dan Henry. Sir Roly's friend, Hugo Birch, is played by Michael Ivie. Jeremy Warrender, a new member of the golf club that Roly and Hugo frequent, is played by Costello Bryan. Clarissa's stepdaughter, Pippa, is played by Alexandra Stetkevich and her husband Henry is played by William Gillelan. Oliver Costello, a not very nice fellow, is played by Manuel Elenes. House staff includes Mrs. Elgin the housekeeper and is played by Laura Ritchie, and Miss Peake the gardener is played by Rory Dyer. Investigators of the crime, Inspector Lord and Constable Jones, are played by Douglas Buckhout and Richard Conant, respectively.

Spider's Web runs through April 13th.

Around The World In 80 Days

Riverside Community Players presents the classic story Around The World In 80 Days. Fans of the famous tale by Jules Verne will delight in seeing this favorite adventure brought to life in such an intimate setting.

The stage is in the round at RCP and all the action takes place all around you. "This show is a fun ride for our audiences," John Lynd, the director of the play said. "The costumes are beautiful and the set is perfect for this comedy and our cast can't wait to present it to you."

Lynd has helmed many productions for this venue including award winners like One Flew Over The Cuckoo's Nest and Father Of The Bride.

There will be many surprises for the patrons coming to see the adaptation by playwright Mark Brown, including the omission of the giant hot air balloon so vividly used in the Academy Award winning film. The original book had not used a balloon and so the play stays true to that detail. To see just how the trip unfolds, one will have to buy a ticket.

Around The World In 80 Days is set to run at the celebrated playhouse May 16 -June 1st. Performances play at 8pm on Fridays and Saturdays with matinees at 2pm on Sundays.

Around The World In 80 Days takes place in 1872 England where a gentleman named Phileas Fogg has made the impossible boast that he can in fact travel the globe in an unprecedented 80 days. A sizable wager lies in the balance, as does the reputation of this infamous eccentric. The lands and unusual people he encounters are delightfully served to the audience with imagination and characterizations from the players. Within the story we will meet a large number of colorful scalawags, police officials and strange, exotic curious locals...all portrayed by just a small handful of talented, versatile actors. IER

Cal State Pushes The Boundaries Of Power With 'The Balcony'

The Cal State San Bernardino theatre arts department concludes its 2013-2014 season of Image vs. Reality with the Jean Genet classic The Balcony, directed by Professor Terry Donovan Smith.

Opening May 30, The Balcony explores the blurred lines between sex and power. The Grand Balcony is a lavish French brothel, where anything can happen, and nothing is shocking. As Madam Irma casts and directs performances in her house of mirrors, everyday men don the garb of bishops, judges and generals, to play out their wildest fantasies, while just outside its doors a violent revolution rages, threatening the lives of everyone inside. As the line between fantasy and reality obscures, the meaning of real power becomes clearer.

"Genet wrote The Balcony in the late 1950s, but it seems as if he had a crystal ball. The notion that reality is merely what you can get folks to believe is even more important today, where countries are invaded while public relations assures us that it's all for the good of the people," explains director Terry Donovan Smith. "I want the audience first to be entertained – but I also want them to think about what they see with what they believe to be true."

The Balcony opens Friday, May 30, and runs for seven performances, closing on Sunday, June 8. Performances begin at 8pm, with Sunday matinees at 2pm on June 1 and 8. The production is in the Ronald E. Barnes Theatre on the CSUSB campus. Tickets are $15 for general admission, $12 for seniors citizens, military, CSUSB faculty & staff, and non-CSUSB students, and $6 for CSUSB students (with valid ID) and children under 17.

The Balcony contains material that may not be suitable for younger audiences.

Parking at CSUSB is $5 per day. For tickets and information, call (909) 537-5884 or visit theatre.csusb.edu. IER

Yucaipa Hosts 3 Days Of Music And Arts

The Yucaipa Music and Arts Festival features family entertainment, various musical styles and headlines Three Dog Night.

The City of Yucaipa will host its 3rd Annual Yucaipa Music and Arts Festival May 2-4, in the historic uptown district. Thousands will gather to enjoy a musical explosion that promises to leave all in anticipation of the next year.

With this Festival, the city brings together various styles of music for three fun-filled days of lyrical pleasure. The Festival is sure to draw thousands of people for a full weekend of fun and relaxation.

The Yucaipa Music and Arts Festival's appeal as an affordable family event is one of many reasons it is quickly becoming a premier event in the Inland Empire and in Southern California.

This year's festivities will offer a lineup of Country and Classic Rock themed musical entertainment. Culminating with a feature performance by classic rock legend Three Dog Night, the entertainment will also star various well known Inland Empire tribute bands and specialty performances in recognition of Cinco de Mayo. Other headline performances will feature country music sensation James Wesley and blues legend Rod Piazza & the Mighty Flyers.

Come immerse yourself in the full experience of the historic uptown by visiting local farmers' market booths, participate in "Taste of Our Town" culinary demonstrations, and cheer on regional musicians in the Yucaipa's Got Talent competition and the Youth Band Slam. Watch armature Soap Box Racing for youth and adult divisions; peruse precious stones and art at the Gem and Mineral Show and on Artists' Row, and much, much more.

Don't forget the kids! There's plenty for them to do as well with carnival rides, a kids zone, and a dedicated youth stage. If you're hungry, no need to leave the event, a wide variety of food vendors will be on hand to satisfy your taste buds. These are just a few of the activities planned for the event, so take a look around and see all that is in store for the 2014 Yucaipa Music and Arts Festival.

Event attendance and parking is free. Tickets

Fearless adventurer Phineas Fogg has agreed to an outrageous wager that puts his fortune and his life at risk. It is 1872 and with his resourceful servant, Passepartout, Fogg sets out to circle the globe in an unheard-of 80 days. With difficulties enough, Detective Fix is convinced that Fogg is the gentleman bandit who recently robbed an English bank and is dogging Fogg's every step. As they traverse seven continents - encountering stampeding elephants and raging typhoons - danger, romance and surprises abound in this whirlwind adventure.

MainStreet Theatre Company Presents Roald Dahl's The Magic Finger

Roald Dahl's The Magic Finger is brought to life by The MainStreet Theatre Company at the Lewis Family Playhouse in Rancho Cucamonga. This west coast premiere is based on the book by Dahl, adapted by David Wood and directed by Abigail Deser.

To the Gregg family, hunting is just plain fun. To Lucy, it's just horrible. She tries to talk them out of it politely, but they don't listen. Then one day they go too far, and she turns her Magic Finger on them. You see, when Lucy gets angry, her Magic Finger takes over. She really can't control it - like the time she turned her teacher into a cat. This time, she's turned the Greggs into birds, and...are those ducks moving into their house?

David Wood's brand new adaptation captures all of Roald Dahl's quirky humor while making you wonder what it's like to see the world from another point of view.

The play is for ages 7+. General admission is $18, senior/youth $16. Foundation Family Flex Pack tickets are only $12 each when purchasing 4 or more tickets to any MainStreet performance. (Excludes Foundation Family Saturday)

Roald Dahl's The Magic Finger plays May 3, 10, and 17 at 4pm, May 10, 11, 17 and 18 at 1pm. IER

Intersection 2014, A Festival Of Dance At Chaffey!

Annual Spring Dance Concert Transcends Boundaries In An Eclectic Mix Of Dance Styles

The Chaffey College Dance Department presents its annual spring dance concert showcasing the choreographic talents of Chaffey faculty, dance students, and guests celebrating the diversity of dance with a kinetically intense mix of modern dance, jazz, contemporary ballet, tap, hip hop, musical theatre, and ballroom. With a thirty-five member cast, this year's concert, Intersection 2014, will prove to be a dynamic and exciting performance that offers something for everyone with a well-paced, high-energy range of dance styles!

Artistic Director and full-time dance faculty Michele Jenkins choreographed several of the dance works including an ensemble excerpt from Guys and Dolls; a vanguard piece set to music by the Ditty Bops; and a contemporary ballet work to music by Thomas Newman. Michele also includes a restaging of alumnus choreographer Liane Adamo's parody of the disco 70's; a Prom Night parody set to music by Fat Boy Slim; and a contemporary modern piece that takes a whimsical slant at 18th century manners.

To remixed music by Billie Holiday, Chaffey adjunct instructor Maura Townsend provides a modern, jazz, and ballet infused contemporary piece touching upon resolute human emotion and will, while Kristin Rooney, also a Chaffey adjunct instructor, offers a spatially-oriented modern dance work that explores orbital pathways and connectedness to music by Grizzly Bear. Kristin also presents a vivacious Swing dance piece illuminating the variety of swing-style fad dances of bygone days.

Chaffey's hip hop and jazz instructor Diane Bonds features a powerful hip hop piece utilizing several mixes from iJukebox music artists bringing the music to life through dance.

Guest choreographers include Paige Melvin, who explores the energy releases of the body and time manipulation in a modern dance work set to music by Tomas Dvorak, and Marlena Dick, who presents a vibrant, high-powered tap dance jam session to music by Bruno Mars. Student choreographers, David Martinez and Josh Collins, showcase dynamic contemporary works of strength and fluidity with music that includes Craig Armstrong, Phaeleah, and Vas.

Creating scenic magic is intelligent lighting designer Guy Rock, who returns to provide technical and dynamic lighting artistry along with the talents of conventional lighting designer, Gary Reinschmidt.

Intersection 2014 runs May 1, 2, and 3 at 7:30pm and May 1 at 2pm. Tickets are $12 and available at the Chaffey College Bookstore or through the online Box Office at www.chaffey.edu/theatre\_tickets. Chaffey College is located at 5885 Haven Ave. in Rancho Cucamonga.

Riverside Lyric Opera Launches A Pairing Of Two Operas In Riverside

May 3rd Under The Musical Direction Of Dr. Stephen Tucker

In January of 2014 the Board of Directors of the Riverside Lyric Opera announced the appointment of Maestro Stephen Tucker to the post of Music Director/Conductor of Riverside Lyric Opera. Dr. Tucker will begin in his new position in July of 2014, but is already engaged with the company as its Guest Conductor for the 2013/2014 Season. Dr. Stephen Tucker is an Associate Professor in the Department of Music, Claire Trevor School of the Arts (CTSA) at UC Irvine and received his DMA in conducting from UCLA.

Tucker's only public statement concerning his appointment was made to the singers of the company after their Riverside performance of Menotti's Amahl and the Night Visitors, where he announced that he "welcomed the opportunity to carry out the board's desire to improve the quality of its performances while helping to ensure the company's financial stability."

UPCOMING PRODUCTIONS

RLO will present Mascagni's Cavalleria Rusticana and Puccini's Gianni Schicchi on May 3rd at 7pm at the First Congregational Church, 3504 Mission Inn Ave., in Riverside. New York Metropolitan Opera star Janet Hopkins will join the cast to perform the lead role of Santuzza in Cavalleria. L.A. Opera veteran Alex Britton will play Alfio and the role of Turiddu will be sung by Mario Rios. Paired with the ever popular and hilarious Gianni Schicchi, RLO has engaged an excellent cast.

On December 28th at 4pm, RLO will present its annual production of Amahl and the Night

Maestro Stephen Tucker

Visitors at The BOX in the Fox Entertainment Plaza, 3635 Market St., in Riverside. Plans for the balance of the 2014-2015 Season will be announced soon.

For more information about RLO visit www.RiversideLyricOpera.org or call (951) 781-9561.

Dust Devils

Have you seen these swirling circular dust columns like miniature tornadoes, randomly appearing in fields? They are caused by a weather phenomenon. They travel, dancing across the ground, in an erratic manner. One passed over my car during a trip, and I could hear the pelting of particles as it passed over.

I told my passenger grandkids, "If you look closely, you can see Indian warriors dancing in a circle, causing the dust devil."

CASINO OVERVIEW

Cahuilla Casino

All The Casino Fun, Without The Casino Chaos

What makes Cahuilla Casino so special? Players who know say it best. "It's friendly." "It's small." "It's the kind of place where you feel at home and people know your name." "The beautiful drive." "The best burger around."

Staff and management at Cahuilla Casino hear those compliments a lot from the thousands of players who make the short trip up the mountain to visit every month. "Being known for these things makes us really happy because these are the things we are most proud of, too," says Marketing Manager Kasaan Steigen.

Cahuilla Casino is located in Anza, less than thirty minutes from Temecula's wine country, with easy access via Highways 79 and 74 from the Temecula Valley, Hemet and Coachella Valley. The casino sits nestled between Cahuilla Mountain, Thomas Mountain and Beauty Mountain. Its proximity to bigger cities and natural mountain setting make it an ideal day trip for players who regularly come from Riverside, San Bernardino, San Diego and Los Angeles counties.

Cahuilla Casino features more than 350 slot machines, from the hottest new games to all-time classics, as well as hard-to-find favorites. Lisa Harrison from Temecula was excited to see a game she hadn't played in years. "I used to love playing Little Green Men. It's nice to look forward to playing an old favorite."

The casino has an on-site full service restaurant, Roadrunner's Bar and Grill, which serves lunch and dinner seven days a week plus brunch on Saturday and Sunday. Menu highlights include the deliciously popular burger, which comes in eight different varieties like the Western and Guacamole Bacon, as well as New York strip steak, BBQ pulled pork sandwich, turkey club and Cobb salad.

Cahuilla Casino's players' club offers members weekly MatchPlay and restaurant rewards, plus

Fun and friendly, Cahuilla is used to compliments.

BonusPlay and entries into giveaways and slot tournaments. "We customize our rewards to the player, so every single member of Club Cahuilla has their own personal weekly offer," says Steigen.

Recent promotions have included $50,000 Crack the Vault, a luxury Hawaiian vacation giveaway, and $100,000 Scratch & Win in March. February featured the Tournament of the Sexes slot tournament, which pitted Ladies against Knights for cash and prizes. "We have many couples who come play together at the casino, so we wanted to do something fun for Valentine's Day that was romantic but with a competitive spirit," says Steigen. The casino has promotions, giveaways and slot tournaments year-round.

Cahuilla Casino is open 24 hours, 365 days a year, for players 21 and older. More information, restaurant hours and directions can be found on their website: cahuillacasino.com. IER

THE FALLBROOK AVOCADO FESTIVAL

Time is finally here for the 28th Annual Fallbrook Avocado Festival held on Sunday, April 13 from 9-5pm. It celebrates the agricultural heritage of Fallbrook while providing an opportunity for entertainment and festival fun. This is what sets the Avocado Festival apart from other street fairs in the area.

The Festival's celebration of Fallbrook's heritage as an agricultural community is visible in the museums, the avocado-themed events sponsored throughout the day, and the wide variety of foods and agricultural displays found all along the Festival streets.

Held on Main Ave., visitors get the "village" feeling of Fallbrook while enjoying over 450 booths and many other attractions, including 4 food courts with shady seating and amazing avocado foods. Contests such as the Avo 500, Best-Dressed Avocado, Little Miss and Mister Avocado for the kids and a guacamole contest (Professional and Amateur categories) are annual highlights and open to all.

A shaded refreshment garden hosts all-day music provided by live bands and a place to sit and relax a little while. A full carnival will be held in Joe's Hardware parking lot with rides and games at the South end of the festival along with a Community Stage on Elder and Main, featuring local talent and entertainment throughout the day.

Free parking, shuttles and admission help make this a fun, family outing and the contests designed for kids are especially entertaining – you are invited to the Friendly Village on Sunday, April 13, to enjoy the Avocado Festival. See you there! IER
