Celebrate at the Soboba Powwow

Traditions come to life as the Soboba Band of Luiseno Indians celebrates culture with the 14th Annual Inter-Tribal Powwow on Sept. 17-19.

The event takes place at the Soboba Indian Reservation in San Jacinto. The Grand Entry takes place on Friday at 7pm, Saturday at 1:30pm and 7pm, and Sunday at 1pm. The Gourd Dance takes place Friday at 6pm, Saturday at 11am and Sunday at 11am.

On Thursday, Sept. 16, the Round Dance and Bird Singing event takes place in the Soboba Sports Complex (24340 Soboba Rd., San Jacinto). Starting at 7pm and running until midnight, the event is open to the public to enjoy an evening of singing and dancing.

For more information about the Soboba Powwow, go online to www.soboba-nsn.gov/powwow.

Twenty Mule Team Celebrates 53rd Year

The 53rd Anniversary of Twenty Mule Team Days in Boron will be celebrated with a two-day event, Oct. 2-3, with food booths, live music, games, vendors, and a parade on Saturday at 10am.

There will be an Honorary Mayor Contest, a Whiskerino (to see who can grow the best beard), and a Beautiful Baby Contest, plus much more, at Kern County Community Park, corner of Boron Avenue and John Street.

For information, call (760) 762-5810, or go online to www.20muleteammuseum.com.

Celebrating Recovery from Depression

A special two-day event celebrating recovery from depression and bipolar disorder takes place Oct. 15-16 in Ontario. The Depression and Bipolar Support Alliance of California (DBSA-CA) presents Hooray for Recovery: Celebrating 20 Years!

The event takes place at the Double-Tree Hotel in Ontario. Registration begins at 8am.

Hooray for Recovery includes distinguished speakers, workshops, and art exhibits.

Additionally, on Oct. 15, conference attendees are invited to enjoy a variety show on the lawn of Jo Ann Martin and Saul Kent's home (16280 Whispering Spur, Riverside, CA 92504). This special gathering includes music by Mike Sullivan, The Jo Ann Martin Trio, Lucina as Tina Turner, and Comedian/Consultant David Granirer. This event is also open to the public, with walk-ins welcome. There is a suggested donation of $30 (conference attendees free).

Keynote speakers at the conference include:

David Granirer: A psychotherapist and stand-up comic.

Elizabeth Maynard Schaefer: Science writer, mental health advocate, and pioneer in using creative writing as a tool for easing depression.

David J. Miklowitz: Professor of Psychiatry, UCLA Semel Institute for Neuroscience and Human Behavior, Child and Adolescent Psychiatry.

The mission of the Depression and Bipolar Support Alliance of California (DBSA-CA) is to help local support groups grow and prosper, encourage the development of new support groups in areas of California where they are needed and assist individuals who are in need of support to find a group in their area.

RUN FOR A CAUSE

5K/10K Run Event in Riverside

SmartRiverside will host the second annual Citrus Heritage Run, a 5k/10k run/walk event, on Sunday, October 10 at the Galleria at Tyler to benefit the Digital Inclusion Program. SmartRiverside is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that operates the Digital Inclusion Program designed to bridge the digital divide in our local community by providing computers to low-income families, children and senior citizens, who otherwise could not afford one.

The run will be held in front of TGI Fridays at the Galleria at Tyler, 1149 Galleria at Tyler, Riverside.

Register online at smartriverside.org/citrusheritagerun.asp. Registration starts at 6am and is $30 for adults, $15 for children. Rain or shine, the 5K run begins at 7am, the 5K Walk at 7:10am, the 10K Run at 8am, Kid's ½K at 10am, and the Youth 1K Run at 10:15am.

The run is open to all ages, from families to the experienced runner in training. Run courses trail around the Galleria through city streets in Riverside. Youth courses are for a 1K Run (ages 8-12) and ½K Run (ages 7 and under). Every child crossing the finish line receives an award in recognition for their accomplishment.

Drinks, goodie bags, energy bars and fruit will be available pre-race. After the race, join the event area booths for food, drinks and awards.

For more information about the Citrus Heritage Run, contact Steve Lowery at (951) 351-6190 or slowery@riversideca.gov.

Route 66 Rendezvous brings back the classics

Cool, classic cars will be out in force as thousands throng to the 21st Annual Stater Bros. Route 66 Rendezvous car show in downtown San Bernardino, September 16 – 19.

Streets close to make room for 1,700 cruising classics, reliving the days of the past. Whether you remember them from their heyday, or you appreciate them for their sleek design and custom paint jobs, the cars at the Rendezvous are sure to catch your attention.

In addition to the main attractions, there's something for the whole family. Meadowbrook Park has rides for the kids, games, antique trucks, and even a movie as it gets dark. There is free entertainment and music throughout the event.

Cars will participate in multiple contests including the Neon Light Contest, Open Header Contest, and Poker Run. Watch the firefighters competition, check out the model cars at Carousel Mall, see the Grill-to-Grill Cook-off Contestants compete against each other, and more.

The Soboba Golf Classic

The Nationwide Tour's Soboba Golf Classic is returning to the Country Club at Soboba Springs in San Jacinto September 27 through October 3. Play for the 72-hole event, which is one of only two Nationwide events boasting a $1 million purse, starts Thursday, September 30.

The 2010 Soboba Golf Classic is an official event on the PGA TOUR Nationwide Tour, one of only two tournaments on the PGA TOUR Nationwide Tour with a purse of $1,000,000. The Soboba Golf Classic is expected to draw tens of thousands of spectators to the region over the course of Tournament week, and will be broadcast live on The Golf Channel 2:30 – 4:30pm PST, September 30 – October 3. Through the Tickets For Charity program, participating charities can purchase tickets on behalf of their charitable organization, with 100% of the ticket sales going directly back to the participating charity. For more information, visit www.SOBOBACLASSIC.NET.

The Nationwide Tour identifies those players who are ready to compete and win on golf's biggest stage. As the "official proving ground" of the PGA TOUR, two out of three PGA TOUR members are Nationwide Tour alumni. The PGA TOUR, through the efforts of its three tours and their tournaments, sponsors, players and volunteers, supports over 2,000 local charities and has surpassed $1.3 billion in charitable giving. To learn more, visit www.PGATOUR.COM.

Soboba Golf Classic Ticket Information

Daily grounds tickets are $5 and a weekly pass is $15. V.I.P. tickets also are available for $40 per day or $75 for the week. Proceeds from grounds tickets purchased prior to the event at sobobaclassic.net are donated to charity thanks to the Tickets For Charity program.

Cal Poly Pomona holds 18th Annual Pumpkin Festival

Cal Poly Pomona's annual Pumpkin Festival has become a tradition for many families in the surrounding communities. Mark your calendar for Oct. 16-17 when thousands of visitors will descend upon the campus to pick pumpkins right out of the patch.

Other activities include an Insect Fair featuring nearly 500,000 live and preserved insects, a farmer's market, a corn maze, a petting zoo, horse rides, entertainment, a Pancake Breakfast on Saturday morning, and a variety of food and game booths sponsored by student clubs. Visitors may also purchase Cal Poly Pomona grown produce and ornamental plants plus a variety of gift items from the Cal Poly Pomona Farm Store.

Admission to the Festival is free though individual activities will have a small fee. Pumpkins start at $5 each (up to volleyball size). Larger pumpkins will be priced according to size. Proceeds from the Pumpkin Festival support student activities and the College's farm laboratory.

>> Sinfonia Mexicana presents 'Gran Celebracion'

Sinfonia Mexicana will celebrate its 25th anniversary with two exciting concerts to end the 2010 season. On Saturday, September 25, the San Bernardino Symphony Orchestra will be featured with local and world class guest artists to excite attendees. The "Gran Celebracion" is a tri-celebration program which will serve to thank the community for its 25 years of support to the uniqueness of Sinfonia Mexicana, to celebrate National Hispanic Month and lastly, Mexico's Bi-Centennial Independence. Both classical and traditional music has been selected to enrich the "Gran Celebracion."

Grammy winner Maestro Eduardo Diazmunoz, currently artistic and music director of the New Music Ensemble of the University of Illinois, will return to conduct the San Bernardino Symphony Orchestra. Diazmunoz served as guest conductor for Sinfonia Mexicana concerts from 1991-1995.

Special guest tenor Jorge Lopez-Yanez has distinguished himself as a leading tenor on stages throughout the world, including North and South America, Europe, Japan, Israel, Australia, Hawaii, and Spain. Lopez-Yanez, a graduate of the University of Zacatecas in Mexico, studied music and voice at the University of Southern California.

Also on the program is Martin Barboza, California State University of San Bernardino music student and violin instructor for Sinfonia Mexicana's Mariachi Youth Academy, who will perform Manuel Ponce's Violin Concierto.

A special presentation by the Mariachi Youth Academy will include Celito Lindo, La Negra, and Mexico En El Corazon (a new potpourri of traditional mariachi selections arranged by Mariachi Academy instructor Alberto "Beto" Jimenez) will highlight their premiere performance with a symphony orchestra.

Former San Bernardino Mayor Judith Valles, a founding director of Sinfonia Mexicana, will serve as guest master of ceremonies.

The annual "Mariachi Christmas" concert on December 11, features Grammy winner Mariachi Divas de Cindy Shea and Beto Jimenez' Mariachi Espectacular, back by popular demand, as the final dynamic event of the anniversary season.

Both shows will be held at 7pm at the California Theatre of the Performing Arts in San Bernardino.

Tickets may be purchased by calling the Sinfonia Mexicana office at (909) 884-3228 or 1-866-687-4284 or visit the California Theatre of the Performing Arts, 562 W. 4th Street in San Bernardino. September and December tickets purchased jointly by September 25 will receive a 10% discount. Office hours are 9am to 2pm. Tickets are also available online at www.sinfoniamexicana.com. IER

San Bernardino Symphony season debuts with Beethoven

Maestro Carlo Ponti leads the San Bernardino Symphony Orchestra in a special performance of Beethoven's Seventh Symphony

The San Bernardino Symphony will open its 2010–2011 season, Maestro Carlo Ponti's tenth anniversary, with one of Beethoven's greatest works. This popular work by Beethoven was the first piece Maestro Ponti conducted with the orchestra when he began his tenure ten years ago.

Also included in the October 9 concert, performed at 8pm at the California Theatre in San Bernardino, are Beethoven's Leonore Overture no.1 and Antonin Dvorak's Violin Concerto in a minor, op.53. Acclaimed violinist Livia Sohn, whom Opus Magazine has called a "stunning musician," will perform the Dvorak Violin Concerto.

The Arrowhead Arts Association is sponsoring a second performance of the San Bernardino Symphony Orchestra's opening concert at 3pm on Sunday, October 10 at Our Lady of Lake Church in Lake Arrowhead.

Remaining concerts for Maestro Ponti's tenth anniversary season are:

Northern Lights on November 13, presenting Carlos Chavez's Symphony no.5, Carl Nielson's Symphony no.1, op.7, and Frédéric Chopin's Piano Concerto no.2 in f minor, op.21 performed by Angela Cholakyan, a protégé of Norman Krieger.

Sensational Strings on January 16, 2011 features some of the Orchestra's outstanding string players in the ever popular Four Seasons, op.8 by Antonio Vivaldi. This fun-filled, interactive family concert concludes with W.A. Mozart's Piano Concerto no.12 in A Major, K.414, played by the talented young pianist Julianne Song, who delighted Symphony audiences two years ago.

On March 5, 2011, Power Unleashed, the Symphony Orchestra will deliver a forceful rendition of such stirring works as Sergei Rachmaninoff's Piano Concerto no.3 performed by world renowned pianist Antonio Pompa-Baldi, Arvo Pärt's Cantus in Memory of Benjamin Britten, and Jean

Maestro Carlo Ponti

Sibelius's moving 7th Symphony.

Maestro Ponti completes his tenth anniversary season on April 23, 2011 with one of Mahler's greatest symphonies, the Titan (Symphony no.1 in D Major). The evening's performance will begin with Franz Joseph Haydn's Cello concerto no.2 in D Major, Hob.VIIIb:2.

Tickets for the 2010-2011 season can be purchased online at www.sanbernardinosophony.org, by telephone at (909) 318-5388 or at the Symphony office at 415 W. 2nd Street, in San Bernardino. 18+

Riverside Community Players' Season Opens With 'Blithe Spirit'

Riverside Community Players opens its 86th season this month as it presents the ghostly comedy classic Blithe Spirit. Certain to lift everyone's "spirits," this crowd-pleasing production, directed by Phillip Gabriel, features a brilliant cast of local comic actors and the technical prowess of Dona and Rick Sisk, Ted and Rory Dyer and Sandra and Stacey Claffin.

While doing research for his latest book, novelist Charles Condomine invites an eccentric medium, Madame Arcati, to his home to observe her while she conducts a séance. Although he suspects she is a fraud, he soon discovers that she has unknowingly summoned the spirit of his first wife, Elvira. Since only Charles can see the spirit, his current wife, Ruth, thinks he is losing his mind. Is he going crazy, or is Elvira once again vying for his affections?

Performances of Blithe Spirit are Sept. 10, 11, 16, 17, 18, 24, and 25 at 8pm and Sept. 12, 19, 25 and 26 at 2pm. Tickets are $15, and the Players' intimate theatre-in-the-round setting affords every patron an up-close-and-personal look at the action.

For a great bargain, look into getting a season ticket for the Riverside Community Players. Their Main Series consists of six productions, with comedy, drama, mystery and a musical. All six shows are available for the price of $66. Senior citizens, age 62 and above, can get a season pass for $56. If you prefer less of a commitment, then a three-show Sampler Season Ticket is also available for $40.

Riverside Community Players received thirteen Inland Theatre League Awards for Excellence in 2009 and has been providing quality theatre at an affordable price for 86 years.

THE NEXT FIVE SHOWS IN RIVERSIDE COMMUNITY PLAYERS' 2010-11 MAIN SERIES ARE:

All I Really Need to Know I Learned in Kindergarten* - November 12-28. Conceived and adapted by Ernest Zulia based on the best-selling books by Robert Fulghum.

The Young Man from Atlanta* - January 21-February 6, 2011. 1995 Pulitzer Prize-winning drama by Horton Foote.

Agatha Christie's Ten Little Indians* - March 25, April 10, 2011. In this classic thriller, ten strangers are invited to an unfamiliar country house on an island off the coast of Devon, England. The strangers frantically search for a murderer, and their own pasts return to haunt them.

Election Day* - May 13-29, 2011. Josh Tobiesen's outrageous comedy.

Lucky Stiff* - July 8-24, 2011. Fast-paced musical comedy murder mystery, by Stephen Flaherty and Lynn Ahrens, the brilliant musical comedy team of Seussical and Ragtime fame.

Riverside Community Players has been producing quality live theatre for 86 years. It is one of the oldest continuously active theatre groups in the United States. Season tickets are available, or tickets for the shows may be purchased individually for $15 each ($18 for Lucky Stiff). The theatre is located at 4026 Fourteenth Street in Riverside. There is no late seating, and children under the age of five will not be admitted. Show titles are subject to availability. Visit the RCP website at www.riversidecommunityplayers.org for information on upcoming events. For ticket reservations and information, call the box office at (951) 686-4030. IER

Laughter is the best medicine at Loma Linda event

The National Auxiliary of the Loma Linda University School of Medicine, in keeping with its theme for this year "The Family - Thriving And Surviving," is hosting a community outreach event to showcase the benefits of laughter on the immune system. The festive event will be held on Sunday, October 10, with registration beginning at 6:15pm and program at 7pm at the Wong Kerlee Conference Center, 11175 Campus Street, in Loma Linda. Cost to attend is $65 per person or $120 per couple.

Through the comedic performance of Becky Baker (Bessie), professional model, motivational speaker and actress, and

Katie Blackburn (Beulah), actress and also a national performing comedienne with Becky for 25 years, together with the scientific medical research on laughter of Dr. Lee Berk, a preventive care specialist and pysconeuroimmunologist from the Center for Neuroimmunology at Loma Linda University, they will demonstrate and extol the benefits of laughter on the heart through a unique, unforgettable performance

According to Sharan Bennett, Event Chair and Board President of the National Auxiliary, "Acclaimed comedian Victor Borge once said that laughter is the shortest distance between two people.

The Auxiliary's intent is for the event to entertain, inform and encourage people to laugh more as a stress relief and coping tool, and highlight Dr. Berk's amazing practical medical and research gift to the community, as well as raise awareness for our additional on-going goal for scholarship support for School of Medicine students."

For tickets, special student discounts and additional information, call Chrissy Evangelista, National Auxiliary, at (909) 558-4639, or visit www.llumedaux.org.

Artistic works by women showcased at Desert festival

Tickets are on sale now for the Los Angeles Women's Theatre Project (LAWTP) three day festival, Women In The Arts, Nov. 5-7 in Desert Hot Springs. The festival is designed to showcase the works of women artists in the fields of theatre, film, music, literature and visual arts. Based on national statistics and studies by the New York Arts Council, only 20% of the writers, directors and working professionals in the performing arts are women.

The LA Women's Theatre Project is a 501c3 nonprofit organization founded in 2007 by playwright Dee Jae Cox and songwriter Michele Weiss, whose mission is to create opportunities for women in the performing arts. The LAWTP is a recent recipient of the prestigious Women In Theatre, 2010 Red Carpet Award.

Grammy award-winning singer/songwriter Janis Ian, whose hit songs "At Seventeen" and "Society's Child" made her a music icon, will perform at the event on Saturday Nov. 6 and teach a special "MasterClass in Artistry" workshop on Sunday Nov. 7.

The weekend is scheduled with a multitude of short and feature length films, stage plays, musical performances, as well as visual and literary arts.

The weekend kicks off Thursday, Nov. 4, with a VIP Reception, sponsored by Billy Reeds Restaurant and hosted by Dezart One Gallery in Palm Springs.

Festival times are Friday and Saturday noon to 10pm, and Sunday noon to 5pm. A closing VIP reception immediately follows.

Women In The Arts is presented at Casablanca Studios, 66-321 Pierson Blvd., in Desert Hot Springs, owned by Leanna Bonamici, founder of Palm Springs Women in Film (PSWIFT).

Riverside Children's Theatre presents Junior University's Aladdin

Step into a "whole new world" as Riverside Children's Theatre presents Junior University's Aladdin, Oct. 15-16 and 22-23 at Ramona High School in Riverside. Join Aladdin, the Genies, and all the rest of the cast as they sing, dance, and fly from the Sultan's castle to the dark forbidden cave that houses the magical lamp.

Riverside Children's Theatre (RCT) is an award-winning and leading children's theatre in Riverside County. RCT is a performing arts school and performance troupe, winning awards from the Inland Theatre League and The Press-Enterprise. For 50 years, RCT has introduced thousands of children to the world of theatre through participation in drama instruction and performance opportunities.

Membership in RCT is open to all students regardless of background, encouraging children of diversity to learn acting and participate in theatre. Each year, over 160 children, from kindergarten through 8th grade, participate in their acting school on Saturdays.

The acting school, unique among area performing arts groups, holds classes throughout the year for three hours on Saturday mornings. These classes instruct students on music, dance, and theatre arts focusing on presentation and delivery. In addition, attention is devoted to helping children build their self-esteem, confidence, and public speaking skills.

Children who are students of the school may audition for the two musical productions held in the fall and spring each year. Productions have included: Disney's Beauty and the Beast, Willy Wonka, Snow White, and The Wizard of Oz. Full musicals, replete with a live orchestra, costumes, and make-up, provide children with the feeling of being an integral part of the production. Rehearsals last for two months and culminate in six performances to paying audiences. In addition to paid performances, RCT performs at no cost to the deaf community, group home residents, senior assisted living homes and local students from low-income schools on a predetermined night during the performance run.

Tickets to Junior University's Aladdin are $10 in advance at the following ticket outlets: Alin Party Supply, Riverside; Ponies and Pigtales in Canyon Crest, Riverside; Riverside Plaza Kiosk, Riverside; and Capezio at Tyler, Riverside. They may also be purchased at the door for $12. For more information or for tickets online, visit RCT at www.riversidechildrenstheatre.org.

New Features Mark Lucas Oil Off-Road Expo 2010

The off-road nation will come together October 9-10 at the Fairplex in Pomona and find new features and real-time television coverage at the Lucas Oil Off-Road Expo.

Many view this event as America's pre-eminent gathering of off-road manufacturers, participants, and fans. New title sponsor Lucas Oil is bringing some "vroom" to this year's Off-Road Expo on a new specially-designed course located right in the heart of the event. The Lucas Oil Off-Road Racing Exhibition Course will feature two high-powered, high-jumping race trucks from the Pro 4 Unlimited and Pro 2 Unlimited classes on the track simultaneously. Professional drivers will demonstrate what these amazing 800-plus horsepower V8-powered machines can do.

Lucas Oil Off-Road Expo visitors will be invited to get behind the wheel themselves to test drive a Can-AM ATV on the Can-Am/BRP Commander Demo Course. This closed-circuit obstacle course will test the endurance and agility of these all-terrain vehicles and give drivers a real-world off-road experience.

Another new feature for 2010 will be the opportunity for visitors to check out the big screens located throughout the 2010 Lucas Oil Off-Road Expo. Lucas Oil MAV-TV will broadcast live on location from a studio located on the stage in the Main Building (#4) at the Fairplex. Lucas Oil Off-Road Racing's premiere commentator Ken Stout will interview drivers, celebrities, stars of off-road racing, industry leaders, and present features on the latest, must-have off-road products.

MAV-TV will also roam the Fairplex capturing the Expo's sights, sounds, people, and performance products for the screens and for future MAV-TV programming.

Featured on the screens each hour during the Expo will be a prize giveaways. Attendees will be encouraged to register at the Lucas Oil MAV-TV studio stage or send a text to the number flashed on the screens for a chance to win.

The heart of the Lucas Oil Off-Road Expo is the Performance Marketplace spanning three huge buildings and surrounding outdoor displays at the Fairplex. The best new parts and accessories and the experts to explain how to get them installed are the irresistible draws of these exhibits for the

Providing Benefits to Customer-Owners

For more than 10 years Riverside Public Utilities has provided innovative public benefits programs for its power and water customers. These programs provide valuable rebates that help offset the costs of making energy and water efficiency measures.

Helping customer-owners reduce their consumption allows Riverside Public Utilities to provide high quality, reliable services, and adjust to growing demands. Over the past year, RPU provided more than $3.24 million in benefits in rebates and assistance.

These measures, which you can take advantage of as well, include:

AIR CONDITIONING – Replacing older AC units cut your cooling costs, with 578 residents receiving an average of $400, earning rebates of more than $239,000.

ENERGY STAR APPLIANCES – Over 4,349 customers purchased new Energy Star appliances, and received an average of $135 each totaling $590,338 in rebates.

SHARE – In these challenging times, nearly 10,000 Riverside residents were assisted by the SHARE program this year. In over 10 years, no qualified customer has been turned away.

SOLAR – In 2002, Riverside had one solar project. Eight years later, there are more than 130 projects generating over 1.7 megawatts of clean energy from the sun. Last year 45 residential and commercial projects came online and received $915,530 in rebate funding.

TREE POWER – This program provides rebates for planting shade trees that help reduce cooling costs. Over 14,650 trees were planted in Riverside this past year.

*Get a rebate
for planting
a shade tree.*

WATER REBATES - More than 1,300 customers took advantage of water rebate programs to reduce their water use receiving $115,168 in rebates.

WEATHERIZATION - One of the best ways to improve a home's energy efficiency is to "weatherize" it with things like insulation, a whole house fan, and insulated windows. Over 1,100 customers took advantage of rebates for $277,359.

Rock superstar Don Henley performs at Fantasy

Fantasy Springs Resort Casino plays host to rock and roll superstar Don Henley this month. Henley, a singer, songwriter, drummer, founding member of The Eagles and a seven-time Grammy Award-winning solo artist, soars into the Fantasy Springs Special Events Center on September 17 at 8pm. Tickets for Don Henley are $59-$109.

Don Henley has been ranked as one of the greatest singers of all time by Rolling Stone magazine. Before the Eagles became a bona fide band, all four members played instruments for Linda Ronstadt on tour. They released their first album in 1971 and enjoyed continued success through the decade.

Don Henley flew solo through most of the 1980s, writing and releasing hits such as “Dirty Laundry,” “Boys of Summer,” and “All She Wants to Do Is Dance.” Henley has collaborated with other heavy hitting artists on songs and albums such as Stevie Nicks and Bruce Hornsby. He continues to work on solo projects, as well as music with The Eagles.

Tickets for Don Henley are available for purchase at the Fantasy Springs Box Office, via telephone at (800) 827-2946 or online at www.FantasySpringsResort.com. Fantasy Springs is located off Interstate 10, minutes from Palm Springs. IER

Canadian Rockers Bachman & Turner Visit Spotlight 29

Canadian rock n' roll stars Bachman & Turner are set to perform at the Spotlight 29 Casino Showroom on Saturday, Oct. 16. Fans will hear such hits as “Takin’ Care of Business” and “You Ain’t Seen Nothin’ Yet.”

After many years of fan demand, Randy Bachman and Fred Turner—two giants of rock n’ roll—are finally reuniting for the first time in more than 20 years. The musicians at the heart of legendary band Bachman-Turner Overdrive are ready to record and tour again as a new, full-throttle rock machine: Bachman & Turner.

The duo and their top-notch band have released their first new single in two decades, “Rollin’ Along,” which is currently available for streaming at their website bachmanandturner.com and for sale at iTunes. The track offers fans a long-awaited glimpse into Bachman & Turner’s self-titled, brand new album currently set for a September 7 release on E1 Music (Canada), and RBE Music/Fontana (U.S.).

Bachman & Turner’s upcoming studio album will be stocked with all original new tracks penned by the pair; in addition to “Rollin’ Along,” the album’s anthems include “Rock and Roll Is the Only Way Out” and “Slave To the Rhythm.”

Tickets for Bachman & Turner are on sale at $55, $65 and $75 each. For tickets, visit www.Spotlight29.com or call Star Tickets (800) 585-3737. Tickets are also available for purchase at the Spotlight 29 Gift Shop Sunday-Friday 8am-10pm, and the Spotlight Showroom Box Office 1:30pm-9:30pm on Saturday’s and on the day of the show. IER

Shakira tickets on sale

Tickets for Shakira, performing at the Fantasy Springs Resort Casino Special Events Center on Oct. 26, go on sale Sept. 11 at 10am. The concert is priced at $159, $99, $89, and $69.

Tickets may be purchased by calling (800) 827-2946, online at www.FantasySpringsResort.com or in person at the Fantasy Springs Box Office starting Saturday, Sept. 11. Doors open at 6:30pm. Show starts at 8pm.

Shakira released the album “Shewolf” in late 2009. According to her website, she has won two Grammy Awards, seven Latin Grammy Awards, twelve Billboard Latin Music Awards and has been Golden Globe-nominated. She is also the highest-selling Colombian artist of all time, and the second most successful female Latin singer after Gloria Estefan, having sold over 50 million albums worldwide according to BMI. Additionally, she is the only artist from South America to reach the number-one spot on the U.S. Billboard Hot 100, the Australian ARIA chart, and the UK Singles Chart.

Shakira’s latest success story is the superhit “Waka Waka (This Time for Africa),” the official song for the 2010 FIFA World Cup, along with its Spanish language version, titled “Waka Waka (Esto es África).” The song has received positive critical reception, and has become a worldwide hit. IER

New 'Lit' Bar/Lounge At Fantasy Springs Features New Video Poker

Fantasy Springs Resort Casino is unveiling its latest showcase – the Lit Lounge on the casino floor. Lit takes over for the former Fantasy Lounge.

Inside the ultra-modern and plush bar and lounge, guests will find a large rectangular bar that spills out into the casino. The bar features 24 state-of-the-art Bally Game Maker video poker machines and a host of oversized LCD flat screen televisions and two giant drop-down projection screens, perfect for watching sporting events with friends.

The bar-top Bally games are the first of their kind, connecting with the player tracking system utilized by Fantasy Springs. When Fantasy Rewards members insert their club cards into the bar-top games, they may see the option of participating in various promotions to earn free slot play and other prizes. Instead of checking point balances and downloading credits on one's player card from a separate monitor next to the machine, the game window on the bar-top machine simply expands and contracts so the player can see his or her status, or can hide it for privacy.

The 24 new machines give casino guests the option of playing an array of games on one machine. Each has nine video poker games, several keno options, blackjack and one video slot machine, all at one station.

The color scheme of the room fits rich reds, purples and gold together with muted textures of brushed silver, light maple wood panels and black metallic wall sconces and railings.

"As different as all the décor materials and the colors in Lit are, they all partner with one another in an amazingly aesthetic way," Jay Chesterton, Vice President of Food and Beverage and Hotel at Fantasy Springs, said.

Lit will present its Grand Opening celebration Labor Day weekend with bands and other surprises. Live bands will play in Lit every Friday and Saturday night from 9pm to 1am. The lounge will also feature pay-per-view sporting events such as boxing, and the complete NFL Sunday Ticket during football season. There is no cover charge to get into Lit unless otherwise stated. Guests must be 21 or older to enter.

For more information, call toll free (800) 827-2946 or visit www.FantasySpringsResort.com. IER

A Treasure Under the Sun

Few local residents know about a unique treasure located right in Desert Hot Springs – Cabot's Pueblo Museum. The handmade Pueblo is world famous and houses the museum collection including Native American pottery and baskets, artifacts and other treasures.

The story begins in 1883 with Cabot

Yerxa's birth in the Dakota Territories. Tour visitors take a look through his home at artifacts he collected as he journeyed to Mexico, Alaska, Cuba, and Paris. He returned from his travels to begin his "Castle in the Desert" and begin the founding of Desert Hot Springs.

"The 5000 square foot Pueblo is made with found and reclaimed materials including telephone poles, windows, buck board wagon parts and other materials," Lorraine Becker, Cabot's Museum Foundation Board President, said. "His work and legacy make Cabot Yerxa a green architect before there was a designation."

The museum story also includes Yerxa's discovery of the international award-winning mineral springs and drinking water, perhaps the greatest natural resource to the residents of Desert Hot Springs. During his homesteading process from 1913-1918 he hand dug two wells: one hot mineral water, the other cold spring water. The wells were only 600 yards apart. This inspired him to name his homestead "Miracle Hill."

At the time of his death in 1965, Cabot Yerxa was called, "The Guiding Light of Desert Hot Springs." Among his many civic roles, he laid the cornerstone on the city fire station, established the city library and founded the Desert Hot Springs Improvement Association.

Cabot's Pueblo Museum is a registered historical site designated by the County of Riverside and a non-profit 501c3 managed in partnership with the City of Desert Hot Springs. The museum hosts thousands of visitors who delight in the history and connection to the past, making it one of the most popular attractions in Desert Hot Springs.

More information can be found on the museum web site, www.cabotsmuseum.org, or by calling (760) 329-7610. LER

Soboba Golf Classic Adds Kidz Korner To Tournament Venue

Officials of the 2010 Soboba Golf Classic, an official event on the PGA TOUR Nationwide Tour, announced the addition of Kidz Korner to the 2010 Soboba Golf Classic venue. The Soboba Golf Classic will be held at The Country Club at Soboba Springs in San Jacinto, from Sept. 27 to Oct. 3.

Located between the 1st and 9th fairways and directly south of the 1st tee, Kidz Korner will offer young Tournament spectators great fun with pony rides, inflatable jumpers, blow up slides, obstacle courses, interactive games, carnival booths and games.

Food and beverage vendors will also adorn the Kidz Korner area, which is situated at the heart of all of the action, and centrally located in the middle of the golf course. Children 12 and under receive free admission to the Tournament for the entire week.

Also located at Kidz Korner is the Southern California PGA Learning Center (SCPGA). From Thursday, Sept. 30 through Sunday, Oct. 3, the SCPGA will offer hitting cages, a putting and chipping green, plus free golf lessons with two full-time instructors to help improve your game.

"The 2010 Soboba Golf Classic promises something exciting for everyone," Tournament Director Ed Winiecki said. "Pure fun for all kids ages 99 and under."

Actor Clint Howard to be honored at the Big Bear Lake International Film Festival

The Big Bear Lake International Film Festival (BBLIFF) announced Clint Howard as the 2010 recipient of the Acting Award of Excellence.

In a career that has spanned over forty-nine years, Clint Howard's impressive list of credits include over one hundred films, five series and scores of television appearances.

Current projects scheduled for release in 2010 include "Bloodrayne: The Third Reich" and "Alabama Moon," both of which feature Howard in starring roles.

Clint recently was seen in the Oscar nominated film "Frost/Nixon" and had a classic cameo in 20th Century Fox's "Night At The Museum: Battle of the Smithsonian."

Rob Zombie's "Halloween" and MGM's "Music Within," both released in 2007, featured Clint in his usual character mode. Other film projects include "Cinderella Man," "How To Eat Fried Worms," and "Fun With Dick And Jane."

Clint Howard

In the world of television, Clint has made stops on "My Name Is Earl" and "Arrested Development." He most recently did guest appearances on NBC's "Heroes" and the new FOX sci-fi hit "Fringe".

His early career began in 1961, when he was cast as Leon in five episodes of "The Andy Griffith Show." Other early highlights include a 1966 appearance in "Star Trek" and the 1967/68 CBS Series "Gentle Ben."

As an adult, Howard's career continued in a variety of interesting roles. The wheeler/dealer Eaglebauer in the cult classic "Rock And Roll High School" and the demon possessed cadet in the 1981 horror film "Evilspeak" are examples of his versatility.

In 1998, Clint's work in the industry earned him the Lifetime Achievement Award at the annual MTV Movie Awards.

Clint is an avid golfer, carrying a ten handicap. He resides in Los Angeles with his beautiful bride of twelve years, Melanie.

The Big Bear Lake International Film Festival attracts an average of 5,000 attendees to its scenic location yearly and will be celebrating its 11th anniversary at this year's event, Sept. 17-19. Tickets can be purchased online at bigbearlakefilmfestival.com at the Big Bear Lake Performing Arts Center Box Office (39707 Big Bear Blvd., in Big Bear Lake) or by phone at (909) 866-4970.

off-road nation attending the Expo.

Another key reason why fans flock to the show are the rock-bottom prices offered only during the Lucas Oil Off-Road Expo on these must-have parts and accessories. Event organizers expect significant show growth in terms of number of off-road exhibitors, number of spectators and the new products introduced at the show.

Everywhere spectators look at the Lucas Oil Off-Road Expo, there will be excitement. Freestyle motocross legend Keith Sayers, Winter X Games gold medalist Heath Frisby and top-level FreeRider Steve Haughelstine will rip up the FMX area at the show. This motorcycle thrill team will provide gravity-defying aerial action in special performances throughout the weekend. Over at the main stage, gorgeous, bikini-clad ladies will compete for the cash prize, tiara and "Miss Off-Road Expo" title that go to the judges' choice. And coming back down to earth, the action will continue with the lightning-quick, professionally driven RC Cars on a showcase dirt track.

Bob Patison, Executive Vice President-Lucas Oil Products, Inc. said, "Since Lucas Oil signed on to be the title sponsor of the Off-Road Expo, we've been actively working with the show's producers to see what we can do to take what's already been known as a great show and make it even greater. I think spectators will be blown away by the power and speed of our demonstration course from the Lucas Oil Off Road Racing series. We brought a version of this demo to the SEMA show in Las Vegas in 2009, and it was a huge hit. We're also really looking forward to bringing the video production resources of Lucas Oil MAV TV to the show with closed-circuit screens located throughout and our live-action studio in the middle of it all. We also hope to gather some great content for future shows on MAV TV. We're looking forward to seeing everyone who loves the off-road lifestyle as much as we do."

Advance discount tickets are available at O'Reilly Auto Parts / Kragen locations or online at www.OffRoadExpo.com. Tickets may also be purchased on the day of the show at the Fairplex box office. Advance adult tickets are $10, $12 at the gate, child's tickets are $5. Hours are 9am-6pm on Saturday, 9am-5pm on Sunday. More information can be found at www.OffRoadExpo.com.

by John Vaughan, with music direction by David Lamoureux.

Derek Klena is making his Performance Riverside debut in the role of Joseph of Canaan. Performance Riverside's Producing Artistic Director, Rey O'Day, said, "I first saw Derek as Huckleberry Finn in Big River at the Candlelight Pavilion, and I knew we had to have him at Performance Riverside someday!"

This year he was one of the twenty five contestants sent to Hollywood Week during the 9th season of FOX-TV's iconic reality singing competition, American Idol. This summer, he played the Prince in Cabrillo Music Theatre's production of Rodgers and Hammerstein's Cinderella alongside Sally Struthers and Marcia Wallace. He's performed on NBC-TV's America's Most Talented Kids, and he was one of Orange County Performing Arts Center "Tomorrow's Stars of 2008." He was a Southern California Vocal Association finalist for four years, and chosen as a semi-finalist in the Los Angeles Music Center's Spotlight Awards competition.

Stephanie Burkett Gerson is well suited for the vocally demanding role of the Narrator in Joseph. She's a bright up-and-coming star in the Southern California musical theatre scene, and has traveled the globe for two years as a lead female vocalist for Holland America Cruise Line. Stephanie is one of the most sought after National Anthem singers in Southern California, performing for all the professional sports teams, at the world famous Hollywood Bowl, and at Carnegie Hall. She's been a featured vocalist for Disney World Tours, and a featured vocalist in The Disney 50th Birthday Celebration, the Disney Spirit Awards, and the Disney Christmas Spectacular at the El Capitan Theatre in Hollywood. She's sung on Ed McMahon's Next Big Star, Robert Schuller's Hour of Power, and appeared in MTV's Legally Blonde. In 2008, she sang "Unchained Melody" in Season Three of the popular NBC TV show, America's Got Talent with her husband Zane (Lt. Joseph Cable in Performance Riverside's Twenty-Fifth Anniversary production of South Pacific).

Performances of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat are September 17, 18, 24, and 25 at 8pm, and September 18, 19, 25, and 26 at 2pm. Tickets are $27, $34, $41, and $48, with group ticket pricing for parties of 10 or more. Specially priced Discovery Theatre Previews for School Groups are available on September 17 and 24 at 10am. Season tickets for the 2010-2011 are also on sale. All performances are at Landis Performing Arts Center, 4800 Magnolia Avenue in Riverside. The Landis Box Office is at (951) 222-8100, or for more information, come and explore www.PerformanceRiverside.org.

The Art of Building Cars and Guitars

Celebrating the 60th Anniversary of the Fender Telecaster, a new exhibition to acknowledge the synergy between guitars (axes) and cars (axles). This exhibit will feature a vast collection of rare photographs, rock memorabilia and personal cars and guitars from rock icons such as Eric Clapton, Jeff Beck, Michael Anthony, Kenny Wayne Shepherd, Billy F Gibbons and many more. As part of the 60th Anniversary of the Fender Telecaster guitar, the exhibit will also illustrate the history of Fender and celebrate one of the most famous guitars ever built, the Telecaster.
