MY NEW HEART MAKES ME FEEL LIKE A PRINCESS.

NICOLE VALLEZ
GIRLY-GIRL

Nicole loves to dress pretty and play with her dolls. She's a lot like other little girls – except for the fact that when Nicole was one, doctors discovered her heart was rapidly failing. She was immediately put on the transplant list at Loma Linda University Children's Hospital, where she later received the heart she needed to live. Twenty-five years ago, our heart team, led by Dr. Leonard Bailey, became the first in the world to perform infant heart transplants. Today we're still helping children like Nicole live to be happy, vibrant, and healthy.

▼ SUMMER ACTIVITIES

Fontana fills the summer with weekly family events

Summer events kick into high gear through August in the City of Fontana as most of the City's summer camps, activities and events are underway. But don't sweat it; there are plenty of cool opportunities left for you and your family to enjoy during Fontana's "superhero summer."

Fontana Parks Aquatic Center

For starters, if you haven't already, be sure to sign up for swim lessons before all the classes are filled up. Classes are available for youth starting as young as infants in the "parent & me" classes designed to introduce babies to swimming and becoming comfortable in the pool. There are several different levels available based upon the swimmer's abilities. The last class session for swim lessons starts on August 2 so sign up now.

If you're thinking you don't need swim lessons or maybe you're an expert swimmer, all you have to do is stop by one of Fontana's four pools for recreational swim. The pools are open on a daily basis from now until Labor Day. Various fees apply and there are specific hours for recreational swim so stop by your nearest pool at the Don Day, Heritage, Jessie Turner or Miller centers for more information.

Celebrating the Fourth of July, the City is once again partnering with the Auto Club Speedway for the Red, White & Cruise celebration. The event features a car cruise and show around the track with over sixty vehicles.

After you've celebrated the Fourth of July with your family, grab your favorite park blanket, some lawn chairs and come out to Miller Park Amphitheatre on Thursdays to catch the latest free Sunset Concert. There are nine concerts planned for the summer. Each one is free and features local bands playing all types of music from tunes that will remind you of the days past to music that will make you dance.

Toward the end of July, on Thursday the 22nd, a special concert takes place at Miller Park. The Fontana Arts Festival returns with much anticipation for a second year. This art enriched festival fuses visual and performing arts into one fantastic family event. Showcasing all the Fontana Arts program has to offer, those in attendance will be treated to the mesmerizing music of Nassau Steel's steel drum performance as well as live art demonstrations, art workshops, food, and local vendors. Admission is free.

Stay updated on all the summer events by checking out the city's website and signing up to be notified my email or text message whenever the next summer event comes around. Visit www.fontanarecreation.org or call (909) 349-6900 for more information. IER

MOUNTAIN ADVENTURE

Alpine Slide in Big Bear Lake

Get a feel for Olympic bobsledding at Alpine Slide in Big Bear Lake. Riders descend two quarter-mile long tracks on "sleds" with teflon runners and ball-bearing wheels. Alpine Slide rides are $4 each, or $18 for a five-ride book. The area is open daily through the Labor Day holiday. Alpine Slide is also home to a refreshing double water slide, Putt 'N Around go-karts, and an 18-hole miniature golf course. For more information call (909) 866-4626 or go online to www.alpineslidebigbear.com.

The 2nd Annual Ultimate Jazz Festival Supports a Worthy Cause

By Natasha Ferguson

The premiere jazz event of the summer is just around the corner. The 2nd Annual Ultimate Jazz Festival takes place Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 7 and 8, at beautiful Fairmount Park in downtown Riverside. Gates open at 11am both days with the concert starting at Noon.

This year, Jazz to be Green has partnered with the Lupus Foundation and will contribute a percentage of the proceeds from the 2nd Annual Ultimate Jazz Festival towards this worthy cause. Lupus is a chronic disease which attacks the autoimmune system. An estimated 5 million people suffer from this life-threatening illness, and an estimated 16,000 new cases of lupus are reported world-wide each year.

The 2nd Annual Ultimate Jazz Festival brings two full days of chart-topping musicians. Saturday's lineup features Jazz pianist Marcus Johnson; saxophonist Jeff Kashiwa; guitarist/vocalist Joyce Cooling; saxophonist

Steve Cole; the Latin jazz sounds of Pete Escovedo and family; and the funky soulful sounds of Con Funk Shun. Sunday, August 8 will feature Soul jazz pianist Gail Johnson; saxophonist Michael Paulo; American jazz fusion guitarist Stanley Jordan; Internationally-acclaimed Latin jazz percussionist Poncho Sanchez; and the high energy R&B/funk group ZAPP.

In addition to these incredible talents on the main stage, attendees will enjoy local jazz and R&B acts on the second stage between headliner performances. A host of vendors selling various items, as well as a variety of delicious food and refreshments, will also be available for concertgoers to enjoy.

Festival Director and Jazz to be Green President Darryl Bundridge is passionate about the cause. Ultimate Jazz Festival

Latin jazz percussionist Poncho Sanchez

Guitarist/vocalist Joyce Cooling

ticketholders will not only have an opportunity to hear chart-topping musicians, but they will have the satisfaction of knowing that they are supporting a worthy organization for future research and development in hopes of finding a cure to help those afflicted with this devastating disease.

Animal lovers converge on the 2010 LA Pet Fair

Dedicated to animal lovers of all kinds, The 2010 LA Pet Fair is coming to the Fairplex in Pomona, August 7-8. The Pet Fair will present dogs, cats, equines, rescues, adoptions, celebrity guest appearances as well as animal entertainment.

Shorty Rossi of Animal Planet's Pit Boss will be present, as well as Skateboarding Bulldogs, Dancing Dogs and a host of celebrities.

The 2010 LA Pet Fair offers over 100,000 square feet of exhibits presenting every kind of animal you can imagine.

The LA Pet Fair is being produced in conjunction with three promoters that have been in the expo business for over 20 years: The Reptile Super Show, APEX "Marine Aquarium Expo" and Pet Expo USA.

"We are so excited to present a show of this caliber," Pet Expo USA President and CEO Michelle Bucks said. "We will have an outstanding variety of talent at the show. We are certain this expo will be a family favorite and we look forward to placing some of our furry friends into loving homes which is our most important focus."

Bucks and Expo Vice President Connie Troncale recently completed their annual Santa Clarita Valley Pet & Family Expo that had record attendance over last year. "Over 40 dogs found good homes as well as over 500 blankets were donated," Troncale said. The Operation Blankets of Love Foundation provides blankets, dog beds, and other items to make a comfortable place for shelter animals to sleep. "Our main goal is to find homes for our participating rescues and shelters," she said.

If it swims, flies, crawls, walks or slithers,

Shorty Rossi of Animal Planet's Pit Boss will be at the 2010 LA Pet Fair.

you will see it at the Fair. For additional information, either as a vendor/sponsor or visitor, visit www.PetExpoUSA.net or LAPetfair.com or call (661) 877-5777 or (661) 210-6995.

Look for Bigger Rebates From Riverside Public Utilities

Riverside Public Utilities (RPU) has got the Whole House covered in a new rebate plan. RPU's new Whole House Rebate Program is a point system program where the more RPU rebates you participate in, the more points you earn. The more points you earn, the more your rebate grows! The plan encourages you to take a look at your home's energy and water efficiency measures as a whole and participate in multiple rebate programs all at once. It pays to "bundle" the rebates together and here's why.

You get greater energy and water savings as well as increased rebate amounts - up to 350% more - when you install a minimum of two energy and/or water efficiency measures from Riverside Public Utilities' list of rebate programs. Choose from Air Conditioning, Artificial Turf, Energy Star Appliances, High Efficiency Clothes Washers and Toilets, Pool Pumps, Rotating Sprinkler Nozzles, Shade Trees, Waterwise Landscaping, Weather Based Irrigation Controllers, and Weatherization measures (such as insulation, energy efficient doors and windows, and attic fans). Then, add up the points to find out what your rebate amount will be, as much as 350% more than applying for the rebates separately. Funds are limited for this exciting new program so act fast!

For additional information about Riverside Public Utilities' Whole House Rebate Program, visit RiversidePublicUtilities.com or call (951) 826-5485. Some restrictions do apply.

Eddie Money

performs in Riverside at the Fox

Rock legend Eddie Money brings his signature voice to downtown Riverside on July 29, when he performs at the Fox Performing Arts Center.

In the late 1960's, the young Long Island, NY native left the comforts of suburbia and headed to San Francisco to pursue his dreams of becoming a rock star. In the early 1970's, Eddie hooked up with legendary promoter Bill Graham, and exploded onto the music scene.

In 1977, Money released his self-titled debut record and struck Double Platinum with hits such as: "Baby Hold On" and "Two Tickets To Paradise." His follow-up album, Life For The Taking, was released in 1978 and reached Platinum status again. In 1982, The Money Man topped the charts numerous times with singles "Shakin," "Think I'm In Love" and "Take A Little Bit."

With another Platinum record under his belt and the introduction of MTV and the music video, Money's over-the-top narrative videos made him a household name. In 1986, Eddie Money's duet with Ronnie Spector, "Take Me Home Tonight," reached number 4 on the Billboard Top 100.

With over 28 million records sold worldwide, Eddie Money's trademark raspy, husky voice is easily recognized today. His most recent release, "Gimme Some Water," featured Vince Gill and was a top download in 2008.

In June 2009, Eddie Money's musical autobiography, Two Tickets To Paradise: The Musical, debuted in New York and received rave reviews. Money is currently working on taking his play to Broadway.

The Fox Performing Arts Center is located in Downtown Riverside. Tickets are available at ticketmaster.com, Ticketmaster outlets and the Riverside Municipal Auditorium Box Office. For more information, call (951) 779-9800, or go online to www.foxriversidelive.com.

CATS Presents 'The Music Man'

The Community Arts Theater Society, CATS, will present the classic musical, The Music Man, for an 11 performance run at the Big Bear Lake Performing Arts Center.

The Music Man stars veteran New York and television actor Robin Field as Prof. Harold Hill, the fast talking salesman of dreams and musical instruments who sweeps River City, Iowa's lovely Marian, the librarian, off her feet. Robin Field is an award-winning entertainer who spent over two decades on the New York stage playing leading roles in many shows including Your Own Thing, Look Me Up, Speed Gets the Poppys and a revival of Rodgers & Hart's Babes in Arms. On television he co-starred with Jerry Lewis and Sammy Davis in The Klowns and appeared with Dom DeLuise on The Merv Griffin Show. On radio he wrote and hosted the New York FM series Broadway Time Capsule.

Amanda Fisch, a veteran of over 30 CATS productions, including starring as "Cinderella" and playing Glinda in The Wizard of Oz, plays Marian.

The star-spangled production features such memorable songs as "76 Trombones," "Goodnight My Someone," "Til There Was You," "Trouble" and "Lida Rose."

"The Music Man is 'feel-good' family entertainment at its best. I'm excited about reprising The Music Man at this time. I think we are all in the mood for some plain and simple upbeat, happy entertainment," Rachels said.

The production showcases a large cast of talented Big Bear adult and child performers and will be directed and choreographed by Karen Sargent Rachels. The cast includes Suzy Carpenter (Eulalie), Steve Fine (Mayor Shinn), Maggie Regalado (Mrs. Paroo), Timothy Brasher (Winthrop), John Hendricks (Marcellus), Richard Rosborough, Bill Ferguson, Keith Clark and Bill Douglas (The Barbershop Quartet), Joe Perlow (The Constable), Ashley Harris and Tashia Wormsbecker (Zaneeta), Zackery Meyer and Stephen Padilla (Tommy), Allison Copley and Evie Nootenboom (Amaryllis), and many others.

As with many other CATS productions at the PAC, the show features a massive three-area set, designed by Joanne McMaster, utilizing the Performing Arts Center's revolving stage. The use of the revolving stage makes the CATS production of the classic musical very unique. Director Rachels will also feature "Sugar," a live horse, along with a representative Wells Fargo Wagon, on stage, for the finale of Act 1. There are several other surprise production values, including the opening train sequence where the train appears to be headed into the audience.

>> Riverside Youth Theatre Announces the 6th annual Summer Youth Theatre Festival

Debbie Wolgemuth, Artistic Director

It is a summer of theatre full of royalty, fairies, and folk-tale characters as Riverside Youth Theatre presents its 6th annual Summer Youth Theatre Festival. Two musicals will be presented in repertory: Once Upon a Mattress and Once Upon a Time.

Once Upon a Mattress is the hilarious tweaking of the fairy tale, “The Princess and the Pea.” Queen Aggravain has ruled that none in the kingdom may marry until her son, Prince Dauntless the Drab, does. She has managed to sabotage every princess that comes to apply. When Sir Harry and Lady Larken learn that they are going to be parents, he goes off to the swamp kingdom and brings back Princess Winnifred. The queen is horrified and immediately begins to scheme. Winnifred, with some help from Sir Harry, the King, and the Jester, isn’t going to be quite so easy to get rid of. Once Upon a Mattress is a musical presented by 40 local teens.

Once Upon a Time is a one act musical revue featuring folktale characters singing showtunes. This song and dance revue will be presented by a cast of 40 elementary students featuring songs from The Princess and the Frog, The Wedding Singer, You’re a Good Man Charlie Brown, Oliver, Into the Woods, Pippin, Chess, Smokey Joe’s Café, The Drowsy Chaperone and many more.

The 6th annual Summer Youth Theatre Festival will be held August 13-22 at the Wallace Theater, on the campus of California Baptist University, 8432 Magnolia Avenue in Riverside. Tickets are $15 for all ages. Tickets purchased through the theatre’s website are discounted.

Auditions and registration for the theatre’s fall musical and classes will start in early September.

For more information view the theatre’s website at www.RiversideYouthTheatre.org.

Follow the magic of 'Peter Pan'

Wendy (Genevieve Ellis) and Peter Pan (Maggie Anderson) in the Rancho Cucamonga Community Theatre production of Peter Pan.

Sundays through July 18 at the Lewis Family Playhouse at the Victoria Gardens Cultural Center.

In this delightful musical offering Peter Pan and Tinkerbell lead the three Darling children over the rooftops of London and away to Neverland, the island where the lost boys, Tiger Lilly and the Indians play. Magic and mischief is in the air but if villainous Captain Hook and his band of pirates have their way, before long someone will be swimming with the crocodiles. This award winning score features memorable favorites "I Won't Grow Up," "Neverland," "I'm Flying," and "I Gotta Crow."

Peter Pan's stage direction is by Kevin Slay with vocal direction by Ronda Rubio and choreography by Janet Renslow. The cast stars local performer Maggie Anderson in the title role as the boy who wouldn't grow up. Other featured performers in the cast include Vil Towers as Captain Hook, Genevieve Ellis as Wendy, James Ellis as Smee, Ryan and Nathan Lightfoot as Michael and John Darling, Kelley Squires as Mrs. Darling, Lauren Bell as Liza, and Andria Terrazas as Tiger Lilly. The cast also includes Mike Rangel, Josh Bunch, Emily Martin, Michael Vandie, Quinton Goodman, Jaylen Baham, Gabrielle Gutierrez, Erika Jenko, Jack Freedman, Charles Feuerstine, Dallin Jackson, La Tashjuana Daniel, Megan Hill, Addison Aguilera, Ron Burch, Gabriel Combs, Drake Davis, Raysa Rubio, Adam Chanthamynavong, Ammon Cruz, De'Richard Rayford, Erik Strong, Janelle Gaglio, Bryan Martinez, Cory Moore, Dominique Petite-Frere, Pierre Petit-Frere, Kelsey Tanaka, Megan Kiehl, Marc Millares, Jessica Mogi, Miguel Quirarte, Allison Hill, Kristin Leeper-Tanaka, Savannah Sanabia and Kellen Ford.

Performances of Peter Pan will be Saturdays, July 10 and 17th at 2pm and 7:30pm and Sundays, July 11 and 18 at 2pm. Tickets are available for $16.50 for adults and $14.50 for youth/senior.

Motorcycle as art at 'Wheels of Desire'

Revel in the beauty of motorcycles at a special art show starting this month. The Fallbrook Art Center presents the third Wheels of Desire Motorcycle, Supercross & Motocross Show in the Janice Griffiths Gallery from July 11 through August 15.

This is a unique and special motorcycle exhibit for California in that it highlights the motorcycle as art, and features a wide variety of machines from the late 1800s to present time. Mary Perhacs, Executive Director of the Fallbrook Art Center, is excited about the lineup: "It has something for everyone, young and old, with motorcycles from all venues. The past two shows were not limited to the motorcycling public, but were heavily attended and lauded by many who had no previous interest in motorcycles," she said.

Featured are some of the rarest and most sensational motorcycles to be found in southern California. Some examples of the years and makes of the bikes to be presented will be a 1899 DeDion, 1917 Harley Davidson board tracker, 1947 Vincent Black Shadow, one of the first Hondas, and some modern custom motorcycles. A section of the show, sponsored by Monster Energy, is devoted to motocross/supercross for younger enthusiasts.

"In the past motorcycles shows, visitors were thrilled to get up close and personal with the broad range of machines presented," Perhacs said.

THE ARTS IN LAGUNA

'Eat, Drink and Be Merry' at the 2010 Pageant

The Pageant of the Masters in Laguna is famous for bringing works of art to life. Over the years, Pageant director Diane Challis Davy has come to trust her "gut feeling" when it comes to the themes that add high contrast, resonance and cohesion to her productions. Case in point: She was already settling on Eat, Drink and Be Merry as her choice for the 2010 Pageant theme back in 2008.

"Given the direction the economy was heading, I figured everyone would enjoy some good old-fashioned escapism, fun and laughter," Challis Davy said.

It's been 15 years since Diane "Dee" Challis Davy assumed her role as director/producer of the Pageant of the Masters. In these one-and-a-half decades, Challis Davy has proven herself to be a willing risk-taker in her efforts to complement the show's artful presentation of tableaux vivants with imaginative additions to the programs' theatricality. During her tenure, the program has incorporated more seamless transitions, occasional use of live singers and dancers, special effects and video projection, in a concerted effort to keep the Pageant theatrically vital. But, of all her innovations, it is her assigning of different themes to her programs that has set her shows apart from the rest. In the process, her themes have had another beneficial effect: they encourage happy patrons and enthusiastic volunteers to keep coming back to see what she'll do with her new themes year after year.

In preparation for this year's Eat, Drink and Be Merry, she credited an increasingly valuable tool: "Research on the Internet has enhanced almost every aspect of the show,

Street Jam EXPANDS

Downtown Street Jam expands Bringing Free Live Music and More Family Fun Festivities to Downtown Riverside

By Natasha Ferguson

Downtown Street Jam is a free outdoor community festival which was launched in the spring of last year and has become one of the most anticipated events in downtown Riverside. The next Downtown Street Jam takes place Saturday, July 10 from 1-9pm.

Due to its increased popularity, the event has been expanded to include a classic car show, three additional side stages, and a new "Kid's Jam" area with lots of activities for kids including a rock-climbing wall, face painters, a cool animal show, live performances by finalists from Riverside Plaza's "Battle of the Bands" and more. Great music from both local artists and nationally acclaimed musicians are some of what attendees will find at the next Downtown Street Jam.

The main stage will be located on Orange at Ninth, with three additional side stages: the Kid's Jam is on Main Street between University and Mission Inn; the second stage is at the corner of University and Orange; the third stage is on Lemon and University. There will also be car shows near each stage showcasing cool classic automobiles.

On the Main Stage, not one, but two incredible headline acts will be featured. The first is nationally-acclaimed pop/soul legend Brenton Wood best known for his classic hit singles, "Gimme Little Sign," and "The Oogum Boogum Song," which were classic hit oldies and chart-toppers on both R&B and Pop charts nationwide during the mid-to-late 60s.

The second headliner is Howard Scott (former founding member of the popular group WAR) and his band Reign who will delight the crowd singing familiar classic tunes such as; "Lowrider," "Cisco Kid," "Slippin' Into Darkness" and many more.

Afternoon performances on the main stage include hometown favorites from the Inland Empire: La Banda Skalavera, Souldier, Shopyy, Vicky Tafoya and the Big

Souldier

Shopyy

Beat. Other stages will also feature popular local bands playing a variety of different genres of music.

Downtown Street Jam is hosted by Lake Alice, Mission Tobacco Lounge, Worthington's Tavern, Menagerie and Mario's Place, and sponsored by Riverside Downtown Partnership and the City of Riverside.

FREE Movies and Music on Main Street in Downtown Riverside

By Natasha Ferguson

Riverside Downtown Partnership (RDP) in conjunction with the City of Riverside and its Parks, Recreation and Community Services Department is launching a new series of free movies on Main Street between University and Mission Inn Avenue. The movies are all G-rated so the entire family can enjoy and will be projected on a huge outdoor screen.

The schedule of movies kicks off with

Star Trek-The Future Begins on July 8, Cloudy with a Chance of Meatballs on July 22, Short on August 12, The Spy Next Door starring Jackie Chan on August 26, Up on September 9, and The Princess and the Frog on September 23.

The evening will start with live musical entertainment at 7pm followed by the screening of the movie at 8pm. Attendees are encouraged to come early and bring their own chair to secure a good seat. Nearby downtown restaurants will be open late, and refreshments and goodies are available for purchase onsite.

Downtown Riverside is the place to be every Thursday busting with lots of fun activities all summer long. Riverside Arts Walk is every first Thursday of the month from 6-9pm, and enjoy free entertainment by local bands on July 15, 29, August 19 and September, 7-9pm.

'Knights of the Sky' - Historic WWI era planes on display

World War I Aviation - Knights of the Sky - will be the subject of the Living History Event hosted by Planes of Fame Air Museum at the Chino Airport on Saturday, August 7. The event will begin at 10am with a history seminar describing the men and developments of World War I aviation and include a rare opportunity to view and photograph a pair of World War I fighter planes outside of their normal indoor display areas.

In only the second decade of manned, powered flight, the technological advances during the four years of World War I catapulted aviation from a simple curiosity or sport into a decisive factor in all future wars. Coincidentally, those wartime developments also resulted in giant leaps in post-war civil aviation. Modern aviation, which has become indispensable to normal life these days, can trace its origins to the impetus provided by the pioneers of aviation in World War I.

The Planes of Fame Air Museum's Hanriot HD-1 Scout was brought to the United States after World War I by French fighter ace Charles Nungesser.

Among the many aircraft in the Planes of Fame Air Museum collection are an original Hanriot HD-1 Scout and a replica Fokker Dr.1 Triplane. Originally brought to the United States after World War I by French fighter ace Charles Nungesser, the Hanriot HD-1 typifies the biplane fighter designs of that era. On the other hand, the very effective Fokker Dr.1 Triplane was the favorite mount of many German fighter aces, including Baron Manfred Von Richthofen, the top-scoring ace of World War I.

Following the Living History Event, at 1pm, will be a screening of The Red Baron movie.

Planes of Fame Air Museum is open to the public every day, except Christmas and Thanksgiving, from 9am until 5pm. General admission is $11, youngsters 5-11 are admitted for $4 and admission is free for accompanied children under five.

For more information, call (909) 597-3722 or visit the Planes of Fame Air Museum website at www.planesof-fame.org. IER

Fantasy Springs Rob Thomas concert benefits charity

His total records sold tally stands at 80 million. Singer Rob Thomas has arguably been one of modern music's most compelling and commercially successful artists for more than a decade. Between his solo work, performing lead vocals and songwriting for the band Matchbox Twenty and his various collaborations with iconic artists such as Santana and Mick Jagger, Rob Thomas simply says, "I'm a guy who hears songs in his head, and I have to write them down, and I have to get them out. I'm just lucky enough that I can make it my life's work."

Now Thomas makes his solo debut in the Palm Springs area on Saturday, August 7 at Fantasy Springs Resort Casino. Tickets for this performance featuring Thomas' storytelling and acoustic music are $29-$59 and may be purchased at the Fantasy Springs

Box Office, online at www.FantasySpringsResort.com or by calling (800) 827-2946.

In April, Atlantic Records released Thomas' next single from his current album entitled "Cradlesong." The album gives fans a percussive rock record that pulses with passion and energy.

Thomas and his wife, Marisol, are also committed to helping those in need. The couple established the Sidewalk Angels Foundation, a non-profit organization that helps needy people in and around America's big cities. The organization partners with various charities to assist people who get lost in the system, those who cannot afford medical care, and helps animals that have been abandoned or abused. Proceeds from the Fantasy Springs show benefit the Sidewalk Angels Foundation.

Fantasy Springs is located off Interstate

Bad Company concert features three original founding members

English hard rock supergroup Bad Company is headed to Fantasy Springs Resort and Casino for a concert on Friday, July 16 at 8pm. The group, founded in 1973 with band members Paul Rodgers, Simon Kirke, Mick Ralphs and Boz Burrell, is best known for songs that acted as a backdrop for a generation and beyond – songs such as "Shooting Star," "Feel Like Makin' Love," "Can't Get Enough" and more.

Tickets are $49-$79 and may be purchased at the Fantasy Springs Box Office, via telephone at (800) 827-2946 or online at www.FantasySpringsResort.com.

Singer Paul Rodgers reportedly liked the name of the movie Bad Company so much that he named the band the same thing. The group's 1974 debut album, also called Bad Company, became an international hit and propelled the guys to the status of one of the 1970s' first supergroups.

Paul Rodgers left the band in the early 1980s to pursue other interests, though the band continued with rotating members. Bassist Boz Burrell passed away in 2006, but Paul Rodgers, Mick Ralphs and Simon Kirke joined forces once again during the summer of 2009, playing 10 shows throughout the United States. They decided to play a number of dates in the United Kingdom in 2010 and have continued entertaining adoring fans during a select number of U.S. concerts.

In celebration of the

The mountain town of Idyllwild hosts a fun festival for their rare flower

LEMON LILLY

The mountain town of Idyllwild is celebrating one of its native flowers in the annual Lemon Lily Festival event, July 16, 17, and 18. Idyllwild is a small resort town nestled mile-high in the San Jacinto mountain range. The Lemon Lily Festival is held to foster an appreciation for, and to restore, the beautiful native Lemon Lily (L. parryi) that grows in only a few Southern California and Arizona locations, all above 4000 feet. The lily proliferated in the Idyllwild area 100 years ago, but today is rarely seen.

The Lemon Lily festival is a community-wide event combining education, celebration, and restoration of the Lemon Lily and features three days of fun-filled events for the entire family. Events include a Lily Walk to introduce you to the town and its businesses; speakers on the preservation and cultivation of the lily; guided walks at the Nature Center and a high-country hike in search of lemon lilies; a pioneer town featuring blacksmith demonstrations, rope making, butter churning, log cabin building, rag rug making and other old-time hands-on activities; square dancing with the Mountain Pioneers; BBQ dinner, pancake breakfast, and box lunches; and arts and crafts and native plant sales.

For more information, contact Shelley Kibby at (951) 659-3850 or go online to www.LemonLilyFestival.com. The festival takes place at the Idyllwild Nature Center (25225 Highway 243) and Idyllwild's Town Hall (25925 Cedar Street).

THAT'S GROSS!

The Grossology exhibit will give your kids a new appreciation for body by-products

Sometimes it's stinky, sometimes it's crusty, and sometimes it's slimy. Explore why your body produces mushy, oozy, crusty, scaly and stinky gunk at Grossology: The (Impolite) Science of the Human Body during its appearance at Discovery Science Center, now through September 12.

Based on the best-selling book Grossology, this exhibition uses sophisticated animatronics and imaginative exhibits to tell you the good, the bad and the downright ugly about runny noses, body odor, and much more.

After getting grossed out, watch Discovery Science Center's new 3-D movie for the summer, Planet You! Journey into a world you've never seen before...at least not quite like this. Take a 3-D microscopic adventure into the alien landscape of your own skin and find out all about the creepy, crawly things that live on us - dust mites, lice and ticks. Planet You shows through the summer in the 4-D theatre.

Grossology Special Events:

ALL WEEK-ENDS Grossology-Ask the Experts

Stage Show: A fun show that explains why your body performs some impolite, but necessary, functions. Giggle along while you find out why we pass gas, urinate, vomit and sneeze.

AUGUST 14: Gross me out weekend! Make and take slime! Dr. Sears, pediatrician, will talk about keeping kids healthy and will give away free herbal sinus products. Sinupret will bring their blue elephant for a meet and greet. The Red Cross will have a table and talk about the importance of blood donation.

Grossology Icky Interactives: Take a "Tour du Nose" to explore 10 nasal features, including how your snoot acts as an air filter, a smell sensor and a mucus producer.

Play the pinball game "Gas Attack" by scoring off bumpers dressed up as food items that cause gas.

Mimic the build up of acid indigestion by causing the "Burp Machine" to release a giant belch.

Explore the role of the kidney in a virtual reality experience in "Urine: The Game."

Take a ride on the GI slide, climb a large-scale replica of human skin, and discover other mysterious ways your body's biology does what it needs to do to keep you healthy.

The Taco Bell Discovery Science Center is located at 2500 N. Main St., in Santa Ana. For more information, call (714) 542-2823, or go online to www.discoverycube.org. IER

Beat the heat with cool rides at Knott's Soak City

It might be hot, but try cooling off with a few thousand gallons of water. Head out to the desert to Knott's Soak City, a water adventure park featuring 16 acres packed with 18 of the most intense water rides imaginable.

Take a trip on Pacific Spin, a multi-person raft ride with a 132-foot long tunnel that drops riders 75 feet into a six-story funnel. After pitching riders back and forth through 5,500 gallons of swirling water, the ride culminates in a waterfall splash. More high-speed thrills await at Tidal Wave Tower, a 7-story speed slide. For those not ready for the big thrills, there's Gremmie Lagoon made exclusively for tomorrow's surfers with pint-sized water slides and splash pool.

Soak City Palm Springs is open through September 26. Specific operating days and hours vary. General admission is $31 for regular, $19.99 for kids (3-11) and seniors ages 62+. Admission includes unlimited use of all water park rides and attractions. Knott's Soak City is located at 1500 S. Gene Autry Trail in Palm Springs. For more information, go online to www.knotts.com or call (760) 327-0499. IER
