Fallbrook Harvest Faire

The Fallbrook Chamber of Commerce will host the annual Harvest Faire on Sunday, October 16, from 10am - 4pm on Main Avenue in historic downtown Fallbrook.

This faire will include local artisan craft vendors, as well as a beer and wine garden, petting zoo, pony and hay rides, pie baking contests, pumpkin contests, live music, local foods and treats, and more.

Also on display will be the local handcrafted scarecrows, as part of the October Scarecrow Days in Fallbrook. Many unique shops will also be open along Main Avenue. This event is fun for the whole family and offers the charm of small town America.

In addition to the month-long scarecrow display throughout the town, October in Fallbrook also includes other events, such as Stage Coach Sunday, hosted by the Fallbrook Land Conservancy; the Gem & Mineral Society's Festival of Gems; the Galaxy of Glass show at the Fallbrook Art Center; and the annual REINS Country Hoedown.

For more information on this or any other event, please visit their website at www.fallbrook-chamberofcommerce.org and click on the Events tab.

Come visit Fallbrook and enjoy the charm of this autumn-themed event! IER

SHOP RIVERSIDE

SHOPPING LOCALLY

ShopRiverside is a City of Riverside awareness campaign designed to educate residents on the benefits of shopping locally.

The City of Riverside is proud to present the 2017 ShopRiverside Community Card. The Community Card increases awareness and traffic for participating businesses and builds shopping loyalty in Riverside, as well as support city services and local education. The card is a remarkable marketing opportunity for local businesses, as well as a highly-effective fundraiser for the local schools and organizations in Riverside.

What could be better than everyone profiting from this worthy cause! The card has more than 200 participating local businesses and provides a wide range of

TREAT YOURSELF TO THIS UNIQUE MOUNTAIN ZOO

California has some of the most diverse wildlife in North America. But you don't have to camp out in the wilderness just to catch a glimpse of some of our state's amazing animals. The Big Bear Alpine Zoo, founded in 1959, is the only alpine zoo of its kind in the United States. Situated at almost 7,000 feet above sea level, the Big Bear Alpine Zoo serves as a rehabilitation facility for both mountain and nearby communities. With a nearly 80% success rate, animals are nursed back to health or weaned onto solid foods and then released back into the wild. If an animal is too injured or if it has lost its fear of humans, it cannot be released and has a home for life at Big Bear Alpine Zoo.

"Our goal at the zoo is to connect our guests to wildlife, to demonstrate both the uniqueness of our animals and their habitat in the wild," says Curator Bob Cisneros. "As for our animals, we focus on their natural behaviors, providing them with opportunities to thrive. I think this combination of connecting guests to wildlife and meeting the welfare needs of our animals makes us very successful at what we do."

If you are planning a trip to Big Bear, get your wild on! A visit to the zoo is the best way to see representatives of our mountain ecosystem. Located on 2.5 acres, Big Bear Alpine Zoo brings the wild to you, housing over 100 animals, mostly native species.

The zoo is open daily from 10am through 5pm and is located at 43285 Goldmine Drive in Big Bear Lake, right across the street from Bear Mountain Ski and Board Resort.

Each day at noon there is an animal presentation done by one of their keepers and three animal enrichment talks at 1pm, 2pm, and 3pm.

If you want to know more about the facility and the animals in their care, check out the website at www.bigbearzoo.org or like them on their facebook page.

LEARN TO SQUARE DANCE

Are you looking for a great date night activity? Would you like to meet some new friends? Or maybe you would like to get some exercise? Come join the Temecula Grape Stompers as they start their new session of square dance lessons - a great activity just for you.

Here is what Pamela, one of last year's students, says about it: "We started our square dance lessons a year ago February. Since graduating from the class we've been to probably 75+ dances. We are having so much fun square dancing. It gets us out of the house, we've met some awesome people and it's fun! We encourage you to join us on September 12th for our brand new class in Temecula. What better way to spend quality time with quality people. Dancing has been proven to reduce the chances of getting Dementia or Alzheimer's. It keeps the mind sharp and the blood flowing. It's a whole new world to explore as you 'Allemande Left' with new and fun people."

Those interested are invited to come on out and join the Temecula Grape Stompers, with FIRST NIGHT FREE! Classes are held at the Mary Phillips Center, 41845 Sixth St., in Temecula, 7-9pm on Mondays, starting September 12th. For more information call Jerry at (619) 987-4484 or go online to www.grapestomers.net. IER

46TH ANNUAL BIG BEAR LAKE OKTOBERFEST EXPANDS GERMAN ENTERTAINMENT

Weekends,
September 10
through October 29

The Big Bear Lake Oktoberfest celebrates 46 years of German style family fun and good times. Southern California's #1 Oktoberfest, this fall's festival once again will expand the entertainment line-up to feature three bands from Germany providing event more authentic entertainment.

The Big Bear Lake Oktoberfest has continuously expanded its entertainment offerings over the past five years, providing guests with a wide variety of music, dance groups and contests. Combined with the outside Spaten Rocktoberfest stage, Oktoberfest visitors enjoy traditional German bands and a variety of country, classic rock and blues bands.

Oktoberfest guests over the years have participated in FREE contests including Log Sawing, Steinholding, and Beer Pong. Traditionally, the Big Bear Lake Oktoberfest provides more than 80 opportunities for guests to participate in a contest over the eight weekends. This year, the contest schedule expands to include more contests on Saturdays. Additional Log Sawing and Steinholding contests have been added to the outdoor Spaten Rocktoberfest stage. As always, sign-ups are taken the day of the contests and are limited to a first come basis.

Oktoberfest once again gets "Un-plugged" an additional Friday night. Fans will be treated to an intimate inside look into the history and early beginnings of Oktoberfest while enjoying a night of fine German food and beer. The five-course German dinner will be paired with a variety of German beers and spirits. Entertainment includes story telling by the Uber-Burgermeister and founder of Big Bear's Oktoberfest, Hans Bandows, as well as several of the event's original and present day personalities.

One of the country's most authentic Oktoberfest celebrations, Oktoberfest offers non stop entertainment, dancing and zany German antics exclusive to Big Bear's festival. Other Oktoberfest festivities include carnival games, bounce houses, Samson - the mechanical bull, and the Buden Strasse (Ave. of the Booths) which provides a variety of vendors.

The annual fall celebrations kicks off with American's Hero Weekend

Help Fallen And Injured Heroes With The Hometown Heroes Honor Run

Fueled by volunteerism, the Hometown Heroes Honor Run committee is dedicated to families of injured or fallen officers, ensuring they have the financial support necessary to recover or adjust to their new lives. The Hometown Heroes Honor Run was developed as a tribute to honor Riverside Police Officer Andrew Tachias, a UCR alumni and Division 1 runner, who was shot and wounded in the line of duty.

The Hometown Heroes Honor Run takes place Oct. 1 at Arlington Heights Sports Park in Riverside.

Every penny of the revenue generated from the Hometown Heroes Honor Run is put into the Riverside Police Officers' Association Assistance Fund, which is a 501c3 entity. Monies from this event will be used to meet costs law enforcement families incur associated with fallen and injured heroes. Aside from this the RPOA Assistance Fund provides community support in the Riverside area through educational scholarships, to assist children with their Tools for Schools Program and assist Veterans and elderly in our community.

The Hometown Heroes Honor Run is also excited to participate with two other run events, the Mission Inn Run on November 13 and the Citrus Heritage Run on January 17, 2017, as part of the Run Riverside Challenge. This year you can start the challenge with any race and as long as you run them consecutively you will receive a specially designed finishers medal.

Show your support for all our law enforcement community and register today! For more information, go online to www.hometownheroesrun.com or call (951) 784-1034. IE

“ With a core of unique fashion retailers, stores that sell fashion accessories, and specialty salons and spas, downtown Riverside is becoming Destination STYLE, the fashion district of the Inland Empire. ”

This Year Fashion Meets a Local Cause

The Downtown Riverside Fashion District's fall show will take place on Thursday, October 6 at 6pm in the City Hall Breezeway on Main Street. This year, fashion meets a local cause as the Riverside Downtown Partnership partners with The Pink Ribbon Place, a program of Riverside Community Health Foundation, to kick off National Breast Cancer Awareness Month. There is no cost to attend the event. Following the show will be a candlelight vigil to honor those who have been impacted by breast cancer in our community.

The show will feature unique fashions and accessories available from retailers in downtown Riverside and from The Pink Ribbon Place's Pink Ribbon Thrift Shop. Outfits in the show will range from vintage wear, contemporary looks, unique designer wear and men's formal tuxedos. Signage and a program with the line-up will be provided so that attendees can easily identify outfits and retailers. Hair and makeup will be provided by the Riverside City College School of Cosmetology.

With a core of unique fashion retailers, stores that sell fashion accessories, and specialty salons and spas, downtown Riverside is becoming Destination STYLE, the fashion district of the Inland Empire. So when you're looking for that unique must-have outfit or accessory, downtown Riverside and its fashion district has to be your destination of choice.

Visit www.RiversideDowntown.org for more information on downtown Riverside and a full listing of retailers. Visit www.thepinkribbonplace.org for more information on the services the Pink Ribbon Place provides.

The Southern California Fair Returns

— — → Exhibits, Monster Trucks, Concerts, Street Performers, Livestock, Bull-Riding, Carnival, And More!

The Southern California Fair opens its 103rd annual fair at the Southern California Fairgrounds on Saturday, Oct. 1 running through Sunday, Oct. 9.

The 9-day event will include exhibits, livestock, live entertainment (racing pigs, community entertainers, street performers, hypnotist), bull-riding, motorcycle racing, motocross jumping, Hispanic entertainers, a carnival, and much more. All shows, entertainers, concerts and free acts are always free with admission.

The fair concert series continues with multiple days of quality entertainers.

Shooter Jennings - Oct. 3

Shooter Jennings will perform at the fair at 7:30pm on Monday, October 3.

Shooter Jennings is the only son of country legends Waylon Jennings and Jessi Colter who spent his childhood on the tour bus of both legends. Born Waylon Albright Jennings, Shooter was displaying his musical talents at five years old by taking piano lessons, but broke off his grasp of the piano and discovered the guitar at fourteen years old.

Along with the guitar he found rock and roll, and leaned heavily toward Southern rock similar to the loose limbed rock of Guns N' Roses. Soon thereafter he moved from Nashville to Los Angeles where he assembled a rock band called Stargunn which earned a strong local reputation for its live shows, and enjoyed a six year run on the Los Angeles circuit before he rediscovered his country roots and dissolved the band.

Jennings put together a band with country roots, The 357s. Shooter Jennings and the band produced a rambunctious country album called Put the O Back in Country. Following in his father's footsteps, but with a feisty and scrappy sense of country, Jennings placed himself in a position to explore and carve out his own brand of success in country music.

A second album, Electric Rodeo, appeared in 2006, followed by a live set, Live at Irving Plaza, later in the year. Jennings' third solo, The Wolf, was released in October 2007.

Shooter Jennings renamed his backup band Hierophant for his fourth studio album, Black Ribbons, a concept record which appeared in 2010.

His album, The Other Life, was released on his own Black Country Rock label. The Other Life, Jennings' second live album, recorded during his 2014 tour and featured many songs from the The Other Life.

Jessie James Decker and Temecula Road - Oct. 5

Jessie James Decker and Temecula Road perform On Oct. 5 at the Southern California Fair.

Jessie James Decker began singing at the age of two and hasn't stopped making noise. In 2009, Jessie released her debut album featuring the hit single "Wanted." The same year, Jessie traveled to the Middle East with Kid Rock to perform for troops stationed overseas.

Her "Comin Home" EP hit number one on iTunes upon its release in April 2014 and debuted in the top 5 on Billboard's Top Country Albums chart.

Jessie wrapped 2014 with the release of her holiday single, "Baby! It's Christmas," which hit number one on iTunes' top holiday songs chart. She was also brought on as co-host for the fourth season of CMT's Redneck Island with Steve Austin.

Showing no signs of slowing down, Jessie kicked off 2015 with the release of her new single, "Clint Eastwood." Now, with nearly 3 million fans following her every move on social media, Jessie is ready to bring her music and style to the masses.

"I want girls to feel good about who they are and feel secure and feel confident. I feel like that's my message to people," she said.

Jessie performs with Temecula Road, named after the city they grew up in (Temecula, California). Sisters Maddie Salute, 15, and Emma Salute, 17, have been singing together for years, and recently joined forces with longtime friend Dawson Anderson, 16, to form Temecula Road. Noted for their impeccable harmonies, the trio writes their own original material, backed by Dawson on guitar and Emma on mandolin.

Chosen by The Huffington Post as one of the top country artists to watch in 2016, the trio has opened for Joe Nichols, Eli Young Band, and Jessie James Decker on a nationwide, sold out tour. They also joined Kenny Rogers for a string of dates on his farewell tour.

With a combination of skills far beyond their years and an infectious, youthful energy, expect to see much more from Temecula Road very soon.

LA RAMS AND LA DODGERS GREATS TO MEET & GREET FANS AT FAIR

» Meet and greet with players from the Los Angeles Dodgers on Wednesday Oct. 5, 5-7:30pm, and the Los Angeles Rams on Thursday Oct. 6, 5-7:30pm. Fans will be able to have their photos taken, get autographs of their favorites and interact with the greats from the past.

Los Angeles Ram greats include Vince Ferragamo, Reggie Doss, Ron Brown, and Leroy Irvin who were all instrumental in many of the great years enjoyed by Los Angeles Rams.

Los Angeles Dodger greats Bill Russell, Kenny Landreaux, Tommy Davis and Derell Thomas will meet and greet, sign autograph and provide photo opportunities with fans of the great players of the past Dodger teams.

Building 429 To Appear At Fair On Oct. 7

» Through their songs and their high energy live shows, GRAMMY-nominated Building 429 is a band that has been touted throughout their 15-year career as "authentic and amazing – uplifting and unforgettable," along with being "truly focused on bringing glory to God." Now, Building 429 is sure to continue keeping fans on their feet and singing their hearts out with a brand new collection of songs. Their anticipated new album, aptly titled "Unashamed", is full of artful anthem-like choruses complemented by engaging power-pop melodies, paired with raw honest lyrics, digging into the album's theme deeper than ever before.

CONCERT: SEPTEMBER 17

Original New Wave Band, Martha Davis & The Motels, On Stage at the Lewis Family Playhouse

One of LA's original new wave bands, Martha Davis & The Motels make their Lewis Family Playhouse debut with a performance to rock the night away. Led by the unmistakable and timeless singer/songwriter Martha Davis, the group scored big with hits including Only the Lonely, Suddenly Last Summer, Total Control, Mission of Mercy, Shame, and Danger. With an 80's revival now in full swing, Martha Davis & The Motels are back on the road pleasing their legions of fans.

They perform on September 17, at 8pm. Tickets for Gold Level Seating are priced at $40 for General Admission and $38 for Seniors. All Platinum Level Seating is priced at $45.

Born on January 15, 1951, in Berkeley, CA, Martha Davis earned great acclaim as the frontwoman and guiding artistic force with the Los Angeles band the Motels during the 1980's. Her career had begun several years earlier when she joined the Berkeley act Warfield Foxes in 1971 as a vocalist and guitarist. Relocating to Los Angeles in 1975, the band changed their name to the Motels where over the next decade, and after several reincarnations, the Motels would release five records and notch a pair of Top Ten singles with Only the Lonely and Suddenly Last Summer.

Now, in their most current reincarnation, Martha Davis and the Motels continue to captivate audiences offering a window back in time. It is no

RIVERSIDE ARTS & MUSIC FESTIVAL

COMES TO DOWNTOWN RIVERSIDE ON SEPT. 17

THE REGION'S LARGEST FUNDRAISER IN SUPPORT OF THE ARTS IS COMING TO DOWNTOWN RIVERSIDE.

In an effort to broaden its reach and make the event more accessible to a wider range of the community, the Riverside Arts Council has partnered with the Riverside Downtown Partnership to integrate the former Mayor's Ball and Summer Street Jam into the Riverside Art and Music Festival.

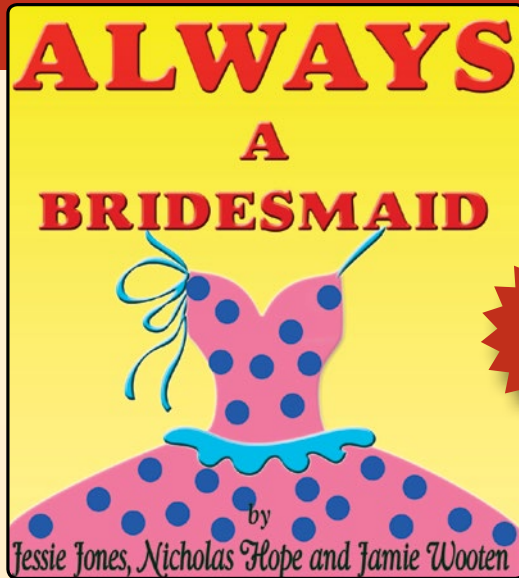

The Riverside Arts and Music Festival takes place Saturday, September 17, from 3pm to 10pm. The festival, celebrating arts and music, will close University from Lemon to Market in downtown Riverside. The stage will be located at University and Lemon with audience viewing from the stage to Orange. Cultural performances will be featured on the stage from 3 to 6pm when the free concert begins with local favorites opening and followed by the headliner, Allison Iraheta + Halo Circus, at 8pm.

Art and cultural exhibits will be on University from Orange to Main and will feature local artists and arts groups offering demonstrations, workshops, and sales. There will be a street performance area located at University and Orange featuring performances from cultural and other groups. There will also be a Chalk Art Festival at University and Main featuring local artists who will also demonstrate chalk art to young aspiring artists.

Four friends have sworn to keep the promise they made on the night of their Senior Prom to be in each other's weddings... no matter what. More than 30 years later, these Southern friends-for-life are still making "the long walk" for each other, dedicated to honoring that vow. A tale of loyal and determined women who definitely answer the question, "Just how far are you willing to go to keep a promise to a friend?"

The extraordinary spider, Charlotte, is determined to save her friend Wilbur, an irresistible young pig, from the butcher. She starts with the "miracle" of her web in which she writes "Some Pig". It's the beginning of a victorious campaign which ends with the now-safe Wilbur doing what is most important to Charlotte. A beautiful play about friendship from the book considered to be the best American children's book of the past 200 years.

was co-founded by former American Idol star Iraheta and multi-platinum producer, producer and bassist Matthew Hager (Duran Duran, Scott Weiland), and joined on drums by accomplished Cantonese and orchestral drummer Veronica Bellino, who previously worked with Jeff Beck and DMC of Run DMC; and on guitar by Brian Stead, an intense, thoughtful guitarist with his own unique voice.

Refreshing, arresting and completely original, Allison Iraheta + Halo Circus have developed a reputation for their impressive live performances. The band released their highly anticipated debut full-length album, Bunny, on June 24, 2016. The album has already received a great deal of critical acclaim, including one LA Music Critic award for Best Pop Female Artist (Allison Iraheta) and four nominations: Best Rock Band; Best Pop Female; Best Single (Desire); and Best Video (Desire).

The Riverside Arts Council is a private, non-profit corporation whose mission is “to provide, develop, support and sustain the arts.” It is a state local partner of the California Arts Council and a leader among regional and state networks of local art agencies. Established in 1977, it is Riverside County’s central source for arts-related services, information, education and outreach. Connecting artists and art organizations within this ever-expanding region, RAC encourages the advancement, participation and integration of visual, literary and performing arts into the fabric of the communities it serves. Programs range from networking and regional arts and cultural infrastructure development to neighborhood revitalization, outreach and collaborative projects that proactively address community changes.

The Riverside Downtown Partnership is a not-for-profit organization that was formed in 1981 to advocate for a better downtown. RDP manages Downtown Riverside’s Business Improvement District. RDP’s vision of Downtown Riverside is the regional destination for businesses and service industries. With employment opportunities and attractive locations for growth, downtown Riverside is recognized for the quality of its cultural life, concentration of arts, educational programs, and urban living opportunities. RDP’s mission is to promote, represent, and manage an environment to support downtown Riverside as a regional destination for economic, arts, cultural and residential uses.

92nd SEASON

Riverside Community Players Presents ALWAYS A BRIDESMAID

Riverside Community Players opens its 92nd season with the sassy, southern comedy Always a Bridesmaid. Written by the prolific team of Jessie Jones, Nicholas Hope, and Jamie Wooten, this play showcases lifelong girlfriends who stick together come hell or high water.

Set in Virginia at the historic Laurelton Oaks wedding venue, the play takes place over a seven-year period. At their Senior Prom, these ladies promised to be in each other’s weddings...no matter what. Fast forward 30 years later and they are still together – ugly dresses and all. Included in the cast is the daughter of one of the ladies and a no-nonsense wedding planner.

Always a Bridesmaid runs September 9, 10, 15, 16, 17, 23, 24, at 8pm and September 11, 18, 24, 25, at 2pm. For tickets and reservations call the box office at (951) 686-4030 or visit the website (www.riversidecommunityplayers.com).

19th Annual Art Walk & Wine Tasting Idyllwild Fundraiser

*Featuring 18
Southern California
Wineries*

On Saturday, October 8th, from 10am to 6pm, visitors to the mile-high artist community of Idyllwild will experience the magic that happens when galleries, artists, and 18 Southern California wineries join forces to raise money for art scholarships and continued funding of art events.

Nestled in a mountain valley surrounded by majestic mountains, Idyllwild is located less than an hour from the desert communities. The Annual Art Walk & Wine Tasting draws over two thousand visitors annually. With deep blue skies and towering pine trees, the town is the perfect setting for a day of art mixed with an afternoon of great wine.

Art lovers are invited to start their great art hunt at 10am by visiting galleries and art hot spots that will be set up around the center of town. The “Art Walk” is free to the public and maps will be available at 54295 North Circle Drive to start them on their journey. As guests stroll the tree lined streets, they will experience the simple beauty of small town mountain living and come to understand why all 1,200 tickets were sold out in 2015!

Wine enthusiasts are invited to enjoy the “Art of Wine” in the afternoon from 2pm-5pm when 18 Southern California wineries from Temecula, Warner Springs, Escondido, Fallbrook, Julian, and Idyllwild share a selection of award winning wines at art locations around town. The fall weather makes walking from location to location a fun experience, but free shuttles will also be available to transport guests between venues.

Included in the ticket price are the wine tastings, a keepsake wine glass, live music, and a selection of cheeses and crackers. Ticket prices are $35 each with a special price of $30 each for groups of 15 or more. Members of the Art Alliance of Idyllwild also receive discounted ticket prices. All ticket prices will increase on September 24th and, if any tickets are available on October 8th, they will be $50 each regardless of quantity.

Event planners encourage early purchase of tickets, as the event sold out last year and the amount of tickets available this year has not been increased. With anticipating another sold out year, wine and art enthusiasts may purchase tickets for the 19th Annual fundraiser online at www.artinidyllwild.org or by calling (951) 692-6135. IER

CSUSB Theatre Arts Department Presents The 2016-2017 Season

Journey through the looking glass, off to war and around the Broadway musical world

CSUSB's Department of Theatre Arts proudly presents the 2016-2017 season, featuring a diverse array of plays, both classic and contemporary, that explore everything from magical worlds of wonder to lands ravaged by war. Be it on stage or off, everyone will find something to love with our wonderfully varied selections of plays and activities.

The season opens with the STUDENT NEW PLAY SHOWCASE featuring "Mujer Fuerte" produced by Carol Damgen, written by Chloe Diaz, and directed by one of our senior students. It's 1944 in Southern California and while Americans on the home front work to support the war effort, Grace, a young Mexican American woman, struggles to find her own voice in spite of racial and cultural obstacles of the times. Mujer Fuerte will perform in the intimate Black Box Theatre Thursday, Oct. 20, 21 and 22 at 8pm, and Sunday, Oct. 23 at 2pm.

ALICIA IN WONDER TIERRA, by Silvia Gonzalez S., is directed by professor Johanna Smith. When Alicia enters a Mexican curio shop with her mother, she accidentally finds herself transported into fantastic realms, filled with amazing creatures and brilliant Mexican imagery. Steeped in Latin American cultural icons, Alicia begins to learn the difference between tradition and stereotype as she attempts to find her way back home to her family. This unique, family-friendly production features actors and puppets performing side-by-side in a space that reveals new wonders as each scene evolves.

Alicia in Wonder Tierra runs from Nov. 11, 12, 17, 18, 19 at 8pm, Nov. 13, 19 and 20 at 2pm, before moving to the Palm Desert Campus for an additional four shows on Dec. 1 and 2 at 9am and 10:30am.

MOTHER COURAGE by German dramatist and poet Bertolt Brecht, opens March 10. Directed by Tom Provenzano, Mother Courage follows the life of camp follower, Anna Fierling and her three children, as they roam a war-torn country in a wagon that acts as both a shop and their home. Anna's efforts to support her family in the face of relentless war highlights the collateral damage of "non-combatants" in a story as old as Herakles and as new as yesterday's front page.

Mother Courage takes to the Barnes Theatre stage March 10, 11, 16, 17, and 18 at 8pm, March 12 and 19 at 2pm.

The always popular, free FAMILY NIGHT AT THE THEATRE returns Friday, April 21 at 6pm. Enjoy an evening of dance, music and

The Riverside Citrus Classic

Proceeds benefit local education

The Riverside Citrus Classic is a fun bike ride that consists of a 100, 50, 28, and 7-mile family events, on Oct. 9. It starts and ends at the Riverside Plaza and includes bike paths, bike trails and scenic highways in and around Riverside. Six rest stops are located along the routes providing much needed nutrition and hydration breaks. Entertainment provided by marching bands, cheerleaders, and student artists are displayed at the stops and the start line and finish line, to show how profits from the ride are put back into classrooms.

All proceeds go to benefit the Riverside Educational Enrichment Foundation (REEF) and the Alvord Educational Foundation to fund programs that assist in increasing graduation rates and encouraging higher education opportunities. The foundations fund teacher grants, putting the ideas of innovative teachers to action in classroom and beyond. All levels of education benefit, pre-school thru high school seniors, students in special education as well as mainstream classrooms.

To register, volunteer or become a party vendor, visit rusdlink.com/citrusclassic. To support the ride through a sponsorship or donation, contact Sandra Ramirez, Ride director, at 951-312-4031. IER

Temecula Health & Community Resource Fair

Held At Town Square On Saturday, September 24

Come for the health of it! Join in the region's largest Health & Community Resource Fair in Southwest Riverside County on Saturday, September 24, from 9am to 12pm. Receive the latest information on health-related resources and services in the Temecula Valley hosted in the Temecula Civic Center and Town Square (41000 Main Street, Temecula). Bring the entire family to enjoy live entertainment, food vendors, health screenings, and prize giveaways.

Are you aware of the many free or low cost resources and services that may be available to you through non-profit organizations within our community? As part of the Health & Community Resource Fair, there will be a myriad of different non-profit organizations from the region exhibiting a wide range of services, from health/wellness to special needs to veteran/military services and more.

- Over 100 agencies will provide information about available resources
- Free health screenings, assessments, and educational information
- Find available resources for children and families with special needs
- Emergency preparedness and safety awareness for all
- Free samples of products to improve overall health and wellness
- Bicycle demonstrations, resources and more
- Great opportunity for networking and sharing resources

Mayor Naggar stated, "I am proud that the City of Temecula is having its 6th Annual Health & Community Resource Fair which has expanded on this year's Family First theme to include health and informational resources, a Family Bike Expo, and several non-profits representing human services, veteran services and our special needs population. These are resources that are critical to our high quality of life, truly making for a Family First Community. I hope everyone in the region will take advantage of the opportunity to attend."

Temecula's Sixth Annual Temecula Health & Community Resource Fair will showcase over 100 vendors providing free health screenings, community resources, emergency preparedness, public City of Temecula safety awareness, non-profit expo, and newly added Family Biking Expo. OIL AND WATER DON'T MIX.

Used motor oil should NEVER be poured onto the ground, into storm drains or tossed into trash cans (even in a sealed container) because it contains toxins which contaminate the soil, groundwater, streams and rivers.

Two easy ways to Safely dispose of used oil and filters:

1. FREE curbside pick up is available to city residents for used oil. Call 1-800-698-4377 to schedule an appointment.
2. Drop off used oil at a Recycling Collection Center. For the nearest location go to calrecycle.ca.gov/UsedOil/Info or call 1-800-CLEANUP

St. Andrew's Newman Center In Riverside Holds Annual Oktoberfest Oct. 14

What better way to kick off October than to start with an Oktoberfest! Time to dust off your stein, grab the alpine horns and yodel your way over to St. Andrew's Newman Center in Riverside for its Annual Oktoberfest Fundraiser on Friday, Oct., 14, from 6pm to 10pm.

"There will be fun for the whole family, with something for everyone," said Caryn Marsella, president of Newman Sponsors, who host the annual event. And that includes great German food and other goodies to enjoy, beer, and wine, a terrific DJ, lots of dancing (yes, even polkas), lots of games, beer-tasting, etc. – the fun goes on.

All this for only $25 for adults, $15 for students, $5 for kids 12 and under.

St. Andrew's Newman Sponsors is an organization devoted to raising funds for Catholic students attending University of California, Riverside, and Riverside Community College. It helps provide financial help for students attending retreats, leadership trainings, scholarships, and other student-centered needs. The funds to provide this assistance are raised at annual events including Oktoberfest, Christmas Party and Wine Tasting in May.

Should you have any questions or would like more information, call Caryn Marsella at (951) 961-3053 or (951) 682-8751.

The Oktoberfest will be held on the Church grounds/courtyard at St. Andrew's Newman Center, 105 W. Big Springs Road, Riverside, 92507. IBR

HOMETOWN HEROES HONOR RUN

Saturday, October 1, 2016

Arlington Heights Sports Park • Riverside, CA.

Fueled by volunteerism, the Hometown Heroes Honor Run committee is dedicated to families of injured or fallen officers, ensuring they have the financial support necessary to recover or adjust to their new lives. The run was developed as a tribute to honor Riverside Police Officer Andrew Tachias, a UCR alumni and Division 1 runner, who was shot and wounded in the line of duty.
