The Gatlin Brothers To Perform Father's Day At Huck Finn's Jubilee

'A Great American Party' at Mojave Narrows Regional Park in Victorville

In recent years, a ground swell of interest from dedicated fans has encouraged Larry Gatlin and the Gatlin Brothers to perform selected dates they now refer to as "The Gatlin Brothers Never Ending Reunion Tour." This year, the famous trio who popularized the hit song "All the Gold in California," can be found performing at Huck Finn's 36th Jubilee on Father's Day, June 17.

The 6 pm concert highlights "A Great American Party" designed to rediscover the Good ol' USA, and it takes place at Mojave Narrows Regional Park in Victorville. Each year, families pack the camper with kids, banjos, and fishing poles and in the spirit of Mark Twain, run away for some old fashioned fun in the country.

Larry, Steve and Rudy Gatlin started singing in their little hometown of Abilene, Texas, and from there went on to make music history. Over the course of a four decade long career that has taken the Gatlin Brothers from dusty Texas stages to White House performances, Broadway and Grammy awards, there has been one unifying element, music.

Nearly 50 years of family harmonies, a Grammy for "Broken Lady" in 1976 and Academy of Country Music Award for "All the Gold in California" in 1979 sent the trio to the top of the country charts. There were more than a dozen top 40 hits including "Denver," "Houston" (Means That I'm One Day Closer To You)," and "Love Is Just A Game."

MUSIC AND FUN The Huck Finn Jubilee features plenty of live music, as well as tons of family activities, games, and good ol' fashion times.

HEADLINERS Larry Gatlin and the Gatlin Brothers perform at the Huck Finn Jubilee

Throughout the 70's and 80's, the Gatlin Brothers lit up major venues and packed concert halls across America. In concert, their performances became magical events, filled with incredible family harmonies and downright fun for both the trio and their audience. But, in 1992 they fell silent for nearly 20 years.

"I always wanted to showcase the Gatlin Brothers, and when they stopped touring, I thought I'd missed my chance," states Don Tucker, who in past years has shared great artists like Merle Haggard, Roger Miller and Earle Scruggs with Jubilee fans.

Today, however, Larry Gatlin notes, "You know what Bob Dylan said, ... things they are a changin'." To the delight of Tucker, the Gatlin Brothers chose to perform on Father's Day during the Jubilee.

At this stage, the Gatlins have the best of both worlds, family and friends, plenty of work, as individuals and together.

Named Bluegrass Event of the Year by the International Bluegrass Music Association (IBMA) in 2001, the Huck

Finn Jubilee continues to showcase top names in Country and Bluegrass music. This year's impressive lineup includes IBMA's Entertainer of the Year, Steep Canyon Rangers, The Seldom Scene, Ronnie Reno and the Reno Tradition, Chris Jones and the Night Drivers, Grammy Nominee, Lisa Haley, and Dry Branch Fire Squad among others.

A high desert tradition since 1976, The Huck Finn Jubilee not only features top name entertainment on main stage, but, it also hosts guitar, banjo, band and songwriting workshops in a more intimate setting. Musical jam sessions or pickin' parties also run nearly all night long in special campgrounds on the park.

The 800 acre Mojave Narrows Regional Park in Victorville, where the Jubilee is held, sits on an oasis resembling parkland found along the Mississippi River. To reach it, take the Bear Valley Road exit off I-15, then go east to Ridgcrest Ave., and turn north to the park.

The Jubilee's website, www.huckfinn.com carries complete schedule, camping, special discount offers and ticket information. Other information on this Great American Family Event is available by calling (951) 780-8810. IER

Irish Fair and Music Festival 2012

Having had time to recover from St. Patrick's Day, it's now time to get ready for the Big Irish Fair, June 16-17, in Orange County. Tickets are on sale now for the largest festival of its kind west of Chicago.

With the previous location at Irvine Meadows being turned into condo's, event organizers have selected a new location next to Irvine Lake. The new site is known as Oak Canyon Park, at 5305 Santiago Canyon Road in Orange County. Like the former site, Oak Canyon also has a small lake in the middle and a lot of grass and trees.

The Big Irish Fair features more than 2,000 performers, 11 Irish bands on four stages and over a 1,000 Irish traditional step dancers. Also enjoy bag pipe bands, an Irish Wolfhound show, sheep herding and hundreds of arts and crafts booths along with Irish import shops. And for those yearning for the good ol' days they have an ancient Irish Tara Village where knights of old roam the grounds protecting the High King.

Take part in the various contests: a Red Headed Kid contest, a Freckled Faced Kid contest, and an Irish Baby contest on both days of the fair. For the older folks, they also have a Knobby Knees contest for those who dare.

And you can be sure there will be plenty of food and drink, and since it's Father's Day Weekend, what could be better than bringing Dad to the Fair for a banger and a brew.

The Fair is also looking for volunteers. If interested, contact Kathy Llera at Kllera@aol.com.

Bill Engvall Goes Blue Collar at Fox

American Comedy Award Winner Bill Engvall brings his “blue collar comedy” to the Fox Performing Arts Center in Riverside on June 23. The thing that makes any entertainer successful is the ability to connect with an audience. It’s the quality of sharing the humor in everyday situations that has made Bill Engvall one of the top comedians today and among the busiest.

Bill is starring in and executive producing the new half hour sitcom for TBS entitled The Bill Engvall Show. The show centers on Bill as the father at the core of a family comedy. The series’ debut telecast on July 17, 2007 delivered 3.9 million viewers and 2.8 million households, securing a place among ad-supported cable’s Top 3 sitcom telecasts (original or acquired) of all time among households and Top 5 original sitcom telecasts of all time among key adult demos and viewers.

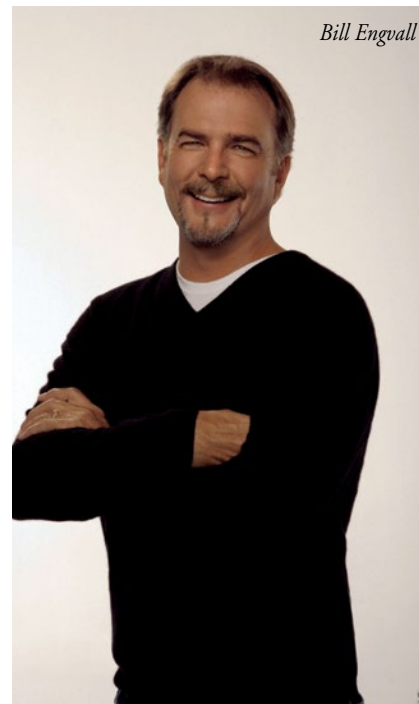

Bill also hosts one of the top rated shows on CMT, Country Fried Home Videos. This show finds real videos from real people showing what real Americans do bringing the wit and wisdom to television that only the heartland can offer.

Bill is currently filming the movie Bait Shop which co-stars Billy Ray Cyrus.

Prior to his big screen debut, Bill was one of the stars of the sketch comedy show, Blue Collar TV, on the WB network. The ensemble cast included Jeff Foxworthy and Larry the Cable Guy. Blue Collar TV premiered on July 29, 2004, 5.4 million people tuning in to see Blue Collar TV, making it the second-most watched show in the time period. He also shot a special for the WB network called Mobile Home Disasters, which helped propel the network to one of its best Thursday nights of the season. The show was a blue collar version of Extreme Home Makeover and the episode took a deserving family and completely transformed their mobile home.

Bill starred in Blue Collar Comedy Tour, The Movie, which premiered on Comedy Central and at that time was the most watched movie in the channel’s history. It has sold more than 4 million DVD/VHS units. The sequel Blue Collar Comedy Tour Rides Again also premiered on Comedy

Tony Award nominee Cathy Rigby takes flight in an all new production of Peter Pan at the Fox Performing Arts Center in Riverside with Cathy Rigby is Peter Pan.

Tickets are on sale now for the June 29 - July 1 production.

America first took notice of Cathy at the Mexico City Olympics in 1968, where she became the highest-scoring U.S. gymnast. Her spunkiness and drive to succeed quickly charmed audiences and she became known as “America’s Sweetheart of Gymnastics.” During her gymnastics career, Cathy won numerous international medals (including eight gold) and competed in the Olympics a second time in 1972. She also won a silver medal on the balance beam at the 1970 World Championships, becoming the first American woman to medal in World Gymnastics. In 1998, Cathy was inducted into the International Gymnastics Hall of Fame.

After the ‘72 Olympics, Cathy retired from gymnastics and joined ABC Sports for 18 years, providing expert commentary on the sport of gymnastics.

Before long, Cathy sought to embark on a new career in performing arts. She made her stage debut as Peter in the arena version of Peter Pan. Cathy’s national and regional tour credits include: Annie Get Your Gun, Meet Me In St. Louis, South Pacific, Paint Your Wagon, and The Unsinkable Molly Brown. On Broadway, she starred as the title role in Peter Pan in 1991 and 1998 and in Seussical the Musical as Cat-In-The-Hat in 2002. IER

King to serve as tutor to his many children and wives. Loosely based on real events, The King and I tells the tale of East versus West, where Anna and the King grow to understand and eventually respect one another, in a truly unique love story. Along with the dazzling score, the incomparable Jerome Robbins ballet, "The Small House of Uncle Thomas" is one of the all-time favorites of the musical stage. CATS Choreographer-Director Karen Sargent Rachels will re-create the ballet for CATS' full-scale production.

When the musical opened on Broadway in 1951, ultimately playing 1,246 performances, a young singer was hired to understudy Yul Brynner and play the part of The Interpreter. The young man was Leonard Graves, who eventually took over the role of The King on Broadway and became a Big Bear resident in early 1990. Graves played the part of The King for CATS' production of The King and I in 1997. Since then, Producer-Director Karen Sargent Rachels has been reluctant to reprise the show without having a stellar King in mind to play the part.

When the multi-talented Robin Field came on the CATS scene, she planned the revival of the show. Field has been seen on the CATS stage with his one man show, A Musical Comedy Life, as well as in various roles including Harold Hill in The Music Man, Henry Higgins in My Fair Lady and Scrooge in A Christmas Carol.

Playing Mrs. Anna is Diana Hintergardt who hails from Apple Valley, with a second home in Big Bear. Diana has been seen in A Musical Comedy Life as well as the recent CATS production Bearly Broadway.

Other veteran CATS' performers will be featured in the cast. Along with Robin Field as The King, and Diana Hintergardt as Mrs. Anna, Michael McConnell is Lun Tha, Jodi Cline is Tuptim, Steve Mangels is The Kralahome, Serena Saunders is Lady Thiang, Troy Obernolte is The Prince, Timmy Brasher is Louis, Jessica Brasher is Eliza and Ashley Harris is The Angel.

"The King and I is an enormous production to mount," Rachels said. "It demands not only top-talent in many semi-operatic singing roles, but also requires gorgeous costumes and sets. Also, the production must pay attention to the demands of the Jerome Robbins' ballet, 'The Small House of Uncle Thomas,' which is based on the book, Uncle Tom's Cabin, and is used in the musical as an anti-slavery lesson and plea for tolerance in the Siamese Court. As with other Rodgers and Hammerstein musicals, post Oklahoma!, the production cannot be done properly without the inclusion of the 'Small House' ballet, because the story line is promoted through the ballet itself. For this reason alone, many community theaters simply avoid doing the show. You don't see a lot of revivals of The King and I around!"

Tickets for The King and I are available through the CATS website at www.bigbeartheater.org and can also be purchased through the PAC Box Office at (909) 866-4970. For more information, go online to www.bigbeartheater.org. IER

2012 Pageant Honors The Masters In 'The Genius'

The king of trial and error Thomas Edison once famously said, "Genius is one percent inspiration and 99% perspiration."

Few people are more aware of the amount of time and effort that will be required to turn her inspiration into the 2012 Pageant of the Masters than its director Diane Challis Davy. But, even as she begins rehearsals for this summer's world-famous theatrical celebration of art in "living pictures" - tableaux vivants - Challis Davy is excited about the possibilities inherent in its theme, The Genius.

"The theme actually originated back in 2009 when we produced The Muse," Challis Davy said. "That show examined

Joan Sebastian, Singer, Composer, Actor Comes To Fantasy Springs

Performs June 16

Joan Sebastian, a popular three time Grammy Award and five time Latin Grammy Award winning Mexican singer and songwriter, will perform at Fantasy Springs Resort Casino on Saturday June 16. He has composed hundreds of pop songs and has been a regular staple on the top-40 charts in Mexico since his career began in 1977.

Sebastian has been recognized by critics and colleagues for his contribution to the Mexican culture, having his lyrics performed by prominent Latin artists.

His music is a mixture of Latin pop, ranchera and grupera music. His success is not only found in music but also in his short acting career when he became the main protagonist of a Mexican soap opera.

After leaving a local seminary at the age of 17, the young man started to get involved in popular music, dedicating his first composition, called "Juliantla," to his native town. In 1977, José Manuel Figueroa decided to call himself Joan Sebastian, paying tribute to San Sebastian, where he used to work.

Sebastian's first disc "El Camino del Amor" sold 127 thousand copies and reached audiences in the United States and South America. Thirty-two albums followed, each one more successful than the previous. Sebastian received the prestigious award "Premio Lo Nuestro a la Musica Latina" as recognition of his career. In 2003 he was awarded the Songwriter of the Universe Award for the second time. His vast discography spans more than three decades and he remains one of the most famous singers and songwriters Mexico has.

The San Bernardino Symphony announces 2012-13 Season

Plans for the San Bernardino Symphony's 2012-13 season, Musical Destinations, are well underway. Conducted under the baton of newly appointed artistic advisor Frank Fetta, the season promises a series of breathtaking musical journeys, and immense enjoyment for concert audiences.

The Symphony opens the series on September 22 with Russian Roulade, playing Glinka's exuberant "Russian and Ludmilla Overture," Tchaikovsky's "Variations on a Rococo Theme," featuring the return of acclaimed cello soloist Marek Szpakiewicz, and Rachmaninoff's triumphant "Symphony No. 2."

The orchestra's November 10 concert will celebrate all things French with Faure's spectacular "Pelleas & Melisande," Debussy's poetic "Petite Suite," Bizet's dazzling "Symphony in C," and Ravel's "Piano Concerto in G Major" featuring pianist Esther Keel.

The New Year will herald in Treasures of the Americas, the Symphony's annual afternoon family concert on Jan. 13, 2013. The concert features selections from Copland's ever popular "Rodeo," Kubic's whimsical "Gerald McBoing Boing", a musical adventure based on the popular Dr. Seuss story, Revueltas' "Homage to Garcia Lorca," and closes with Copland's beautiful "Appalachian Spring" accompanied by folk dancers.

On March 9, the SBSO celebrates the shared 200th birthday of Verdi and Wagner with great orchestral and operatic works including selections from "Die Meistersinger," "The Flying Dutchman," "La Forza del Destino," and the "Ballet Music of Aida," among others. I pick it up and twirl it through my fingers. A yellow writing tablet rests on my lap. My right foot taps melodically against the marble floors to the Blues blaring through the overhead speakers. My hair and clothes reek of coffee, the nuisance that will accompany me into tomorrow. I do not know what I love more: the people watching or the daily motions of attempting to write my first big piece.

women's roles in making and inspiring art, and was selected from a feminine point of view. I thought it would be interesting to craft a 'companion' show, one with a masculine sensibility, focusing on the power, strength and intelligence inherent in masterful works of art."

Challis Davy has also chosen a secondary theme for The Genius, the relationship between art and advances in science and technology. "I'm curious about the materials and techniques used by the old masters," Challis Davy said. "One hundred fifty years ago, artists had to make their own paints! You almost had to be a chemist or alchemist. And I'm fascinated by the huge roles played by developments in optics and photography in painting realistic works."

She was quick to add, "But, you won't have to be a rocket scientist to enjoy The Genius."

Clearly, the 2012 Pageant will be very different from the whimsical escapism of last summer's Only Make Believe. Tributes to the lives and masterpieces of extraordinary artists whose works have withstood the test of time will be in the forefront of the 2012 Pageant, including Michelangelo, Vincent van Gogh and the Dutch Masters, to name a few. Legendary composers will be feted in series of artworks dedicated to the "Maestros of Music," and scientific innovation will be highlighted in "The Stars of Astronomy." And Pageant traditionalists will no doubt welcome the return of the Renaissance master, Leonardo da Vinci, whose "The Last Supper" has been the Pageant finale, with rare exceptions, since 1936.

"The Last Supper" is arguably the most recognizable masterwork of all time," Challis Davy said, "and Leonardo da Vinci was a genius for the ages, no question. He was not afraid to experiment and take chances."

Longtime Pageant scriptwriter Dan Duling, already busy researching the narration for the show, added, "Genius exists in every field of endeavor, and it's a fantastic source for moving stories of triumph, tragedy and courage. If you're looking for inspiration, this show is going to dare you to think big."

When asked about what surprises might be in store for 2012 in terms of music or special effects, Challis Davy, preparing for her 17th year as Pageant director, noted there are plans for some advances in sound design and digital projection, and hopes for some "unexpected light effects." Laughing, she added, "Sorry, no 3-D glasses."

With its ambitious selection of acknowledged masterpieces, The Genius will certainly be an exciting centerpiece for the Festival of Art's celebration of its 80th anniversary. Everyone associated with the production understands the Pageant wouldn't be possible without that spirit of volunteer dedication. As Challis Davy acknowledges, their dedication and loyalty are the remarkable engines that sustain the Pageant.

"I love art and theatre," Challis Davy said, "and I'm lucky to be surrounded by people who love the hard work it takes to produce a very elaborate show. I get inspiration from my scriptwriter, my staff, my composers, and from the scores of enthusiastic research volunteers who come up with great suggestions!"

The Pageant of the Masters will be performed nightly at 8:30pm from Saturday, July 7, through Friday, August 31, 2012. Tickets for The Genius, the 2012 Pageant of the Masters, are on sale now at www.PageantTickets.com. Tickets start at $15. For further information, call (949) 497-6852, or toll free 800-487-3378
