Movies On Main RETURNS With Four Movies In 2016

The Riverside Downtown Partnership in conjunction with the City's Park, Recreation and Community Services Department is pleased to announce the return of "Movies on Main" with blockbuster G-rated and PG movies the entire family will enjoy. These free movies will be shown on Main Street between University and Mission Inn Avenue projected on an inflatable outdoor screen.

Scheduled movies this summer include:

JULY 7 – HOTEL TRANSYLVANIA 2

Hotel owner Dracula is concerned that his half-human grandson Dennis isn't embracing his vampire heritage. He and his fellow ghouls put Dennis through a "monster-in-training" boot camp, but their efforts are complicated by the arrival of Dracula's dad, a traditionalist vampire named Vlad.

JULY 14 – MINIONS

The Minions, Stuart, Kevin and Bob, discover a hidden commercial broadcast for villains advertising Villain-Con; a convention for villains and supervillains in Orlando. At the convention, they are recruited by Scarlet Overkill, a super-villain who, alongside her inventor husband Herb, hatches a plot to take over the world.

JULY 21 – INSIDE OUT

Emotions run wild in the mind of a little girl who is uprooted from her peaceful life in the Midwest and forced to move to San Francisco. Young Riley was perfectly content with her life when her father landed a new job in San Francisco, and the family moved across the country. Now, as Riley prepares to navigate a new city and attend a new school, her emotional headquarters becomes a hot bed of activity. As Joy attempts to keep Riley feeling happy and positive about the move, other emotions like Fear, Anger, Disgust and Sadness make the transition a bit more complicated.

JULY 28 – THE GOOD DINOSAUR

In this enchanting computer-animated fantasy, set in a world where the dinosaurs never went extinct, an amiable young Apatosaurus named Arlo loses his father in a storm and is swept away by a vicious river current, stranding him in a frightening new place far from his home. He soon embarks on a journey to reunite with his family, and befriends a prehistoric human child known as Spot along the way.

The movie screening will start at 8 pm or dusk if later. Early arrival is strongly recommended to secure a good spot and attendees can bring their own chair or blanket. Downtown restaurants nearby will be open late. # Festival Celebrates The Native Lemon Lily

The Idyllwild Nature Center hosts the Lemon Lily Festival, July 9-10 in Idyllwild, a small resort town nestled mile-high in the San Jacinto mountain range and easily accessible from all of Southern California.

The Nature Center has continued to host the Lemon Lily festival each year since its inception. This year's festival will be the seventh annual and promises to be among the best! Special features include folk music, pony rides, a children's pioneer town, crafts and vendors of all varieties, and two special guided hikes to see blooming lemon lilies in the wild.

The Lemon Lily Festival was founded in 2009 by local businessman Doug Yagaloff along with several botanists, business folk, and the Idyllwild Garden Club who had a common vision of restoring the Lemon Lily to its natural habitat in the San Jacinto Mountains. This group enlisted the help of volunteers, the Idyllwild Nature Center and the US Forest Service to make this vision a reality.

Their vision was distilled into the following Mission Statement: "The mission of the Lemon Lily Festival is to foster an appreciation for the threatened native Lily, Lilium parryi, educate the public of its plight and relevance to Idyllwild, restore it to its historical range and benefit Idyllwild economically by promoting it as a visitor destination."

Check out www.lemonlilyfestival.com for more details. The Idyllwild Nature Center is located at 25225 Hwy 243 in beautiful Idyllwild.

Fontana's the Place to go for a SPECTACULAR 4th of July Celebration

Celebrate America's Independence Day at the City of Fontana's 4th of July Celebration! The Independence Day Celebration will feature a patriotic extravaganza with a kid's zone, live music and a dazzling fireworks display.

The 4th of July Celebration takes place on Monday, July 4, from 6pm to 9:30pm at Fontana High School located at 9453 Citrus Avenue in Fontana.

The Kids Zone will provide non-stop energy and excitement along with games and contests for kids of all ages. Additional highlights will include the Community Services Department's Mobile Recreation staff roaming the field to provide temporary patriotic tattoos and balloon animals. Make sure you bring your appetite so you can visit one of the many food vendors. If that isn't enough, top the evening off watching the USC cheerleaders perform live throughout the night as well as providing demonstrations, so dust off your pom-poms if you dare!

As the sun goes down, the celebration will heat up with live music and entertainment with a performance by Beatles vs Stones - A Musical Shoot Out. The British Invasion brought us the two most popular rock groups of all time, the Beatles and the Rolling Stones, as well as the liveliest debate in rock history – which band is the greatest? These two legendary bands will engage in an on-stage, mash-up duel – a musical “shoot out of the hits” if you will – featuring internationally renowned tribute bands, Abbey Road and Jumping Jack Flash. Watch as these two bands go head-to-head to see which one can rock your socks off the most!

Finally, as the sun goes down, watch the sky light up with the City's 20-minute fireworks show beginning at 9pm. This dazzling pyrotechnic display will be accompanied to choreographed music and is guaranteed to have you leaving the event filled with a spirit of patriotism and a sense of gratitude.

Buy your tickets starting Monday, June 1, for only $4 per person for all ages at the following locations:

Community Services Department: 16860 Valencia Avenue

Don Day Center: 14501 Live Oak Avenue

City Hall: 8353 Sierra Avenue

Big Bear Alpine Zoo Strives Towards New Heights

High in the mountain region of Big Bear Lake, a gaze of raccoons (that's what you call a group of raccoons) is scurrying across branches foraging for food items while other members of the gaze are busy at a nearby water source involved in their dunking ritual, rinsing their food through the water. What at first appears to be both food and hand washing is actually the technique used by raccoons to heighten their sense of touch, giving them precise information on what they are about to consume.

Not far away, a male black bear tilts his head up and with a rapid succession of airflow through his nostrils, determines that a tasty food source is close by. His sense of smell, 100 times more powerful than that of a human's, picks up a scent of an edible possibility. With massive arm and shoulder strength to accompany the incredible sense of smell, the 400-pound omnivore moves massive logs in an effort to find each morsel of hidden edible treasure.

Known for their expertise as an ambush predator, two mountain lions blend in with their surrounding mountain flora, hiding between bark and branch. Above the ground, the brown, black, and grey hues of their fur makes them almost invisible allowing them to scan the activity on the ground beneath them.

A perfect match for the surrounding bark of forest trees, their stealth-like behavior makes them almost undetectable.

California has some of the most diverse wildlife in North America. But you don't have to camp out in the wilderness just to catch a glimpse of some of our state's amazing animals. In fact, the animals described above are actually animals at the Big Bear Alpine Zoo.

Founded in 1959, the Big Bear Alpine Zoo is the only Alpine Zoo of its kind in the United States. Situated at almost 7,000 feet above sea level, the Big Bear Alpine Zoo serves as a rehabilitation facility for both mountain and nearby communities. With a nearly 80% success rate, animals are nursed back to health or weaned onto solid foods and then released back into the wild. If an animal is too injured or if it has lost its fear of humans, it cannot be released and has a home for life at Big Bear Alpine Zoo.

"Our goal at the zoo is to connect our guests to wildlife, to demonstrate both the uniqueness of our animals and their habitat in the wild," says Curator Bob Cisneros. "As for our animals, we focus on their natural behaviors, providing them with opportunities to thrive. I think this combination of connecting guests to wildlife and meeting the welfare needs of our animals makes us very successful at what we do."

If you are planning a trip to Big Bear, get your wild on! A visit to the zoo is the best way to see representatives of our mountain ecosystem. Located on 2.5 acres, Big Bear Alpine Zoo brings the wild to you, housing over 100 animals, mostly native species.

The zoo is open daily from 10am through 5pm and is located at 43285 Goldmine Drive in Big Bear Lake, right across the street from Bear Mountain Ski and Board Resort.

Each day at noon there is an animal presentation done by one of their keepers and three animal enrichment talks at 1pm, 2pm, and 3pm.

If you want to know more about the facility and the animals in their care, check out the website at www.bigbearzoo.org or like them on their facebook page.

CATS Presents 'Take Me Along'

CATS, The Community Arts Theater Society, will present the delightful Broadway musical Take Me Along for 11 performances at the Big Bear Lake Performing Arts Center. Performances are June 24, 25, 29, July 1, 2, 6, 8 and 9 at 7:30pm and Sunday matinees on June 26, July 3 and 10 at 1:30pm. All performances are reserved seating and prices range from $17 to $29 for adults, $16 to $27 for seniors and $11 to $20 for students/children depending on date and location of seats. For info and tickets check the CATS website at www.bigbeartheater.org or call the PAC Box Office at (909) 866-4970.

Take Me Along opened on Broadway in October of 1959, during the "Golden Age of Broadway." Originally starring Jackie Gleason, who won the 1960 Tony Award for his hilarious performance, and also starring Walter Pidgeon in his magnificent singing role, Take Me Along is a high spirited family musical filled with wonderful songs and delightfully funny scenes. The musical made a star of Robert Morse, and introduced a young dancer to Broadway by the name of Valerie Harper. The Music & Lyrics for the musical were written by Robert Merrill (Funny Girl) with book by Joseph Stein (Fiddler On The Roof) and Robert Russell. It was originally produced by David Merrick, with staging by Onna White.

After closing on Broadway, the musical played National Tours and summer stock venues for several years. It was so popular that United Airlines adapted the title song for a massive ad campaign in the late '60s.

CATS is reviving the musical again, having produced it 15 years ago. Director-Choreographer Karen Sargent Rachels, who once toured with the musical along with Dan Dailey, has fond memories of the show. She says: "Along with a terrific score, the musical has a wonderful script, based on Eugene O'Neill's classic comedy, Ah, Wilderness!. Teenagers as well as Senior citizens fall in love, come of age and try to stay out of trouble, all with delightful singing and dancing. If you liked The Music Man, you'll love Take Me Along."

Take Me Along is set on July 4, 1906, and is the perfect family musical. Once again, CATS' Set Designer, Joanne McMaster, has designed a lovely period set for use on the Performing Arts Center's revolving stage. Costumes are designed by Priscilla Anderson, with Bob Perry in charge of Set Construction. Karen Bergmann is Associate Producer, Adam McDonald is Production Coordinator and Joe Sellarole is Musical Director. The cast includes several of CATS' star performers including Steve Mangels, Adam McDonald, Diana Hintergardt, Nancy Walker, Timmy Brasher and Jessica Brasher.

Tickets are on sale now. Tickets and information are available through the CATS Website at www.bigbeartheater.org.

The Academy competed against 10 top rated Mariachi Youth Groups from throughout California and Arizona. The San Bernardino group was the second most highly rated mariachi in the youth category and the best rated group from California.

The performance to an audience of 4,000 people comes just one week after their Mother's Day performance at Whitmer Auditorium at Colton High School.

PAGEANT OF THE MASTERS DIRECTOR PLAYS MATCHMAKER WITH 2016 SHOW, 'PARTNERS'

The 2016 Pageant of the Masters, Partners, sets out in search of stories of compelling collaborations that led to the creation of unforgettable artworks. This one-of-a-kind theatrical event, featuring live narration and original music performed live by the Pageant's orchestra, takes place in the beautiful Irvine Bowl on the grounds of Laguna's Festival of Arts July 7 – August 31.

"My inspiration for Partners began during research for the 2012 show, The Genius," said Pageant Director Diane Challis Davy. "We discovered a portrait of the Lavoisiers, an influential husband-and-wife team doing scientific research in 18th century France. Theirs was a partnership in both science and art." She continued, "Then, in the midst of planning a salute to movies in 2013's The Big Picture, I began to think 'dance in the movies' might be a wonderful subject for an end-of-act-one finale, including a tribute to the masters of cinematic choreography and iconic dance partners, Gene Kelly and Fred Astaire."

Pageant Scriptwriter Dan Duling added, "Art doesn't happen in a vacuum. Leonardo's mural of The Last Supper wouldn't exist if he hadn't found a patron to give him the go-ahead. And who knows where Lewis and Clark might have ended up without the guidance and assistance of Sacajawea?"

The 2016 Pageant will feature artworks from many nations including France, Spain, Sweden, Italy and Mexico, in search of memorable art made possible by partnerships – between husbands and wives, artists and models, even artists and their patrons. This theatrical and musical journey will also consider how partnership can become an ideal subject for masterpieces devoted to family, love and courtship, as well as historical, scientific and even fictional quests. Director Challis Davy acknowledged the challenge she's already faced. "There are so many artworks inspired by partnerships, it's difficult to narrow them down."

From the warm familial scenes of Sweden's Carl Larsson to the surreal originality of Frida Kahlo and Diego Rivera, Partners promises a double-dose of theatrical fun and surprises. This summer's production will find new and exciting ways to tell the stories to be found within a gallery of masterpieces, many appearing on the Pageant stage for the very first time. As a preview, Challis Davy said, "We're planning to incorporate video and live action sequences along with a behind-the-scenes look at how tableaux are created, and how volunteers are selected for the show. We will use the lovely moonlit landscape of our amphitheater as a perfect setting for some of the sculptural tableaux."

Challis Davy also shared a bit of Pageant history that resonates with this theme. Eighty years ago, in 1936, Laguna legends Roy and Marie Ropp presented their second summer production they had christened the Pageant of the Masters. Their blend of live music, narration and living pictures effectively created the template for today's internationally-acclaimed Pageant. And that year, the Ropps concluded their production with its largest and most ambitious tableau. The first presentation of Leonardo's The Last Supper brought national attention to the Festival and Pageant and effectively changed the course of history for this Laguna Beach tradition. With only three exceptions, The Last Supper has been the program's traditional finale ever since.

Back in 1936, Roy Ropp looked to his friends and neighbors to realize his Pageant dreams. Today, director Challis Davy depends every bit as much on the devotion and dedication of her army of volunteers who join together each summer as cast members and backstage volunteers.

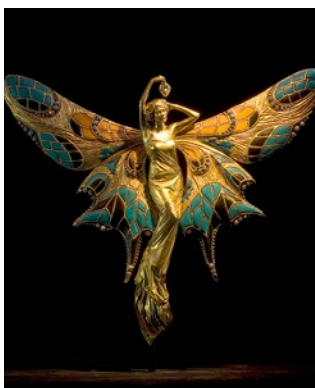

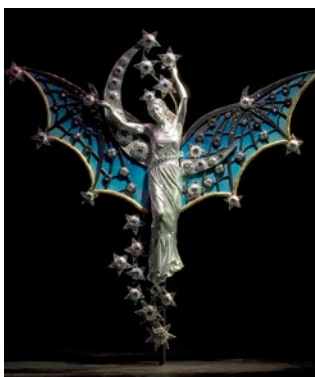

Challis Davy summed up her ambitions for this summer's Pageant. "I think there will be partnerships presented that everyone can relate to. We hope Partners will be beautiful and entertaining, and encourage our audiences to think about the people they know and love who have inspired and encouraged them." LER
