Something For Everyone At The L.A. County Fair

Deep-fried novelties, a whirl of carnival rides and dozens of entertainment acts greet guests as they flood the Fairgrounds. Memorable attractions like America's Kids and Mojo's Safari Show complement exciting acts like aerial arts shows and the fiery Cirque du Feu. Younger guests delight in the petting zoo and the adventures of Thummer and his friends at FairView Farms. As the sun sets, guests flock to the Budweiser Grandstand for the End of Summer Concert Series. Flashing lights, dynamic talent and a crowd of 1.4 million people, that is the vibe of the L.A. County Fair.

The theme for the Fair's 91st anniversary is "Unleash Your Inner Fair," and there is an opportunity to "unleash" at every corner. Families with young children might find their inner Fair at Thummer's Entertainment Barn where pigs race each other for an Oreo cookie or at Beneath the Sea: An Underwater Adventure, where sea lions splash and mermaids swim. Herds of teenagers can get their Fair on when they try the latest deep-fried Fair food and get lost amid the carnival rides and games. Other Fair guests might smile as they hear the sounds of Queen, Journey, Stevie Wonder and Led Zeppelin from the tribute bands at the Coca-Cola stage.

No matter what, guests of all ages are sure to get their entertainment fix at the End of Summer Concert Series. This year's lineup was designed with variety in mind. The L.A. County Fair will be sporting an eclectic mixture of genres every weekend of September. WAR, Charlie Wilson and The Bangles kick off opening weekend along with country stars Trace Adkins and special guest Kellie Pickler. Other 2013 acts include edgy pop stars Demi Lovato and Ke$ha, classic favorites Lynyrd Skynyrd, Tower of Power and The Jacksons, and Latino sounds from Celebración el Grito, Graciela Beltrán and Banda La Costeña, to name a few.

Whether it's the food, the rides, the shopping or the concerts, there is something for everyone at the L.A. County Fair. IER

Beat The Heat At Knott's Soak City

As temperatures start to rise, Knott's Soak City, Palm Springs, has just what you need to keep it cool! Rides, slides and plenty of fun are on hand at Knott's Soak City Palm Springs this summer.

Longboards, surf woodies and beach themes are back in order for the wildest, wettest and coolest place in the desert.

Knott's Soak City, Palm Springs' only water adventure park, is 16 acres of water rides and attractions. Themed to 1950s Southern California beaches, Soak City guests can catch a wave in the 800,000-gallon Rip Tide Reef wave pool, brave Tidal Wave Tower's 7-story vertical chutes or relax in the Sunset River. Tube and body slide fans can head for Surf Rider Rapids or Sea Snake. Join your friends on Undertow, a twisting, turning tube slide you won't want to try alone. And there's fun for the whole family in Kahuna's Beach House.

Knott's Soak City admission price includes unlimited use of all water rides and attractions. (See prices in box).

Summer Events at the Big Bear Alpine Zoo

Animals to visit, Blues for the Zoo, and more

The Big Bear Alpine Zoo has a lot going on this summer. With a wildlife collection of more than 190 animals, there is plenty to see and learn.

ANIMAL PRESENTATIONS

Every day at noon there is an animal presentation and every day during the summer, except for Wednesdays, one of the keepers will delight and educate you on the 3pm feeding tour.

BLUES FOR THE ZOO

On Saturday, Aug. 3, the Friends of the Big Bear Alpine Zoo will host the 4th Annual Blues for the Zoo at the Swim Beach Amphitheatre located at 41220 Park Ave. in Big Bear Lake. The doors open at 1pm and the music runs from 3pm to 7 pm.

This year's lineup is: Windy City Harmonica Breakdown featuring Billy Branch, Russ Green and Omar Coleman; Kenny "Blues Boss" Wayne; and back by popular demand, Café R&B.

Advance tickets are $30 and $35 the day of the concert. For more information or to purchase tickets online go to www.bluesforthezoo.com. Walk-in purchases are at the Big Bear Alpine Zoo Gift Shop at 43285 Goldmine Drive or the Big Bear Chamber of Commerce at 630 Bartlett Road.

Northwoods Resort is also offering special discount room rates for the concert. Call 1-800-866-3121 and ask for the "Festival" rate.

SUPPORT THE ZOO

Throughout the summer the Friends of the Big Bear Alpine Zoo will host events to support the Zoo. To learn more about upcoming events, to make a donation, or to become a member go to the Friends website at friendsofthebigbearalpinezoo.org

COME VISIT THEIR ARCTIC FOX

Aurora came to the Zoo in April of 2012 when she was between one and three years of age. She was on the rooftop of a house in Beverly Hills for three days before Animal Control captured her and sent her to a rehabilitator. Since arctic foxes are considered to be a restricted species by Fish and Game and cannot be released in California she was sent to the Big Bear Alpine Zoo. She is still a little shy and usually can be seen out in her exhibit in the morning and evening. Currently they are looking for a companion animal for her.

A LITTLE HISTORY OF THE ZOO

Since 1959 the Big Bear Alpine Zoo (formerly the Moonridge Animal Park) has been practicing the three R's, "Rescue, Rehabilitation and Release." Whenever possible, any injured or orphaned wild animal brought into the zoo is given a second chance to live free. When an animal is too compromised to exist without help they are given a home for life.

The zoo is also home to a three-legged black bear, Hucklebeary; a blind bald eagle, Valentine; two orphaned mountain lion sisters, Canyon and Cascade, and many other wonderful creatures whose lives depend on the dedicated care given by Curator Debbie Richardson and her staff.

Banning Stagecoach Days

Banning celebrates 100 years with contests, concerts, historic events, a carnival, and rodeo

The Old West comes to life again as Banning celebrates its 100th birthday this year, and its 56th anniversary of Banning Stagecoach Days. The committee began planning last October.

Since all monies for the events are donated, the committee sponsored a huge garage sale where many locals donated items and came to shop. In addition, a large number of men showed up for the Annual "Whiskerino" Contest sign-ups/shave off that took place Friday, July 5 at the Gilman Ranch in Banning as did the ladies for the "Hatterino" Contest, which was brought back this year. Those who signed up received a bonnet to decorate. The judging of men's beards and women's hats will take place at the A.C. Dysart Park on Friday, Sept. 6 at 6pm.

Stagecoach Days events center around the wild west theme of "Phineas Rides Again." Phineas Banning operated a stagecoach line between San Pedro and Wilmington and later between Banning, California, which was named in his honor, and Yuma, Arizona.

A treat for the entire family is the Wild West Gunfighter and Historical Encampment Competition, located at the entrance to the park. Craftsmen will work on their trades and there will be various vendor booths selling era-themed items. The Border Renegades, a Banning group, hosts the lively gunfight show.

New this year is quad barrel racing which will be held on Friday at 7:30pm. The one-day rodeo was such a hit last year that the committee decided, in their efforts to please the public, to hold a two-day Ranch Rodeo with jackpot barrel racing on Saturday and the Ranch Rodeo on Saturday and Sunday.

Country Nation Band, enjoyed by many last year, returns on Saturday evening for the public's pleasure.

Also new this year is Junior Rodeo which begins at 11am on Sunday right after Cowboy Church at 9am.

The annual Stagecoach Days Parade is Saturday Sept. 7 at 10am going west on Ramsey St.

Vendor booths, a carnival, saloon, and Kids' zone put the finishing touches on the things taking place at A.C. Dysart Park, at 2107 Victory St., in Banning (exit at 22nd St. off the I-10 and go south and follow the signs.)

For more information, call (951) 520-5290 or visit stagecoachdays.net. IER

Legendary Grammy Award Winner Boz Scaggs

Boz Scaggs will perform on the Fox Performing Arts Center stage in Riverside on Sept. 14, with tickets on sale now. William Royce Boz Scaggs began a long and storied career in 1965 with the release of his first solo recording, "Boz." Scaggs quickly developed into an iconic singer-songwriter, cutting his teeth playing with Steve Miller on several highly successful projects and honing his rock and R & B chops working with the likes of the Muscle Shoals Rhythm Section and Duane Allman.

Scaggs hit it big in 1976, achieving multi-platinum success with Silk Degrees and its follow ups. Silk Degrees features hits like the Grammy Award winning "Lowdown" in addition to "Lido Shuffle," "What Can I Say" and the ballad "We're All Alone."

Scaggs then continued on a lauded and multi-genre musical journey with successes in film soundtracks including the song from the motion picture Urban Cowboy, "Look What You've Done To Me."

In his new album, Memphis, which came out in March 2013 on 429 Records, the Grammy-Award winning rock legend Boz Scaggs showcases both original songs and

The Wildly Successful Stand-Up Comedienne Anjelah Johnson

Comedienne
Anjelah Johnson

Anjelah Johnson, comedienne and actress, was born and raised in San Jose, California and is of Mexican and Native American descent. She got her start as a Pop Warner cheerleader and continued cheering through high school, college and then professionally for the Oakland Raiders. As an Oakland Raiderette, she was named "Rookie of the Year" and performed in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Anjelah became an internet sensation in 2007 with her viral video "Nail Salon," which led to many stand-up and performance opportunities. That same year she joined the cast of "MADtv" as a series regular, which spawned another internet sensation "Bon Qui Qui." This original character – a disgruntled fast food employee with no filter – became so popular that Anjelah recorded and released a full length rap song and music video as Bon Qui Qui. The song and the video are available on iTunes.

You've seen Anjelah in multiple ads and commercials including campaigns for Sprint, Visa, Snickers, Verizon, All-State, Washington Mutual, K-Swiss and Dreyer's Ice Cream. Additionally, she is the spokesperson for the Texas-based restaurant chain Taco Cabana. Anjelah has also guest starred on The Shield, Ugly Betty, Curb Your Enthusiasm and Love Inc. In 2007, she co-starred with Gabrielle Union in the feature film The Box. In 2008, Johnson was nominated for an ALMA Award for Outstanding Female Performance in a Comedy Television Series for her work on MADtv.

In 2010, Anjelah starred in Our Family Wedding alongside Carlos Mencia, Regina King and Oscar winner Forest Whitaker. She played the feisty sister of America Ferrera in this comedy highlighting the perils and joys of combining families. Johnson also appeared as a live action character in 2009's Alvin and the Chipmunks: The Squeakquel alongside Jason Lee and the voices of Justin Long, Anna Faris and Amy Poehler. Anjelah additionally lent her voice to the animated film Marmaduke along with Emma Stone, Owen Wilson and Jeremy Piven. LER choice covers including "Rainy Night in Georgia," "Corinna Corinna," and "Mixed Up, Shook Up Girl." Produced by Steve Jordan (John Mayer), Memphis was recorded at Willie Mitchell legendary Royal Studio in Memphis, where the late Mitchell recorded Al Green and other hit music artists. Joining Scaggs on Memphis are Willie Weeks (bass), Ray Parker, Jr. (guitars), Spooner Oldham (keyboards), the Memphis Horns, Lester Snell (string arrangements) and Steve Jordan (drums).

He and his band continue to tour worldwide and Scaggs also performs alongside Donald Fagan and Michael McDonald in their band billed as The Dukes of September. Within that collaboration, throughout his career and especially evident in Memphis, Scaggs' unique voice and trademark sound make plain his abiding respect for a wide spectrum of American roots music. IER

Silent Movie Under The Stars

Featuring Bob Salisbury and 'The Mark of Zorro'

On Saturday, Aug. 10, The Community Arts Theater Society in Big Bear, in association with The Broadway Café, will once again sponsor a "silent-movie under the stars" featuring the incredible Bob Salisbury on the theatre organ. Internationally known theatre organist Bob Salisbury will play his famous underscoring for the 1920 classic silent movie, The Mark of Zorro, starring Douglas Fairbanks.

The very popular yearly outside event will be held at 1117 W. Big Bear Blvd. in Big Bear City from 6:30pm to 10pm. The event is a benefit for CATS and the CATS Warehouse Theater, which is located next to the Café. Space is limited, and advance ticket purchase is advised. Tickets are $20 and include a home-made pasta dinner. Tickets are available at the Broadway Café at (909) 585-7682.

Salisbury, a Big Bear semi-retiree, is famous as the long time organist for the 1,264 pipe Page Organ at the Avalon Theatre on Catalina. His unique talent for underscoring silent movies is acclaimed all over the U.S. Salisbury's appearance is a rare opportunity to experience his amazing talents in Big Bear.

This silent-movie night promises to be a once-in-a-lifetime experience for families of all ages to enjoy movies as they were produced before talkies and sound tracks took over. Salisbury plays the entire score, including sound effects, "live and in person," and is a delight to watch and hear.

Dinner music will be played by The Heart Lites. The "family-affordable" all inclusive ticket price of $20 includes the movie, entertainment, dinner and pop corn. Beer and wine are available for purchase. Space is limited so it is advisable to get your tickets early. Parking will be available behind the Warehouse Theater off Aeroplane, at Select Foods, the lot next to LaPaws and at the old Riffenburghs lot. You are advised to bring a sweater and a flashlight.

Tickets for this one-time family event are on sale now at The Broadway Café. For more information, go online to www.bigbeartheater.org or call the Broadway Café at (909) 585-7682. IER

Murder, Mystery and More With Riverside Community Players Season

The Riverside Community Players is entering its 89th season of quality theatre. The upcoming RCP offerings include six plays for the Main Series, a blend of comedy, mystery, drama and musical productions that are sure to entertain. RCP also presents a Family Series of plays for the young and the young-at-heart. The Family Series offers daytime performances for school field trips and weekend shows for families and the general public.

Main Series

THE FOX ON THE FAIRWAY

WEEKENDS SEPT. 13 THROUGH SEPT. 29, 2013

The first production of the season is The Fox on the Fairway, a comedic tribute from noted playwright Ken Ludwig to the great English farces of the 1930s and 1940s. This play takes audiences on a hilarious romp which pulls the rug out from underneath the stuffy denizens of a private country club. Filled with mistaken identities, slamming doors, and over-the-top romantic shenanigans, it's a charmingly madcap adventure about love, life and man's eternal love affair with . . . golf.

INTIMATE APPAREL

WEEKENDS NOV. 15 THROUGH DEC. 1, 2013

The second play presented in the RCP Main Series this year will be the award-winning Intimate Apparel by Lynn Nottage. Winner of the New York Drama Critics' Circle Award, it is the story of Esther, an African-American seamstress, who sews intimate apparel with great skill and discretion while living in a boarding house in 1905 New York City. She has managed to save a goodly sum of money for the high-end beauty parlor she dreams of opening. Her hope of finding love, however, has been more elusive. When she begins a correspondence with a man working on the Panama Canal it seems this dream, too, may soon arrive. Intimate Apparel is a play with adult content and is appropriate for mature audiences only.

A SHOT IN THE DARK

JAN. 24 THROUGH FEB. 9, 2014

The next play to be presented at Riverside Community Players will be A Shot in the Dark, a comedy with a touch of whodunit. Josefa, a parlor maid in the home of one of France's most wealthy and distinguished families, was found unconscious and clutching a gun beside the body of her dead lover, the family chauffeur. Josefa is brought before the examining magistrate on a charge of murder.

Meanwhile powerful political forces push the magistrate to obtain a quick confession and sweep the whole affair under the rug. Upon questioning, however, the magistrate concludes Josefa is innocent. At the risk of his own position, the magistrate pursues other suspects to determine who fired that fatal shot in the dark.

AGATHA CHRISTIE'S SPIDER'S WEB

MARCH 28 THROUGH APRIL 13, 2014

The mystery offering this season will be Agatha Christie's Spider's Web, a thriller with a bit of comedy thrown in. Adept at spinning tales of adventure for their bored diplomatic circle, Clarissa finds coping with live drama much more difficult when an actual murder takes place in her own drawing room.

Anxious to clear the matter up before her husband Henry arrives home with a VIP in tow, Clarissa hides the body and attempts to solve the murder only to wind up involved in some hair-raising experiences. But will everything manage to be back to normal by the time Henry gets home or will scandal ensue? And will Clarissa ever figure out who the killer is? This atypical Christie play blends her legendary mystery writing with a light comic tone also seen in her Miss Marple novels.

AROUND THE WORLD IN 80 DAYS

MAY 16 TO JUNE 1, 2014

Adapted by Mark Brown, Jules Verne's classic Around the World in 80 Days will also be presented by RCP this season. Fearless adventurer Phileas Fogg has agreed to an outrageous wager that puts his fortune and his life at risk. It is 1872 and with his resourceful servant, Passepartout, Fogg sets out to circle the globe in an unheard-of 80 days. This task leaves Fogg with difficulties enough, but a Scotland Yard Detective named Fix is convinced that Fogg is the gentleman bandit who recently robbed an English bank and dogs Fogg's every step. As they traverse seven continents, encounter stampeding elephants and typhoons, danger, romance and surprises abound in this whirlwind of a story. A rollicking, light-hearted adventure, Around the World in 80 Days is performed by only six actors, most of them playing many different parts.

SHE LOVES ME

JULY 11 THROUGH JULY 27, 2014

The 2013-14 RCP season finishes with the musical romantic comedy She Loves Me, with book by Joe Masteroff, music by Jerry Bock and lyrics by Sheldon Harnick. The story of the play involves Greg and Amalia, two feuding clerks in a European parfumerie during the 1930s, each of whom secretly find solace in their romantic pen pals. Little do they know that their respective correspondents are none other than each other. Funny, intelligent, honest and sentimental, this romantic comedy has an endearing innocence with a touch of old world elegance and nostalgia.

The Family Series

PINOCCHIO

OCT. 11 THROUGH OCT. 13

The Family Series at Riverside Community Players this season kicks off with Pinocchio by Carlo Collodi. This is the timeless story of the wooden puppet carved by Gepetto who must earn the right to fulfill his longing to become a real boy. His quest leads him to encounters with several characters of questionable repute. On one of his dangerous adventures, he finds himself inside of a huge whale where he is reunited with Gepetto. If Pinocchio's escape plan succeeds, will they be rescued and will the Blue Fairy finally help him attain his dream?

CHARLES DICKENS' A CHRISTMAS CAROL

DEC. 13 THROUGH DEC. 15, 2013

At Christmas time RCP will again present their traditional performances of Charles Dickens' A Christmas Carol. This was Charles Dickens' own favorite story which is about the transformation of the mean and miserly Ebenezer Scrooge. Through the ghostly visitations from his old partner Jacob Marley and those of the Spirits of Christmas Past, Present and Yet to Come, Scrooge comes to see the true happiness and pleasure that can be derived from giving and sharing. Not just for the Christmas holidays, but sentiments for any time and every one.

RUDYARD KIPLING'S THE JUNGLE BOOK

FEB. 21 THROUGH FEB. 23

The Family Series concludes with the dramatization of Rudyard Kipling's The Jungle Book. Deep in a jungle in India in the middle of the 19th century, a boy, Mowgli, is raised by wolves, befriended by Bagheera (a panther) and Baloo (a great bear) and threatened by Shere Kahn (the evil tiger). But this play also includes the intriguing story of a young Rudyard Kipling, who is sent away from his home in Bombay to a British boarding school. Here he encounters his own adventures of a different type, highlighting the worth of friendship and loyalty through excitement and humor. IER

Riverside Community Players

All performances of these plays will be at the Riverside Community Players theatre at 4026 14th St. In Riverside. Season tickets offer a significant savings to subscribers; three-play sampler subscriptions are available. Season tickets for the Family Series are also available. For further information on auditions, season tickets, field trips or questions on any other matter, the RCP Administrative Office can be contacted at (951) 369-1200. Children under the age of five are not admitted.

BIG BAD VOODOO DADDY

WITH SPECIAL GUESTS

BIG PAPA AND THE TCB

Saturday, September 28, 8:00 PM

Big Bad Voodoo Daddy is a contemporary swing revival band from southern California. Their notable singles include "Go Daddy-O," "You & Me & the Bottle Makes 3 Tonight (Baby)," and "Mr. Pinstripe Suit." The band played the Super Bowl XXXIII half-time show in 1999. Big Bad Voodoo Daddy was originally formed in Ventura in 1989 by leader Scotty Morris. The band was named Big Bad Voodoo Daddy after Scotty Morris met blues guitar legend Albert Collins at one of the latter's concerts. "He signed my poster 'To Scotty, the big bad voodoo daddy,'" Morris explains. "I thought it was the coolest name I ever heard on one of the coolest musical nights I ever had. So when it came time to name this band, I didn't really have a choice. I felt like it was handed down to me."

2013 Riverside Art Museum Members' Exhibit

The Riverside Art Museum (RAM) opened the 2013 Members' Exhibition running through September 19, with an Award Reception on Thursday, Aug. 1, from 6pm to 6:30pm.

This annual event puts RAM's abundant and talented artist-member demographic front and center with the opportunity to display and sell an original piece of their choice. This year's exhibition holds "The Persistence of Memory" as its theme. RAM members are invited to submit a piece of original work, in virtually any media they choose, in dialogue with the theme. Much of the artwork is available for purchase.

"As an artist member of the Riverside Art Museum I feel it is important to support the museum not only with my membership but also with my art," local teacher, artist, and longtime Members' Exhibition participant Froukje Schaafsma-Smith said. "Participating in the annual members' show is an excellent opportunity to have one's artwork shown in the Riverside Art Museum, a historically significant building designed by Julia Morgan, and to support Riverside as the City of Arts and Innovation."

Last year's exhibition featured 125 submissions and included a rich array of media, subject matter, and styles. RAM's diverse pool of artist-members encompasses everyone from established, professional artists to those submitting artwork for the first time.

"This is one of RAM's great annual traditions," RAM Executive Director Drew Oberjuege said. "We encourage the public to come out and support the talented artists living and working in the Inland Empire."

Winners of the Members' Exhibition will also have the opportunity to exhibit their work in mini solo exhibitions throughout the following year (at RAM and at satellite locations in Riverside, such as Walter's Mercedes-Benz showroom in the Riverside Auto Mall). The 2012 Honorable Mention award-winners Pavel Acevedo and Desiree Habicht have exhibited artwork at RAM this past winter. The 2012 Best of Show winner Jeff Owens and Honorable Mention winner Helen Waller will exhibit at RAM this summer. The 2012 Curatorial award-winner Froukje Schaafsma-Smith was recently featured in the Walter's showroom space.

RAM relies on the generosity of members and donors to support its exhibitions, education programs, and special events. A 50-plus-year-old, private, non-profit cultural arts institution housed in a National Historic 1929 building designed by Hearst Castle architect Julia Morgan, the museum welcomes over 50,000 visitors a year. The museum is open Tuesday – Saturday, 10am – 4pm and Sunday, noon – 4pm. For information on exhibits, events, classes, memberships, or sponsorship opportunities, visit www.RiversideArtMuseum.org. Find them on Facebook at www.facebook.com/riversideartmuseum and Twitter at RAMRiverside. IER

It's A 'Cash Wave' At Soboba In August

Big Promotions And Giveaways This Summer At Soboba Casino

With three major casino-wide promotions in August, Soboba Casino is the place to be to beat the heat. Entries can be earned all month for all promotions, including 5x Entries on Wednesdays and Saturdays. Additionally, earn only 200 points on Wednesdays and you'll take home a Hamilton Beach Cordless Ice Cream Maker (while supplies last). Don't miss all the fun and the best gaming experience at Soboba Casino all month long!

COOL WAVE OF CASH

The Beach Boys sang "Catch a wave and you'll be sitting on top of the world." It'll never be truer than Sundays in August when you can Catch a Wave...a Cash Wave! Every Sunday at Soboba Casino, you could win your share of up to $240,000 in the Big Kahuna's Cool Wave of Cash promotion. One lucky winner every half hour from 11am to 9pm will have the chance to ride the Cash Wave on their brand new game board.

FREE PLAY FRENZY

Saturday nights just got more exciting at Soboba Casino. Free Play Frenzy starts in August where you could win your share of $100,000 in Free Slot Play from 9pm to 11pm every Saturday night. Soboba Casino is giving away $500 in Free Slot Play to 10 Lucky Winners at 9pm and 10pm and $1,000 in Free Slot Play at 11pm.

TABLE GAMES & RED HOT CASH GIVEAWAY

Table Games will continue to be eligible for all promotions inside the casino in August, plus table games players can take home a special Summer Bonus Gift when you earn 500 Table Points on Mondays (while supplies last). In addition, Soboba's Red Hot Cash $5,000 Giveaway will be held on August 30 beginning at 5pm with $200 to lucky winners every 15 minutes, guaranteed.

HAPPY HOUR

Happy Hour has been a favorite Wednesday evening promotion at Soboba since June, and it will continue into August beginning August 7 from 3pm to 8pm. Lucky guests will have the chance to draw for Free Slot Play or the Grand Prize Progressive that starts at $10,000 and increases $1,000 each week. The Progressive hit as high as $17,000 in July and is still growing.

For more information, call (951) 665-1000 or (866) 4-SOBOBA or go online to www.soboba.com. Soboba Casino is located at 23333 Soboba Road in San Jacinto. TER

Heartbreaker Tour Is Headed To Fantasy Springs Resort Casino

With Special Guest Jason Bonham's Led Zeppelin Experience

Rock & Roll Hall of Fame inductees, Heart, will take their critically acclaimed live show on the road this summer with very special guest Jason Bonham's Led Zeppelin Experience. On Saturday, Aug. 24, the tour will make a much anticipated stop at Fantasy Springs Resort Casino.

Ann and Nancy Wilson first met Jason Bonham, son of famed Led Zeppelin drummer John Bonham, when they performed "Stairway to Heaven" together at the Kennedy Center Honors tribute to Led Zeppelin in December 2012. Over 6 million fans have watched the performance online and purchased the track on iTunes. Now, in addition to a full set of Heart classic hits including "Crazy on You," "Barra-cuda," "Alone," "These Dreams," "What About Love," and many more, fans can experience this historical pairing live when Heart and Bonham close each show with a special thirty-minute finale tribute to Led Zeppelin.

Ann Wilson promises fans an incredibly special event. "Nancy and I and the rest of Heart are thrilled to be playing with Jason and his band this summer. Awesome rock n roll music every night...miracles apt to happen any old time." Nancy adds, "It's not a tribute as we have the blessings of the gods themselves."

Jason adds, "What a great night it was for us at the Kennedy Center awards, and now to be able to do it again on the road with Ann and Nancy is such an honor for me. I am really looking forward to taking my Led Zep Experience show out this summer with Heart and to join them in a Zep-a-thon closing the show as well. Just fantastic!"

Ann Wilson and her younger sister, Nancy Wilson, first showed the world that women can rock when their band Heart stormed the charts in the '70s with hits like "Crazy on You," "Magic Man," "Barracuda," "Straight On," "Even It Up," "Kick It Out" and many more. Not only did the Wilson sisters lead the band, they wrote the songs and played the instruments, making them the first women in rock to do so. Heart continued topping the charts through the '80s and into the '90s with huge hits like "These Dreams," "Alone," "Never," and a string of other hits that showcased the sisters' enormous talents as both musicians and singers. Across four decades and 14 studio albums, Heart has sold more than 35 million records, had 21 top 40 hits, sold out arenas worldwide, and profoundly influenced the sound and direction of American rock music while inspiring women (and guys too!) around the world to rock out in bands of their own.

Tickets for the 8pm Heart and Jason Bonham performance are $89, $69, $49 at the Fantasy Springs Box Office, via telephone (800) 827-2946 or online at www.FantasySpringsResort.com. IER

Come as you are, as you were. I never met a girl like you before. I can taste you on my lips and smell you in my clothes. It wasn't easy, but nothing is. My whole existence is flawed. It took me all this time to find out what I need. Someone keeps sayin I'm insane to complain. Isn't it ironic? You ought to know! (Stupid girl!) Just clap your hands! (Whoo hoo!) Listen!

Escape To The Mountains At Alpine Slide

There's lots to do at the Big Bear fun spot

Cool off this summer in Big Bear Lake on Alpine Slide's refreshing double water slide ... two flumes of cool, cascading water that whip riders back and forth before splashing them into the solar-heated pool at the bottom. Alpine Slide's water slide is as affordable as it is fun. An all-day pass costs just $15, while 10 rides are $10 and individual trips are only two bucks each.

If you're not looking to get soaked, Alpine Slide also features Olympicstyle bobsleds, in season all year long. Snow is never needed since the sleds have teflon runners and ball-bearing wheels, and the quarter-mile long tracks with banked turns and long straightaways are cement.

For a relaxing change of pace enjoy a round on the Putt 'N Around miniature golf course, laden with rolling greens, water hazards, even penalty-stroke "sand traps."

Then for more fast fun, ride the Putt 'N Around Go-Karts, each equipped with 5.5 horsepower Honda motors and an array of safety features including three-point harness restraints, hydraulic disk brakes, rack and pinion steering and padded steering wheels. The tire-lined track sports hair pin and high banked turns as riders circle under the pines at 7,000 foot elevation.

The fast times continue after dark on Fridays and Saturdays at Alpine Slide all summer long as the area stays open for fun under the stars until 9pm. New for 2013 are Senior Days on Wednesdays—seniors get a free ice cream when they purchase a round of miniature golf.

Alpine Slide at Magic Mountain is open daily, on Big Bear Blvd. 1/4 mile west of the Village Shopping Area in Big Bear Lake, home to 60 specialty shops. For information call (909) 866-4626. IER

Jazz In The Pines Returns

Jazz in the Pines returns to Idyllwild Aug. 17 and Aug. 18. This musical celebration hosts an array of world-renowned artists and jazzy newcomers.

Artist highlights includes vocalist/pianist Diane Schuur; the Harvey Mason Chameleon Project led by composure/percussionist Harvey Mason, featuring pianist/vocalist Patrice Rushen; jazz vocalist Janis Mann; 21-year-old American Idol finalist Casey Abrams and the Southland's own Euphoria Brass Band, and more.

The event includes art booths, and food and beverages are available. The Festival takes place on the campus of the Idyllwild Arts Academy, 52500 Temecula Road, in Idyllwild. Tickets are $65 per day or the online only rate of $100 for both days. Children 12 and under are free. Gates open at 10am, concerts begin at 10:30am. There is free parking and a shuttle from designated lots. For more information, visit www.idyllwildjazz.com or call (951) 500-4090. IER

Head To Downtown Riverside For A Flick

The Riverside Downtown Partnership, in conjunction with the City's Park, Recreation and Community Services Department, has brought back "Movies on Main" with blockbuster G-rated and PG movies the entire family will enjoy. These free movies are shown on Main Street between University and Mission Inn Ave. projected on an inflatable outdoor screen.

August 1 – Thunderstruck: When Brian magically switches talents with his hero, he becomes the star of his high school team while his hero suddenly can't make a shot to save his life. With the playoffs approaching, Brian tries to make things right in time to prevent a catastrophic end to his hero's season.

August 8 – ParaNorman: Misunderstood local boy Norman is able to speak with the dead. When a small town comes under siege by zombies, Norman takes on ghosts, witches and, worst of all, grown-ups, to save his town from a centuries-old curse.

August 15 – Hotel Transylvania: Dracula opens the Hotel Transylvania, where his daughter and the world's most famous monsters can kick back in safety and peace. But his world could come crashing down when one ordinary guy stumbles on the hotel and takes a shine to Mavis.

Movies start at 8pm or dusk if later. Early arrival is strongly recommended to secure a good spot and attendees can bring their own chair or blanket. Downtown restaurants nearby will be open late. For more information visit www.RiversideDowntown.org or call (951) 341-6550. IER

Tame Those Back To School Butterflies

Ready for School Storytime Event at Barnes & Noble Redlands on August 6

Brand new backpacks are filled with fresh crayons and well-sharpened pencils as August opens the door to another school year. Barnes & Noble invites families to a special storytime on Tuesday, Aug. 6 at 10am to celebrate the excitement of going back to school.

For the Storytime, children ages 3-7 and their parents will experience the joy of reading and learning with Dr. Seuss's ABC: An Amazing Alphabet Book. The book features zany drawings and humorous verse that provide children with a fun way to learn letters and their sounds. Guests will take part as the book is read aloud and children are invited to read along on the Nook HD+. Activities and refreshments are also planned.

"Getting ready for school may be an exhilarating but stressful time for young kids," Laurie Aldern, Community Relations Manager for the store, said. "We're looking forward to sharing some light-hearted, educational fun through the inventive world of Dr. Seuss."

The Ready for School Storytime event is free and open to the public. For further details, contact Laurie Aldern at (909) 793-4945 or crm2201@bn.com. IER
