Music, Food, & Dance With Noches con Ritmo

Looking for a night of music, delicious food, and dancing? You'll find it all in one place, Center Stage Theater, during the salsa night series Noches con Ritmo.

Featuring local and regionally known bands, the performance line-up for this salsa music and dance series is always fresh as bands rotate throughout the schedule to ensure each event has its own unique vibe and rhythm.

Possibly best of all, if you need to brush up on your moves, one hour before all the performance festivities kick-off there is dance instruction provided, 7pm – 8pm, by Evie Quiñones ensuring you find a dance partner and are ready to move by the time the band starts at 8:30pm.

One regular patron, Stephen Oshiro, recommended to first time guests, "Having fun is the bottom-line! You may not get (all the dance steps) the first time, but it gets into your body and you just start moving. Just come and have fun!"

Of course all that salsa dancing to live music will work up an appetite, but don't worry, Center Stage Theater has you covered. With freshly made food each night and a full bar with drink specials available before 9pm, you'll want to arrive to the event early to take full advantage of the menu.

Come join us at Center Stage Theater at 8463 Sierra Ave. in Fontana to dance the night away! For more information visit centerstagefontana.com or call (909) 429-7469.

NOCHES CON RITMO IS FOR ADULTS OVER THE AGE OF 18 FROM 7PM TO MIDNIGHT ON SELECT THURSDAY NIGHTS. THERE IS A $5 COVERAGE CHARGE BEFORE 9PM AND $7 THEREAFTER. FEATURED BAND ENTERTAINMENT DURING THE EVENT SERIES IN THE FALL OF 2017 INCLUDES: SONORA PÁ GOSÁ ON AUGUST 10TH, LATIN SOUNDS ON AUGUST 31ST, MAMBOP ON SEPTEMBER 7TH, MARTIN PADILLA Y SU ORQUESTRA LA SELECCIN ON SEPTEMBER 21ST, LA SIRENA Y ORQUESTA MAR DE ASHÉ ON OCTOBER 12TH, LA CHARANGA CUBANA ON OCTOBER 26TH, LAS CHIKAS ON NOVEMBER 2ND, AND ANDRES DE CALI Y EL CARTEL DE LA SALSA ON NOVEMBER 16TH.

COMIC CON RETURNS TO PALM SPRINGS

AUGUST 25-27

Comic Con Palm Springs returns this year in world famous Palm Springs, featuring talent such as Stan Lee - founder of Marvel comics; Troy Baker - voice of Joel from The Last of Us; Tom Kenny - voice of SpongeBob; J. Scott Campbell - artist of The Amazing Spiderman; and many more.

This event continues to surprise the Coachella Valley and surrounding areas with new additions and performances that give their guests a one of a kind Comic Con experience. Not only will CCPS be host to the only West Coast appearance of the Stan Lee Museum, they are also featuring a rare performance by Lynda Carter, the original Wonder Woman! For the first time ever, Lynda Carter will be performing at a Comic Con as CCPS brings her "The Other Side Of Trouble" tour to Palm Springs. Lynda, with her amazing talent on screen, brings that same energy to her on-stage performance like you have never experienced before.

The LA Times writes: "Expect to hear a well-polished set, from a performer who can deliver a song even better than she can take down a bad guy."

Comic Con Palm Springs is offering a limited number of "Meet & Greets" with Mrs. Carter.

Concert tickets range from $35 to $1,200 per person. The Ultimate VIP package is $1,200 and includes champagne service during the concert, one-night hotel stay, VIP entry all three days into Comic Con Palm Springs (tickets to CCPS are sold separately unless otherwise stated at ComicConPalmSprings.com), personally meet Lynda Carter, have your photo taken with her and the ability to have any one item signed by Lynda Carter after the concert.

Buy your tickets before they sell out at ComicConPalmSprings.com. IER

INLAND EMPIRE RESTAURANT WEEK RETURNS STICK A FORK IN IT!!

Inland Empire Restaurant Week returns for two splendid weeks, August 11 through August 25, giving us all an excuse to “go out”, so let’s do it!

Let’s make some changes! Seems there is a misconception that the restaurants in the Inland Empire are boring, underachievers, same old thing.....really? Anyone who claims that is not aware of the culinary jewels we have in the Inland Empire. The region is full of unique restaurants, from mom and pop diners to full on five star chefs!

Hang up the apron, avoid the dishes, and try something new... or revisit an old favorite. Let’s face it – it’s hot and who wants to slave over a hot stove.....who? Our local chefs that’s who! Let’s support them, let’s add revenue to our local economy, let’s just go out.

August 11 – August 25 is our excuse to find a new place, discover what’s in our own backyard and brag about the delicious lunch or dinner you’ve experienced. This year wineries and craft breweries have been added with restaurants featuring special offers. All of us who live, work, and play in the Inland Empire should be proud of the culinary options we have here. So, let’s make that change – let’s dine out, let’s give it a review on Yelp, or at least brag about our restaurants on social media! It is up to all of us to change the perception of the Inland Empire and what easier way than with our restaurant scene.

Visit InlandEmpireRestaurantWeek.com today. Check out the pre-fixe menus and special offers and make a difference.

Inland Empire Restaurant Week is a 14-day dining event showcasing a variety of restaurants, craft breweries and wineries throughout the Inland Empire. Participating restaurants feature their specialties by creating a multi-course fixed price menu for lunch and/or dinner. Inland Empire craft breweries and wineries can feature a craft beer flight or wine tasting and, if desired, a simple appetizer to enhance a pairing. This two-week dining event not only introduces new customers to restaurants, craft breweries, and wineries, but is intended to discover new chefs and hidden gems, ultimately enhancing the local economy.

Powered by The Greater Ontario Convention And Visitors Bureau, Inland Empire Restaurant Week was created to build awareness about the Inland Empire, its diverse culinary community, and drive business to our local restaurants, craft breweries, and wineries. Inland Empire Restaurant Week showcases and also strengthens the destination’s brand and culinary reputation. Attracting tourists to the area increases business for hotels, shopping centers, entertainment and other local businesses. Everyone benefits from the impact of the tourism dollars spent in the area.

For more information and a list of participating restaurants visit InlandEmpireRestaurantWeek.com.

The 104th Southern California Fair

Mark your calendar for the return of this nine-day fair, starting September 30.

The 104th edition of the Southern California Fair is fast approaching and will take place from Saturday, September 30th, through Sunday, October 8th. The nine-day fair, which was formerly known as the “Farmer’s Fair,” moved from Hemet to its current location on the SoCal Fair and Event Center (formerly known as the Lake Perris Fairgrounds) 30 years ago in 1987.

Today the fair contains all the amenities of a modern-day fair. However, like few others, it still retains much of its original small-town appeal and heritage. Hidden amongst the bright lights and modern day vibrations, fair goers can still enjoy many events from days gone by including live-stock exhibits and competitions, a petting zoo and pony rides, contests, midway games, magicians, pig racing, old west shootouts, hay bucking and a ranch rodeo.

In addition to the old school attractions, 2017 fair goers will enjoy a multitude of other events and allures including concerts, motorcycle jumpers, demolition derbies, monster trucks, carnival riders, pet adoptions, and much more. Of course, the grounds will be clustered with a wide variety of mouthwatering fair foods and beverages.

This 2017 fair will feature several special days. Among them will be “Media Day” on September 29th. “Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts in Uniform Day” on September 30th. Scouts in uniform that day will be admitted free. Tuesday, October 4th will be “Read to Ride Day.” Students from kindergarten to sixth-grade will need to read four age appropriate books to receive free admission and four free carnival ride tickets. Wednesday, October 4th will be “Taste of the Fair Day” and all concessionaires will carry at least one yummy menu item for $3. Friday, October 6th, will be “Senior Day.” From Noon to 3pm, seniors 60 and older will be admitted for $5 and will receive a coupon for a free soft serve ice cream.

Daily tickets for this year’s fair are $10 for adults, $8 for seniors (60 and older), and $5 for children 5-12. Children aged 4 and under and active military members in uniform will be admitted free every day. Active military with proper id but not in uniform will receive a $2 discount.

Pre-sale tickets will be available from August 14th through September 29th. They will save adults and seniors $2 per daily ticket and kids will save $1 per ticket. Annual passes, the best deal at the fair, are only $18 for adults and seniors and $12 for kids. To order advance tickets, call (951) 657-4221.

Fair hours for 2017 are 11am to 11pm on Saturday and Sunday. 4pm to 11pm Monday through Thursday, and noon to 11pm on Friday.

The freeway-close Southern California Fair is located a little more than an hour east of Los Angeles and an hour north of San Diego at 18700 Lake Perris Drive in Perris.

Beat The Summer Heat

Beat The Heat For Cheap With Water Slide Season Passes

Beat the heat all summer long with new season passes available for Alpine Slide's refreshing double water slide, open now.

Guests get all the wet, wild fun they can handle with new anytime water slide season passes available for just $69. Hit the twin flumes filled with cool, cascading water and plenty of twists, turns and straightaways anytime you want with Alpine Slide operating daily. The anytime pass pays for itself in less than five visits.

Also available are Sunday through Friday season passes for only $49. Either way guests get all the play in the spray they want as they whip through refurbished flumes before splashing into the solar heated pool at the bottom...a great way to beat summer heat!

The water slide is always an

affordable way to play anyway with all-day passes just $15, 10 rides for $10, or single rides for $2. Parents who don't play never have to pay, many choosing to sit on one of two spacious sundecks with a good book while the kids have a blast. Or, head to the recently expanded indoor base lodge to escape the sun where there's video games and family-priced snack bar that includes an old-fashioned Breyers ice cream counter.

Alpine Slide is famous for its Olympic-style bobsleds which are in season all year long. Snow is never needed since the sleds have teflon runners and ball-bearing wheels, and the quarter-mile long tracks with banked turns and long straightaways are cement.

Riders control their own speed with the brake, and unlike any amusement park ride, each trip down is a completely unique and interactive experience. Lean into each turn and go into a tuck through straightaways to experience what it's like to be an Olympic bobsledder, or use the brake to go slow and soak in views of the lake and mountains.

For a relaxing change of pace enjoy a round on the Putt 'N Around miniature golf course, laden with rolling greens, water hazards, even penalty-stroke "sand traps."

Then for more fast fun, ride the Putt 'N Around Go-Karts, each equipped with 5.5 horsepower Honda motors and an array of safety features including three-point harness restraints, hydraulic disk brakes, rack and pinion steering and padded steering wheels. The tire-lined track sports hair pin and high banked turns as riders circle under the pines at 7,000 foot elevation. IER

Something For Everyone At The Norco Fair

There's something for everyone – from lawn mower races and talent shows to bull riding and a junior livestock auction – at the Norco Fair.

Mark your calendars for August 31 through September 4 as Norco puts on five days of family friendly, family fun-filled entertainment for your enjoyment.

The main stage will host many acts that will thrill you and make you laugh and hypnotize you, including a pageant, talent show, hypnotist, and magic to please all. The weekend rodeo is always a crowd pleaser!

Let's not forget the 4H and FFA students who work very hard all year long to present their animals for judging in the 4H barn. Watch the anticipation build as the various breeds of animals are presented for judging and later auctioned for purchase.

To bring the old small town fair to life come and enjoy the community competition area that includes sewing, food products, and arts and crafts, all handmade that will bring back fond memories of the small town fair you all enjoyed in past years.

The carnival has rides and games for all ages. Great vendors, great food, and great band entertainment are sure to bring you coming back for more.

They end the Fair on Labor Day in which everyone is welcome to come see the wonderful parade down Sixth Street followed by a family fun day filled with good ol' fashioned fun, such as a three-legged race, egg toss, water games, and pie eating contest.

Best of all they continue to try to make this fair family affordable. The presale buttons, which allows entrance into all areas of the fair for five days, will be $10 per person (10 and under are free). These same buttons can be purchased at the gate for only $15 (Parking is only $5).

Buttons and ride tickets can be purchased online at www.norcofair.org.

As always in Norco, Labor Day weekend is the Norco Fair weekend. Come see what this unique town, known as "Horsetown USA", has to offer as they show off their rural lifestyle with pride and welcome guests to enjoy the country fair festivities. IER

THE LEWIS FAMILY PLAYHOUSE 12TH SEASON PACKS BIG NAME ENTERTAINERS

It just keeps getting better! For 12 years, the Lewis Family Playhouse has been an unforgettable destination for local quality entertainment, a pride of Rancho Cucamonga, and a place where families can experience and honor the arts. Every year they've gotten better at booking big name acts you want to see and this year they are proud to announce their 2017-2018 season as one of their best seasons yet.

VANESSA WILLIAMS

SEPTEMBER 22, 8PM

Kicking off the new season is one of the most multifaceted and highly decorated performers in the entertainment industry today, Vanessa Williams. Having sold millions of records worldwide, scored numerous #1 and Top 10 Billboard hits as well as accolades in film, television, and the Broadway stage, the Lewis Family Playhouse is excited to experience her brilliance live in a one-night special engagement, Friday, September 22, at 8pm.

BILLY RAY CYRUS

SEPTEMBER 23, 8PM

From bluegrass to Southern rock to gospel and country music, (Billy Ray) Cyrus has explored it all. This internationally recognized singer/songwriter has sold millions of albums, charted 35 singles, 16 of which are Top 40 hits and continues to receive critical acclaim for his ventures in film and television.

ROALD DAHL'S THE WITCHES

OCTOBER 14-19

MainStreet Theatre Company opens its 2017-2018 theatrical line-up with Roald Dahl's The Witches, October 14 - 29. This faithful adaptation of the classic Dahl story pits a young boy against child-hating witches who are holding a conference at an English seaside Hotel. During their struggle, the Boy is turned into a mouse, but with the help of his loving Grandmother, he manages to spoil the witches' evil plot, saving the rest of the world's children from suffering the same fate! (For ages 6 & up)

THE UNDERWATER BUBBLE SHOW

NOVEMBER 3, 4PM & 7PM

Take a dive into an underwater fantasy world surrounded by seahorses, dragon fish, starfish, mermaids and bubbles! Inspired by the artistry of Cirque de Soleil, The Underwater Bubble Show uses drama, mime, dance, puppetry, juggling, sand art, and theatrical magic to whisk families to an imaginary bubble world through the beautiful, deep-blue sea. This interactive performance is sure to treat children and adults alike!

STEEP CANYON RANGERS

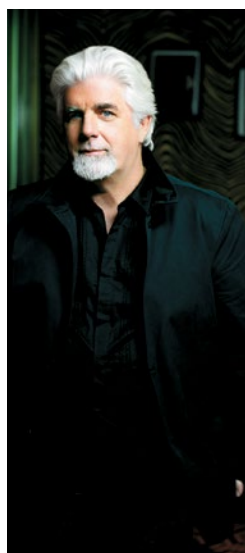

NOVEMBER 5, 2PM

A bluegrass band at their core, the Grammy award-winning group Steep Canyon Rangers effortlessly walk the line between festival favorite and sophisticated string orchestra. They are seasoned and dynamic, never failing to thrill their audience with instrumental dexterity and speed, tight harmonies, and the fun they have on stage. Get ready for an outing of progressive bluegrass music firmly rooted in tradition, with smart, original songs and good-natured fun.

MICHAEL MCDONALD

NOVEMBER 18, 8PM

Two notes. That's all it takes to recognize the voice of Michael McDonald. Distinctive and soulful, it is one of the most yearningly emotive instruments of our times. To this add formidable songwriting and keyboard skills, and you have an artist who has been a singular musical presence for four decades. From '70s-era Doobie Brothers classics and solo hits, through two highly-acclaimed Motown albums, genre-busting guest spots and innovative concept shows, the five-time Grammy Award winning McDonald is both timeless and ever-evolving.

MIRACLE ON 34TH STREET

DECEMBER 2-10

Just in time for the holidays, Rancho Cucamonga Community Theatre presents Miracle on 34th Street, December 2 - 10. When Kris Kringle, a nice, old man from a retirement home gets a job working as a Christmas Santa at Macy's, his honest and generous spirit unleashes waves of good will throughout New York City, and a hint of magic in the heart of a very practical little girl. This holiday tale is one we want to believe in, where love and decency and generosity of spirit are their own rewards. Share this perennial holiday favorite with the entire family this season! (Recommended for ages 8+)

BILL ENGVALL

JANUARY 6, 3PM & 8PM.

Bill Engvall is a Grammy nominated, multi-platinum selling recording artist and one of the top comedians in the country. As a founding member of the Blue Collar Comedy group, Bill Engvall has become an incredibly successful stand-up comic with his country comedy and observational satire style. Don't miss these opportunities of non-stop laughs and sidesplitting stand-up.

LOS LOBOS

JANUARY 13, 8PM

Hailing from East L.A., Grammy-award winners Los Lobos make their Playhouse debut, showcasing their eclectic sound mixing genres of rock, Tex-Mex, country, folk, R&B, blues, and traditional Spanish and Mexican music dubbed as "the soundtrack of the barrio." Now celebrating over 40 years of success including hits such as "La Bamba," "Cancion de Mariachi," and "Come on, Let's Go," this performance is sure to be a culturally rich, musically rocking and lyrically provocative night of entertainment.

MAMMA MIA! MOVIE SCREENING

FEBRUARY 16, 7:30PM

You've seen the film, now stretch your vocal cords and sing along with 500 fellow Abba fans in Mamma Mia! Movie Screening (Sing along with the film!). CAPITOL STEPS

JANUARY 12, 8PM

Need a good laugh at Washington? America's foremost political satirists, Capitol Steps, return to the Playhouse Friday for a night of hilarious political comedy from the troupe that put the "mock" in "democracy." No one in the headlines is safe from the sidesplitting satire these former Congressional staffers come up with, poking fun at both sides of the aisle with brilliant song parodies and hilarious sketches that lampoon up-to-the-minute issues, events, and personalities.

OH FREEDOM! THE STORY OF THE UNDERGROUND RAILROAD

JANUARY 27 - FEBRUARY 11

MainStreet Theatre Company presents Oh Freedom! The Story of the Underground Railroad. Based on historical events, Oh Freedom! tells the story of the greatest collaboration against racism in American history before the Civil Rights movement. Combining stories of the men and women who were active in the fight against slavery with songs of the period, it reminds us that it took the cooperation, conviction, and bravery of many people, both black and white, to help hundreds of enslaved people make their way to freedom. (For ages 10 and up)

ALL STAR REUNION OF THE DOO WOP STARS

FEBRUARY 17, 8PM

Get ready to tap your toes and snap your fingers as you take a trip down memory lane with an exciting lineup featuring the biggest stars of the Doo Wop era performing their timeless hits in All Star Reunion of the Doo Wop Stars. You won't be able to resist singing along to these favorites including "The Lion Sleeps Tonight," "Under the Boardwalk," "This Magic Moment," "Yakety Yak," "Only You," "The Great Pretender" and many more. Led by comedic host Scott Wood, this evening of nostalgia is sure to be entertaining.

JESSE COOK

FEBRUARY 23, 8PM

Jesse Cook, Canada's guitar virtuoso, brings his signature sounds to the Lewis Family Playhouse for a special one-night only performance. Known for his diverse musical style that incorporates elements from the flamenco, rumba, pop, world beat, blues, and jazz genres, Mr. Cook uses his lightning fast fingers to unite them into a sound unlike any other.

THE MARVIN GAYE EXPERIENCE

FEBRUARY 24, 8PM

Often referred to as the "second coming of Marvin Gaye," soul man Brian Owens brings his refined style combining classic soul with a slight modern touch for a tribute to the legendary artist and one of the pioneers of Motown, in The Marvin Gaye Experience. This one-night performance includes music selections that span Gaye's career including "Can I Get a Witness," "I Heard It Through the Grapevine," "You're All I Need to Get By," "Let's Get It On," and "Got To Give It Up."

IN THE HEIGHTS

MARCH 9-18

Broadway at the Gardens presents In The Heights, March 9 – 18. From the composer and lyricist of Hamilton, Lin-Manuel Miranda's In the Heights tells the universal story of a vibrant community in New York's Washington Heights neighborhood – a place where the coffee from the corner bodega is light and sweet, the windows are always open, and the breeze carries the rhythm of three generations of music. It's a community on the brink of change, full of hopes, dreams and pressures, where the biggest struggles can be deciding which traditions you take with you, and which ones you leave behind.

INLAND PACIFIC BALLET'S CINDERELLA

MARCH 24, 2PM & 7:30PM; MARCH 25, 2PM

Inland Pacific Ballet's Cinderella comes to the Playhouse stage with a charming cast of characters that includes a fairy tale Cinderella, a pair of hilarious Stepsisters and a radiant Fairy Godmother who sends Cinderella to the ball in a glittering carriage fit for a fairy princess. Imaginatively choreographed, the production boasts magnificent sets and costumes, including a golden carriage and exquisite ball gowns. Inland Pacific Ballet's Cinderella captures the magic and romance of this classic fairy tale.

STUNT DOG EXPERIENCE

MARCH 31, 2PM & 7PM

One of the most entertaining shows of its kind, Stunt Dog Experience features an exceptional cast of professional performers and talented pound pups delighting audiences of all ages while raising awareness about pet adoption. Featuring more than a dozen dogs that have been rescued from shelters, this high-energy, interactive show features amazing tricks, comedy antics, dancing canines and audience participation, It's not just a show, it's an experience!

LEWIS FAMILY PLAYHOUSE
10TH ANNIVERSARY

CLINT BLACK

APRIL 12, 8PM

The multi-million selling country mega-star Clint Black makes his Lewis Family Playhouse debut with a night of good old (and new) country music. To date, Clint has sold more than 20 million albums worldwide and racked up 57 charted singles, 31 top 10 hits and 22 number one smashes. Recordings such as "A Better Man," "Killin' Time," "Like the Rain," "When I Said I Do," and "Nothin' But the Taillights" show why Black has been heralded as one of country music's brightest stars.

DISNEY'S CHOO-CHOO SOUL WITH GENEVIEVE

APRIL 14, 11AM & 2PM

Back by popular demand, Disney's Choo-Choo Soul with Genevieve returns to the Lewis Family Playhouse for a musical locomotive adventure. Come aboard as train conductor Genevieve and beat-boxing, break-dancing engineer DC, steer through colorful lands while singing hip-hop songs about learning manners, the ABC's and 1-2-3's.

FREDERICK

MainStreet Theatre Company ends its 12th season with Frederick. In this charming musical adaptation of "Frederick," the award winning book by Leo Lionni, summer is quickly turning to fall and all the mice are out collecting supplies for the cold winter that lies ahead. All except for Frederick, who seems to have his head in the clouds, or so it would appear. When winter finally arrives it is Frederick who has stored something special that helps save the day. With a foot-tapping score that adds to the fun, Frederick is a perfect introduction to musical theatre for our youngest audiences. (For ages 4 and up).

62ND ANNUAL IT'S MAGIC!

JUNE 2, 8PM

Milt Larsen and Terry Hill present the 62nd annual It's Magic!, a dazzling revue featuring several award winning stars of magic, comedy, variety, sleight of hand, and large stage illusions. An entirely different lineup of performers tours with the show each season so no two shows are the same. Don't miss this performance the Los Angeles Times calls "...a must for magic buffs of all ages!"

THE OFFICIAL RAT PACK SHOW: TRIBUTE TO 102 YEARS OF SINATRA

JUNE 3, 2PM

The swinging, sultry sounds of Sinatra are back in The Official Rat Pack Show: Tribute to 102 Years of Sinatra, starring Nick D'Egidio as Frank Sinatra, Alfredo Miller as Sammy Davis Jr., and Johnny Edward as your host Dean Martin. Featuring the look, feel, singing style, and attitude of the Rat Pack and Ol' Blue Eyes himself, you simply will not believe your eyes and ears. From "Luck Be a Lady" to "The Way You Look Tonight," "That's Amore," and everything in between, get ready for the best in flashback entertainment. The Big Band All Stars team up with the Dry Martini Orchestra to bring you this classic Rat Pack event.

CATS Presents The Classic Play, 'Steel Magnolias'

CATS, The Community Arts Theater Society, will present the classic play, Steel Magnolias by Robert Harling at the CATS Warehouse Theater for six performances on August 25, 26, September 1 and 2 at 7:30pm with matinees on August 27 and September 3 at 2:30pm. Tickets will be available at (909) 585-4757.

There is limited seating and parking and it is advised to purchase advance tickets and arrive early. General Admission tickets are $20.

Steel Magnolias has become a classic play in theatre literature as well as a becoming a classic film. Written as a play in 1987, the award winning film was produced in 1989 starring Sally Field, Dolly Parton, Julia Roberts, Shirley MacLaine, Daryl Hannah, and Olympia Dukakis. The play and film depict the universal deep bond a group of women share in a small-town southern community. A beauty shop is the setting that guides them through friendship, happy times, falling apart, and coming back together again in support for one another, no matter what life throws at them.

It is a play filled with very funny situations as well as life-altering challenges and solutions.

Directed by Adam McDonald, the CATS cast features some of Big Bear's most talented and favorite actresses: Carolyn Freeman Champ is Truvy, Diana Hintergardt is M'Lynn, Amber Parle is Shelby, Elena Peavy is Clairee, Serena Saunders is Annelle, and Nancy Walker is Ouiser. Steel Magnolias is produced for CATS by Karen Sargent Rachels with Karen Bergmann as Associate Producer.

After 24 years and over 70 productions, this production will be the final curtain call for the CATS organization. Following this production, CATS will have a giant "blow-out" sale of all of their costumes, sets, props, equipment and memorabilia on September 23 and 24 from 8am to 4pm.

Information on Steel Magnolias and tickets are available through the CATS website at www.bigbeartheater.org. The CATS Warehouse Theater is located at 1117 W. Big Bear Blvd. in Big Bear City.

For more information, call (909) 585-4757.

'Veritas' Singers In Loma Linda Concert Aug. 26

Aclaimed gospel-classical cross-over musicians VERITAS will appear in live concert in Loma Linda Saturday night, Aug. 26. The five-member male vocal group is making a second appearance at Loma Linda University Church, having previously been featured there with five-time Grammy-winning soloist Sandi Patty during her national farewell concert tour last February.

Describing VERITAS at that time, Patty commended their classical style and sound as "like hearing five Josh Grobans at the same time." Their return for the upcoming full concert reflects the enthusiastic acceptance they received from concertgoers at the earlier event, according to Dr. Bob Soderblom, local coordinator for both musical performances.

The group chose its name – Latin for "truth" – to reflect their spiritual and musical values, they explain. Their powerhouse vocal style reminds fans of contemporary classical groups such as Il Volo, Il Divo, and others, including by extension The Three Tenors who started it all: Placido Domingo, Jose Carreras, and Luciano Pavarotti.

THEATRE & ARTS EVENT GUIDE

Send your events to ier@inlandreview.com or go online to www.inlandreview.com.

The five singers' official debut concert was in Albany, Georgia, in 2012. Members then and now are Jeff Anderson, first tenor; James Berrian, baritone; Andrew Goodwin, second tenor; Jordan Johnson, first tenor; and Lucas Scott Lawrence, bass. Their self-titled, first full-length album was released in 2014.

The concert at Loma Linda University Church is a musical high point of that congregation's month-long "camp meeting" tribute during August of each year. Services and special events at the church during that period are marked by more informal dress and music, and programs reminiscent of a bygone camp-meeting era, according to the pastors.

The Aug. 26 VERITAS concert is scheduled to begin at 7pm, with doors opening at 6:30pm.

Tickets are available in advance from iTickets.com, either online or by telephone at (800) 965-9324. They range in price from $10 to $30, Soderblom says, and popular credit cards are accepted. The $30 "prime" tickets provide up-front seating with early admittance (6pm) and opportunities for meeting and photos with the musical artists, he said.

Ticketholders are assured of seating within their respective price-range section, but individual seat choices within each section are first-come, first-served, Soderblom advises. Tickets purchased from iTickets are subject to a nominal service charge.

Local hosts of the concert are the University Church, at 11125 Campus St. in Loma Linda, and Calimesa Community Concerts. Collaborating in sponsorship of the Loma Linda concert is the Calimesa Seventh-day Adventist Church, which also celebrates an annual August camp meeting series with special speakers, lively music, and old-time revival programming.

Loma Linda concertgoers will have access to free parking in a covered structure opposite the church. A dedicated local telephone line provides free recorded concert information and directions at (909) 795-4960. IER

Mickey Gilley Concert

UNDER THE STARS AT THE RAMONA BOWL IN HEMET

There is no better place to be for a summer night concert than the Ramona Bowl in Hemet, and Mickey Gilley is coming to entertain you on Saturday, September 2nd at 8pm.

The Ramona Bowl is the historic outdoor amphitheatre located in Hemet. The amphitheatre, located in the foothills of Hemet, is a beautiful, natural setting where the Official Outdoor Play of California, Ramona, is presented every year, but it is also a wonderful concert venue.

Mickey Gilley is a country singer who transitioned to being a pop country singer. His career started in the 70's with hits like "Room Full of Roses". Other hits in the 1970s include "Chains of Love" (1977), "Honky Tonk Memories" (1977), "She's Pulling Me Back Again" (1977), and "Here Comes the Hurt Again" (1978). These songs were a mix of honky tonk and countrypolitan that brought Gilley to the top of the charts in the 1970s.

In the 1980's Gilley's music was featured on the soundtrack of Urban Cowboy. A string of six number-ones on the Country charts followed the success of Urban Cowboy. Other No. 1's include "True Love Ways", "A Headache Tomorrow (Or a Heartache Tonight)", "You Don't Know Me", "Lonely Nights", and "Stand By Me". IER

Riverside Community Players Presents Its Main Series 2017/2018 Season

Riverside Community Players, in Riverside, celebrates 93 years of theater with its upcoming season.

MAIN SERIES 2017/2018 SEASON

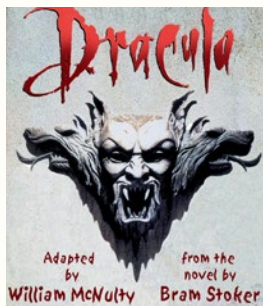

THE LOVE LIST

by Norm Foster
September 8 - September 24, 2017

Leon and Bill concoct a list of attributes of the ideal woman - the top ten very best qualities. When this allegedly "ideal woman" actually arrives on the scene the men quickly learn that their list could use a few revisions. Be careful what you wish for - especially in choosing a mate. This old adage leads to hilarious results in this sparkling and thought provoking comedy.

ing a mate. This old adage leads to hilarious results in this sparkling and thought provoking comedy.

DRACULA

Adapted by William McNulty
October 27 - November 12, 2017
MATURE CONTENT

Professor Van Helsing and his comrades are determined to hunt down and destroy the evil Count Dracula. But the task is not a simple one as the Count is exceedingly resourceful, employing superhuman strength and psychic powers to confound his antagonists. Culminating in a shocking confrontation, this adaptation is an action packed retelling of Bram Stoker's classic tale of horror.

Auditions Sept. 11 & 12, 2017

PAINTING CHURCHES

by Tina Howe
A Finalist for the 1982 Pulitzer Prize for Drama
January 19 - February 4, 2018

Gardner and Fanny Church are preparing to move out of their Beacon Hill house to their summer cottage on Cape Cod. Gardner is a once famous poet and their artist daughter, Mags, is on the verge of artistic celebrity. She has agreed to come home and help them, hoping also to finally paint their portrait and in so doing come to terms with them and they with her.

A MURDER IS ANNOUNCED

by Agatha Christie
April 6 - April 22, 2018

An announcement in the local paper states the time and place when a murder is to occur in Miss Blacklock's Victorian house. The victim is not one of the house's several occupants, but an unexpected and unknown visitor. What follows is a puzzle of mixed motives and concealed identities. As an inspector grimly follows the twists and turns, Miss Marple, at risk to herself, may provide the final solution.

Auditions Jan. 29 & 30, 2018

THE MAN WHO SHOT LIBERTY VALANCE

written by Jethro Compton
Based on the Short Story by Dorothy M. Johnson
May 25 - June 10, 2018

Journey into the Wild West in this classic story of good versus evil, law versus the gun, and man versus Liberty Valance. When Ransome Foster traveled west from New York in search of a new life, he never expected to arrive on the dusty streets of Twotrees beaten and half dead. He finds his purpose in this broken land but is it enough to save him from the vicious outlaw who wants him dead?

THE DINNER PARTY

by Neil Simon
July 13 - July 29, 2018

Five people are invited to dine at a first rate restaurant in Paris. They do not know who the other guests will be or why they have been invited. Tossed together in a private dining room, they have a snaking suspicion that this unorthodox dinner party will forever change their lives. Frequently uproarious but also dangerously serious, this is one invitation you'll be glad you accepted.

ARTS IN LAGUNA

Pageant Of The Masters Ready To Embark On 'The Grand Tour'

In the 17th and 18th centuries, the desire to experience the world's great art firsthand inspired the European tradition of continental travel on the Grand Tour. Inspired to set out on pilgrimages by land and sea to the great cultural centers of Europe, and eventually the globe, those early travelers often risked life and limb to stand in the presence of masterpieces. It's that original dedication to expanding one's horizons by visiting the great art centers of Europe that fueled Pageant Director Diane Challis Davy's excitement and research as she fine-tunes plans for this summer's production, The Grand Tour.

"Perhaps because I do so much virtual traveling via Google," Challis Davy offered, "I have a fantasy about actual travel and sightseeing. I was curious about the tremendous difficulties travelers encountered in the 18th century, with horse-drawn coaches on unpaved roads and no railways, no hotels. Even restaurants hardly existed, and there were virtually no public museums."

On the traditional Grand Tour, art became a destination for privileged travelers in much the way the Pageant during its 84-year history has become a destination for theatergoers who want to experience art in a one-of-a-kind entertainment. "Much of the show will unfold like a journey," Challis Davy said.

There'll be no shortage of masterpieces in the 2017 Pageant, including works by Leonardo da Vinci, Tiepolo, Longhi, Watteau, Reynolds, and Romney. But, as in previous years, the production's theme will expand to include American artists like John Singer Sargent whose work was transformed by his travels.

With the coming of the 20th century, new modes of transportation made it possible for almost everyone to go on their own "tourists' grand tour," and the theatrical possibilities assure no shortage of Pageant-style fun and inventive showmanship. A side trip to Pompeii, a celebration of Carnival in Venice and the European tour of Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show offer abundant opportunities for surprises and special effects. A tribute to Paris in the early 20th century when audiences in clubs embraced the talents of Josephine Baker, Louis Armstrong, and Duke Ellington reveals how a change of scene can launch an artist's career.

Among the great stories associated with the original Grand Tours, Challis Davy has her own favorites including the romantic saga of Lord Hamilton, Emma Hart, and Lord Nelson, whose exploits helped make Naples a must-see destination during the late 18th century.

Pageant Scriptwriter Dan Duling explained, "I hope we can recreate some of that sense of awe shared by those early travelers when they visited the grand palaces, ancient ruins and art centers of Europe. The original Grand Tours were educational pilgrimages, to Paris, Rome, and beyond. Those who made the journeys couldn't help but be changed by what they saw, what they brought back, and what they experienced so far from home."

As always, Challis Davy and her staff realize the Pageant wouldn't be possible without their

by Charles Dickens
Adapted by Kathryn L. Gage
December 8 - December 10, 2017

Marley's face! It can't be. His partner, Jacob Marley, had been dead these last seven years. In fact he died seven years ago this very night - Christmas Eve. Miserly Ebenezer Scrooge has grave doubts at first about believing his own eyes.

Very soon, however, he will learn much from the ghosts who would become his companions this night - this night that will bring about his total transformation.

BEAUTY AND THE BEAST

by Stella Wallace
February 23 - February 25, 2018

In the Enchanted Garden a poisonous witch has been waiting hundreds of years for the right man to stumble into her lair. To her delight a prince arrives but when he refuses to be her husband, she turns him into the visage of a Beast.

He must stay in her wintry garden forever, that is, until either he marries her, or until a beautiful maiden falls in love with him. Don't miss this charming adaptation of a classic story.

volunteers who make it their summer destination, traveling from all over the Southland and returning year after year to take part. Challis Davy offered one final thought, “The Grand Tour is about travel for pleasure. And what greater pleasure can there be than to find oneself in the presence of great art at the end of the journey?”

ABOUT THE PAGEANT OF THE MASTERS

PRESENTED BY THE FESTIVAL OF ARTS OF LAGUNA BEACH

The Pageant of the Masters is arguably one of the most unique productions in the entire world. Audiences are amazed and enchanted by ninety minutes of tableaux vivants (“living pictures”), incredibly faithful re-creations of classical and contemporary works of art, with real people posing to look exactly like their counterparts in the original pieces. A live narrator serves as a guide through the story of each living picture accompanied by the music of a professional orchestra.

AS AMERICANS, WE RODEO!

NORCO MOUNTED POSSE CELEBRATES 33 YEARS OF PRCA RODEO

Pride. Tradition. Honesty. Excitement. Here in Norco we take these to an extreme when we rodeo. We have rich traditions in our small town and we take them seriously. We have a dedication to them just as we have a dedication to our homes, our families, and our country.

Rodeos were the first absolutely American sport. Starting in Texas and spreading from there all over the wild west. It brought together communities and all walks of life all across the nation. Ideally, we'd like to think it still does.

In Norco, we keep the tradition of a rural lifestyle. We believe in the pride of that. Every summer we celebrate our lifestyle. We embrace our neighbors, and new friends. We stand, remove our hats and get chills when they fly the red white and blue around the arena. Join us this August and sing along with our national anthem, acknowledge the men and women who take their military oath center stage on Sunday, and keep the pride, tradition, honesty, and excitement alive in our small part of a much larger world.

Join the Norco Mounted Posse for their 33rd Annual PRCA rodeo August 18 -20. The three day rodeo features all the Western timed and rough stock events that fans love! Enjoy the pre rodeo entertainment, chute tours, vendors, and food. See the thrilling Bull riding during the event. Watch Whiplash The Cowboy Monkey who is truly a fan favorite, a 3-Time Pro Rodeo Entertainer of the Year, and an international star who has been putting smiles on faces for years.

We have the young cowpokes showing their skills during the Mutton Busting event. Post Rodeo events include the Free K-Frog Family Dance on Friday night and a 21 and over after rodeo party on Saturday night, which will feature Tina Michelle and The Rhinestone Cowboys and a full bar with happy hour prices.

On Sunday watch the Military Mounted Cavalry color guard, the military oath of induction, and our special needs kids who compete in a series of modified events during the Challenged Children's Rodeo.

Let's Rodeo in Norco!

The 33rd Annual Norco Mounted Posse PRCA Rodeo takes place at George Ingalls Equestrian Event Center, 3737 Crestview Dr., in Norco. Purchase tickets online at www.norcomountedposserodeo.com. For more information, call (951) 371-1204, or find them on Facebook at norcoposse.prcarodeo.

A Day Out With Thomas The Tank Engine And Friends

Beloved children's choo-choo train Thomas and his railway friend Percy are chugging into the Orange Empire Railway Museum to greet fans of all ages, November 4, 5, 10 11 and 12.

A Day Out With Thomas offers aspiring engineers and their families the opportunity to take a 25-minute ride with the famous engine and smaller locomotive Percy. Children can also meet Sir Topham Hatt, the Superintendent of the Railroad from the Island of Sodor.

Enjoy a wide range of activities perfect for children. Stop by the Thomas & Friends Imagination Station with train tables and building activities. There will be Thomas-themed stamps, temporary tattoos, storytelling and videos. There will also be games, coloring, live children's music, a petting zoo, bounce house, sing-alongs, and a Thomas gift store.

There will be street car and trolley rides and an entire museum to explore. A visit to the Orange Empire Railway Museum is a trip back in time to when trains, conductors, whistles, bells, and steam were a part of the way we traveled.

A Day Out With Thomas will keep adults who love trains, and children who love Thomas, happily chugging along the tracks. Families should arrive no later than one hour prior to scheduled departure. Tickets start at $19 for ages two and older.

The Orange Empire Railway Museum is a volunteer-run organization that has been preserving Southern California's railway history since 1956. The Museum's mission is to educate the public on the technology, history, and impact of the rail transportation industry in the West. Over 200 rail cars and locomotives, ranging from Los Angeles street cars to modern diesel locomotives, are preserved at the museum's 90-acre site in Perris, which is open 363 days of the year.
