Beat The Summer Heat

Beat The Heat For Cheap With Water Slide Season Passes

Beat the heat all summer long with new season passes available for Alpine Slide's refreshing double water slide.

Guests get all the wet, wild fun they can handle with new anytime water slide season passes available for just $69. Hit the twin flumes filled with cool, cascading water and plenty of twists, turns and straightaways anytime you want with Alpine Slide operating daily. The anytime pass pays for itself in less than five visits.

Also available are Sunday through Friday season passes for only $49 (excluding July 4th). Either way guests get all the play in the spray they want as they whip through refurbished flumes before splashing into the solar heated pool at the bottom...a great way to beat summer heat!

The water slide is always an

affordable way to play anyway with all-day passes just $15, 10 rides for $10, or single rides for $2. Parents who don't play never have to pay, many choosing to sit on one of two spacious sundecks with a good book while the kids have a blast. Or, head to the recently expanded indoor base lodge to escape the sun where there's video games and family-priced snack bar that includes an old-fashioned Breyers ice cream counter.

Alpine Slide is famous for its Olympic-style bobsleds which are in season all year long. Snow is never needed since the sleds have teflon runners and ball-bearing wheels, and the quarter-mile long tracks with banked turns and long straightaways are cement.

Riders control their own speed with the brake, and unlike any amusement park ride, each trip down is a completely unique and interactive experience. Lean into each turn and go into a tuck through straightaways to experience what it's like to be an Olympic bobsledder, or use the brake to go slow and soak in views of the lake and mountains.

For a relaxing change of pace enjoy a round on the Putt 'N Around miniature golf course, laden with rolling greens, water hazards, even penalty-stroke "sand traps."

Then for more fast fun, ride the Putt 'N Around Go-Karts, each equipped with 5.5 horsepower Honda motors and an array of safety features including three-point harness restraints, hydraulic disk brakes, rack and pinion steering and padded steering wheels. The tire-lined track sports hair pin and high banked turns as riders circle under the pines at 7,000 foot elevation. IER

Broadway at the Gardens presents Into the Woods, March 10 - 19. An ambivalent Cinderella? A blood-thirsty Little Red Ridinghood? A Prince Charming with a roving eye? A Witch... who raps? They're all among the cockeyed characters in James Lapine and Stephen Sondheim's fractured fairy tale. When a baker and his wife learn they've been cursed with childlessness by the witch next door, they embark on a quest for objects required to reverse the spell. Everyone's wish is granted, but the consequences of their actions return to haunt them later with disastrous results. What begins as a lively irreverent fantasy becomes a moving lesson about community responsibility and the stories we tell our children.

84TH ANNUAL FESTIVAL OF ARTS

Brings Art, Music and More to Laguna Beach July 5 – August 31, 2016

The Festival of Arts Fine Art Show celebrates its 84th year July 5 through August 31 in Laguna Beach. The Festival has been rated one of the top festivals in the nation and each year hosts 140 of Orange County's most talented artists. Recent accolades include Orange County Register's Best Place to Buy Original Art, Art Fair Calendar's Top Five Art Fairs in the West and Top 5 Art Festival in the nation voted by USA Today readers. Live music, hands-on art activities, exhibitions of local student artwork and a wide variety of special events round out one of southern California's favorite outdoor summer events.

"Avid art collectors and festival-goers will have an outstanding variety of fine art to browse and purchase as they walk among the artists displays," says Marketing and Public Relations Director Sharbie Higuchi. The Festival of Arts is a professionally juried fine art show featuring a diverse selection of artwork including paintings, sculpture, photography, ceramics, jewelry, and more from artists around Orange County. Since opening in 1932, thousands have shown and sold their artwork at the Festival and many have their work featured in the private collections of leading art collectors, celebrities, and museums around the world.

In addition to the variety of artwork, the Festival of Arts offers a wide range of daily activities that the whole family can enjoy. The 2016 events calendar includes nightly live music, jazz concerts, wine and chocolate pairings, guided art tours and art workshops. Several special one-day events return this year, including the Festival Runway Fashion Show and Family Art Day.

In 2016, the Festival of Arts introduces three new events to the calendar. On Tuesday nights, discover new up and coming musicians on the Festival stage. The Rising Stars Music Series will spotlight emerging performers selected by the Festival's roster of world-famous musicians.

This year at Books and Brunch, attendees will meet bestselling authors Steve Hely and Michelle Gable who will share personal insights about their work and creative process. The event also includes a book signing, author lecture, hard cover copy of book and brunch.

For families, Art and Story Time, presented by Crayola, is a new weekly series for children 5 and under. Every Monday will feature a different children's book read aloud and a hands-on art project, along with special surprise visits from illustrators, book characters and more.

"There's something for everyone at the Festival of Arts," said Higuchi. "With beautiful art, nightly live music, workshops for all ages, and unique events, the Festival is truly a full arts experience."

Gospel Recording Icon Guy Penrod In Loma Linda Concert Aug. 20

Popular gospel recording artist Guy Penrod will be featured in a live concert at Loma Linda University Church on August 20. Online and telephone ticket sales have opened for the appearance as part of the award-winning singer's national "Pray About Everything" tour, sponsors of the Loma Linda event announced this week.

Penrod is known to millions for his Grammy and Dove award-winning recordings and his many televised appearances with the Gaither Homecoming Tour and Gaither Vocal Band. His rare concert appearance in the Inland Empire is co-sponsored by the host church and the nearby Calimesa Seventh-day Adventist Church, in collaboration with the Calimesa Community Concert Series.

Tickets for the all-reserved seats can be ordered online from www.iTickets.com or by phone at (800) 965-9324, explains concert series coordinator Dr. Bob Soderblom. Prices range from $10 to $30 depending on location, he says, with prime-seat VIP tickets $50 each.

Early ticket buyers have access to preferred seat locations in each price category, Soderblom advises. Popular credit cards are accepted, and concertgoers will enjoy free parking in a structure immediately across the street from the church, he says.

Tickets are not being sold at the church, and none will be available at the doors, which open at 6:30 for the 7pm concert.

Visually striking for his flowing white hair, Penrod spent 14 years as lead singer with the Gaither Vocal Group before launching his successful solo ministry in 2010. His 2012 recording, "Hymns," became the top-selling southern gospel album, and this year's January release, "Guy Penrod Live," opened in the number two position on Nielsen's Contemporary Christian Music chart. His first solo DVD, "Live Hymns and Worship," was also released this year and debuted at number one in Billboard's contemporary Christian music chart.

He was named "Soloist of the Year" by the National Quartet Convention in 2013.

Born into a Baptist pastor's family in Taylor, Texas, young Guy showed musical promise at an early age. He recorded his first album as a high school student in New Mexico, singing all four parts.

After graduation from Liberty University, Penrod pursued his musical career as a studio and back-up singer, working with many notable musicians. During this period he first met Christian recording mogul Bill Gaither, and accepted his position with the Gaither Vocal Band in 1994. With the Gaither musical groups he toured extensively in the United States and Canada as well as in Europe, Australia, and Africa.

Today he lives on a farm in Tennessee with his wife Angie, their eight children, and an assortment of cows and farm animals. The children – seven boys and one girl (the youngest) – are all home-schooled.

Information about the Loma Linda concert, including directions to the church, is available on a recorded concert telephone line at (909) 795-4960.

'Take Me Along' Continues Through July 10 At CATS

CATS, The Community Arts Theater Society, continues performing the delightful Broadway musical Take Me Along at the Big Bear Lake Performing Arts Center through July 10. Performances are July 1, 2, 6, 8 and 9 at 7:30pm and Sunday matinees on July 3 and 10 at 1:30pm. All performances are reserved seating and prices range from $17 to $29 for adults, $16 to $27 for seniors and $11 to $20 for students/children depending on date and location of seats. There is a discount for those serving in the military.

For info and tickets check the CATS website at www.bigbeartheater.org or call the PAC Box Office at (909) 866-4970.

Take Me Along opened on Broadway in October of 1959, during the "Golden Age of Broadway." Originally starring Jackie Gleason, who won the 1960 Tony Award for his hilarious performance, and also starring Walter Pidgeon in his magnificent singing role, Take Me Along is a high spirited family musical filled with wonderful songs and delightfully funny scenes. The musical made a star of Robert Morse, and introduced a young dancer to Broadway by the name of Valerie Harper. The Music & Lyrics for the musical were written by Robert Merrill (Funny Girl) with book by Joseph Stein (Fiddler On The Roof) and Robert Russell. It was originally produced by David Merrick, with staging by Onna White.

After closing on Broadway, the musical played National Tours and summer stock venues for several years. It was so popular that United Airlines adapted the title song for a massive ad campaign in the late '60s.

CATS is reviving the musical again, having produced it 15 years ago. Director-Choreographer Karen Sargent Rachels, who once toured with the musical along with Dan Dailey, has fond memories of the show. She says: "Along with a terrific score, the musical has a wonderful script, based on Eugene O'Neill's classic comedy, Ab,

Wilderness!. Teenagers as well as Senior citizens fall in love, come of age and try to stay out of trouble, all with delightful singing and dancing. If you liked The Music Man, you'll love Take Me Along."

Take Me Along is set on July 4, 1906, and is the perfect family musical. Once again, CATS' Set Designer, Joanne McMaster, has designed a lovely period set for use on the Performing Arts Center's revolving stage. Costumes are designed by Priscilla Anderson, with Bob Perry in charge of Set Construction. Karen Bergmann is Associate Producer, Adam McDonald is Production Coordinator and Joe Sellarole is Musical Director. The cast includes several of CATS' star performers including Steve Mangels, Adam McDonald, Diana Hintergardt, Nancy Walker, Timmy Brasher and Jessica Brasher.

Tickets are on sale now. Tickets and information are available through the CATS Website at www.bigbeartheater.org. IER

Big Bear Alpine Zoo Strives Towards New Heights

High in the mountain region of Big Bear Lake, a gaze of raccoons (that's what you call a group of raccoons) is scurrying across branches foraging for food items while other members of the gaze are busy at a nearby water source involved in their dunking ritual, rinsing their food through the water. What at first appears to be both food and hand washing is actually the technique used by raccoons to heighten their sense of touch, giving them precise information on what they are about to consume.

Not far away, a male black bear tilts his head up and with a rapid succession of airflow through his nostrils, determines that a tasty food source is close by. His sense of smell, 100 times more powerful than that of a human's, picks up a scent of an edible possibility. With massive arm and shoulder strength to accompany the incredible sense of smell, the 400-pound omnivore moves massive logs in an effort to find each morsel of hidden edible treasure.

Known for their expertise as an ambush predator, two mountain lions blend in with their surrounding mountain flora, hiding between bark and branch. Above the ground, the brown, black, and grey hues of their fur makes them almost invisible allowing them to scan the activity on the ground beneath them.

A perfect match for the surrounding bark of forest trees, their stealth-like behavior makes them almost undetectable.

California has some of the most diverse wildlife in North America. But you don't have to camp out in the wilderness just to catch a glimpse of some of our state's amazing animals. In fact, the animals described above are actually animals at the Big Bear Alpine Zoo.

Founded in 1959, the Big Bear Alpine Zoo is the only Alpine Zoo of its kind in the United States. Situated at almost 7,000 feet above sea level, the Big Bear Alpine Zoo serves as a rehabilitation facility for both mountain and nearby communities. With a nearly 80% success rate, animals are nursed back to health or weaned onto solid foods and then released back into the wild. If an animal is too injured or if it has lost its fear of humans, it cannot be released and has a home for life at Big Bear Alpine Zoo.

"Our goal at the zoo is to connect our guests to wildlife, to demonstrate both the uniqueness of our animals and their habitat in the wild," says Curator Bob Cisneros. "As for our animals, we focus on their natural behaviors, providing them with opportunities to thrive. I think this combination of connecting guests to wildlife and meeting the welfare needs of our animals makes us very successful at what we do."

If you are planning a trip to Big Bear, get your wild on! A visit to the zoo is the best way to see representatives of our mountain ecosystem. Located on 2.5 acres, Big Bear Alpine Zoo brings the wild to you, housing over 100 animals, mostly native species.

The zoo is open daily from 10am through 5pm and is located at 43285 Goldmine Drive in Big Bear Lake, right across the street from Bear Mountain Ski and Board Resort.

Each day at noon there is an animal presentation done by one of their keepers and three animal enrichment talks at 1pm, 2pm, and 3pm.

If you want to know more about the facility and the animals in their care, check out the website at www.bigbearzoo.org or like them on their facebook page.
