City of Riverside - Rhythm of Riverside Summer Concert Series

#ILoveRiversideParks

The 57th Annual Garden Grove Strawberry Festival is a non-profit organization dedicated to raising funds for the community - over $6 million since its inception in 1958. This year fifteen non-profits received a combined total of over $100,000. The Festival also benefits many non-profit groups whose food and game booths collectively raise over $100,000 more. The board awards scholarships to local school students, underwrites parade participation for school bands and treats over 2,000 special needs kids to a day of free rides and food.

This year's theme is Honoring Our Returning Veterans, and many veterans and their families will be celebrated in the Saturday parade and treated to a day of food and fun.

The festival - the second largest city festival in the Western United States - will be held Memorial Day Weekend Friday, May 22nd through Monday, May 25th, at the Village Green between Main Street and Euclid Avenue in downtown Garden Grove. Last year's attendance was over 300,000.

Friday hours are 1pm to 10pm; Saturday and Sunday from 10am to 10pm and Monday from 10am to 9pm. Admission is free. Special one-price ride-all-day wristbands cost $30 on Friday and $35 each on Saturday, Sunday or Monday. Individual ride tickets are $1 per ticket, with multiple tickets required per ride.

Highlights include the Friday evening official giant strawberry cake cutting ceremony at 6pm at the Showmobile (Acacia and Main streets) when free cake is served to over 2,000 people. Saturday morning begins with the festival's first ever 5K Strawberry Stomp Run followed by an 8:30am VIP celebrity breakfast at the Garden Grove Community Center. Next is a parade at 10am with film and TV celebrities, floats, bands, equestrians and characters.

All four festival days will include 35 carnival rides, 5 contests, over 200 food and sales booths, games, music and live entertainment in the amphitheater and Showmobile. Contests include the Berry, Berry Beautiful Baby Contest, Redhead Roundup, Strawberry Idol Karaoke, and Tiny Tots King and Queen.

things that the Boxtrolls - a race of unsightly, sewer-dwelling creatures - covet most. Eggs may be the Boxtrolls' only hope for survival when scheming exterminator Archibald Snatcher seeks to earn his entry into the ultra-exclusive Cheesebridge society by eradicating the Boxtrolls once and for all.

ON THE ROAD AGAIN

WEST COAST THUNDER XVI

For sixteen years West Coast Thunder has become a tradition for thousands of motorcycles to stage in front of the Harley-Davidson dealership on Indiana Avenue in Riverside on Memorial Day Mondays to honor our Veterans.

Some things may change, but some things don't, and the reason for the returning loyal motorcycle enthusiasts each year is because they sincerely believe in the cause and want to support our Riverside National Cemetery.

Because of great supporters and sponsors for the past sixteen years,

Big & Rich is the featured performer at the concert held at Soboba Casino following the parade.

Riverside National Cemetery. It has helped to complete projects including the construction of the National POW/MIA Memorial which was dedicated in 2005, repairs to the National Medal of Honor Memorial, financial support to the RNC Memorial Honor Detail and funding of the Concert of Heroes each July at the Cemetery. The $55,000 WCT gave the cemetery last year was earmarked to replace the fountains at the cemetery which are not only ascetic but these fountains actually are the filtering system for the lakes that are in very serious need of repairs and replacement, a project being done in the near future.

All financial gifts help to fund the Cemetery projects including the purchasing of flower cones and the honor of placing flowers and an American flag on the final resting place for indigent and unaccompanied, homeless Veterans buried each month at Riverside National Cemetery.

You may already know that the new owners of Riverside Harley-Davidson, the Veracka family, have made amazing sales in the past year and is now the number one Harley-Davidson dealership in the world. They recently welcomed a new General Manager, Doug Roessing, to their team. West Coast Thunder XVI will be Doug's first time to witness what he has heard about for months.

ORIGINS

West Coast Thunder is truly a Riverside grass roots mission. This Memorial Day event came into existence due to the inspiration of a documentary about World War I entitled, Letters from the Trenches, that was viewed by Pat Delahunty, an Inland Empire Harley Owners Group Chapter Member. Pat contacted fellow chapter members, Steve Cifelli, Steve Aragon, George Helton, DJ Quinn, Rich Greenberg and Lucky and Theresa Delaney and along with the support of motorcycle dealer

West Coast Thunder has become a household name in the Riverside community and they have been able to donate over $400,000 to the Riverside National Cemetery Support Committee. This year, even before the Memorial Day, May 25, parade ride, West Coast Thunder has presented the Cemetery Support Committee with another $50,000.

West Coast Thunder continues to be one of the major contributor of funds to the principal Jay Dabney planned the first ride from the dealership, which was Skip Fordyce Harley-Davidson at the time, to the Riverside National Cemetery and patterned it to the annual Rolling Thunder event held in Washington D.C. since 1988.

COLOR GUARD

The West Coast Thunder Color Guard performs the Ultimate Sacrifice Ceremony at the Tribute Concert. This ceremony is done at the dealership before the parade begins and once again at the concert at Soboba Casino's outdoor arena in San Jacinto.

Country western entertainer Canaan Smith, the opening act at Soboba's Tribute Concert on Memorial Day following the parade.

These visionaries collectively had the forethought to make this an annual Memorial Day motorcycle tribute ride on the West Coast which is now the largest single day motorcycle parade west of the Mississippi River. What began as less than a hundred bikes has grown to thousands in just 16 short years. What's even more exciting is the community participation that grows larger each year with families and friends gathering on the parade route streets waiting patiently to cheer and wave their service flags at the motorcade complete with Riverside City Police. California Highway Patrol escorts, a Wings & Rotors military helicopter flies overhead, the West Coast

Thunder Color and Honor Guards carry huge service flags, and Riverside and Moreno Valley city and county dignitaries in convertibles lead the parade.

SCHEDULE

At precisely 9:11am in memory of the tragedies of September 11, 2001, the motorcycle parade will depart Riverside Harley-Davidson, passing through Riverside city streets as they make their way to the Riverside National Cemetery where only some of the bikes will enter the cemetery as they are now too large to go through the cemetery grounds. The entire parade would take over an hour to go through the cemetery and the traffic would be too cumbersome for families and friends visiting the resting places of their loved ones on these Memorial Day Mondays.

The larger part of West Coast Thunder's motorcycle parade will enter the 215 Freeway via Cactus, continue to the US 60 getting off at Pigeon Pass and passing through Moreno Valley on Sunnymead Blvd., re-entering the 60 Freeway via Heacock and then complete the route at Soboba Casino's outdoor arena for the annual tribute concert in San Jacinto beginning approximately at noon.

Headliner at the West Coast Thunder concert this year is country award winners, Big & Rich. The opening act will be Canaan Smith and promises to be one of WCT's largest concerts to date.

Concert tickets can be purchased at Riverside Harley-Davidson for $30 per person and $40 each on the day of the event at Soboba.

NORCO'S Brew N' Que Fest

Team count tops 70 as BBQ Pitmasters Line up for Cook-off

In a California first, Myron Mixon, Moe Cason, Harry Soo and Neil Strawder, four of America's top celebrity chefs featured on the television show BBQ Pitmasters, will appear at the Horse Town Brew n' Que Festival, May 29-31, in Norco. This marks the first appearance at a California barbecue competition for Mixon and Cason.

Cason, Soo and Strawder are amongst 70 teams from California, Arizona and Nevada vying for over $10,000 in cash and prizes and most importantly, bragging rights. The event is sanctioned by the Kansas City Barbecue Society (KCBS) and the California Barbecue Association (CBBQA). Mixon will kick off the three day event at a VIP reception where he will offer his experiences, insight and Georgia quips.

The festival hosts craft beer tastings from the area's most prized brewers, live entertainment, classes, demonstrations and special activities. Both beer and barbecue will be available to sample and attendees may cast a vote for their favorite craft beer or barbecue to determine the people's choice awards. A rare California Certified BBQ Judging (CBJ) class and an onsite Brew 101 class are also scheduled.

Mixon has not attended a California barbecue cook-off and looks forward to the event.

Myron Mixon

"I've never done a contest in California," Mixon explains. "I've always wanted to, but I've had schedule issues... "This will be my first time, not competing but actually going to a contest in California." Mixon is widely recognized as the sport's most successful and charismatic man and is known as the winningest man in barbecue.

Cason, a multiple grand and reserve barbecue champion, has competed and won in 35 states. He has appeared as a judge and contestant on BBQ Pitmasters, and has been featured in the hit television series BBQ Pit Wars. His infectious smile and skill on the grill make him popular throughout the barbecue and food communities. "I am really looking forward to this. I used to live out there years ago but I have never competed in a KCBS event in California," notes Cason.

Strawder is a season 2 BBQ Pitmasters alumni. His restaurant, Bigmista's Barbeque & Sandwich Shop, is a popular Southern California eatery and Neil is featured in a national Arby's television commercial campaign. Strawder is happy to be part of the BBQ Pitmasters experience and welcomes the challenge of the match-ups. "I am ready and looking forward to coming to Norco," he nods. "Pitmasters is an exclusive club. It is fun to talk a little trash and beat down on them."

Harry Soo became a barbecue legend after appearing on season one of BBQ Pitmasters. In the season finale, Soo stunned the nation by defeating all the teams including two BBQ World Champions. Soo's Barbeque Cooking school is one of the most respected and recognized in the industry. His blogs are followed by thousands and he is an accessible resource for all things barbecue "It will be nice to see old friends," said Soo. "I love to cook against the top talent in America."

"We are very excited to welcome this elite group of competitors," notes Derrick Turner, an event coordinator. "They bring a lot of energy to the event and a camaraderie and competitive spirit that make barbecue competition exciting," Turner adds.

California's Twisted Brisket, Burnin' and Lootin', Simply Marvelous and Arizona's Loot n' Booty are among a field of 70 teams who will converge on the small equestrian community located in Riverside County, wedged between Orange and San Bernardino counties. Fontana resident and CBBQA president Kim Moore is also a contender. She and her husband, Ryan, form the nucleus of Knock Ur Sox Off, a nationally ranked KCBS BBQ team.

"We will be competing at Norco because there will be a lot of great teams there. It's right in our back yard," she says. "The Brew n' Que is a good opportunity for us and other [barbecue] teams to compete against teams that we would not normally be able to see."

Grammy nominated Ray Brooks; blues stylist, the 60 Grit Blues Band; toe stomping Blue Henrys; country artists Tessie and the Calico Cats; brass band, Tuba Force and crowd favorites, the Muddy Hooker Kings add to the festival flavor. Special guest Redbone, best known for their hit, "Come and Get your Love," will join the Blue Henry's on stage. LEB

Kids Academy And Games Added To The Huck Finn Jubilee

Bluegrass Musical Festival Encourages Education Of Music

Organizers of the Huck Finn Jubilee Bluegrass Music Festival, the Greater Ontario Convention & Visitors Bureau, announced, in addition to some of the greatest national headlining bluegrass names on stage, a Kids Academy and Kids Games have been added to the 3-day event. Cucamonga-Guasti Regional Park in Ontario will be the site for this annual event, June 12 through 14, when thousands of bluegrass and jamgrass fans arrive to partake in a family friendly festival that celebrates traditional music, education, activities, and the evolution of bluegrass music.

The Bluegrass Academy for Kids is open for ages 8 to 12 and takes place each day during the festival. Supervised sessions are held each day and include music education, activities and food. From novice to seasoned performers there is something for everyone to learn about bluegrass music.

The goal is to broaden a child's musical horizons by introducing them to a variety of musical genres, including a truly American one—bluegrass. On Sunday the class will take the stage to perform for the crowd.

Cost per child is $100. It is anticipated that tickets for the academy will sell out so it is recommended to make a reservation online soon. More information about the Kids Academy, line-up, tickets, camping, RV, and hotel bookings can be found at www.huckfinn.com. Children ages 12 and under are free to attend the Huck Finn Jubilee Bluegrass Music Festival.

In addition to the Bluegrass Academy for Kids the organizers of the Huck Finn Jubilee have contracted with an experienced Kids Games organizer to provide some of the traditional fun and games that families have enjoyed for years. The tradition of creating a family friendly festival and to encourage the education and evolution of bluegrass music continues since the Huck Finn Jubilee began in the mid-seventies.

Included in the ticket price is access to the water park at Cucamonga Guasti Regional Park. For more details the website will soon list the type of games and competition anticipated for the 2015 Huck Finn Jubilee Bluegrass Music Festival.

The Huck Finn Jubilee Bluegrass Music Festival is produced by The Greater Ontario Convention & Visitors Bureau, the official destination marketing organization to promote the cities of Ontario and Rancho Cucamonga to visitors nationally and internationally.

THE HUCK FINN JUBILEE BLUEGRASS MUSIC FESTIVAL

Established in 1975 at the hands of a home-grown, Southern California family, the Huck Finn Jubilee Bluegrass Music Festival is a three-day gathering of true bluegrass and jamgrass music lovers. It is a genuine embodiment of endless pickin' parties, instrumental roots education, and bands performing to fans that believe in the core value that bluegrass is about more than just the music. It is a community - one that delivers the nostalgia of music-driven campgrounds, bare feet, laughter, dancing, instrument exploration, and the development of new friendships.

Huck Finn Jubilee Bluegrass Music Festival, produced by the Greater Ontario Convention & Visitors Bureau, supports the cross-pollination and belief in the evolution of this music. This unique festival showcases an array of musicians spanning across local, regional, and national Grammy nominated and award-winning bands alike.

Huck Finn is dedicated in delivering exceptional headlining musicians as well as up and coming talent who will continue to fight for the deep-bedded roots of bluegrass while creating sounds for the future. Bluegrass tunes can largely be described as narratives on the everyday lives of the people whence the music came.

The Huck Finn Jubilee Bluegrass Music Festival is held annually on the second weekend of June. For more information visit www.huckfinn.com

Visit www.HuckFinn.com for the line-up of entertainment at the Huck Finn Jubilee, including photos and bios on each band, festival map, camping or RV site information and hotel reservations.

>> Jazz Trumpeter Arturo Sandoval Closes Out the Lewis Family Playhouse 2014/2015 Season With A Must See Performance

Ten-time Grammy Award winner Arturo Sandoval has made his presence known as a guardian of jazz trumpet and flugelhorn and a renowned classical musician. Enjoy a spectacular performance perfect for a season finale, Saturday, May 30th at 8pm, at the Lewis Family Playhouse in Rancho Cucamonga. Limited seats remain for this special one-night-only concert, with all tickets priced at $40.

Sandoval's performance concludes the Playhouse's 2014/2015 season.

A protégé of the legendary jazz master Dizzy Gillespie, Sandoval was born in Artemisa, a small town in the outskirts of Havana, Cuba, on November 6, 1949, just two years after Gillespie became the first musician to bring Latin influences into American Jazz. Sandoval began studying classical trumpet at the age of twelve, but it didn't take him long to catch the excitement of the jazz world. He has since evolved into one of the world's most acknowledged guardians of jazz trumpet and flugelhorn, as well as a renowned classical artist, pianist and composer. He is one of the most dynamic and vivacious live performers of our time, and has been seen by millions at the Oscars performing with Celine Dion, at the Grammy Awards with Justin Timberlake and in his own right as a leader. He also performed at the Billboard Awards with Alicia Keys. Sandoval has been awarded 10 Grammy Awards, and nominated 19 times; he has also received 6 Billboard Awards and an Emmy Award. Arturo also is the 2013 recipient of the Presidential Medal of Freedom.

Arturo Sandoval reaches beyond the scope of mere effort. His struggles while in Cuba and since his defection have given him more energy and strength, urging him to accomplish and surpass his childhood dreams. Filled with a virtuoso capability, he desires nothing more than to share his gift with others who feel the same intense adoration for music as he does. One frequently speaks of Arturo Sandoval's virtuoso technical ability or his specialty in high notes, but he who has seen him on the piano, lyrically improvising a ballad, or has had the opportunity to enjoy the diversity of his music, through his compositions from the most straight ahead jazz, Latin jazz or classical, knows that Arturo Sandoval is a prominent musician, and one recognizes that Arturo is one of the most brilliant, multifaceted and renowned musicians of our time.

An intimate, 536-seat venue, the Lewis Family Playhouse is the crown jewel of the three-acre, 89,000-square foot Victoria Gardens Cultural Center. The complex at 12505 Cultural Center Drive is conveniently located off the I-15 at Foothill Boulevard, as a major anchor of Victoria Gardens. The Box Office is open Monday through Friday from noon to 6pm, and Saturday from 10am to 6pm, with free parking available.

CSUSB Presents A Musical Caribbean Folk-Tale For The Ages

An Old Tale

There is an old tale. It says tornadoes came about when the son of two gods wondered who his parents were. Upset that no one would tell him, he began angrily roaming in search of them. I wonder if the dust devil would then be his younger brother? And what would he be searching for? Perhaps his older brother? Or maybe he is looking for his parents, too? Well, he sure is fun to watch.
