American Indian Art In Riverside

Americana Indian Shows brings authentic Native American arts to the public

AMERICAN INDIAN ART Sept. 26-28, Anderson's Americana Indian Show puts on display for sale everything from turquoise jewelry to Navajo rugs.

With more than 5,000 authentic items for sale, the Anderson's Americana Indian Show is perhaps the largest event of its kind to be found in the Inland Empire. For purveyors of traditional, Native American jewelry and arts, the Riverside show can't be beat.

Coming to the Elks Lodge in Riverside on September 26 – September 28, the show puts on display for sale everything from turquoise jewelry to Navajo rugs.

Americana Indian Shows had its beginning in 1947 when founder Lee Anderson (a fifth generation Arizonan) attended school on the Navajo reservation and worked after school and weekends for his uncle at the family's Sanders, Arizona trading post. The Andersons collected American Indian art such as Navajo rugs, pottery, baskets, jewelry and other Indian and western items. This cultivated a passion and respect for Native American art and culture that inspired Lee to pursue his dream of bringing Indian art to the public. In 1966 Lee and his brothers, Wayne and Arvid, began selling Navajo weavings on a small scale at local flea markets and events in Tucson, while Lee was stationed at Fort Huachuca, Arizona. As sales grew, the brothers expanded inventory to include Jewelry and other Indian arts; with their success came the founding of Americana Indian shows in 1968.

Upon retirement from the Pentagon in 1974, Lee moved his family from Virginia back to Arizona to pursue the business full time with his brothers. Two galleries were opened in 1974, and at the same time road shows continued to take art and jewelry to customers across the country. Eventually the galleries were closed so Lee and his brothers could focus exclusively on conducting shows and sales nationwide.

Today that tradition continues with the next generation of Andersons. The shows – more than 25 a year around the country – feature an inventory of thousands of Native American made items from Arizona and New Mexico, including turquoise jewelry, kachinas, paintings, baskets, sand paintings, pottery, carvings, Navajo rugs and more. Visitors can shop for works created by top Native American artists from the Navajo, Hopi, Zuni, Santo Domingo, Acoma, Santa Clara, Jemez and more.

Admission is free to the show. See their ad in this issue for special offer. The Elks lodge is located at 6166 Brockton Ave, in Riverside. For more information, call (928) 606-2972, or go online to www.americana.net. IER

I.E. Restaurant Week Announces Second 10-Day Dining Event in October

A successful inaugural event in March has restaurants and diners clamoring for another regional dining experience Oct. 17-26 in communities throughout Riverside and San Bernardino counties

An enthusiastic response to the region's very first Inland Empire Restaurant Week this spring has prompted organizers to announce a second event in the fall, with participating restaurants offering a variety of delectable dishes at fixed prices for both lunch and dinner.

The region's second Inland Empire Restaurant Week will take place Oct. 17-26 at participating restaurants in communities throughout Riverside and San Bernardino counties. There are no tickets, passes or coupons required. Simply dine out at a participating restaurant for great meals at set prices. It's a great way to try a new restaurant or enjoy an old favorite.

Multi-course lunch menus will be offered for $10, $15 or $20. Dinners will be offered at $20, $30 or $40. Visit www.inlandempirerestaurantweek.com for details as they come.

Thousands of new customers visited participating restaurants in more than 20 communities during the inaugural event March 21-30. Restaurants reported increased sales of up to 30 percent and thousands of new customers visited their establishments to take advantage of the specialty menus offered at fixed prices. Participating restaurants benefitted from promotions and marketing of the 10-day event through radio, print, digital and outdoor advertising and earned media, representing a total value of more than $400,000.

"We saw a huge increase in reservations from the moment IE Restaurant Week was announced," said Rosie O'Connor, chef/owner of Provecho Grill in the city of Menifee. "We doubled our covers during the dining period and had many new customers who were so excited that we were participating. We will definitely sign up for the next restaurant week!"

The first Inland Empire Restaurant Week reflected an overall economic impact to the region of about $1.1 million, according to the Greater Ontario Convention and Visitors Bureau, which organized and coordinated the event. Michael Krouse, President and CEO of the Greater Ontario Convention & Visitors Bureau, said everyone was thrilled with the response to what was the very first regional restaurant week for the region. He expects the October's Inland Empire Restaurant Week to be even bigger and better.

"Every corner of the Inland Empire was represented in our first event, which is why we are moving forward with a second Restaurant Week this fall," Krouse said. "I.E. Restaurant Week provides restaurants with a unique opportunity to attract new customers, and gives diners the chance to enjoy restaurants they've never experienced before."

Participating restaurants in the inaugural event were located mostly in Ontario, Rancho Cucamonga, Riverside and Claremont, but also included many other communities from Temecula to Big Bear, Beaumont to Corona. Some of the more popular restaurants included Market Broiler, Mustazzoli Ristorante Italiano, Magic Lamp, Gyu-Kaku, Sycamore Inn, Las Campanas at the Mission Inn, The Pines Steakhouse, Bin 189, Salted Pig and many more.

"It was a great event, well organized and professionally executed," said Loren Lawe, Executive Chef of Riverside's Mission Inn. "We saw a significant increase in new customers at all of our participating restaurants, and we would love to do it again in the future."

Nearly 90 percent of the restaurants surveyed reported that IE Restaurant Week attracted new customers to their establishments.

NEW MONSTERS INFECT KNOTT'S SCARY FARM

Whatever You're Imagining,
It's Here...

This year's Knott's Scary Farm conjures up unprecedented experiences and show-stopping entertainment, including the debut of Special Ops: Infected, where guests fight zombies in an interactive six-acre war, and the return of Elvira – Mistress of the Dark in an all-new stage show.

Special Ops: Infected: This ambitious new attraction is the first of its kind in North America and will challenge guests to exterminate the infestation of zombies who threaten mankind's existence. Armed with specially designed laser guns, brave groups of Knott's Scary Farm guests will embark on missions, led by their bold Squad Leader.

Back by overwhelming demand for 2014 is Elvira – the legendary Mistress of the Dark. Elvira will headline her all new show, Elvira's Big Top, twice nightly for the entire run of Knott's Scary Farm. Elvira becomes the Ring-Mistress of the Park as she hosts a circus carnival of macabre freaks and sinister side show acts. The show also features The Academy of Villains, who return to the stage in 2014 fresh off their appearance on Fox's So You Think You Can Dance?

Three new terrifying attractions will debut this year, with more astounding special effects and richer back stories than ever. These new mazes complement the horrific line-up of seven returning haunted attractions; grand total of 10 haunted attractions. 2014's newest nightmares include:

Voodoo: Trudge cautiously through the cursed swamps of the Deep South, where guests must choose their path from a number of foreboding choices, resulting in a different terrifying outcome with each journey into the swamp.

The Tooth Fairy: This twisted tooth fairy steals more than teeth as he drags his victims out their bedroom window and into a world of deranged dentistry. Unbelievable special effects include a blackout room through which guests must feel their way out, a final encounter with the massive tooth fairy and more.

Trapped: Lock and Key: This year Trapped returns with more rooms, intricate puzzles and a shocking finale more extreme than any experience ever presented at Knott's Scary Farm. Trapped is not for the squeamish as the challenges are darker and more terrifying than any that have come before. (Additional fee and reservation required.)

44th Annual Big Bear Lake Oktoberfest Expands German Entertainment

Weekends, September 13 through October 25

The Big Bear Lake Oktoberfest celebrates 44 years of German style family fun and good times. Rated Southern California's #1 Oktoberfest, this fall's festival once again will expand the entertainment line-up to feature two bands from Germany and more free contests.

The Big Bear Lake Oktoberfest has continuously expanded its entertainment offerings over the past five years, providing guests with a wide variety of music, dance groups and contests. With the addition of the outside Spaten Rocktoberfest stage last year, Oktoberfest visitors can now enjoy traditional Oktoberfest German bands and a variety of Country, Classic Rock and Blues bands. This year the event will feature two German bands playing over three of the seven weekends.

A long-time favorite of Big Bear's festival, southern California's own, The Express, will once again kick-off the festivities on September 13 and 14 and will return later in October to round-out the festival's 44th year, performing again October 11, 12, 18, 19 and 25.

The Goldeizen Band hails from Bavaria and will perform with eight musicians September 20, 21 and 27. A favorite in Southern Germany, the Goldeizen have two Oktoberfest hits that were nominated in 2013 for the Best Oktoberfest Hits CD produced annually by the Munich Oktoberfest. The Aalbachtal-Express also hails from Southern Germany and will be performing September 28, October 3, 4, and 5. This 11-piece band is famous for its authenticity and upbeat performances. Playing at festivals and fairs throughout all of Europe, Aalbachtal-Express have performed to millions of fans since they began playing together 35 years ago.

Oktoberfest guests over the years have participated in free contests including Log Sawing, Steinholding, and Beer Pong. Traditionally, the Big Bear Lake Oktoberfest provides more than 70 opportunities for guests to participate in a contest over the seven weekends. This year, the contest schedule expands to include more contests on Saturdays. Additional Log Sawing and Steinholding contests have been added to the outdoor Spaten Rocktoberfest stage. As always, sign-ups are taken the day of the contests and are limited to a first come basis.

Oktoberfest once again gets "unplugged" an additional Friday night. Fans will be treated to an intimate inside look into the history and early beginnings of Oktoberfest while enjoying a night of fine German food and beer. The five-course German dinner will be paired with a variety of German beers and spirits. Entertainment includes story telling by the Uber-Burgermeister and founder of Big Bear's Oktoberfest, Hans Bandows, as well as several of the event's original and present day personalities.

One of the country's most authentic Oktoberfest celebrations, Oktoberfest offers non stop entertainment, dancing and zany German antics exclusive to Big Bear's festival. Other Oktoberfest festivities include carnival games, bounce houses, Samson - the mechanical bull, and the Buden Strasse (Ave. of the Booths) which provides a variety of vendors.

The annual fall celebration kicks off with American's Hero Weekend on Saturday, Sept. 13 offering free admission for all past/present military and their immediate families, as well as firefighters and law enforcement. The festival closes on Saturday, Oct. 25 with annual costume contests for both adults and children.

The Big Bear Lake Oktoberfest provides an excuse to enjoy a weekend away from the stress and obligations of everyday life in a beautiful alpine setting. The festival takes place high in the San Bernardino mountains, approximately two hours away from the greater Los Angeles, Orange County and San Diego communities.

LeAnn Rimes Plays At The Fox Performing Arts Center

Country and pop sensation LeAnn Rimes will make a tour stop in Riverside on Sept. 27 at the Fox Performing Arts Center in Riverside.

Becoming one of the youngest country music stars at the age of 13, fans from the start have loved Rimes' rich vocals. She made her breakthrough in 1996 with the debut of Blue, reaching the top spot on the Top Country Albums chart. The album's leadoff single, "Blue," reached the Top 10 and Rimes rose to national acclaim.

Rimes moved toward country pop starting in 1997 with the release of You Light Up My Life: Inspirational Songs. Rimes has won numerous awards and has ten studio albums to her credit. In her own words, the 2013 Spitfire offers a glimpse into Rimes' personal life. "This album is a peek into my world; who I am, what I've gone through, what my emotions are. It's an intimate conversation between myself and whomever's listening. I hope I'm saying things that are hard for others to express. It certainly took me a lot of work to get to this point," she says in a statement on her website. IER

She brings a unique perspective of etching natural themes on crystal. Also new to the show this year are husband and wife Jason and Nicole McQuaid from Laguna Beach with wonderful blown glass works.

The show's Founder, Merrill Everett, has created a series of Blown Glass Totems – ranging in size from 2' to 7'. Mr. Everett was instrumental in the early Southern California Studio Glass Movement working at Scripps and Palomar Colleges. His background in Fine Art Ceramics led him, as well as many others, to the rather recent Studio Glass Movement.

Participating Artists include: Marti Blair, San Diego; Buzz Blodgett, Encinitas; Garry Cohen, Escondido; Dick Ditore, San Diego; Merrill Everett, Fallbrook; Chris Everett, Fallbrook; Rafael Gevorkian, Anaheim; Hermann Lunn Blown Glass, San Clemente; Lynn Leahy, San Marcos; McQuaid Art Glass, Laguna Beach; Mad Art Glass, Vista; Marty Marshall, San Diego; Mingo & Asho Glasscapes, Vista; Kathleen Mitchell, San Diego; Akoko Okeyo, Newport Beach; Bruce Stowell, Fallbrook; Cynthia Ann Swan, Lake View Terrace; Dana Taylor, Encinitas; and John Winner, Encinitas.

Big Bear Lake International Film Festival

The Big Bear Lake International Film Festival is a non-profit organization dedicated to showcasing talented new voices in independent film. Since 2000, the festival has supported independent filmmakers and screenwriters from around the world with advice, feedback, industry connections and mentorships. September 19-21 marks the 15th annual festival and will screen over 90 films submitted from more than 20 countries.

Industry professionals such as comedy writer Anne Beats, founder of Film Festival Flix Benjamin Oberman, and screenwriting mentor Chris Soth will host panels and seminars on topics ranging from distribution to tips on improving your screenwriting skills. For more information about this year's program, visit www.bigbearfilmfestival.com.

In celebration of the 15th year and to lay the foundation for the next 15, the Big Bear Film Festival announced the formation of the Patron Circle. Members of the Patron Circle may join by donating a minimum of $300 and in addition to two All Events Passes, receive exclusive access and benefits both during and after the festival, including priority access, private screenings, and meet and greet opportunities with honorees.

The 2014 Festival will honor Oscar-nominated Director Lucy Walker, and Composer Heitor Pereira. Lucy Walker's 2013 documentary feature The Crash Reel about snowboarder Kevin Pearce's life-changing traumatic brain injury continues to wow audiences and raise awareness through the Love Your Brain campaign. Heitor Pereira has been the recipient of three ASCAP awards and recently scored the film adaptation of Gayle Foreman's bestselling book, If I Stay, directed by R.J. Cutler and starring Chloë Grace Moretz.

2014 marks the inaugural Featured Artist program that will highlight an artistic conception made especially for BBFF. The program seeks to create a strong visual presence distinct to each year's edition and actively scouts untapped talent for international exposure. To kick-start the program, the festival selected Spanish-born graphic artist Manuel Serra to produce a piece that embodies the beauty of the Big Bear community, as well as the spirit of the festival. His art piece "La Luz del Lago" will be unveiled and up for auction starting Friday, Sep-

Wit And Music Fill 'The Three Little Pigs'

The MainStreet Theatre Company is delighted to announce its first show of the 2014/2015 season: The West Coast Premiere of Stiles and Drewe's The Three Little Pigs. The show runs Oct. 4th – 19th at the Lewis Family Playhouse, where MainStreet is a resident company.

This musical adaptation of the classic story is filled with witty word play, terrific music played by a live band, and a very mean Big Bad Wolf. It's a perfect introduction to professional, live theatre for families with children as young as four.

In this version of the story, the Three Pigs have very distinct personalities and ways of looking at the world, which is only one of the clever ways authors keep the story fun and entertaining. Cha is more interested in playing in the mud and having room for his gym equipment, so he decides to build his house out of sticks, since he thinks that'll be easy. Siu is very concerned about the environment, and wants to make sure her house is made of easily sustainable natural resources. Bao (who always has his snout in a book) knows that you need a strong foundation to build a house, and chooses to build his house out of bricks. Despite their differences, when the Big Bad Wolf comes to eat them, the siblings learn that by working together, they can defeat him!

British authors George Stiles and Anthony Drewe are most well-known for having written the new songs and music for the Broadway and West End musical Mary Poppins. They also wrote Honk!, which won the Olivier Award (the English equivalent of the Tony Award), beating both The Lion King and Mama Mia that year. The Three Little Pigs was originally commissioned and produced by the Singapore Repertory Theatre, which is probably why they had a little fun and named the main characters after their favorite Chinese Pork Dumplings (Cha Sui Bao).

MainStreet's production is directed by Jessica Kubzansky, with musical direction by Janice Rodgers Wainwright and choreography by John Pennington. The cast of Los Angeles based professional actors includes Michael Covert (Cha), Kyla Garcia (Siu), Jeffrey Landman (Bao), Tracey Leigh (Mom Pig), and

Players Presents 'Sylvia' And 'The Magician's Nephew'

The Riverside Community Players Open New Season

SYLVIA

A.R. Gurney's play Sylvia is opening on September 12th at the Riverside Community Players. This is the first show of the Players' season which is celebrating its 90th birthday. For this special occasion, the theater has chosen six of the most crowd-pleasing, and season ticket holders' favorite, shows to continue presenting excellent theater.

To begin this celebration, and no better way to start if off, the theater brings Sylvia back home! This is a rich, intelligent, mature, humorous and touching play you will not want to miss. As the kids have left to go to college, Kate and Greg move into the city to start this next chapter of their lives. Then Sylvia enters the picture, and starts to chew a hole in their 22-year marriage.

The New York Times said, "Dramatic literature is stuffed with memorable love scenes, but none as immediately delicious and dizzy as the one that begins the redeeming affair in A.R. Gurney's comedy Sylvia." Jeff Richards (An Act of the Imagination, Last Night at Ballyhoo, Smell of the Kill, and Same Time Next Year) directs this production with a seasoned cast that includes Kelly Kelly, Kadn Fox, Robert Merrill, and newcomer to RCP, Jessie McLean as Sylvia.

The show runs September 12th through the 28th, Friday and Saturday at 8pm and Sundays at 2pm, also Thursday the 18th at 8pm and Saturday the 27th at 2pm.

THE MAGICIAN'S NEPHEW

There's magic in the air this October as Riverside Community Players brings to life the beloved children's book The Magician's Nephew. Directed by Michael Eastman, The Magician's Nephew is a prequel to The Lion, The Witch, and The Wardrobe and follows the tale of young Digory and his friend Polly as they discover his mysterious uncle is actually a magician that plans to send them to magical worlds. It's a story of good and evil and how the decisions we make affect both our world as well as worlds beyond. "This is a show I've longed to direct for years now," confessed Michael Eastman. "As a stage magician, the chance to put actual magic effects into a theatrical show has always intrigued me. The fact that I get to work with a script adapted from C.S. Lewis' work with his vivid worlds and strong characters is a dream come true."

Helping to bring these magical characters to life is an all-star cast. Performance Riverside veteran Anna Hightower stars as Polly and Ray Zaragoza of San Bernardino plays young Digory after ending his run as Mordecai in Junior University's Snow White this summer.

"We also have some great classical actors adding their weight to these mystical characters." Eastman is referring to both Jennifer Blanck of Redlands who plays the evil white witch, Queen Jadis, and to Preston Helms of La Quinta who is the titular magician, Uncle Andrew. Both Blanck and Helms have graced the Redlands Bowl in the Redlands Shakespeare Festival for several years, as well as just recently completed a summer at Shakespeare In the Vines in Temecula.

"Audiences are going to be in for a real treat" explained Michael. "We have some of the area's most respected actors of both the musical theatre world as well as the classical world, mind boggling illusions, and a script based upon one of the most revered series in literature."

The Magician's Nephew plays October 10-12, Friday and Saturday night at 7pm and Saturday and Sunday matinees at 2pm. IER

CSUSB Theatre Announces Its 2014-2015 Season Of Plays

A Season of Destiny, Defiance and Desire to Debut This Fall

The Cal State San Bernardino Department of Theatre Arts' 2014-2015 season will be one of Destiny, Defiance, and Desire – and it will have something for everyone, from the classics to modern, contemporary pieces.

The 2014-2015 season kicks off on Nov. 14-23 with The Three Musketeers by Ken Ludwig, adapted from the classic 19th century novel by Alexander Dumas, and directed by Tom Provenzano.

The Three Musketeers follows young d'Artagnan as he begins his quest to become a Musketeer. He quickly befriends the legendary Three Musketeers – Athos, Porthos and Aramis – and they set out on an adventure to free King Louis XIII from the influence of the evil Cardinal Richelieu and the conniving Milady.

But much to d'Artagnan's dismay, his younger sister tags along and joins in on the adventure. This epic, family-friendly play is wrought with adventure and intrigue. With nine performances performed in the round, The Three Musketeers will have audiences shouting: "All for one, and one for all!"

On Jan. 23, 2015, the university will present Black Butterfly, Jaguar Girl, Piñata Woman and Other Superhero Girls, Like Me by Luis Alfaro, directed by Johanna Smith. Black Butterfly explores the complicated world of five girls growing up in East L.A.

The play is based on their writing from the 7th grade through high school, expertly put together into a series of poems, monologues, music and dramatic scenes filled with adolescent angst, humor, American slang, Spanish and Spanglish. With moments that are both gleeful and gloomy, Black Butterfly will take you on a trip through the teenage psyche. This special event performance will run three days only, Jan. 23- 25, with a matinee showing at 2pm, and a performance at 7pm each day.

From March 13-22, the Theatre Arts Department chair Terry Donovan Smith will direct The Family of Mann, by Theresa Rebeck.

"It's a Mann's world" is a fact that Belinda quickly realizes when she scores her dream job as the writer of an upcoming sitcom starring Hollywood royalty. But once the pressures of working in an ego-driven, testosterone-filled writers' room sets in, reality shifts, and the truth behind the "City of Angels" begins to reveal itself to her. Or ... it could be that she's just losing her mind.

This production features language and themes of an adult nature, and is not intended for young audiences.

In June, the CSUSB main stage season wraps up with the musical Once On This Island, by Lynn Ahrens, with music by Stephen Flaherty and lyrics by Lynn Ahrens. It is based on My Love, My Love by Rosa Guy.

Once on this Island is the musical love story of two island people brought together and torn apart by fortune and destiny. Ti Moune, a peasant girl, rescues and falls in love with Daniel, a wealthy boy from the other side of the island. When she returns with Daniel to his family, the gods who rule the island lead Ti Moune on a journey that tests the power of her love against the forces of prejudice and hatred. Once on this Island will run for nine performances from June 5-14.

Individual and season tickets can be purchased from the CSUSB Theatre Arts Box Office, by phone at (909) 537-5884, or online at theatre.csusb.edu. Subscriptions range from $20 to $50, with individual tickets at $6 for students and children under 17; $12 for faculty, staff, seniors and military; $15 for adults.

Performances take place in the Ronald E. Barnes Theatre on the CSUSB campus. Parking at CSUSB is $5, but is available for free with a 2014-2015 theatre arts season subscription.

Sitting, Dreaming

Sitting on a stool, drinking strong Indonesian coffee mixed with instant milk, smoking a siong kretak cigarette and having the time of my life, in my little cubicle I call my room. I sleep and I eat here. I drink and I smoke here, too. No worries. No problems. No fights. No flights. Just freedom. Mind wandering into endless space, up to the starry skies, up to the hot sun, and down again into my abyss.
