West Coast Thunder Is Ready To Rumble

Thousands Gather For The Annual Memorial Day Event

This Memorial Day upwards of 7,000 motorcyclists will pack the street in Riverside in front of Skip Fordyce Harley-Davidson at 7688 Indiana Ave. to participate in the annual West Coast Thunder parade. For now, the fourteenth year, the WCT XIV parade will travel first to the Riverside National Cemetery, down Sunnymead Boulevard in Moreno Valley and then on to the Soboba Casino's outdoor arena for a tribute concert in honor of our Veterans.

The Saluting Marine

This year Tim Chambers joins WCT XIV. You will recognize Tim as the "Saluting Marine" who makes annual news by standing at attention for hours for Rolling Thunder in Washington, D.C. each year. Tim heard about WCT and will fly back from Washington, D.C. on a red-eye flight just to honor WCT by saluting the Memorial parade, as well. He will also be available to meet and greet at Soboba Casino's tribute concert following the parade. WCT is fast becoming a household name since it is the largest single day motorcycle event west of the Mississippi. For more information go to Tim's website at www.leavenowarriorbehind.org.

Motorcycle Parade

West Coast Thunder XIV's motorcycle parade is the culmination of a full weekend of armed forces themed activities that begins on Saturday May 25 with a motorcycle Poker Run that will take participants from the Harley-Davidson dealership to the Wings & Rotors military aircraft museum. From French Valley, the next stop will be the Riverside National Cemetery to observe the amazing monuments and memorials, then to Riverside's Chili Cook-Off, Car & Cycle show before returning to Skip Fordyce Harley-Davidson.

Military Appreciation Fair

Sunday, May 26, will be the Military Appreciation Fair at Skip Fordyce Harley-Davidson. Between the hours of 10am and 2pm, booths and exhibits from the likes of AUSA, Blue Star Mothers, Moms of the Military, Support Our Troops, Wings & Rotors and Riverside County Veterans Services, among others, will be on display. The Inland Empire - Harley Owners Group will also host a barbecue for all attendees.

Tribute Concert at Soboba

Stater Bros., 5 hr Energy, KFRG (CBS Radio), Lucas Oil and MAVTV presents this year's tribute concert at the Soboba Casino's arena on May 27, 11:30am. Headlining will be Black River entertainment artist and U.S. Army Ranger veteran Craig Morgan, and back by popular demand, Elektra/All In recording artist, The Farm! Between acts, the WCT Color Guard will perform an Ultimate Sacrifice ceremony which is a depiction of the tribute exhibited to a battlefield grave marker.

Moreno Valley Memorial Day Sunset Ceremony

The City of Moreno Valley invites all WCT participants to attend their Memorial Day sunset ceremony: Honoring Our Heroes. The festivities begin at 7:30pm and will be held at the City of Moreno Valley City Hall at 14177 Frederick St. Riverside County Sheriff Stanley Sniff will be the keynote speaker.

Riverside National Cemetery Support Committee

Proceeds from the WCT ride registration and concert tickets benefit the Riverside National Cemetery Support Committee via West Coast Thunder (a 501 (c)(3) non-profit corporation). WCT has been a major contributor of funds to the Riverside National Cemetery. Completed projects include construction of the National POW / MIA Memorial (dedicated in 2005), repairs to the Medal of Honor Memorial, financial support to the RNC Memorial Honor Detail, funding each July of the Concert for Heroes, and the purchase of flower cones and assistance in the monthly burials of our indigent and unaccompanied, homeless Veterans by placing of a bouquet of flowers and an American flag on their final resting place.

Whether you attend any of the weekend events, sign-up for the motorcycle parade ride, attend the concert or would just prefer to place your lawn chair on the parade route, West Coast Thunder sincerely appreciates the community's involvement and encourages everyone to take the time to reflect upon the significance of Memorial Day and support our men and women in the military. IER

16TH Annual Koroneburg Old World Festival Celebrates All Things Renaissance

Affordable Fun and Games for the Whole Family, Re-enactments and Playful Shenanigans Bring History to Vivid Life at Popular Corona Event Mother's Day through Father's Day Weekends

Come one, come all to the Koroneburg Old World Renaissance Festival – the only time each year when nobles and commoners, lords and ladies, lads and lasses, artisans and crafters, trades people and peasants from the Bavarian village of Koroneburg would dare rub elbows in public as they engage in day-long, fun-for-all festivities.

Now in its 16th year, the Festival again will bring history to colorful life when part of Crossroads Riverview Park in Corona is transformed into a hustling, bustling and a bit bawdy old world village. The popular, annual celebration of all things Renaissance will take place Saturdays, Sundays and Memorial Day, May 11 – June 16. Hours: Saturdays – 11am - 7pm (except for extended hours, 11am - 9:30pm, May 25 and June 15); Sundays and Memorial Day – 11am - 6pm.

According to festival co-founders Tom Wilson and Pat Long, this year's Festival promises more family fun than ever. "We are revamping and re-energizing the festival with more authentic period re-enactments, entertainment and activities representative of the era, plus hundreds of vividly costumed, always-in-character performers, artisans, crafters and vendors interacting with our guests," Wilson said.

Festival-goers will meet hundreds of family members living, working and playing in Southern California's only permanent Renaissance Village. The occasion: the gregarious Baron Heinrich Von Lauffer has invited the finest minds and most talented entertainers to celebrate the "state-of-the-art" inventions and advances of the Renaissance period as well as the coming of spring at his Barony.

Visitors are sure to find a wealth of fun, entertainment, fine arts and crafts, plus an array of delectable foods and beverages – all set amidst approximately nine beautiful, wooded acres of the 120-acre Riverview Park (formerly Prado Basin Park). The festival's lively, interactive representation of daily life on the fictitious estate of Baron Von Lauffer on the Rhine River (i.e., Santa Ana River) between Mainz and Strasbourg during the Renaissance era (1450-1600 A.D.) offers something for everyone:

- Live, full-contact jousts, military battle re-enactments, authentic sword fights and cannon, archery and pyro-juggling demonstrations.
- Musicians, minstrels, town criers and a band of rogue pirates.
- The ever-popular "Washing Well Wenches."
- Wish Facilitator Penelope Pendragon.

Hairspray, 'Broadway's Big Fat Musical,' Dances Its Way To CSUSB

The Cal State San Bernardino Theatre Arts Department brings its season of "Rebellion, Revelry and Rock 'n' Roll" to a hip-shaking close with Hairspray May 30 through June 9.

It's 1962 and change is in the air. In Baltimore, Tracy Turnblad is a big girl, with big hair, and even bigger dreams. When Tracy wins a role on the popular television dance program, "The Corny Collins Show," she becomes an overnight celebrity. Her unlikely fame rallies other teens and together they fight for the right to dance, integrate the TV network and find true love. Hairspray makes a comical statement at a serious time in American history with its pointed jabs at racial and social inequalities that still resonate today.

Hairspray, directed by CSUSB professor Margaret Perry, is based on the 1988 John Waters film, with music by Marc Shaiman and lyrics by Scott Wittman. Dr. Robert Knop, director of the CSUSB Jazz Ensemble, is providing a live band for all of the production's musical numbers.

"One truly unique aspect of our production, and something our alumni will get a kick out of, is how we've cast faculty and staff in the roles of parents and other figures of authority," said Perry.

The winner of eight Tony Awards, including Best Musical, this toe-tapping, hilarious and sing-out-loud show is here to remind us that no matter what life throws at you, "You can't stop the beat!"

Hairspray will run May 30, 31, June 1, 6, 7, and 8 at 8pm and June 1, 2, 8, and 9 at 2pm in the Ronald E. Barnes Theatre in the CSUSB Performing Arts Building. Tickets are on sale now at $15 for general admission, $12 for senior citizens, military, and non-CSUSB students, and $6 for CSUSB students (with valid ID).

For tickets and information, call (909) 537-5884 or visit theatre.csusb.edu.

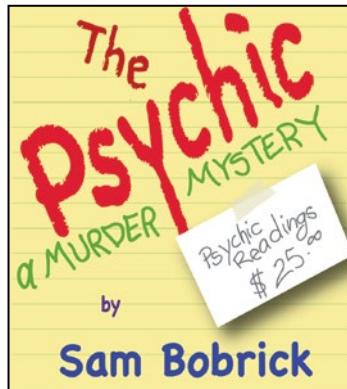

Riverside Community Players Present The Comedic Mystery 'The Psychic'

Kathryn L. Gage
Director, The Psychic

As the director of The Psychic, finding a way to entice the reader to attend a performance of a play about which little can be said in order not to give away the ending is certainly a challenge. How to do it is indeed a dilemma regarding this "murder mystery, of sorts" by the Writers Guild award winning playwright Sam Bobrick.

The story is about a down-on-his-luck writer, suffering from writer's block, who, in desperation to pay the rent, has decided to put a sign in his apartment window "Psychic Readings $ 25." One by one characters come through his door involving him in tangled relationships and even murder. More than this I cannot say or there would need to be a spoiler alert.

However, I can tell you something about the playwright and his writing philosophy. Sam Bobrick began his writing career writing for the children's show, Captain Kangaroo and later wrote for many other memorable television shows such as The Andy Griffith Show, Bewitched and Get Smart. These shows attest to his style of humor which can also be found in this quote from Sam himself: "For the most part, my plays are comedies. There is nothing more satisfying to me than to sit in an audience and listen to people laugh. Although I feel there are moments of insight and enlightenment in my plays, I've never really had a depressing message I felt necessary to share with the public. My main goal has always been to entertain, to have people leaving the theatre feeling good. Life is tough enough. Why send an audience home suicidal. It only cuts into future ticket sales."

Please come and see the show. It's a fun, quirky and humorous romp.

Riverside Community Players presents The Psychic May 10-26. They are located at 4026 14th St., in Riverside. For more information, call (951) 686-4030 or go online to riversidecommunityplayers.com. IER

The Inland Empire's Guide to Fun

First 5 San Bernardino Reminds Families to Keep Children Safe from the Start

In California, the Leading Cause of Death among Children under 5 is Drowning

As warmer weather approaches, the dangers of water-related incidents increase, especially for children under the age of 5. In 2012, adults and children in San Bernardino County accounted for a total number of 55 submersion incidents, nine of which were fatal according to statistics from Safe Kids Inland Empire. First 5 San Bernardino's annual water safety campaign addresses this preventable danger to ensure that everyone is aware of key steps to have a safe summer.

Here are the ABC's to a safe summer for the family to enjoy:

A – Active Adult Supervision: Keeping an active, watchful eye can save a life. Most child victims are supervised by one or both parents when water related accidents occur. In 2009, 77% of child victims were missing for five minutes or less when they were found in the pool drowned or submerged. When active adult supervision is provided, the risk can be managed for swimming fun to go smoothly.

B – Barriers: Children can drown without a sound. Keeping barriers around your pools and other recreational water sources can prevent the silent and sudden moments that can lead to a drowning. Barriers such as fencing, gates, latches, alarms, pool safety nets, and pool safety covers that successfully prevent a child from getting over, under or through the barrier to the pool area are ideal solutions. California requires by law for any new or remodeled pools built after January 1, 2007 to have at least one required safety feature. For details on this law and requirements, visit the California Department of Public Health website at www.cdph.ca.gov.

C – Classes & Preparation: Teach your children how to swim as soon as they show interest. Try taking your kids to classes this summer and join in! Classes are often hosted within municipal parks and recreation departments and community centers. Dial 2-1-1 for resources in your area.

Additionally, taking classes in CPR can prepare you in the event that a submersion incident occurs. Learn proper rescue techniques and keep rescue equipment accessible at the poolside or recreational water area.

For more information about water safety tips, visit www.first5sanbernardino.org. IER

The BIG IRISH FAIR

Irish Fair and Music Festival 2013

The Irish Fair is less than two months away and most of us are awaiting St. Patrick's Day in June, so it's time to get ready for the best and biggest Irish Fair ever.

Oak Canyon Park, 5305 Santiago Canyon Road, Orange County is a great location on the South side of Lake Irvine, with a lot of grass and shade trees and a small lake ... the perfect spot for the Irish Fair.

For those of you unfamiliar with the Big Irish Fair you're in for a treat. It is the largest festival of its kind west of Chicago with over 2,000 performers, 12 Irish bands on four stages and over a 1,000 Irish traditional step dancers. Plus, bag pipe bands, an Irish wolfhound show, sheep herding and hundreds of arts and crafts booths along with Irish import shops can be found. For those yearning for the good ol' bad days they have an ancient Irish Tara Village where Knights of old roam the grounds protecting the High King.

Performing this year are The Dublin City

Ramblers, who have thrilled audiences worldwide with their unique blend of ballads, folk, and humor, with their foot-tapping music. Their impressive career has spanned more than 35 years, with more than 30 albums, top ten hits, and several awards for best Ballad/Folk Group and, to top it all off, eight Gold Albums. It is certainly no wonder that they are classed as Ireland's Number One Group!

Also playing are Orange County's own The Fenians, and Dublin 4, plus Kris Colt, California Celts, Humble Hooligans, Dublin Public, Staggering Jack, Sportive Tricks and more.

There are contests, to be sure: a Red Headed Kid contest, a Freckled Faced Kid contest, and an Irish Baby contest take place on both days of the fair. They haven't left out the older folks with a Knobby Knees contest for those who dare.

You can be sure that there will be plenty of Irish food provided by Hennessey's Taverns, and plenty of Guinness to drink. Since it is Fathers' Day Weekend, what could be better than binging Dad to the Irish Fair for a banger and a brew.

The fair is also looking for volunteers. If interested contact Allyn at allyn@irishfair.org.

The Big Irish Fair runs Saturday and Sunday, June 15-16, 10am to 7pm. For more information, go online to www.irishfair.org or call (877) 740-9888.

The World's Leading Classical Crossover Quartet Bring Their Best Of Il Divo Show To Fantasy Springs Resort Casino

Il Divo, the world's foremost classical crossover quartet, will bring their new Best Of Il Divo tour to Fantasy Springs Resort Casino for their first ever show in Indio on Saturday, May 18.

This new show will see Il Divo perform with a full orchestra, their signature classical interpretations of popular songs across their whole career catalogue. The world's first and still the best classical crossover group – Urs Buhler, Carlos Marin, David Miller and Sebastien Izambard – have sold over 26 million albums, enjoyed over 50 number ones, chalked up 160 gold and platinum sales in over 33 countries. Proving the lack of geographical boundaries to their romantic and timeless repertoire, Il Divo have become a global touring phenomenon. Their 2012 fourth world tour saw them perform an incredible 134 shows across 46 countries on 6 continents.

Their amazing career knows no bounds. Highlights include appearing at the opening and closing ceremony of the 2006 Fifa World Cup, touring as special guests to Barbra Streisand, a 2009 performance at President Obama's Purple Inauguration Ball and recently at a special concert for Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth's Diamond Jubilee at Windsor Castle.

Many of the tracks for the new Best of Il Divo show have been chosen by their fans all over the world and will include favorites "Somewhere," "Unbreak My Heart," "Unchained Melody" and "Adagio" as well as several new songs such as "My Heart Will Go On" (in Italian), "I Will Always Love You" (in Spanish) and "I Can't Help Falling In Love With You" (English) from their recent global Greatest Hits album release.

Urs Buhler says, "As a singer you can never take for granted what you do, every note is a balancing act. But every night I step on stage so proud of what we do. I have learned so much these past eight years, had so many wonderful experiences and cherished every moment. These Best of Il Divo shows for us, and hopefully our fans, mark what has been an incredible journey so far."

Blues Singing, Rock And Roll Hall Of Fame Inductee, Gregg Allman Brings His Tour To Fantasy Springs Resort Casino

As a founding member of the one and only Allman Brothers Band and in his own storied solo career a gifted natural interpreter of the blues, Gregg Allman's soulful and distinctive voice is one of the defining sounds in the history of American music. On Saturday, May 25, Allman will put his talents on display at Fantasy Springs Resort Casino.

Gregg Allman

Allman started out performing as a teenager. He had several groups with his older brother Duane before the pair helped create the Allman Brothers Band in 1969. Known for their bluesy, improvisational style, the Allman Brothers Band hit it big in the early 1970s. They helped to break new ground in rock music, spearheading the 1970s Southern rock sound by drawing heavily from both country and blues influences. In addition to his work with the Allman Brothers Band, Gregg has also enjoyed some success as a solo artist. In 1986, he made the charts with "I'm No Angel."

His most recent album, Low Country Blues was released in 2011 and marks the legendary Rock & Roll Hall of Famer's seventh solo recording and the first in more than 13 years. Produced by T Bone Burnett, the album finds Allman putting his own stamp on songs by some of the blues giants whose work has long informed his own, from Muddy Waters and BB King to Buddy Guy and Magic Sam. Named for the coastal Georgia region Allman calls home, Low Country Blues stands as a high water mark in an already remarkable body of work, rich with passion, verve, and the unerring confidence of a true survivor.

Last year Allman and the rest of the Allman Brothers Band were honored with a special Lifetime Achievement Grammy Award. He also decided to share his struggles and triumphs with others in his memoir, My Cross to Bear. "When I got out of high school, I thought, 'I'll take a year or two off and play the clubs, get this out of my system, and then go to med school,'" he explained in a statement. "More than 40 years later, I figure it's finally time to write about this crazy journey that's taken me around the world and back."

Tickets for the 8pm Gregg Allman performance are $69, $49, $29, at the Fantasy Springs Box Office, via telephone (800) 827-2946 or online at www.FantasySpringsResort.com. IER

The Doobie Brothers

The Doobie Brothers Bring Their Classic Sound Back To Fantasy Springs Resort Casino

As one of the most popular California pop/rock bands of the '70s, the Doobie Brothers evolved from a mellow, boogie band to a slick, soul-inflected pop band by the end of the decade. Along the way, the group racked up a string of gold and platinum albums in the U.S. On Saturday, June 15, the Doobie Brothers will return to the stage at Fantasy Springs Resort Casino and play the tunes that helped them sell more than 40 million albums worldwide.

Aside from a few years of inactivity in the mid-eighties, the Doobie Brothers have continued to perform, create and record for over 21 consecutive years. Their most recent album, World Gone Crazy was released in 2010. It has been described as an analogy for the Doobie Brothers as a whole and another chapter in one of the greatest American music stories. With founding members Tom Johnston and Pat Simmons, and 30 year-plus veterans John McFee and the late Michael Hossack, the Doobies have perfectly honored the band's legacy with an offering that grows in unexpected new directions.

The songs on World Gone Crazy all feature Johnston and Simmons as writers and lead vocalists. Adding dimension to the project, in some cases there were co-writers involved, as well as some notable contributions or "guest appearances" by other vocalists, Doobie Brothers Alumni Michael McDonald and country music legend Willie Nelson. If fans have any understanding of what to expect from the Doobie Brothers, it's probably the unexpected. "In a certain sense, it's vintage Doobie Brothers," Simmons says.

Come hear the melding of Doobie Brother's music past and present and celebrate the classic all-American rock band that has stood the test of time. Tickets for the 8pm, Doobie Brothers performance are $69, $49, $39 at the Fantasy Springs Box Office, via telephone (800) 827-2946 or online at www.FantasySpringsResort.com. IER

MAY DUST DEVILS WINNER

The spilled paint is peeling on the window sill while it still looks fresh on the pane. A darkened figure stands patiently against the green painted wall, looking in, while his shadow melts onto a vignette of tools, wood, rubbish, and truant light beams from cracks that didn't get plastered. Ivy has overgrown the walls and penetrated them. The figure is unobtrusive, nonthreatening. I ignore him. The echoes of why have melted into the stillness.
