Summer At University Village

FREE SUMMER CONCERT SERIES

It's beginning to sound a lot like summer at University Village. From oldies to alternative and everything in-between, the Summer Concert Series at University Village is a not-to-be-missed summer tradition. There are six weeks of free concerts every Thursday from July 23 through August 27, from 7 to 9pm.

Bring your outdoor chairs, grab something to eat, kick back, and enjoy the sounds of summer. Concertgoers are encouraged to sing along and dance in the aisles. University Village is located at the intersection of University Avenue and Iowa Avenue in Riverside.

Concertgoers can register for the chance to win great prizes from University Village and those who present receipts of $25 or more will receive a free Summer Concert t-shirt.

Free food and specialty beverage sampling will be available throughout the evening. The yummy treats will help concertgoers decide where they want to eat dinner or grab a snack. University Village's restaurants include At Thai, Boba Café, Busy Café, CaliBasil, Denny's, Frice Seafood, Haagen Daz, Jersey Mike's, Juice It Up!, Lolicup, Oven 450, Pho Vinam Restaurant, Piad' Amore, Polar Bear Shaved Ice,

The Summer Music Concert schedule:

- July 23: Boogie Wonderland - Disco
- July 30: Live from Earth - Pat Benatar Tribute
- August 6: Radio Rebels - 80's Rock

The Norco Fair Brings Family Friendly Fun

The most fun weekend of the year!! Mark your calendars for September 3-7 for the grand Norco Fair. This year the all-volunteer fair committee has activities and fun for all ages, presenting you with a family friendly, family fun-filled five days of entertainment for your enjoyment.

The main stage will host many acts that will thrill you and make you laugh and mesmerize you, including a talent show, hypnotist, and bands to please all. The weekend rodeo will be better than ever, beginning with the special ladies rodeo on Thursday, September 3rd. The ranch rodeo and bull riding are always a crowd pleaser.

Let's not forget the 4H and FFA students who work very hard all year long to present their animals for judging in the 4H barn. Watch the anticipation build as the various breeds of animals are presented for judging and later auction for purchase.

To bring the old small town fair to life come and enjoy the community competition area that includes sewing, food products, arts and crafts all handmade that will bring back fond memories of the small town fair you all enjoyed in past years.

They will have a new carnival this year with many rides and games for all ages, a large vendor area, and several entertainment stages. They end the fair on Labor Day with a wonderful parade down Sixth Street followed by a family day filled with good ol' fashioned fun such as a three-legged race, egg toss, water games, and pie eating contest.

Best of all they continue to try to make this fair family affordable. The presale buttons, which allows entrance into all areas of the fair for five days, will be $10 per person (10 and under are free). These same buttons can be purchased at the gate for only $15 (Parking is only $5). Buttons and ride tickets can be purchased online at www.norcofair.org.

As always in Norco, Labor Day weekend is the Norco Fair weekend. Come see what this unique town, known as "Horsetown USA," has to offer as they show off the rural lifestyle with pride and welcome guests to enjoy the country fair festivities. We look forward to seeing you there!

The 27th annual
French Festival

The Santa Barbara French Festival returns to Oak Park July 18 and 19 to celebrate Bastille Day and all the things that make the French cultural history so rich. Great food, wine, mimosas, crepes, delicious pastries, music, dance -- and, of course, the infamous Poodles & Pals Parade!

The Santa Barbara French Festival is a community event not to be missed. It's a Dance Festival, a Music Festival, an Arts & Crafts Festival and, of course, a Food Festival. It is also a great way to support Center Stage Theater and Speaking of Stories, two wonderful Santa Barbara arts organizations.

For two days Santa Barbara celebrates its nickname, "the American Riviera," as the French influences take over Oak Park. Each day the fun starts at 11am when the entertainment kicks off on three different stages and continues non-stop until 7pm. The stages will be filled with dance and music from more than 30 different acts including performances, audience participation and instruction. Can-can, French Polynesian dancers, African Bellydancing, the Burlesque, Tango and, of course, the Femme Fatales Drag Revue! And every minute of entertainment is all free! The Accordion International Music Society of Santa Barbara will coordinate a third stage dedicated to exclusively accordion performances.

The entertainment is only part of what the French Festival has to offer -- more than 60 booths will be offering everything from crepes and delicious French pastries to face painting and French tablecloths. You can grab a mimosa, as you peruse some beautiful paintings and photography. Enjoy a crepe while shopping for your French Festival t-shirt and beret. Take a moment for a quick massage before you settle in for the next performance with a sinfully delicious croissant and French beer. Visit the Santa Barbara Travel Bureau booth to sample some of the great offers on boutique adventures and excursions. All in the beautiful setting of Santa Barbara's Oak Park.

Center Stage Theatre and Speaking of Stories are pleased to present this great community event, which serves as a joint fundraiser for the two organizations. Sponsors for the event include Santa Barbara Travel, Kronenbourg 1664, Perrier, XL Airways France, The Santa Barbara Independent, HiddenProvence.com, Tent Merchants, and French Bulldog Rescue.

For complete details on the performers, food, crafts, shopping and activities visit FrenchFestival.com. IER

THOMAS & FRIENDS CHUGGING INTO ORANGE EMPIRE RAILWAY MUSEUM

All aboard! Thomas the Tank Engine & Percy are once again chugging into the Orange Empire Railway Museum for five days in November.

Discounted ($2 off) tickets are on sale through September 1 for select boarding times on the 7th, 8th, 11th, 14th and 15th of November. Train departure times fill up fast, so get your tickets now at www.ticketweb.com.

Day Out With Thomas: The Celebration Tour 2015 offers aspiring engineers and their families the opportunity to take a 25-minute ride with the famous engine and his railway friend Percy. Children can also meet Sir Topham Hatt, the Superintendent of the Railroad from the Island of Sodor.

Enjoy a wide range of fun activities perfect for children. There will be games, a petting zoo, bounce houses, coloring, live children's music, sing-alongs and storytelling. There will also be Thomas & Friends temporary tattoos, Thomas & Friends train tables and building activities, videos and a Thomas gift store.

There will be street car and trolley rides and an entire museum to explore. A visit to the Orange Empire Railway Museum is a trip back in time to when trains, conductors, whistles, bells and steam were a part of the way we traveled.

A Day Out With Thomas will keep adults who love trains, and children who love Thomas, happily chugging along the tracks. Families should arrive no later than one hour prior to scheduled departure. Discount tickets (through Sept. 1) start at $19 for ages two and older. A special ride aboard Percy is an additional $8.

The Orange Empire Railway Museum is an all-volunteer organization that has been preserving Southern California's railway history since 1956. The museum's mission is to educate the public on the technology, history, and impact of the rail transportation industry in the West. Over 200 rail cars and locomotives, ranging from Los Angeles street cars to modern diesel locomotives, are preserved at the museum's 90-acre site in Perris, which is open 363 days of the year. IER

Summer Street Jam RETURNS

Summer Street Jam will return to rock downtown Riverside on Saturday, 1st from 4pm to 9:30pm. The free outdoor concert will take place on University Avenue, which will be closed to traffic from Orange Street to Lemon Street. The stage will be located at University and Lemon facing towards Orange Street.

This year's event will have more of a festival feel with the addition of vendors from the IE Record Collective at University and Orange Street plus a mini Arts Park in the parking lot at University and Lemon opposite Aurea Vista.

The festival feel will be continued with the lineup, all bands that have played at recent Southern California music festivals. The LA based band Roses consists of Marc Steinberg on vocals and keys, Juan Velasquez on guitar, and Victor Herrera on bass and will open at 4pm. At 6pm, Thee Commons will take the stage with members Rene Pacheco, Tim Swift and David Pacheco featuring their 'Psychedelic Kumbia Punk' music.

At 8pm, the San Diego based band, Unwritten Law, will offer alternative rock with members Scott Russo on vocals, Wade Youman on guitar, Chris Lewis on drums and Jonny Gill on bass.

The free concert is made possible by the Riverside Downtown Partnership, the City of Riverside, and by the hosting establishments; D-Dogs Sports Restaurant, Heroes Restaurant and Brewery, Hide-away Café and Bar, Lake Alice Trading Company, Mario's Place, Mezcal Cantina Y Cocina, Mission Tobacco Lounge, Pixels Bar and Eatery, ProAbition Kitchen and Cocktails, The Menagerie, and Worthington's Tavern. Concert attendees are encouraged to stop by these hospitality establishments during intermissions for entertainment and specials.

Concert attendees are welcome to bring chairs for their seating comfort but no umbrellas or coolers are permitted.

For more information, visit www.Facebook.com/RiversideDowntownPartnership or www.riversidedowntown.org. IER

The Ontario Home & Backyard Show

It's the biggest backyard show of the year! The Ontario Home And Backyard Show comes to the Ontario Convention Center July 17th, 18th & 19th.

See everything in home and backyard living under one roof, over three days! Including: pools, spas, bar-b-ques, patios, ponds, waterfalls and landscaping. Plus! get the latest ideas in home improvement, remodeling and decorating. There'll be water-wise gardening and solar seminars, healthy cooking shows and a grand prize drawing for a four-person spa and a deluxe backyard patio set.

Don't miss the free entertainment all three days, featuring the live music of "One Plus One" playing the best of everything. There'll be a free kitchen slicing knife for the first 300 people on Friday, opening day, and a free Salsa Master for the first 100 people both Saturday and Sunday.

Meet KOLA 99.9 personality Vic Slick in person Saturday, July 18th, during their live broadcast from 11am to 1pm.

Beat The Summer Heat

Beat The Heat For Cheap With Water Slide Season Passes

Beat the heat all summer long with new season passes available for Alpine Slide's refreshing double water slide.

Guests get all the wet, wild fun they can handle with new anytime water slide season passes available for just $69. Hit the twin flumes filled with cool, cascading water and plenty of twists, turns and straightaways anytime you want with Alpine Slide operating daily. The anytime pass pays for itself in less than five visits.

Also available are Sunday through Friday season passes for only $49. Either way guests get all the play in the spray they want as they whip through refurbished flumes before splashing into the solar heated pool at the bottom...a great way to beat summer heat!

The water slide is always an

affordable way to play anyway with all-day passes just $15, 10 rides for $10, or single rides for $2. Parents who don't play never have to pay, many choosing to sit on one of two spacious sundecks with a good book while the kids have a blast. Or, head to the recently expanded indoor base lodge to escape the sun where there's video games and family-priced snack bar that includes an old-fashioned Breyers ice cream counter.

Alpine Slide is famous for its Olympic-style bobsleds which are in season all year long. Snow is never needed since the sleds have teflon runners and ball-bearing wheels, and the quarter-mile long tracks with banked turns and long straight-aways are cement.

Riders control their own speed with the brake, and unlike any amusement park ride, each trip down is a completely unique and interactive experience. Lean into each turn and go into a tuck through straightaways to experience what it's like to be an Olympic bobsledder, or use the brake to go slow and soak in views of the lake and mountains.

For a relaxing change of pace enjoy a round on the Putt 'N Around miniature golf course, laden with rolling greens, water hazards, even penalty-stroke "sand traps."

Then for more fast fun, ride the Putt 'N Around Go-Karts, each equipped with 5.5 horsepower Honda motors and an array of safety features including three-point harness restraints, hydraulic disk brakes, rack and pinion steering and padded steering wheels. The tire-lined track sports hair pin and high banked turns as riders circle under the pines at 7,000 foot elevation. IER

People Of Blades

An unusual dust devil arrives in Blades, USA. He sings lyrical, dusty songs around the San Gabriel Mountains to get the attention of many. People listen and wonder why they never see him. Is he a small world wind within the mountains? Maybe he's a dead unsung hero. Maybe he's God's song in the wind. Whoever he is, the people of Blades never went blind. Can you read his song? Can you see his spirit?

'Signature Sound' In Loma Linda Gospel Concert On August 1

Online and phone ticket sales have opened for a first Inland Empire concert appearance by popular gospel recording artists Ernie Haase and Signature Sound. The quartet will perform at Loma Linda University Church in Loma Linda on Saturday night, August 1.

Known to millions for their Grammy-nominated and Dove award-winning recordings and their televised appearances with the Gaither Homecoming Tour and Gaither Vocal Band, the gospel artists' local concert is co-sponsored by the host church and the Calimesa Community Concert Series.

The all-reserved seats cost from $10 to $30 depending on seat location, explains concert series coordinator Dr. Bob Soderblom. Prime-seat VIP tickets are $50. Early ticket buyers have access to preferred seat locations in each price category. Popular credit cards are accepted, and concertgoers will enjoy free parking in a structure across the street from the church, Soderblom says.

Tickets can be ordered online from iTickets.

com or by phone at (800) 965-9324. Doors will open at 6:30pm for the 7pm event.

Tickets are not available at the church, and no tickets will be sold at the door.

Signature Sound co-founder Ernie Haase knew his life ambition from early boyhood in Evansville, Indiana: It was the desire "to sing for Jesus." His favorite quartet was the legendary Cathedrals, whose concerts he would attend anytime they were near his hometown.

As a teenager, he recalls, "I would always show up early – sometimes even before they did – and help them unload the bus. It was my dream to sing with them one day."

That opportunity came in the Spring of 1990, when Cathedrals bass singer George Younce heard Ernie sing a solo at Oakland City College in Evansville. Within a week, young Haase was on the way to his first performance as the Cathedrals' new tenor, a post he held until the quartet's final tour ended in 1999.

Haase and others started touring as Signature

Sound in 2002, quickly building a huge following and a reputation for thinking and performing "outside the box." In addition to traditional gospel concerts and recordings that include gold and platinum DVDs, the quartet introduced high-energy harmonies and messages of hope to NASCAR crowds and corporate events, touring from Latvia to India and South Africa to New Zealand.

Quartet personnel in 2015 are tenor and front-man Haase; lead singer Devin McGlamery, bass Paul Harkey, and baritone Doug Anderson, the only continuing original member along with Haase. However, Anderson last April 28 announced plans to leave the group in order to concentrate on his successful solo career. Wayne Haun will play with the quartet on piano and keyboards in the Loma Linda concert.

Information about the group's Loma Linda appearance, including directions to the church, can be heard on the recorded concert information phone line at (909) 795-4960. IER

The Riverside Community Players, entering its 91st year, announced its 2015-2016 season. Riverside Community Players is located at 4026 14th St., in Riverside. For more information, call (951) 686-4030 or go online to riversidecommunityplayers.com.

Main Series

DON'T DRESS FOR DINNER

by Marc Camoletti
September 11 – September 27, 2015

Bernard is preparing to entertain his beautiful Parisian mistress for the weekend while his wife, Jacqueline, is off to visit her mother. All is arranged - his best friend Robert will provide a suitable alibi and a cordon bleu cook will be preparing the dinner. A foolproof plan until Jacqueline decides to stay home. Robert then mistakes the cook for the mistress and the mistress cannot cook. Bernard and Robert improvise at breakneck speed providing an evening of hilarious confusion.

ALMOST, MAINE

by John Cariani
November 13 – November 29, 2015

Near the Canadian border, the northern lights hover in the star-filled sky above the town of Almost, Maine. Unexpected magic lingers in the air this night for the residents who find themselves falling in and out of love in unexpected ways. Knees are bruised and hearts are broken, but the bruises heal and the hearts will mend in this whimsical approach to the joys and perils of romance. Nine vignettes comprise this charming offering of a different look at love.

DINNER WITH FRIENDS

by Donald Margulies
Winner of the 2000 Pulitzer Prize for Drama
January 29 – February 14, 2016

Gabe and Karen have been friends with Tom and Beth for many years. One evening, while Tom is away on business, Beth reveals that Tom has left her for another woman. A trip back in time shows the couples at different stages of their lives with a return to the present requiring them all to deal with their feelings regarding this life changing event. Presented with intelligence and humor, there is wisdom provided in the keen observation of these relationships.

BLACK COFFEE

by Agatha Christie
April 1 – April 17, 2016

Hercule Poirot and his friend Arthur Hastings are summoned to visit Sir Claud Amory, a famous physicist, but upon their arrival at Abbot's Cleve, they discover that he has been murdered. A stolen formula could provide the motive while Poirot deduces which of Sir Claud's house guests – or family members – is the killer. The very first piece that Dame Agatha wrote for the stage, it launched a successful second career for her as a playwright.

THE MURDER ROOM

by Jack Sharkey
May 20 – June 5, 2016

Murder has never been so funny! A spoof of all crime thrillers with good clean mirth leading the way through the secret chambers and panels of Bynewood Cottage. An inspector comes to the cottage in response to a missing person's report filed by the very new bride of the prominent Edgar Hollister. When Edgar's daughter arrives with her new fiancée, the investigation expands and so does the zaniness. Everyone gathers to tie together the thread of the plot and even more unraveling ensues.

VANYA AND SONIA AND MASHA AND SPIKE

by Christopher Durang
Winner of the 2013 Tony Award for Best Play
July 15 – July 31, 2016

Siblings, Vanya and Sonia share a home in Bucks County, PA where they spend their days reflecting on their lost chances and debating if their 9 cherry trees constitute an orchard. When Masha, their movie star sister, returns home she brings with her a flurry of drama, a litany of insecurity and a much younger lover named Spike. Masha has returned to attend a costume party hosted by an influential neighbor and she insists they all attend - as characters from Snow White.

Family Series

THE JUST SO STORIES

by Rudyard Kipling
Adapted by Joseph Robinette
October 9 – October 11, 2015

While visiting her aunt, Kipling's young daughter, Elsie, receives in the mail from her father a recently published copy of his new book. It is a series of animal adventures and she and her friends eagerly begin acting out all of the stories, until they come to the final one. Elsie is reluctant to enact this one but in the end she does and learns something about herself and her friends as well. A story that is sure to delight those of all ages.

A CHRISTMAS CAROL

by Charles Dickens
Adapted by Kathryn L. Gage
December 11 – December 20, 2015

It is Christmas Eve, but the miserly Ebenezer Scrooge celebrates no holidays. As usual, he walks home from his office through the heavy fog to the large, empty building where he resides alone. Alone, however, is not what he will be this night. At his front door Scrooge encounters the ghostly face of his dead partner, Jacob Marley, and will soon learn that Jacob has plans for Scrooge to receive three more visitors this very evening – visitors who will transform his life.

STORY THEATRE

From Stories in the Grimm Brothers Collection and Aesop's Fables
Adapted by Paul Sills
February 26 – February 27, 2016

"One story is good, till another is told!" Aesop
Here are stories from the Grimm Brothers, like the well known tale of Henny Penny, who thinks the sky is falling, and Aesop, considered the most famous of all fabulists. The Grimm Brothers were the most important of the German romantic folklore historians, collecting their tales from stories told by villagers. Freed from slavery because of his wit, most of Aesop's fables can be traced back to the 6th Century BC. IER

The Community Arts Theater Society Presents 'Annie Get Your Gun'

» CATS, The Community Arts Theater Society, presents the classic Irving Berlin musical comedy, Annie Get Your Gun, for its 2015 summer production at the Big Bear Lake Performing Arts Center. The musical plays July 1, 3, 6, 8, 10 and 11 at 7:30pm and matinees on June 28, July 5 and 12 at 1:30pm. Depending on the date and seating area, reserved ticket prices range from $17-$29 for adults, $16- $27 for Seniors and $11- $20 for kids under 18.

Check www.bigbeartheater.org for info and tickets.

Produced by Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein, with music and lyrics by Irving Berlin and Book by Herbert and Dorothy Fields, Annie Get Your Gun ran on Broadway for over three years and was originally written for the great Broadway star, Ethel Merman. Revivals have starred Bernadette Peters, Reba McEntire, Debbie Reynolds, Ginger Rogers and many others.

The Irving Berlin score features some of the greatest songs Broadway has ever produced: "Doin' What Comes Natur'lly," "Anything You Can Do (I Can Do Better)," "You Can't Get A Man With A Gun," "They Say It's Wonderful," "The Girl That I Marry," "I Got Lost In His Arms," "I Got The Sun In The Morning," and the smash hit that has become the anthem of the entertainment world, "There's No Business Like Show Business." The musical takes place within the colorful and exciting backdrop of Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show in the late 1800's, and features the real-life characters of Annie Oakley, Frank Butler, Buffalo Bill and Sitting Bull.

Annie Get Your Gun is a classic Broadway musical, filled with great songs, wonderful characters, a funny script, colorful costumes and exciting sets. The CATS production, which will be produced, directed and choreographed by Karen Sargent Rachels, will feature a large cast of Big Bear favorites, including Serena Saunders as Annie Oakley, Brett Smith as Frank Butler, Jim Weyant as Buffalo Bill, Michael Reno as Charlie Davenport, Diana Hintergardt as Winnie Tate, Adam McDonald as Tommy Cody Keeler and Steve Mangels as Sitting Bull.

Karen Bergmann is Associate Producer with the exciting sets designed by Julaine Salem, costumes designed by Priscilla Anderson, lighting design by Melinda Garcia, musical direction by Michael Reno and set construction by Bob Perry and Bob Perkins.

Tickets are on sale now and can be purchased through the CATS website at www.bigbeartheater.org or by calling the PAC Box Office at (909) 866-4970. IER

IN 2015 PAGEANT OF THE MASTERS, ART TRACKS

'The Pursuit of Happiness'

Happiness seems to be a hot topic this year, a favorite subject for editorials, opinion polls, self-help books, feature films and documentaries and, as always, pop songs. And it's on everyone's mind at the Pageant of the Masters in Laguna Beach, the world-famous celebration of art in "living pictures" – tableaux vivants – where the theme chosen for this summer's production is "The Pursuit of Happiness." This one-of-a-kind theatrical event, which also features live narration and original music performed live by the Pageant's orchestra, takes place in the beautiful Irvine Bowl on the grounds of Laguna's Festival of Arts.

With its July opening fast approaching, Pageant Director Diane Challis Davy is putting the finishing touches on what she believes will be an inspiring and family-friendly show. In this, her 20th Pageant as director, Challis Davy readily acknowledged her theme selections seem to have a surprising knack for topical resonance. This summer's Pageant, with its blend of art and theatre, will offer its own perspectives.

"It's going to be fun, entertaining and educational," Challis Davy explained. "Past and present sources of happiness will be considered, and we'll present themes and memes that everyone can relate to."

"The desire for happiness," she continued, "is integral to being human. Today we share the same basic wants and face the same struggles as our distant ancestors. The need to be 'happy' is a trait that unites us across all nationalities, races and religions." Challis Davy added, "We are living a fast-paced existence in the digital age. Maybe this is a good time to slow down and consider the ways in which art reflects the quest for happiness in different eras and different cultures. I think we will find we have more in common with previous generations than we thought."

Challis Davy hopes "The Pursuit of Happiness" will provide plenty of opportunities for beauty and theatrical excitement. It will also have an international feel thanks to the inclusion of artworks from other cultures. Tributes to the wonders of childhood and the universal appeal of dance will be complemented by stories of love, family and history.

Working closely with Challis Davy, longtime Pageant Scriptwriter Dan Duling was also excited about the theme, especially at the Pageant where volunteer enthusiasm is integral to the creative process. Duling noted, "We had over 1,200 potential volunteers show up for this past January's 'casting call' to vie for a chance to be part of the fun both onstage and backstage. Community, friendship, family, and devotion to a greater cause: I've learned a lot about the sources of

Riverside Community Players Conclude Season With 'Nunsense'

IN THE ROUND Riverside Community Player's Arena theater.

Riverside Community Players completes its 90th season with the heavenly inspired musical Nunsense written and composed by Dan Goggin.

Nunsense begins when the Little Sisters of Hoboken discover that their cook, Sister Julia, Child of God, has accidentally poisoned 52 of the sisters, and they are in dire need of funds for the burials. The sisters decide that the best way to raise the money is to put on a variety show, so they take over the school auditorium.

Here we meet Reverend Mother Regina, a former circus performer; Sister Mary Hubert, the Mistress of Novices; a streetwise nun from Brooklyn named Sister Robert Anne; Sister Mary Leo, a novice who is a wannabe ballerina; and the delightfully wacky Sister Mary Amnesia, the nun who lost her memory when a crucifix fell on her head.

Directed by Zoe Bright, Nunsense runs from July 10th – July 26th. Show times are Friday and Saturday at 8pm and Sunday at 2pm. There are two additional shows on Thursday, July 16th at 8pm and Saturday, July 25th at 2pm.

For ticket and reservation information call the box office at (951) 686-4030. Riverside Community Players is located at 4026 14th St., in Riverside. Find them online at www.riversidecommunityplayers.com.

Center Stage Theater's 2015-2016 Shows

Center Stage Theater, one of Fontana's historic buildings, is an award-winning dinner theater rich in cultural and historical appeal.

By Cynthia Alvarado
CSA Performing Arts

The City of Fontana is a thriving community and will continue to enrich life through art at the Center Stage Theater during its exciting 2015/2016 show season. Whether you love the classics or enjoy experiencing new shows, there is no better place to do so than at Center Stage Theater located at 8463 Sierra Avenue.

Center Stage Theater is one of Fontana's historic buildings; built in 1937 as a single screen movie theater, it is now an award winning dinner theater rich in cultural and historical appeal. Beginning in July, Center Stage brings us an entire new lineup of shows and live entertainment for family and friends of all ages.

The first show being presented, Breaking Up...Is Hard To Do, features musical hits by Neil Sedaka that everyone can groove to. This musical comedy is about good times with friends and falling in love. The show will run from July 24th through August 2nd, 2015.

Coming back to spice things up, Noches con Ritmo will be on select Thursday nights starting August 6th, 2015. Enjoy a dance lesson from 7 to 8pm, and a live salsa band from 8pm to 12am. Complemented by a full bar and appetizers, Noches con Ritmo is the perfect way to dance the stress away and make new friends. The event is 18 and over and is only $5 before 9 pm and $7 after 9pm.

Beginning October 16 and running through November 8, 2015, Center Stage will be presenting the classic musical, Guys and Dolls. This classic musical theater show is about falling in love and gambling in The Big Apple.

Starting weekends from December 4th through December 31st, 2015, the beloved Tibbies Holiday Follies show is back in town!

Summer Cool Down Concert

Soul and R&B vocal legends The Stylistics and The Dramatics will perform at 7:30pm, Saturday, Sept. 12, in the Citizen Business Bank Arena in Ontario.

The Stylistics are one of the best-known Philadelphia soul groups of the 1970's. They formed in 1968, and were composed of lead Russell Thompkins, Jr., Herb Murrell, Airrion Love, James Smith, and James Dunn. All of their U.S. hits were ballads, graced by the soaring falsetto of Thompkins, Jr. and the lush productions of Thom Bell, which helped make the Stylistics one of the most successful soul groups of the first half of the 1970s.

During the early 1970s, the group had 12 consecutive U.S. R&B top 10 hits, including "Stop, Look, Listen," "You Are Everything," "Betcha by Golly, Wow," "People Make the World Go Round," "I'm Stone in Love with You," "Break Up to Make Up," and "You Make Me Feel Brand New." Today's Stylistics are the two originals, Love and Murrell, joined by Harold Eban Brown and Jason Sharp.

The Dramatics originated in Detroit, Mich., and became national stars in 1971 when "What You See Is What You Get" hit the top 10 in the Billboard Hot 100 and then went gold. The group has continued to perform and today its members are L.J. Reynolds, Leon Franklin, Donald Albert, Winzell Kelly and Larry "Squirrel" Demps.

Also Performing live at this event is R&B's Evelyn Champagne King, with her 70's hits "Shame" and "Love Come Down," The Originals with their hits "Baby I'm For Real" and "Hear the Bells," 5 Tempting Men will open the evening with a tribute to Motown, with Hit songs from the Temptations, "My Girl", "Just My Imagination," "Get Ready" to name a few. Comedian Evan Lionel will keep things lively throughout the evening.

For ticket information contact Citizen Bank Business Bank Arena at (909) 244-5500 or go online to axs.com or www.cbbankarena.com.

Massive Guitar Show At OC Fair & Event Center

The SoCal World Guitar Show returns to the OC Fair and Event Center in Costa Mesa on Saturday, August 22, 10am-5pm, and Sunday, August 23, 10am-4pm. This great coastal venue provides a fitting setting for a proven show. Their largest shows are always in OC.

This international event features all types of new, used, old and rare instruments, amplifiers and equipment, and is sponsored by California World Guitar Shows/4 Amigos. Meet dealers, collectors, retail store owners, manufacturers, builders, authors, repair-persons and maybe even a star or two.

Attendees wishing to sell or trade guitars, amps or other musical items may bring them into the show at no extra charge.

Adult admission to the show is $20 at the door. Children 11 and younger are free if accompanied by an adult.

The OC Fair & Event Center is located just off the 55 South Freeway at 88 Fair Drive, and the guitar show entrance is on Arlington Avenue.

For more information or for booth reservations, visit www.CalShows.TV or call (918) 288-2222.

This song and dance showcase features classic and traditional holiday songs we have all grown to love and cherish. This is the perfect event to attend with the family, and is sure to become a tradition for years, as it will make even a Grinch break into holiday cheer!

Back by popular demand for one day only on January 23rd, 2016, is the Murder Mystery Weekend. This is an interactive show and dining experience in which the audience gets to enjoy a 3-course meal and help solve a "who-done-it" crime, so get your magnifying glass ready!

Starting February 12th and ending March 6th, 2016, Memphis the Musical will be the featured entertainment performance. This musical highlights the music, nightclubs, and recording studios in 1950's Memphis, Tennessee, said to be the birthplace of modern rock n' roll. This is a story about artists fighting not only for their success and fame, but also for their love, no matter what obstacles they may face.

On weekends during the month of April, 2016 Center Stage Theater presents The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee. No, not a real spelling bee, but a hilarious musical about six open-minded and loud-mouthed tweens who are all but too eager to share stories about their lives, all while trying to avoid being dismissed from the spelling bee competition. You won't want to miss this wacky and hilarious modern musical!

Finishing out the thrilling 2015/2016 show season starting on May 7, 2016, Center Stage Theater will be presenting a high-energy dance and song revue, Can't Stop Dancing, showcasing popular music movements beginning in the roaring 20s and going all the way through the 90s. The audience will be able to reminisce with songs like "American Bandstand," "Stayin' Alive," and "Footloose." This show runs until June 19, 2016.

The Center Stage Theater is the perfect venue to enjoy singing and dancing performances, musicals, and interactive plays. Aside from performances, Center Stage can be rented for your private special occasion, such as weddings, quinceañeras, or business meetings. For more information on show times, ticket prices, touring the facility, and booking an event, please visit www.centerstagefontana.com or call (909) 429-SHOW (7469).

Big Bear Alpine Zoo Offers A Fun, Family Summer Escape

Big Bear Alpine Zoo, a wildlife alpine collection of more than 190 animals, presents fun summer happenings that have something to please everyone.

EVERY DAY AT NOON THERE IS AN ANIMAL PRESENTATION

Regular zoo admission will apply to all photographers. Throughout the day animals will be brought out to the presentation green for special photo opportunities.

If you cannot attend the photo op day, you can still participate, as long as your photos are taken at the Big Bear Alpine Zoo by July 30. Winners from each category (professional, intermediate, amateur and youth) will be featured in their 2016 calendar.

For event details, contest rules and registration forms, visit www.friendsofthebigbearalpinezoo.org/calendar/ and click on "Photography Contest."

BIG BEAR ALPINE ZOO IS A VERY SPECIAL PLACE

Did you know that one of the most unique zoos in this country is almost right in your backyard? The Big Bear Alpine Zoo is one of only two alpine zoos in the United States. It is also one of the few zoos that is also a rescue and rehabilitation facility, providing care, shelter and hopefully a safe return back to the wild for animals who are injured, orphaned, or displaced. Their dedication to this service results in an 80-90% success rate in reintroducing rehabilitation animals back into the wild.

The animals on exhibit at the zoo are either too injured or have been imprinted by humans and cannot be released back into the wild to care for themselves.

When you visit the Big Bear Alpine Zoo, you will see a wide variety of animals, many of whom are native to Southern California. Exhibits include a family of Grizzly Bears (who had been scheduled to be euthanized due to bad behavior in the Northern US), 2 beautiful snow leopards, 11 timber wolves, a 3-legged black bear, mountain lions, bobcats, foxes, raccoons, bald eagles, various owls, and many more fascinating species of wild life.

No matter where you are in the Inland Empire, it is worth the short drive up to Big Bear Lake to visit the Big Bear Alpine Zoo and enjoy the beautiful weather, blue skies and fresh air.

Bike Rodeo & Ride Promotes Health

The City of Rialto will host its 3rd Annual Bike Rodeo & Ride sponsored by Healthy Rialto on Saturday, August 15, at 9am. This year the Rodeo will be held at the Award winning Pacific Electric Inland Empire Trail (Rails2Trails Project) located at Cactus Avenue and Rialto Avenue.

The City of Rialto recently received an Achievement Award for Sustainability from the Southern California Association of Governments for the project. The Pacific Electric Inland Empire Trail is a 21 mile walking, running, bicycling route between Rialto and Claremont.

The Bike Rodeo is to promote a healthy active lifestyle for kids 3-12 years of age only. A bike safety course by the Rialto Police and Fire Departments will take the kids through bike safety scenarios. Inland Empire Health Plan (IEHP) will provide helmet checks to ensure the kids are properly wearing their helmets. Cyclery USA will provide bicycle checks to ensure tires are inflated and seats are at the proper height. Kids can practice their bike riding skills on the Trail with various games. Healthy Rialto will raffle a limited quantity of youth bicycles and provide healthy resources and information.

As a Biking for Healthy Lifestyles Fundraiser, Enhancing Forward Action will be selling $15 raffle tickets to win a brand new adult bicycle benefitting the R.o.c.K. (Reaching Our Community's Kids) Program.

Rialto Police Department Bike Patrol encourages all participants to safely ride with their families on the Rialto portion of the Trail from Cactus Avenue to Maple Avenue.

Healthy Rialto is dedicated to providing innovative and proactive solutions to everyone that has the desire to make sure that each child knows how to operate his or her bike correctly and safely.

Pre-Registration for the Bike Rodeo will be at the Rialto City Clerk's Office – 290 W. Rialto Avenue, Rialto. Signed waivers and proof of age (Birth Certificate and/or School I.D.) are required to participate.

For more information, call (909) 820-2519 or visit website www.rialtoca.gov. IER

Director Challis Davy and her staff realize all too well that their 82-year-old production wouldn't be possible without their amazing and loyal volunteers, many of whom travel from all over the Southland and return year after year to take part. Backstage at the Pageant is truly unique: camaraderie, a perpetually festive atmosphere, and a commitment to professionalism in every department, result in a show that has been eliciting gasps of wonder and delight from audiences for decades.

When asked about what happiness means to her, Challis Davy responded, “Being creative and making artful entertainment.” After a moment, she added, “Good health and the absence of worries wouldn't be bad either!”

Finally, she summed up her ambitions. “We hope ‘The Pursuit of Happiness’ will be beautiful and entertaining, and encourage our audiences to think about the importance of both joy and art in their lives.”

ABOUT THE PAGEANT OF THE MASTERS PRESENTED BY THE FESTIVAL OF ARTS OF LAGUNA BEACH

The Pageant of the Masters is arguably one of the most unique productions in the entire world. Audiences are amazed and enchanted by ninety minutes of tableaux vivants (“living pictures”), incredibly faithful re-creations of classical and contemporary works of art, with real people posing to look exactly like their counterparts in the original pieces.

Grand Openings & Wheel Spins At Cahuilla Casino

The fun for adults heats up at Cahuilla Casino with summer games, giveaways and slot tournaments. Celebrating its 19th anniversary this summer, Cahuilla kicks off the season with the grand opening of Mountain Sky Travel Center. The new travel center sits adjacent to the casino and features a 24-hour convenience store and gas station. It is also home to the Cahuilla Smoke shop which has been a favorite for tobacco shoppers for over a decade due to the big selection of native brand cigarettes and great prices.

But the big fun is happening inside the casino, starting with a July 4th daytime party from 1pm to 6pm before firework fans head down the mountain for various evening festivities. Players can start their July 4th celebration early with lunch at the casino, slot tournament action and cash drawings, plus fun trivia games and prizes for all. Other great ways to play in July are “Hot-n-Cold Hot Seats” on Wednesdays and Saturdays where winners spin the wheel to multiply their winnings or the beach-party themed “Cash Splash Slot Tournament” weekly on Fridays.

Cahuilla Casino is known for its small size, laid back atmosphere, and extremely friendly staff. As opposed to bigger casino properties, players at Cahuilla come because it is an easy casino to navigate with convenient parking, carries a wide variety of slot machines, and it's a place where staff and players alike know your name and greet you with a smile.

For non-gamers looking for a mountain stop for great food and drinks, Roadrunner's Bar & Grill serves all-American fare seven days a week and is best known for a fantastic burger in eight varieties including Western, Buffalo and Guacamole Bacon. The restaurant serves dinner specials weekly plus brunch every weekend. For those looking for a quicker stop, Mountain Sky Fresh & Fast serves made-to-order pizza and fried chicken for takeout.

Cahuilla Casino likes to take care of its loyal players with generous weekly player's club rewards. Club Cahuilla offers $20 in rewards to new members upon signup, plus all members receive weekly MatchPlay and Restaurant Rewards. The casino has giveaways, promotions and slot tournaments year-round for members.

Cahuilla Casino at Mountain Sky Travel Center is open 24 hours, 365 days a year. The casino is for players 21 and older. More information and directions can be found at cahuillacasino.com. Cahuilla Casino is located at 52702 Highway 371 in Anza. For more information, call (951) 763-1200. IER
