Big Bear Rescue Zoo holds Country Fair in July

Blues for the Zoo Concert in August

A full menu of adventure and fun awaits visitors at the Big Bear Rescue Zoo (formerly known as Moonridge Animal Park) in Big Bear Lake – plus, it's cool up there.

On July 7, from 10am to 3pm, it's the Old Time Bear Country Fair, where you'll enjoy country fair activities for the whole family, including face painting, jewelry making, bear toss, and bear-roaring contest. There will also be a pie-eating contest between the three black bears – who eats their pie the fastest.

Then, at Swim Beach, the very popular 2012 Blues for the Zoo Concert will be held on Saturday, Aug. 4, featuring fine food, local artisans and those wonderful cool breezes on the Lake. This event will be held at Swim Beach, 41220 Park Avenue in Big Bear Lake. Doors open at 1pm, with music from 3 to 7pm.

Headlining the afternoon of music is Zydeco "crown prince" C.J. Chenier. According to Downbeat Magazine, "his vocals and accordion drip with top-line Louisiana hot sauce, keeping the good times rolling with energized adaptations of blues and Creole R&B classics." Chenier carries on in the tradition of his father Zydeco great Clifton Chenier, playing accordion-based American blues and danceable two-steps, singing in both French and English.

No blues festival is complete without a guitar hero and Jimmy Thackery fits the bill. The six-string virtuoso is known to unleash an intense volley of rockin' blues guitar, guaranteed to leave crowds emotionally spent. His double-edged guitar dynamics allow him to fire off tracer missiles, bend a note so it will fit under a limbo bar, run off dive bomber riffs and find space within the trembling of one stinging note. Though most associate Thackery with his 15 years as the co-founder of the Nighthawks, he ended his time with them in 1987. Since then, Thackery has been on the road as a solo musician proving each night that he is still a guitar powerhouse in the blues.

Starting out the day's musical gumbo will be acoustic Delta blues interpreter Alvin Youngblood Hart. Influenced by the deep country blues, Hart is known as one of the world's foremost practitioners of that genre. After the release of his 1996 major label debut recording, the all-acoustic Big Mama's Door (Okeh/Sony Records), Hart was honored with the Best New Artist award by the Blues Foundation in Memphis. His subsequent CD Down In the Alley in 2002 was nominated for a Grammy Award in the Best Traditional Blues category. He was featured in the 2003 Wim Wenders' film The Soul of A Man, part of Martin Scorsese's series The Blues and in 2007, Hart performed in the Denzel Washington film (produced by Oprah Winfrey) The Great Debaters, playing a 1930s juke joint musician and contributing several songs to the soundtrack. Continuing in the path laid down by contemporary acoustic blues practitioners like Taj Mahal, his roots also reach back to the classic stylings of Charley Patton, Leadbelly, and Blind Willie McTell.

Advance tickets are on sale, $30 advance (advance ticket sales end at 4pm Friday, Aug. 3), $35 the day of festival. Children under 10 are free.

The summer schedule at Big Bear Rescue Zoo ends in September after Labor Day Weekend: open daily 10am to 5pm, weather permitting. Call (909) 878-4200 or visit www.bigbearzoo.com for more information. Big Bear Rescue Zoo is located at 43285 Goldmine Drive in Big Bear Lake. IER

Fox Performing Arts Center Presents An Evening Of Comedy With Red Green

The Fox Performing Arts Center in Riverside presents an unforgettably hilarious evening with the star of the PBS series that ran for 20 years, Red Green's Personal Wit & Wisdom Tour on Sunday, July 15 at 7pm (doors open at 6pm).

A string of sold out shows in the U.S. and Canada have led to the return of everyone's favorite lovable and wacky handyman - Red Green. Following a highly successful 39-city tour in Canada, our man in flannel and suspenders returns to the U.S. with his one-man "Wit & Wisdom" Tour.

The best selling author, humorist and handyman who believes "anything is possible if you use enough duct tape" has been entertaining audiences for the past 20 years with his popular PBS Television series, "The Red Green Show."

The champion of under-achieving men everywhere, Red Green (aka Steve Smith) will offer homespun wisdom ("Lower your expectations and live a happier life."), philosophies on relationships ("Women always have the last word in an argument. Anything after that is just the beginning of the next argument."), and, of course, handyman tips ("Never get in between electricity and where it wants to go").

It's time to bring out the flannel shirt, find those suspenders, dig out the duct tape and join Red Green for a famous Possum Lodge meeting!

Tickets are now on sale and are available through Ticketmaster or at the Fox Performing Arts Center Box Office which is located at Liebert, February 16, 2013.

Rancho Cucamonga Community Theatre presents The Fantasticks, the longest-running musical in history, March 2-10, 2013. This enchanting and entertaining musical tells the story of a young man and the girl next door, whose parents have built a wall to keep them apart. Nevertheless, the youngsters conspire to meet and fall in love. Filled with moonlight, romance and wonderful music, The Fantasticks is the perfect way to spend an evening at the theatre.

MainStreet Theatre Company presents The Phantom Tollbooth, on stage March 30 - April 14, 2013. Often compared to Alice in Wonderland, this musical version captures all the fantasy and delight of the original and brings it vividly to life. When a tollbooth mysteriously appears in Milo's room, he follows the directions and drives through, only because he's bored and has nothing better to do. But on the other side, Milo finds that life is far from dull - in fact, it's exciting beyond his wildest dreams!

With its underlying romantic story, Claddagh - An Explosion of Celtic Dance & Passion is a vivacious music, dance and multi-media spectacular that forges beyond the normal limitations of the traditional concert format.

Don't miss Claddagh when they make their Lewis Family Playhouse debut April 27, 2013.

They're back! Bob & Bing return in Bob & Bing - The Road Back to Cucamonga! April 28, 2013. Starring Lynn Roberts and Bob Pasch as Bob and Bing, these jokesters will delight you with their witty repartee and new duet.

Inland Pacific Ballet's Cinderella - A Magical Fairy Tale Story running May 4-5, 2013 is an enchanting version of this all-time classic featuring the delightful music of the famous waltz king, Johann Strauss. Don't miss this delightful tale of romance and transformation told through the magic of ballet.

Best described as "feverish, frenetic & hilarious," "Comedy Magician of the Year," Chipper Lowell makes his Lewis Family Playhouse debut, May 11th in The Chipper Experience - Where Comedy and Magic Collide! This twisted, high-energy, family-friendly show is a wonderful blend of clean stand-up, original comedy magic, circus feats, bizarre juggling stunts and fun-filled audience participation.

The season closes May 31, 2013 with An Evening of Classic Lily Tomlin. This comedic legend takes the audience on a hilarious journey through her timeless characters in this multi-media performance. Experience her classic characters in new roles in this laugh out loud performance.

In addition to the many public performances, the Lewis Family Playhouse offers special school group performances of MainStreet Theatre Company productions for elementary and middle school teachers and students. These unique Theatre for Young Audiences productions are supplemented with curriculum material and resource guides that are available on-line at www.lewisfamilyplayhouse.com/education. ## Meet Mr. Bogart

The son of a moderately wealthy Manhattan surgeon and a famed magazine illustrator, Humphrey Bogart was educated at Trinity School, New York City, and sent to Phillips Academy in Andover, Massachusetts, in preparation for medical studies at Yale. He was expelled from Phillips and joined the U.S. Naval Reserve.

From 1920 to 1922, he managed a stage company. He then began regular stage performances. In 1930, he gained a contract with Fox, his feature film debut in a ten-minute short, Broadway's Like That (1930), co-starring Ruth Etting and Joan Blondell. Fox released him after two years.

After five years of stage and minor film roles, he had his breakthrough role in The Petrified Forest (1936) from Warner Bros. He won the part over Edward G. Robinson only after the star, Leslie Howard, threatened Warner Bros. that he would quit unless Bogart was given the key role of Duke Mantee, which he had played in the Broadway production with Howard. The film was a major success and led to a long-term contract with Warner Bros.

From 1936 to 1940, Bogart appeared in 28 films, usually as a gangster, twice in Westerns and even a horror film. His landmark year was 1941 with roles in classics such as High Sierra (1941) and as Sam Spade in one of his most fondly remembered films, The Maltese Falcon (1941). These were followed by Casablanca (1942), The Big Sleep (1946), and Key Largo (1948).

Bogart won the best actor Academy Award for The African Queen (1951) and was nominated for Casablanca (1942) and as Captain Queeg in The Caine Mutiny (1954), a film made when he was already seriously ill.

Did you know that snakes are one of the easiest animals to care for? Reptile Super Show also started R.E.P.S (Reptile Educational Program Service). It is a special program that gets a Leopard Gecko or a Corn Snake in 3rd-8th grade classrooms. R.E.P.S. is their way of giving back to the hobby by giving kids an incentive to unplug and get back in touch with science and nature. Experiencing and enjoying nature is a key component to the development of an environmentally conscientious and aware young adult. Being exposed to and interacting with animals can really help kids realize their own responsibility to the environment and gives them a sense of value and appreciation for nature. Also, education professionals

Summer Fun at Big Bear's Alpine Slide

Wet or dry, the rides are always fast at Alpine Slide at Magic Mountain in beautiful, close-to-home Big Bear Lake.

Beat the summer heat on Alpine Slide's refreshing double water slide, two flumes of cool, cascading water that whip riders back and forth before splashing them into the solar-heated pool at the bottom. Each flume is filled with an array of turns and straightaways for an exciting trek that's a great way to cool off on a warm day. Sit up and go slower or lay back and become a human torpedo shooting through the flumes.

Alpine Slide's water slide is as affordable as it is fun. An all-day pass costs $15, while 10 rides are $10 and individual trips are only two bucks each. Parents who don't want to play don't have to pay to get in, many choosing to read or relax on the grass or two spacious sundecks while the kids have fun.

Alpine Slide is famous for its Olympic-style bobsleds which are in season all year long. Snow is never needed since the sleds have teflon runners and ball-bearing wheels, and the quarter-mile long tracks with banked turns and long straightaways are cement.

Riders control their own speed with the brake and each trip down is a completely unique and interactive experience. Lean into each turn and go into a tuck through straightaways to experience what it's like to be an Olympic bobsledder, or use the brake to go slow and soak in views of the lake and mountains.

For a relaxing change of pace enjoy a round on the Putt 'N Around miniature golf course, laden with rolling greens, water hazards, even penalty-stroke "sand traps."

Then for more fast fun, ride the Putt 'N Around Go-Karts, each equipped with 5.5 horsepower Honda motors and an array of safety features including three-point harness restraints, hydraulic disk brakes, rack and pinion steering and padded steering wheels. The tire-lined track sports hair pin and high banked turns as riders circle under the pines at 7,000 foot elevation.

Alpine Slide at Magic Mountain also has an indoor lodge where guests escape the sun with video games and a family-priced snack bar that includes an old-fashioned Breyers ice cream counter. On weekends there's a great outdoor barbecue on the deck.

The fast times continue after dark on Fridays and Saturdays at Alpine Slide all summer long as the area stays open for fun under the stars till 9pm.

Alpine Slide at Magic Mountain is open daily, on Big Bear Blvd. 1/4 mile west of the Village Shopping Area in Big Bear Lake, home to 60 specialty shops. For information call (909) 866-4626 or go to www.alpineslidebigbear.com. IER

Award-Winning Actor And Singer Robert Davi Headlining At Soboba Casino

Tickets on sale now

Following his critically-acclaimed three-night engagement at The Venetian in Las Vegas, Robert Davi will perform his full orchestra stage show Davi Sings Sinatra: On the Road to Romance for one night in San Jacinto at Soboba Casino.

Award-winning film star and singer Robert Davi will perform on Saturday, Aug. 18, at 8pm in The Arena at Soboba Casino. Tickets are now on sale for $50 and $99 (plus tax and service charge).

Late October 2011, Davi released his debut album Davi Sings Sinatra: On the Road to Romance and has received glowing reviews. # Adam Lambert Returns To Fantasy Springs

Adam Lambert will be back on stage at Fantasy Springs Resort Casino this summer. His solo concert tour makes a stop in Indio on Saturday, July 21 where he will take the stage for a second time, in the Special Events Center.

Lambert last performed at Fantasy Springs to a sold-out crowd in February, 2010. It was his first solo concert after American Idol and many of his fans still say it was among their favorite of his performances. Lambert finished as the runner-up on the eighth season of American Idol, and in 2009, released his multi-platinum selling debut album, For Your Entertainment, scored the smash single "Whataya Want From Me" and played sold-out shows across the globe.

Now, Lambert is back with the Number One album Trespassing. The album has been met with critical acclaim; Rolling Stone declares that Trespassing is "the great pop album everybody was hoping Adam Lambert would make." USA Today says that it is "the album that fans have been wanting from him." People Magazine raves that "Lambert stakes claim for the divas on his glamorous second set" and The New York Daily News exclaims, "it's the sound of liberation achieved." Executive produced by Lambert, Trespassing finds

Tournament of Kings Rules for Family Entertainment

Are you planning a trip to Las Vegas and wondering where you can find entertainment suitable for your whole family? Try a night with the Knights of the Round table.

The Tournament of Kings show, at the Exclibur Hotel and Casino, is sure to please parents and children alike. Held in a large arena, done up medieval style, King Arthur and his knights take to their horses to battle evil with swordplay, pyrotechnics, drama and humor. The show includes a dinner of roast chicken, which you eat with your bare hands (another family pleaser).

Excalibur has been producing Tournament of Kings for more than twenty years, and it shows with how smoothly performed the production is. The warriors clash aggressively with sparking swords and heat from the blasts of flame can be felt from your seats.

In the midst of battle and horsemanship, the show weaves an entertaining story that, in the end, will leave everyone pleased to have been there.

The Excalibur is located at 3850 Las Vegas Blvd. South. For more information, call 1-877-750-5464, or go online to www.excalibur.com. IER

Tournament of Kings Fun Facts

- Excalibur is the No. 1 purchaser of Cornish Game Hens in the United States. Since June 1990, approximately 6,400,000 hens have been served.
- Tournament of Kings had 48 marriage proposals in 2008. Everyone said, "Yes, I will marry you."
- There are 30 horses (and twelve different breeds) in the Tournament of Kings stable. Twelve horses are used in each performance.
- The soil used in the arena is mixed with synthetic fibers to create a better cushion. This is important because many of the show's stunt falls are done off of the horses.
- Shoes for the dancers are replaced every three months as they perform in the dirt nightly.
- Rehearsals take place at least five nights a week with the stunt coordinator.
- The swords used in the performance are titanium and create sparks during battle sequences.
- Over the course of a year, approximately 3,900 lances are smashed in the furious jousting competition.

OIL AND WATER DON'T MIX.

A Safe Haven For Injured Wildlife

» Three bald eagles were stolen from Big Bear's Moonridge Zoo in 1989, and a week later their massacred remains were found near the North Shore of Big Bear Lake. This event triggered the formation of The Friends of the Moonridge Zoo as a nonprofit 501(c)(3) to provide support for the worthwhile mission of the Big Bear Rescue Zoo.

The Big Bear Rescue Zoo, formerly known as the Moonridge Animal Park and located at Big Bear Lake in San Bernardino National Forest, has been rehabilitating injured, orphaned and imprinted wildlife for the past 50 years. Local, county, state and federal entities as well as other nonprofit organizations and the public turn to Big Bear Rescue Zoo as the "go to" facility to help animals in need. These animals receive a temporary safe haven while they heal, or they are provided a permanent "home for life" if they are unable to survive in the wild on their own. The Zoo has a track record of successfully rehabilitating and releasing 90% of the animals brought to them. The animals that remain in the park become ambassadors to educate the public.

Plans are in place to relocate the Big Bear Rescue Zoo, which will house a new state-of-the-art wildlife animal sanctuary and rehabilitation center that will be open to the public. The land for the new, larger facility has already been secured. PGAV, a world renowned architectural firm, has designed the master plan, and San Bernardino County is currently completing the steps for building permits.

You can read more details about relocating the zoo on their website at www.bigbearzoo/newpark.

You can join the Friends of the Moonridge Zoo in their Home for Life Campaign and make a contribution in support of rehabilitating additional animals, educating more people, and inspiring future generations.

Howdy

It was high noon. The hot winds from the north were blowing dust over the Menifee Hills. I was standing on my patio when something caught my eye. It seemed the hill was moving, when a man and woman emerged from the dust. What could possess them to be hiking on a day like this? Could they be friends of that eccentric down the street?

"Howdy strangers."

"Howdy back at you," said the man.
