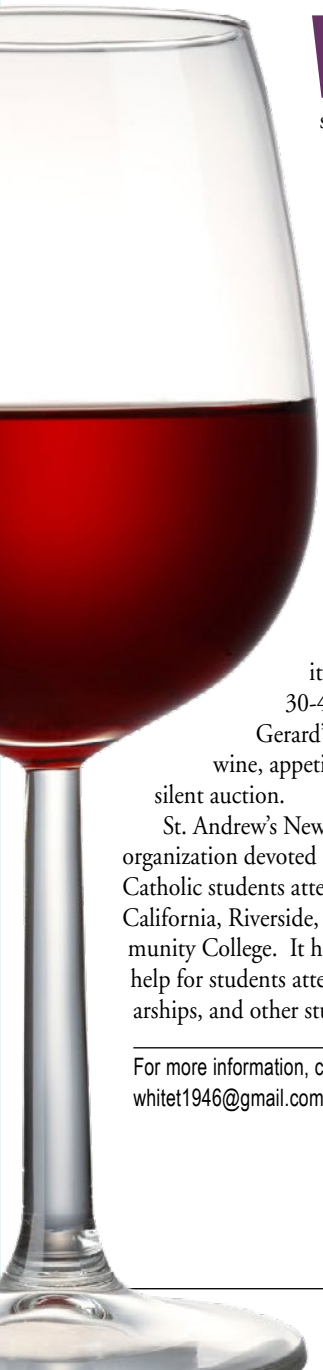
EVENT: JUNE 1

St. Andrew's Newman Center in Riverside Holds Annual Wine Tasting



What better way to kick off June than to start with the Annual Wine Tasting Fundraiser at St. Andrew's Newman Center in Riverside.

Sponsored by the St. Andrew's Newman Sponsors, this popular event will be held on Friday, June 1, from 6:30pm to 9pm at the Center, 105 W. Big Springs Road in Riverside The evening festivities will include unlimited wine tasting of 30-40 wines (courtesy of Gerard's Market), a bottle of wine, appetizers, desserts, and a silent auction.

St. Andrew's Newman Sponsors is an organization devoted to raising funds for Catholic students attending University of California, Riverside, and Riverside Community College. It helps provide financial help for students attending retreats, scholarships, and other student-centered needs.

CELEBRATE 60 YEARS OF FUN AT THE GARDEN GROVE STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL

The 60th Annual Garden Grove Strawberry Festival is a non-profit organization dedicated to raising funds for the community - over $6.5 million since its inception in 1958. This year, fourteen non-profits received a combined total of over $150,000.

The Festival also benefits many non-profit groups whose food and game booths collectively raise over $100,000 more. The board awards scholarships to local school students, underwrites parade participation for school bands, and treats over 2,000 special needs kids to a day of free rides and food.

Appropriately, this year's theme is "Celebrating 60 Years of Fun and Funding Charities." The festival - the second largest city festival in the Western United States - will be held Memorial Day Weekend Friday, May 25 through Monday, May 28, at the Village Green between Main Street and Euclid Avenue in downtown Garden Grove. Last year's attendance was over 300,000.

CELEBRATING 60 YEARS OF FUN AND FUNDING CHARITIES

Highlights of the Festival include the Friday evening official giant strawberry cake cutting ceremony at 6pm at the Showmobile (Acacia and Main streets) when free cake is served to over 2,000 people.

Saturday morning begins with a 5K Strawberry Run followed by an 8:30am VIP celebrity breakfast at the Garden Grove Community Center.

Next is a parade at 10am with film and TV celebrities, floats, bands, equestrians, and characters.

All four festival days include 35 carnival rides, five contests, over 200 food and sales booths, games, music, and live entertainment in the amphitheater and Showmobile. Contests include the Berry, Berry Beautiful Baby Contest, Redhead Roundup, Strawberry Idol Karaoke, and Tiny Tots King and Queen.

Third Annual 'Doors Open Riverside' Returns May 10th

ENJOY TOURS OF HISTORIC PRIVATE AND PUBLIC BUILDINGS IN DOWNTOWN RIVERSIDE

Doors Open is an event that provides an opportunity to discover hidden architectural gems in buildings that are not usually open to the public. The first Doors Open Day took place in France in 1984 and the concept has spread to other places in Europe, North America, Australia, and elsewhere including the United States.

The third Annual Doors Open Riverside takes place on Thursday, May 10th from 6pm to 9pm, and from 5pm to 8pm for certain locations that need more daylight. The only event of its type in California and, in fact, west of Colorado, this free event provides docent-led tours of historic buildings that seldom have their "doors open".

Locations include not only private buildings, but churches, museums, and Riverside's historic downtown cemetery. The last two events attracted over 1,000 people each.

Just a few of the museums and churches that will have their "Doors Open" for the 2018 event are the Mission Inn Museum, the Riverside Art Museum, the Universalist Unitarian Church, and Eden Lutheran Church. New locations on the tour include Thee Olde Chapel, the former church on 14th that has been lovingly restored as a wedding chapel, White Park, and the Santa Fe Depot.

The full list of participating buildings will be available at www.DoorsOpenRiverside.com.

The event is a partnership between the City of Riverside, the Mission Inn Foundation, the Riverside Arts Council, the Old Riverside Foundation, and the Riverside Downtown Partnership.

Docents from the Mission Inn Museum will provide information on the history and special features of these buildings during the tours. Tours are approximately every 20 minutes with groups of no more than 20 in most cases, allowing time for questions. Tour maps will be available at the information tables located in front of the Main Library on Mission Inn Avenue, and next to the Mission Inn Museum on Main. IER

THE 45TH ANNUAL BIG IRISH FAIR & MUSIC FESTIVAL

The 45th Annual Big Irish Fair & Music Festival in Irvine features 16 entertainment areas with over 2000 performers providing Fair visitor with hundreds of musicians, dancers, and bagpipes, plus sports, dogs, sheep, performers, and plenty of booths featuring imported Irish goods and displays.

Leading the way are top Irish bands that include, direct from Ireland, The Young Dubliners, the Fenians, Sligo Rags, The Humble Hooligans, Cillian's Bridge, Craic in the Stone along with several more Irish bands and traditional music to soothe the soul. Plus, enjoy fiddle music and competitions to get you up and dancing.

Of course, an Irish Fair wouldn't be complete without those wonderful traditional Irish Step Dancers that we have all came to love from "Riverdance" performances. Over a thousand dancers from around the country will compete on six stages in a full Irish Feis (competition).

To round out the Fair, there will be heart-pounding bagpipe bands and the big colorful Parade of the Irish, as well as all costumed, flag-carrying characters of the Fair marching through the grounds. There'll be the mighty wolfhounds, ancient Irish warriors, and, of course, the lovely Rose of Tralee and her Court. 'T'is all a sight to behold, and one not to miss!

But there's more: Children's Leprechaun Kingdom with its games, rides, Irish Story Telling and contests, featuring Freckle Face Kid, Red Haired Kid, and an Irish Baby contest. There'll also be a Knobby Knees contest for the older folks.

All and all, it's a fun time for the whole family. And yes, this year there will be plenty of Guinness, along with great Irish food and beverages provided by Hennessey's Taverns. So get set for a big Irish weekend at the Big Irish Fair & Music festival in Irvine's Great Park. IER

Celebrating Mom

SHE DESERVES THE BEST

Ontario Convention Center has prepared a special day for the special lady in your life, complete with food, fun, and live music.

Scott Keo

The modern American holiday of Mother's Day was first celebrated in 1908. The second Sunday in May is an annual event to set aside a day to honor mothers, known as the person who has done more for you than anyone in the world.

On Sunday, May 13, families of all sizes will find the perfect location to gather, enjoy a delicious meal, and honor the special ladies in their life. Ontario Convention Center provides a beautiful setting with plenty of room for groups from 2 to 22 or more! It is always a challenge for large families to find a restaurant that accommodates a large crowd on Mother's Day, thus the Ontario Convention Center provides a solution.

Mothers, wives, sisters, daughters, and best friends are set to enjoy an over the top extravaganza of delicious food prepared by Executive Chef Daly R. Cruz and his award winning culinary team at Ontario Convention Center. This Mother's Day, Mom deserves the best! The entire family will enjoy the wonderful tastes and aromas, and wide variety of tasty food offerings. The Champagne Brunch includes several stations such as omelets, waffles, breakfast pastries, a craving station, seafood, sushi, a pasta bar, and specialties for the kids.

There are two seating times to choose from when making a reservation – 10:30am or 1:30pm. Tickets are $41 for adults, and $21 for kids (12 and under).

In addition to the food enjoy a live show performance by Scott Keo – the #1 Michael Bublé tribute artist – at each of the seating options.

The tables are set, the menu has been created, and their professional, friendly staff is ready to make you a hero when you treat the special lady in your life to a wonderful meal in a beautiful setting. All you need to do is make the reservation, and they'll take care of the rest. The champagne will be chilled, and the live music performance will provide the perfect ambiance to celebrate and enjoy a special day with family and friends.

Ontario Convention Center is the perfect place for parties small and large. They are ready to welcome families treating their Mother to a special day!

Make your reservations today, call (909) 937-3062 or email to rsvpMOM@Ontariocc.org.

Ontario Convention Center is located at 2000 E. Convention Center Way in Ontario. Visit www.ontariocc.org for more information. IER

TV CELEBRITY CHEFS GO HEAD TO HEAD AT NORCO BBQ COOK-OFF

Norco, California sets the stage for the ultimate showdown as celebrity chefs Michael Character and Phillip Dell face-off, head to head, in front of 60 professional barbeque teams at the 4rd Annual Horse Town Brew n' Que Festival, June 2.

Teams throughout California, Arizona, Nevada, and Texas vie for $10,000 in cash, prizes, and most importantly, bragging rights. The festival, sanctioned by the Kansas City Barbecue Society (KCBS) and the California Barbeque Association (CBBQA), hosts one of the largest gatherings of professional barbeque teams on the West coast. It is highlighted by live entertainment, a certified barbeque judge's class, and beer sampling from award winning craft brewers.

Phillip Dell

PHILLIP DELL

Phillip Dell is an award winning chef whose cooking skills range from sauces to soufflés. He has been seen on the Food Network series Cutthroat Kitchen and Chopped, winning the Championship on the latter.

In 2017, his champion barbeque team, Swine Thyme, qualified for the American Royal and the Jack Daniels Invitational. Dell is the proprietor of four entrepreneurial ventures: On The Sweet Side, Inc., a dessert and pastry business; Wizard's Gourmet, a barbecue catering service and vendor of specialty seasonings; Sin City Chefs Inc., a private chef and onsite catering service specializing in recipe transformation and healthy eating; and CPD Enterprises, LLC, specializing in culinary consulting.

Dell has been part of the opening team of five restaurants including the Wynn Las Vegas Casino in Las Vegas and has created meals for celebrities such as Tony Curtis, Ernest Borgnine, Dallas Holms, and others.

Winner of the 2016 National Educator of Excellence by the National Restaurant Association Educational Foundation and a natural body builder, Dell is a dedicated member of the barbeque community.

Dell says, "I am really looking forward to coming to California to show Michael what I've got. "I am ready to put Michael's Character ... on hold."

MICHAEL CHARACTER

Michael Character was born in Seattle, Washington and moved with his family to Georgia when he was seven years old. Like many BBQ competitors, Character learned the art of BBQ as a child, watching family members cook in his backyard.

He is the owner of Character's Famous BBQ in Adairsville, Georgia.

Character is a seasoned BBQ competitor whose been featured on television, in print media, and in books to include America's Best BBQ by Ardie A. Davis and Chef Paul Kirk. He was a pivotal figure on Season 1 of BBQ Pit Wars and often created the most down home dialogue on television's BBQ Pitmasters.

A crowd favorite, he is known for his outrageous smack talk and his infectious personality. While Michael did not take top honors on BBQ Pit Wars or BBQ Pitmasters, he maintained the shows needed balance. Character maintains a confidence and determination that is ready to take on any situation. He is not afraid of any challenge and was ready to take down what he calls, Myron Mixon's "Evil Empire."

Character sees the Horse Town Brew n' Que Festival as the perfect arena to take down Phil Dell and let California patrons taste his barbeque. Character said, "I am going to crush the Dell out of Phil."

The Brew N' Que Festival crowd in 2015.

ENTERTAINMENT AND EVENTS

Beside the barbeque competition, patrons may purchase samples of beer and barbeque and a vote for their favorite craft beer or barbecue team.

Live performances from the toe stomping Blue Henry's; country chart topper, Steven Ybarra; blues stylist, Lucky Lloyd and the Blues Shockers; and festival favorites, the Express add to the live entertainment and festival flavor.

Festival MC, comedian Vic Clevenger, injects his homespun humor to the stage.

Activities for youth include arts and crafts directed by noted artist, Maurice Howard. A Kids Cooking Class, sponsored and led by the Caramel Connection Foundation, will highlight healthy eating and KIDZ QUE, a barbeque competition for youth under 15 years of age, will be included for youth. All activities for youth are free.

"We are thrilled to have these great chefs join us and are very excited to bring an elite group of barbeque and craft beer competitors," notes Debbie Yopp, event coordinator. "Michael and Phil are great competitors and the music and entertainment is stellar. This should be a lot of fun."

Festival sponsors include KVCR, Compart Duroc Pork, KOLA, Costco, Snake River Farms,Walmart, theWest Coast Blues Society, Brantley Creek BBQ, Sons of Liberty Brewery, Evans Brewery, NV Media, Caramel Connection Foundation, Frontier Communications, and the Hampton Inn.

TICKETS AND HOURS

Festival Hours: Saturday, June 2, 1pm – 8pm. Festival tickets are available for sale. A limited number of Meat and Greet kick off reception and VIP tickets are also available.

21st Annual

Memorial Day Air Fair and Flower Drop

Ceremony at Palm Springs Air Museum

One of the most unusual and touching Memorial Day events takes place in Riverside County, at the Palm Springs Air Museum, just minutes off the 10 Freeway at Gene Autry Trail in Palm Springs. The 86,000 square foot museum houses over 59 vintage flying and static aircraft displays, spread over four hangars. Each hangar is themed, and contains aircraft and accompanying exhibits covering the Pacific and European Theatres of Operation during World War II, the B-17 Hangar, and the one year old Gen. Miles Korea and Vietnam hangar.

Every Memorial Day, thousands of residents and visitors gather at the Palm Springs Air Museum for the annual Memorial Day Flower Drop and Air Fair. This year's 1pm ceremony honors 102-year-old B-17 gunner Mike Kovich. After the brief ceremony, a B-25 Mitchell Bomber loaded with 3,000 red and white carnations will be pulled out of the European hangar, onto the tarmac behind the Museum, engines turned over, and visitors watch as the plane departs the tarmac and taxis to the Palm Springs International Airport for take-off.

MEMORIAL DAY AIR FAIR AND FLOWER DROP: Planes make a "missing man" formation before the B-25 drops carnations.

The B-25 is followed by three other airplanes, which will make the Missing Man formation. After two passes over the Museum, one of the planes leaves the formation, hence the name "missing man". This will be followed by the dropping of the carnations over the tarmac.

Visitors are encouraged to take home a carnation as a souvenir. The carnations are in honor of all the men and women who gave up their lives to preserve our liberties and way of life. The white carnations are in honor of those who died in World War I and II, Korea, and Vietnam. The red carnations are in honor of those who died during more recent conflicts including the Persian Gulf, Desert Storm, Iraq, and Afghanistan. This year's Memorial Day Ceremony includes flight exhibitions and rides for sale on the B-17 Sentimental Journey. The other aircraft scheduled to fly are the C-47, P-51 Mustang, P-63 King Cobra, and the T-28

The Museum charges admission, and Memorial Day will be full of special flight exhibitions throughout the day, live music, food vendors, and children's activities. Flight exhibitions start when the doors open at 10am.

Face painting, balloon formations, and Harpo the Clown will be on hand. The In 'n Out Burger Trailer will be on the tarmac selling food, as well as other food vendors, and the Freedom Fighters' Café inside the B-17 Hangar.

For more information, visit PalmSpringsAirMuseum.org. IER

LIVE CONCERTS AND MORE MAKE FOR AN EXCITING SUMMER AT LAKE ARROWHEAD VILLAGE

Summer 2018 will be as exciting as ever at Lake Arrowhead Village! The concert lineup this year is stellar and promises a good time for all. In addition to the usual must-see bands such as Queen Nation, Led Zepagain, Desperado, Dead Man's Party, The Spazmatics, and others, several past favorites are returning!

Back this year are Venice, The Answer, and Jim Curry's tribute to John Denver. New acts to the Village this year are Cash-Killer-King, a high-energy show in tribute to Johnny Cash, Jerry Lee Lewis, and Elvis Presley; Forever Rod's tribute to Rod Stewart; Matchbox Twenty Too's tribute to Matchbox Twenty; Masters of Puppets' tribute to Metallica; Styx Xperience's tribute to Styx and more.

On July 4th, The Perfect Cut tribute to Neil Diamond featuring our own local talent of singer Pete Dykeman and lead guitarist, Jeff Ballew will precede the ALA Fireworks and in the afternoon the Village will have country rock by the Kaitlyn Marie band.

Concerts begin May 18th and run through September 8th this year. To see the entire schedule, new seating chart and concert details, and more, visit www.TheLakeArrowheadVillage.com.

The beer garden opens one hour before the concerts start. The concerts are free to attend, but you can purchase guaranteed seating by calling (909) 337-2533, Monday through Friday, 9am to 5pm.

ROTARY ART & WINE FESTIVAL

Don't forget to mark your calendars for the Rotary Art & Wine Festival at Tavern Bay on May 19th. Park at the Village and take a boat to Tavern Bay.

MORE LAKE ARROWHEAD VILLAGE EVENTS

On Memorial Day weekend they're having a New Boat Show Saturday through Monday. And on May 28th, come out at 2pm to remember and honor our Veterans and enjoy music by local band Vickie & The Dudes.

The annual Antique & Classic Wooden Boat Show on June 9th is an event not to be missed, and on July 28th the annual Cruisin' the Village Classic Car & Motorcycle show will feature over 75 classic vehicles to drool over.

Plan to enjoy their ever-growing Oktoberfest starting the weekend of September 15th and running for seven weekends through October 28th. The Porsche Timeline will join the Oktoberfest on September 29th.

BLUE JAY VILLAGE

There's also some exciting changes happening at Blue Jay Village located just one mile West of Lake Arrowhead Village on Highway 189. The Lake Arrowhead Brewfest returns to Blue Jay on August 11th hosting an impressive array of craft breweries and entertainment.

Blue Jay Village also welcomes new tenants including Crystal Clear Hearing Aids, Sotheby's, and Advantage Backhoes located in the mall, and the new Dogwood Tavern in the old Royal Oak Restaurant location.

Plus, this year, Jensen's Fine Foods in Blue Jay is sponsoring the Lake Arrowhead Village Summer Concert Series and supplying ice for your concert beverages. Be sure to thank them when you stop in! IER

Watch For The Memorial Day Motorcycle Parade

THE 19TH ANNUAL WEST COAST THUNDER MEMORIAL DAY BIKE RUN

It's already time to dust off your lawn chairs and unfold your flags to join in on the streets of Riverside to watch the annual Memorial Day Monday motorcycle parade. May 28 marks the 19th West Coast Thunder event.

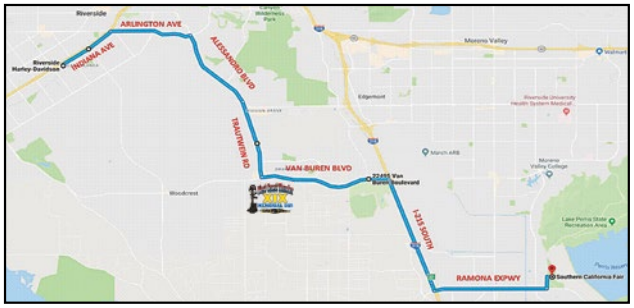
PARADE ROUTE

The parade route will begin exactly the same as past years, riding down Indiana Avenue northeast towards Arlington Avenue, turning right and going to Alessandro Blvd., turning right, then turning right once again onto Trautwein Road. The parade will then turn left onto Van Buren Blvd. heading east towards the Riverside National Cemetery, who is the benefactor of this amazing event.

Those riders who want to pay their respects at the Cemetery may enter by turning right on Village West before they reach the main entrance and entering the cemetery from that side street. Motorcycles are asked to please not use the main entrance of the cemetery due to the large volume of visitors attending the City of Riverside's Memorial Day Ceremony and people visiting the grave sites of their loved ones.

At this point, the parade route changes from past years. The motorcycle parade will ride past the main entrance of the Cemetery and merge onto 215 South. They will continue going on South 215 until they reach Exit 22 and they will turn left onto the Ramona Expressway heading towards the Perris Fairgrounds, turning left once again, onto Lake Perris Drive. The new venue, Southern California Fair & Event Center, is located at 18700 Lake Perris Drive in Perris.

NEW PARADE ROUTE FOR WEST COAST THUNDER



STAGE AT RIVERSIDE HARLEY-DAVIDSON • DEPART 9:11 A.M.

1. Begin at Riverside Harley-Davidson and head northeast on Indiana Avenue towards Arlington Avenue.
2. Turn right on Arlington Avenue.
3. Turn right on Alessandro Boulevard.
4. Slight right onto Trautwein Road.
5. Turn left onto Van Buren Blvd.

*Please be aware that some riders may turn right on Village West to enter the Riverside National Cemetery from the side entrance. Motorcycles are asked not to use the main gate of the Cemetery.

6. Continue to travel east on Van Buren passing the Riverside National Cemetery Main entrance and merge onto Interstate 215 South.

DESTINATION:
SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA FAIR & EVENT CENTER
18700 LAKE PERRIS DRIVE • PERRIS, CA

PERRIS FAIRGROUNDS

Perris Fairgrounds will be a much larger venue and there will be more things going on that day and all weekend to entice families and friends, as well as motorcycle enthusiasts. There will be a family-friendly carnival going on all weekend, a vintage car show, more vendors, and motorcycle stunt performers in addition to the closing tribute concert on Memorial Day Monday, May 28th.

The main stage will be set right in the center of Perris Auto Speedway for Country music artists Granger Smith, aka Earl Dibbles, Jr., who will be the headliner and Tyler Rich will open the show beginning around noon.

West Coast Thunder's Color Guard will be performing their emotional Ultimate Sacrifice Ceremony between shows.

And that's not all ….. there will be a host of options for all discerning tastes in food and beverage concessions. On the Midway Stage, just to the right of the concessions and vendors, there will be more bands playing including WCT Singer Michael Austin, and two local favorite classic rock cover bands, Retroblast, and Southbound and Company.

Bring your family and make this a holiday to remember and a tradition in years to come.

TICKETS

Concert tickets are available online at www.westcoastthunder.com for only $30 per person. Children under 12 accompanied by an adult will have free admission.

Frederick The Poet Mouse Comes To Rancho Cucamonga In May!

MainStreet Theatre Company Produces West Coast Premiere Opening on May 5.

What does it mean to be part of a community? What does it take to make it through the darkest days? These are some of the questions that will be answered with joyful exhuberance when the beloved 1968 Caldecott Honor Book comes to life on stage! Frederick, based on Leo Lionni's book about a poet mouse who stores up something special for the long winter, opens at Lewis Family Playhouse on May 5th and runs through May 20th.

With book by Suzanne Maynard Miller, and music and lyrics by Sarah Durkee and Paul Jacobs, MainStreet Theatre Company is proud to produce the musical's West Coast Premiere. The production is directed by Robert Castro, with musical direction by Janice Rodgers Wainwright, and choreography by Tom Tsai.

This simple but poignant story about a community of mice getting ready for winter combines fabulous blue-grass music with a great message about the importance of the arts to a society's survival. All the mice are busy storing food to get them through the long winter, and are frustrated with Frederick, who tries hard to explain to his more literal-minded friends that they'll need the items that he's collecting, not just the nuts and berries the rest of them are busily gathering. Throughout the course of the story, the mice, and the audience, learn that everyone's contribution is important, and when the mice are running out of food, it's Frederick's collection of sights, smells, and colors that get them through the darkest days.

MainStreet's production includes Ricky Abilez as Frederick, with Kevin Trinio Perdido, Brandon Ruiter, Marnina Schon, and Rachel Sorsa as the rest of the mouse commune. In addition to the cast, there'll be a 4-piece live band playing the infectious blue-grass score, led by MainStreet regular "mice-tra," Janice Rodgers Wainwright.

Director Robert Castro, whose productions of theatre and opera have been seen across the U.S and Internationally, is known for his use of stunning visual images and imaginative theatrical storytelling. His previous work for MainStreet includes the Ovation nominated A Wrinkle in Time, as well as Aesop in Rancho Cucamonga, Aladdin's Luck, Treasure Island, Ferdinand the Bull, and Dreams of Anne Frank.

Choreographer Tom Tsai is a dance and video artist with a unique voice, which marries different modern forms. The team is excited to marry the very American Southern Blue-Grass type music with a modern, almost hip-hop movement style, which they hope the kids in the audience will recognize and relate to.

The deceptively simple design takes Lionni's book as inspiration, and embraces not only his use of white space, but also the way the objects are made of pieces of torn paper collage. The creative team, many of whom are frequent collaborators at MainStreet, includes Victoria Petrovich (Scenic Design), Raquel Barreto (Costume Design), Brian Gale (Lighting Design), John Zalewski (Sound Design), and Akeime Mitterlehner (Prop Design). Mary K. Klinger is Production Stage Manager.

Frederick runs May 5 – 20, with performances on Saturdays at 1pm and 4pm (no 1pm performance May 5th) and Sundays at 1pm (no performance May 6th). Tickets are priced at $18 for Gen-

TEMECULA VALLEY SYMPHONY

Continues its Season with Two More Big Concerts!

The Temecula Valley Symphony will present Champions on May 19 at 2pm, featuring the Symphony & Temecula Valley Symphony Chorus performing Verdi's Triumphal March from Aida with five opera soloists, including Soprano Jennifer Lindsay. This grand finale number will be the highlight of the 2nd half of the concert program with lots of pomp and brass and will surely be a crowd pleaser.

The Symphony will pay tribute to Carrie Fisher for her role in Star Wars with a performance of "Princess Leia's Theme" by John Williams and will also present music from the movie Spartacus, composed by Aram Khachaturian and Fanfare for Life, composed by Vietnam Veteran Kimo Williams. The Champions concert also includes Elmer Bernstein's fabulous Theme from The Magnificent Seven. This film score has become a timeless classic with its music themes being used throughout pop culture, commercials, and other films.

Venue: Golden Bears Theater, Temecula Valley High School, 31555 Rancho Vista Rd., Temecula, CA 951-587-1536 – www.TemeculaValleySymphony.org

Tickets are $25 Adults, $10 Students, $5 Children (12 & under). (All veterans may request free admission to this concert).

A Tribute To Heroes, May 26th at 3pm, is a free heroic themed concert featuring patriotic selections from composer John Williams, famous Sousa marches, as well as music from popular action films such as Superman, Raiders of the Lost Ark, Mission Impossible, plus Highlights from South Pacific and more. The Symphony will also perform Fanfare for Life, composed by Kimo Williams, a Vietnam Veteran, with the selection being sponsored in part by the United States Veterans Arts Program (usvap.org) which provides arts resources to veterans. A special guest vocalist will join the Symphony for this concert.

VENUE: Temecula Civic Center located at 41000 Main Street in Old Town Temecula.

The Symphony is conducted by Music Director John Mario, an internationally known conductor and opera coach. Per Alana Joos, Managing and Artistic Director, "Patrons enjoy our diverse programming that includes everything from the traditional classics, to pops, and epic works from major motion pictures. Variety is key to our successful performances. I sum up our concerts as Symphonic Music with A New Twist!"

CHAMPIONS: Soprana Jennifer Lindsay.

eral Admission and $16 for Seniors and Youth up to age 12. In addition to the 7 public performances, Frederick will delight thousands of elementary aged children at an additional 24 performances on weekday mornings for school field trips, beginning on April 30th. Specially priced $10 tickets are available for Foundation Family Saturday performance on May 5th. Foundation Family Flex pack tickets are just $12 if purchased in quantities of four or more (up to 8 per family) for the same performance and are available for all MainStreet Theatre Company productions.

During weekend performances of Frederick, families can participate in creating a piece of "living art" inspired by the story in the MainStreet lobby. Children can also meet the cast in the lobby for autographs after the show. There will be a short "talk-back" after the performance on Sunday, May 13th.

On Saturday May 12th, the Playhouse will be hosting a "Spring Time Tea Party," complete with finger sandwiches and other delicious treats, in between the two matinee performances of Frederick. People with tickets to the show receive a discount on the tea.

MainStreet Theatre Company, included in American Theatre Magazine's 2016 list of "20 Theatres you should take your kids to," is the resident Equity Company at Lewis Family Playhouse, producing innovative plays and musicals for the whole family.

An intimate, 560-seat venue, the Lewis Family Playhouse is the crown jewel of the three-acre, 89,000-square-foot Victoria Gardens Cultural Center. The complex at 12505 Cultural Center Drive and is located off the I-15 at Foothill Boulevard, as a major anchor of Victoria Gardens Mall. The Box Office is open Monday through Friday from noon to 6pm and Saturday from 10am to 6pm, with free parking available.

SAN BERNARDINO THEATER

'What kind of musical is this?'

The Tony Award-winning, satirical comedy 'Urinetown' closes out CSUSB's 2017-2018 Season

"GOSH, DADDY, I NEVER REALIZED LARGE, MONOPOLIZING CORPORATIONS COULD BE SUCH A FORCE FOR GOOD IN THE WORLD!" – HOPE

On June 1, The Ellen Weisser Endowed Theatre Showcase flushes the 2017-2018 Season down with the Tony Award-winning musical, Urinetown, music and lyrics by Mark Hollmann, book and lyrics by Greg Kotis, and directed by Cal State San Bernardino professor Kathryn Ervin.

There is a terrible water shortage in the world and private toilets have been banned. The private corporation Urine Good Company, or UGC, controls water consumption by charging the masses for use of public facilities, and those who cause trouble are sent to Urinetown never to be seen again. But when the price to pee perpetually increases, the people rebel!

With a total of eight performances, Urinetown plays June 1, 2, 7, 8 and 9 at 8pm, with matinee performances June 3, 9, and 10 at 2pm.

Tickets can be purchased from the CSUSB Theatre Arts Box Office, or online at theatre.csusb.edu. Individual tickets are $6 for students and children under 17; $12 for faculty, staff, senior citizens and military; $15 for adults. Performances take place in the Ronald E. Barnes Theatre on the CSUSB campus. Parking at CSUSB is $6 Monday-Friday and $3 on the weekend.

For additional information, contact the Theatre Box Office at (909) 537-5884 or theatrearts@csusb.edu. For more information on Cal State San Bernardino, contact the university's Office of Strategic Communication at (909) 537-5007 and visit inside.csusb.edu. IER

Beat The Summer Heat

Beat The Heat For Cheap With Water Slide Season Passes

Escape the sweltering heat in the cities this summer with a day of play in the cool spray on the double water slide at Alpine Slide in nearby Big Bear Lake.

Enjoy cooler temperatures in the mountains while splishing and splashing on Alpine Slide's two flumes of cascading water, which take riders down long straight aways and through numerous turns before depositing them in the solar-heated pool at the bottom.

Water Slide rides are inexpensive - just $15 for an all day pass, 10 rides for $10, or two bucks each. Season passes are $69 for an anytime pass, and $49 for a Sunday-Friday pass (excluding July 4th). A great way to beat summer heat, and parents who don't want to play don't get soaked either since they don't have to pay to get in, unlike at other water parks. Spread a blanket out on the grass or take a seat on one of two outdoor sundecks and soak up rays while the kids play.

SLIDERS There are plenty of twists, turns, and straightaways at Alpine Slide in Big Bear.

Alpine Slide is famous for its Olympic-style bobsleds which are in season all year long. Snow is never needed since the sleds have Teflon runners and ball-bearing wheels, and the two quarter-mile long tracks with banked turns are cement.

Riders control their own speed with the brake, and unlike any amusement park ride, each trip down is a completely unique and interactive experience. Lean into each turn and go into a tuck through straightaways to experience what it's like to be an Olympic bobsledder, or use the brake to go slow and soak in views of the lake and mountains.

Alpine Slide is also home to Putt 'N Around go-karts and 18-hole miniature golf course, filled with water hazards, breaking greens and "sand traps." Go-karts feature 5.5 horsepower Honda motors and safety features like professional three-point restraint systems similar to those found in race cars, rack and pinion steering, hydraulic disk brakes, and padded steering wheels.

Take a break from the action in the expanded lodge with family priced snacks including hand-scooped ice cream bar. A cotton candy machine makes your cotton candy while you watch!

Alpine Slide is open weekends in the Spring with daily summer operation beginning June 9th and is located at 800 Wildrose Lane in Big Bear Lake, 1/4 mile west of the Village shopping, home to 60 specialty stores.

For more information, call (909) 866 - 4626 or go online to www.alpineslidebigbear.com. IER

Comic Con Revolution Returns To The Ontario Convention Center

Chris Claremont joins the Revolution for a Rare Southern California Appearance at Comic Con Revolution

Comic Con Revolution returns to the Inland Empire and Ontario Convention Center, located at 2000 E Convention Center Way in Ontario, this May 19 and 20, with comic book icon Chris Claremont.

Chris Claremont, famous for his unparalleled 17-year unbroken run writing The Uncanny X-Men for Marvel Comics from 1976 to 1991 amongst other works, will be joining a guest list featuring some of the comic industry's most talented artists and writers. He will be signing autographs, talking with fans and participating in panels all weekend long.

"So looking forward to spending time with fans in Southern California," said Chris Claremont.

"When we wrapped up Comic Con Revolution last May we gave ourselves a challenge. Bring an even bigger and better experience to Ontario and the Inland Empire in 2018," said Atomic Crush Events co-founder Drew Seldin.

Comic Con Revolution will feature over 100 guests, two full days of programming totaling to over 100 panels, 70,000 square feet of exhibit space featuring over 150 Exhibitors, over 175 creators Artist Alley, the return of The Cosplay Revolution Costume Contest hosted by Ming Chen (AMC's Comic Book Men) and much more.

Adult (18+) full weekend tickets are $40, teen full weekend tickets (13-17 years-old) are $30, adult Saturday tickets are $25, teen Saturday tickets are $18.75, adult Sunday are $20, teen Sunday are $15. Kids 12 and under are free with the purchase of an adult ticket. One paid adult ticket allows for up to two free children's tickets. Ticket prices increase when purchased on site so order in advance and save.

GET READY FOR SOME CHILI!

ARLINGTON BUSINESS PARTNERSHIP'S ANNUAL CHILI COOK-OFF & CAR/CYCLE SHOW IS COMING MEMORIAL DAY WEEKEND IN RIVERSIDE'S ARLINGTON BUSINESS DISTRICT

Arlington Business Partnership's Annual Chili Cook-Off & Car/Cycle Show returns for its 16th year on Saturday, May 26, and will offer Inland Empire residents a free, family friendly event with tons of activities for children and adults.

The annual event spans Magnolia Avenue between Van Buren Boulevard and Jackson Street, and will include two stages of live music, classic cars, street vendors, a Kid's Zone with petting zoo, a beer garden and, of course, chili.

Over the years, word of mouth has helped the event grow into a popular attraction. In 2017, The Press Enterprise's annual Best of the Inland Empire named the Chili Cook-Off as a Hometown Favorite – Best Community Event.

"In 2003, the founding members of the Arlington Business Partnership started the chili cook-off with about 1,500 people in attendance and last year there was estimated to be 20,000 on the street," said Arlington Business Partnership Executive Director Andrew Guerra.

The chili cook-off will consist of two competitions. The first chili cook-off competition is expected to have professional cooks from neighboring states to compete in a cook-off which is sanctioned by the International Chili Society (ICS) and the winner will be crowned the California State Champion. The second competition will include the local community and restaurant cooks. Each competitor will be cooking on the street and follow strict guidelines.

Because the event is so popular, Arlington Business Partnership is bringing its own chili because the chili tends to run low during the event.

Along with the chili cook-off competition, there will be a salsa competition. Contestants will be submitting one pint of salsa for judging. The salsa fresca, pico de gallo, blended from fresh or canned ingredients, or made from dried peppers. The salsa may be red or green.

The Arlington Business Partnership is actively seeking sponsors, chili cooks, vendors car/cycle show participants, and volunteers.

ABOUT ARLINGTON BUSINESS PARTNERSHIP

On October 1, 2002, the Riverside City Council authorized the formation of the Arlington Business Improvement District (BID) and designated the Arlington Business Partnership (ABP), a 501c (6) nonprofit organization, with the mission to represent and promote Arlington businesses, to stimulate the local economy, and initiate improvement projects, thus creating a sense of pride for all who live, work, and do business in Arlington. ABP serves as an advisory board to the City of Riverside on the Arlington BID and works in collaboration with the City in managing and maintaining the Arlington BID. IER

Ontario '54' DISCO

Largest dance floor in the Inland Empire set to welcome dancers for event

Get on your dancin' shoes and get ready to boogie on Friday, June 22. Ontario "54" Disco welcomes dancers to relive or discover the golden age of disco for one night with all the glamour, flamboyant costumes, tight dance moves, and incredible lights. The 21 and older event is geared to adults looking for a unique experience.

Disco was so popular in the 70's and 80's that they decided to bring it back for one night, said Michael Krouse, President & CEO of Ontario Convention Center. Their 70,000 square foot exhibition hall will be transformed into a swanky lounge with a huge dance floor, over the top décor, and of course a five-foot disco ball."

LIVE ENTERTAINMENT

Live entertainment will be provided by the Boogie Wonder Band with special guest Evelyn "Champagne" King. In addition, celebrity DJ Martin Rodriquez, formerly with Circus Disco in Los Angeles, will be on hand to keep the dancers on the floor throughout the evening.

BOOGIE WONDER BAND – After 3000 shows around the world the Boogie Wonder Band has become the most celebrated DISCO band of our generation. Boogie Wonder Band was honored to have won "Entertainer of the year" at the Canadian Event Industry Award

2015, in 2016 were named one of the top five Hottest Canadian Event & Party Bands and The only 70's cover band featured in the prestigious event and meeting professional magazine BizBash "Retro Entertainment". From major sporting events to high end corporate parties, from premieres to entertaining celebrities such as Celine Dion and Emeril Lagasse, everyone knows BWB will bring the house down.

Over the years, BWB has had the privilege to share the stage with Kool & The Gang, Village People, Rick James, War, CHIC, KC & The Sunshine Band, Gloria Gaynor, Maxine Nightingale, The Trammps, Paul Shaffer, Pointer Sister, Styx, and Foreigner.

EVELYN "CHAMPAGNE" KING – Evelyn King released her debut album, Smooth Talk, in 1977. It included the song "Shame", which is her only top ten on the Billboard Hot 100, peaking at #9; the song also reached #7 Soul and #8 on the dance chart. The record was eventually certified gold. Another single from that album, "I Don't Know If It's Right", peaked at #23 on the Billboard Hot 100 and #7 Soul; it would become her second certified gold single. In 1981, the single "I'm in Love" was released from the same-titled album; it reached #1 on the R&B singles chart and dance chart in August of that year; it also peaked at #40 on the pop chart.

On September 20, 2004, King's "Shame" became one of the first records to be inducted into the Dance Music Hall of Fame at a ceremony held in New York's Spirit club.

TICKETS

Tickets are on sale - General Admission is only $25. The VIP ticket for $50 includes a raised lounge, bottle and dining service, and soft seating. Tickets are available on Ticketmaster. Doors open at 7:30pm.

27th Annual Old Riverside Foundation Vintage Home Tour, Restoration Faire & Vintage Mercantile

The Old Riverside Foundation, a non-profit organization for historic preservation, is holding its 27th Annual Vintage Home Tour, Restoration Faire and Vintage Mercantile on Saturday, May 19, from 10am until 4pm.

The City of Riverside is its Tour Sponsor this year. The ticket price includes a self-guided home tour of five lovely examples of Riverside's rich historic architecture, one gratis raffle basket ticket, along with a Restoration Faire with suppliers, artists, and craftspeople.

Revitalized Koroneburg Renaissance Festival returns to Corona

Koroneburg Renaissance Festival is thrilled to once again open its doors on weekends starting May 26 through June 24. This is the second year under new management for Koroneburg Renaissance Festival, featuring new growth and entertainment as the most interactive Renaissance experience in the Corona, Eastvale, and Norco communities.

"We're continuing to build this wonderful festival to make it bigger and better than ever," says Loyal Order of Reenactment Enthusiasts Inc., Festival Director, David Pulcifer. "We want people to experience the Renaissance through real audience-participation."

Loyal Order of Reenactment Enthusiasts reopened the festival in 2017 in the hopes of restoring a once great festival into a one-of-a-kind gem.

As one of the only permanently built Renaissance festivals in Southern California since 1998, the Koroneburg Renaissance Festival features a unique and busy historical village full of shops and a grand tourney field. Enjoy shopping for handmade goods, listening to folk music, or spend the day experiencing history thanks to the festival's new interactive games and demonstrations.

Koroneburg Renaissance Festival begins May 26 and runs on consecutive weekends until June 24, including Memorial Day. The festival is located at Riverview Recreation Park in Corona. Tickets can be purchased at www.renfestcorona.com or on-site during the festival.

LOYAL ORDER OF REENACTMENT ENTHUSIASTS, INC.

Loyal Order of Reenactment Enthusiasts is a California non-profit organization formed by David Pulcifer, and Basem and Mona Chaikhouni. The Loyal Order of Re-enactment Enthusiasts (LORE) is organized around an education goal. The purpose of the organization is to provide the means for history enthusiasts, educators, and students to develop or expand their skills and background in various aspects of history. Learn more about their other educational programs at www.discoverlore.org. IER

Each of the homes on the tour is unique, with varying architectural styles including, Tudor Revival, Victorian era grove house, Spanish Eclectic, Foursquare, and Craftsman bungalow. Histories at these locations include the home of a long-time Riverside Mayor, a New York businessman who retired in Riverside and had the pleasure of President Theodore Roosevelt as a visitor to his home, and an immigrant from Europe who embraced the land of opportunity, settled in Riverside and became a long-time businessman here.

The tour will also include the Peter J. Weber house – headquarters for Old Riverside Foundation – open for touring. As in the past, Weber's son, Peter N. Weber, will be on hand explaining his days living there and answering questions.

Outside the Weber House will again be the Restoration Faire & Vintage Mercantile, featuring craftsmen who specialize in vintage-sensitive wrought iron, renovation consultation, tile, plaster work, and roofing. Vendors will offer antiques, linens, jewelry, décor, and clay creations for home and yard.

"Planning for the event is still being done, so we anticipate that along with our returning vendors, we'll have a few new ones to pique your interest. Oh, and don't forget the Raffle Baskets – see if tour day is your lucky day!" said ORF Board Member and Home Tour Coordinator Nancy Parrish.

Tickets are $20 pre-sale and $22 day of tour. Tickets may be purchased at www.oldriverside.org and are available at many Riverside locations, including Mrs. Tiggy Winkles, Mission Galleria, Do-It Center Lumber, A to Z Printing, Courtyard Marriott, and Moreno Valley Flower Box. Check their website at www.oldriverside.org for additional location addresses.

The Old Riverside Foundation is a non-profit, civic organization incorporated on July 25, 1979. They are dedicated to the recognition, appreciation, and preservation of the built environment (buildings, feats of engineering, parks, avenues, landscaping features, and archaeological remains) of Riverside and the Inland Empire.

For more information, contact Nancy Parrish at Factsgirl@aol.com, (951) 509-7682, or go online to www.oldriverside.org. IER
